The Storm

Evangelist/Pastor Barbara

You have been basking in the calm before the storm. Now, the storm is upon you, the storm that prevented the Harvest. Those who have submitted to My voice are seeing the fruits of their labors at this given time, and you will see a greater influx of fruit as you stay on the battlefield and war for the nations. As you battle, the angels are being dispersed to battle with you.

Where are we headed with all this, you have asked? We are headed toward the second coming of My Son Jesus. All heads will turn in complete astonishment as they watch My churches rise out of the ashes of regret and become the true houses of worship I have called them to be. You will see the giants in the land fall before your very eyes, and you shall see healings abound on all sides.

The majority of My churches have been sitting in a state of lethargy, but the Remnant ones have been pushing towards the prize, and now they shall see the fruits of their labors. They had been at the backside of the desert for so long that they had begun to think there was no front line, but now they are beginning to see the light at the end of the tunnel. They have faith in the front line and their positions as warriors in the army of heaven. I am forging those ahead, and they are preparing the way for others to follow.

As you turn your hearts toward the heavens, I will open the Heavens, and you will see the abundance of blessings from your obedience in the wilderness.

All those who spat upon you, ridiculed you, said all manner evil about you will now come to sit in your houses of worship and receive the abundance of grace and mercy from the courtrooms of heaven.

My courtrooms have been busy, with much on the dockets. The enemy has been hard at work trying to bring false judgment upon My chosen ones, but the enemy will bow his knee before My Chosen Ones as I give forth declarations of innocence. The enemy is hard-pressed on all sides. His false accusations have wearied Me and I am judging My chosen ones righteously.

Your Mind Is Under Attack - Abby Trivett - March 26, 2024

Share By: Evangelist Pastor Barbara

Is there a global demonic attack against the mental well-being of God's children?

In one of his latest livestreams, Pastor Mike Signorelli shared how a growing issue of mental fog might just be a sign of a spiritual battle being waged against God's people all over the world. "There are many people who have been...suddenly forgetting things; they can't remember things," Signorelli says. "They can't find the words; they've been suddenly confused."

Signorelli says this mental fog isn't by accident, and it isn't just an odd physical occurrence. Instead, it is a spiritual attack manifesting in a biological form.

"Spiritual warfare is affecting people on a mental level, so it's manifesting itself as confusion, it's doubt, fear, panic, anxiety," Signorelli says.

He points out that this increase in mental confusion has skyrocketed in the past three to four years, including panic attacks and heart palpitations.

"How many of you have never had palpitations or like a racing heartbeat but all of a sudden in the last three or four years you've started?" Signorelli asks.

This prophetic insight comes at a time when warnings from the American Heart Association have just surfaced about intermittent fasting as a potential cause of a higher risk of cardiovascular death. We've also seen an increase in young adults, especially those dying from conditions related to the heart. Perhaps there's a connection between the mind and the body that the enemy is after.

Signorelli warns of the chemicals placed in foods here in the U.S. that are not legal in other parts of the world as part of a demonic system that desires to take people down straight to the grave.

"You're seeing healthy, otherwise healthy people suddenly having health issues and struggles. You're seeing the death rate just unexpectedly climb, and we are experiencing warfare. And that's why we have to pray like never before," Signorelli says.

However, there is victory even over mental crisis through the blood of Christ. It is by His Spirit that these demonic strongholds can be torn down. Scripture tells us that God has not given us a spirit of fear but of power, love, and a sound mind.

"The Lord's saying, 'I need you to break through this spiritual warfare to break through the confusion and the mental fog,'" Signorelli says. "That mental fog, you can't solve it with pills, that mental confusion you can't solve it with running and exercise exclusively because it's spiritual in nature."

During this time, it is critical that we seek the Lord to be first over our minds and bodies and act in accordance with His leading. No attack against the mind or the body is greater than the resurrection power of Jesus Christ.

REMINDER: God told me that the food we are eating is killing us. {Evangelist Barbara}

Our Father, in His Mercy, has been leading the Body of Christ to Fast and Pray. By this, the body can heal from the chemicals added to our food.

The Church Message versus The Kingdom Message

Shared by Evangelist/Pastor Barbara

Because the message that will [bring us into the kingdom] is different from the message [to the church], the Lord has repeatedly said, Matthew 13:9: "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

Let's look at the following progression:

The [ministry of the church] is to ["whomsoever."]

The [ministry of the kingdom] is to ["him who overcomes."]

The message of the church leads to ["heaven."]

The message of the kingdom leads to ["the throne."]

The desire of the church is ["Jesus abiding within."]

The desire of the kingdom is ["Jesus taking his place as the head of his body."]

The testimony of the church is [I have Jesus.]

The testimony of the kingdom is [Jesus has me.]

The church operates through [grace.]

The kingdom operates under [government.]

To enter the church, we need [a message of salvation.]

To enter the kingdom, we need [a message of preparation.]

Jesus met much opposition as he sought to move Israel from the Law of Moses to the message of the kingdom.

The law required an [outward] obedience.

The kingdom requires an [inner] heart change.

Matthew 5:3-5 Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

Because the message of the kingdom transcends the message to the church, a special time of preparation is essential.

Therefore, Jesus chose those who had no previous religious training.

This began with two fishermen while they were working at their trade.

They were being called apart to be with Jesus so that this transition could take place. Therefore, Jesus said to them, Mark 1:15-18 (etrv) 15 he said, "the right time is now here. God's kingdom is very near. Change your hearts and lives, and believe the good news!"

16 Jesus was walking by Lake Galilee. He saw Simon and his brother Andrew. These two men were fishermen, and they were throwing a net into the lake to catch fish. 17 Jesus said to them, "Come, follow me, and I will make you a different kind of fisherman. You will bring in people, not fish." 18, so they immediately left their nets and followed Jesus.

Here, the message of the kingdom is being offered to these men through a practical application to their occupation. They had been fishers of fish, but now Jesus is calling them to become fishers of men.

Note carefully that they would continue fishing but with a higher purpose in view.

The same applies to today. If we are to hear and accept the Lord's present word, we must have an [ear] to hear and a [new wineskin] to receive as we move from [grace] to [government.]

The kingdom message, in its function, is intended to lift the earthly aspect of our present vocation into a higher realm and purpose until His kingdom and righteousness fill the earth.

"Whispers From My Heart"

Title: There is power in your "No"

Tianna Muiruri

Let me in.

A prayer that we often pray to God is for Him to let us deeper into His heart, and for some of us, we even go as deep as praying for God to help us take back our own heart when we have let an entity, apart from ourselves, take possession or rule and reign over it.

Whether you whisper it, say it in your head, or scream that prayer (Let me in and deeper into your heart God) through your heart, do not stop until you hear the words " Let me in " no more. Not the words " Let me in " from your prayer, but the words " Let me in " from the devil.

To clarify, when God hears us say the words " Let me in ", the devil hears the words, " Get out " instead. Asking God to let you in and deeper into His heart is an eviction notice to the devil, his lies, his accomplices, and his darkness to get out and to stay out. And when the devil is out, he will try to come back and ragefully demand,

" Let me in ".

Psalms 91:9-11 MSG " Yes, because God is your refuge, the High God your very own home, Evil can't get close to you, harm can't get through the door. "

Psalms 119:106 MSG " I've committed myself and I'll never turn back from living by your righteous order. "

As much as he rages, know this one thing much more: your freedom is his imprisonment, and turning back to open the door of your life to him is as opening the door to your cell. But God's heart is not a cell, it is a refuge and a home, and He will never give you a reason to turn back. So when the devil comes knocking, knock him down with your " No ". Your " No " is more powerful than you think when your heart, mind, and soul agree.

There are times when your mind could be saying no, but your heart could still be saying yes. But it's possible though, it is possible to say no with your chest(heart), with your whole mind, and deep down from the very depths of your soul. Jesus did it in Matthew 4:4-11, and so can you!

Matthew 4:10-11 NIV "Jesus said to him, "Away from me, Satan! For it is written: 'Worship the Lord your God, and serve him only.'" Then the devil left him, and angels came and attended him.

It's time to breathe in God, and breathe the devil out once and for all.

Going Forth

Reverend Brett Connell

After the resurrection of Jesus, there were a lot of instances where Jesus taught and instructed the disciples before giving them the great commission to preach the good news of the gospel all over the Earth. The resurrection wasn't the end, and it wasn't the beginning of the process either. The glorious resurrection of Jesus is the continuation of the greatest love story ever written.

The disciples were told to tarry in Jerusalem during the 40 days after Jesus' resurrection until the Holy Spirit came and fell upon them. In some ways we've experienced a similar thing, and when God's glory fell in the Lighthouse, we received God's power and commission to take the signs, wonders, and miracles to the lost and dying outside the four walls of the church.

But before we can do everything we are called and equipped to do, we must go into God's presence and make sure we don't have any lingering sin nature in our lives. A little leaven will spread through the whole batch. If we carry those pockets of sin, it's going to grow into spiritual death. Not only will we be affected, but so will those that we ministered with. You'll never know just how someone is watching you (looking up to you) – and even waiting for you to fall.

Things are moving a lot faster than we think, and God told us this time was coming. Some of us have to let go of habits, and some of us have to let go of people. What do you have to let go of, in order to receive the fullness of what God wants to give you? What's more than that, what are you willing to give to others out of what God has given you? There's a lot to be said about what Jesus received, and what He gave. What have you received from God, and what are you willing to give?

Keepers of the Stuff– Unwanted Gifts in the Body of Christ... Part 5

Reverend Christopher Gore

Volunteers can make or break ministries. At times the need to complete different ministry tasks forces some Churches to take on volunteers that are not suited to do the jobs. Discerning the heart of volunteers is super hard. Volunteers put on faces all the time and it takes being in the Spirit to discern what someone's true nature is. One of the most difficult jobs of leaders today in the Church is to hear God's voice accurately when it comes to volunteers.

There are so many ulterior motives to sift through when it comes to volunteers that this task of putting people into place can be filled with challenges. Unfortunately, people are people and they will seek to do what's in their own best interest. Despite what they say with their mouth their actions tell a whole different story. When it comes to understanding that there are unwanted gifts in the Body of Christ this is the quickest way to see how the "Gift of Helps and the "Gift of Administrations" is not wanted. This really becomes a manifestation of the nature of the heart of the volunteer. Sometimes the nature is hidden so well behind "fake faces" and "fake love" that the task Lord wants done is not completed properly.

All Churches have a large vision that God has placed in their hands with many differing parts to those visions. Each of these parts takes dedicated committed volunteers to make those parts work. Ultimately the leader knows that it is God sending people in and placing people in their positions. However, the responsibility to fulfill the call of that position rests with the volunteer. If the volunteer is not a true disciple and carrying hidden agendas and ulterior motives they will not fit in the ministry as they are supposed to. They will be open for infiltration from the enemy to bring in strife and discord and in a reverse way caused the ministry to be hindered. God gets the glory in all things and eventually the volunteer has to be removed from the spot that they chose to fill. Volunteer means a person who "freely" offers to take part in an enterprise or undertake a task. "Freely" being the optimal word. Volunteers often forget that they "freely" made the decision to join the ministry. If their motivation is pure they will grow with the challenges that come from serving. If their motivation is impure it will be quickly exposed. Think about this exchange that Paul had with Barnabas.

"36 Then after some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us now go back and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they are doing." 37 Now Barnabas was determined to take with them John called Mark. 38 But Paul insisted that they should not take with them the one who had departed from them in Pamphylia, and had not gone with them to the work. 39 Then the contention became so sharp that they parted from one another. And so Barnabas took Mark and sailed to Cyprus; 40 but Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended by the brethren to the grace of God." Acts 15: 36 – 40 (NKJV).

I Wish I Never Went To This Party, pt. 1

Evangelist Kathryn Gore

Earlier this week I heard something that really disturbed me which led me to share it with my family. This gentleman shared a story that he experienced after graduating from high school, moving from Chicago to LA at 19 years old. He had little money, but he and a friend were both big content creators for the internet. He opened his story with saying, "this story is the reason why I stopped making content for 5 years." He and his friend were posting things online to get any attention they could, "click baiting" people to gain an audience. He played a role that was more in the background while his friend played the role of being more upfront. He thought it was fun at first, posting things online, getting extra attention from strangers until Hollywood learned that Influencers were the next big thing. They began to be preyed upon but did not know it until a string of events took place. They started to get invited to more exclusive parties and events that appeared to be okay but when it was over and done with, this gentleman made a profound statement, "The landscape of the industry started to change, in which it seemed like old Hollywood was grooming new Hollywood." They learned parties were happening on a monthly basis and anyone who was invited, their numbers went up (meaning they got more followers for their content). These monthly meetings were used as a buddy system (you had to have someone vouch for you) in order for you to be invited.

Somehow, he and his friend were invited to a specific party after a talent agent approached them stating he saw something in them and asked for their contact information. They only gave him their number but eventually an invitation by mail was delivered, and they were so excited. The letter had detailed information that made them believe they were about to have all their dreams fulfilled. They could not be a minute late nor could they leave before midnight according to the instructions within the letter. He felt like he got the golden ticket. He was so happy that he shared with other content creators (against the rules of the letter). Most were happy for him but except one. He warned this young man not to go because something happened to one of his friends that really damaged him. This guy who shared the warning was always positive, but he begged this young man not to go.

Well, the young guy that he knew better and decided to move forward with his plans anyhow. He and his friend rented a tuxedo and got prepared to go to the party. However, the young man could not shake off the warning and shared it with his friend right before being picked up from an arranged driver. His friend was 100% all in, and so they went. When arriving, there were many who were waiting outside of this big, beautiful home and they all seemed friendly. When entering inside, they had their phones taken away and was given a mask to wear throughout the night. Something did not feel right as the owner of the house introduced himself and gave instructions on how to respond to the upcoming events that were about to take place throughout the night. The bell on the clock struck at a specific time allowing for the guest to move towards the next room and so it begins...

Court of New Beginnings, Article 3

Reverend Aaron Betz

As explained in previous articles, we are on our way to stating our final case before the Throne of God concerning our purpose upon the earth. We are looking to receive the fullness of God's vindication over our life and destiny. This vindication will officially grant us full and free access into the fullness of God's plan for our life.

Article 2 taught us how to go into the Court of Covenant and receive the disclosure of our unique covenant with God. Now, we are going to contend with our covenant promises within the Court of Promises. Before going forward, make sure you have 2 or more covenant promises that you can contend with. You need to have a clear understanding of the promises themselves. The word tells us to war with these promises (prophecies).

1 Timothy 1:18 Timothy, my child, I entrust you with this command in keeping with the previous prophecies about you, so that by them you may fight the good fight,

Prophecy is defined within the Strong's Concordance as: the gift of communicating and enforcing revealed truth. We look to do just that by enforcing the things that God has revealed to us. In order to fully enforce our prophetic promises, we need to arm them with mandates from the Throne of God. These mandates carry the King's verdict and decree(s). These decrees grant you the authority and access you need for your promises to come to pass.

What stands in the way of us receiving God's mandates and the green-lighting of our promises? Our character and our enemy. God will not give you something that you are not ready for, and the enemy does not want you to have anything that comes from God. So, our work within the Court of Promises is two-fold. We need to understand how/if we are holding ourselves up our promises and we must understand how/if the enemy is holding up our promises. So, step one of our case within the Court of Promises is going to be contending with God.

Isaiah 43:26, BSB Remind Me, let us argue the matter together. State your case, so that you may be vindicated.

Before doing this, it would be helpful to have a fresh session within the Court of Covenant. Both Courts reveal unique attributes of God within them.

As you prepare to enter the Court of Promises, allow the Holy Spirit to brief you as to how your session within the Court of Promises should go. The enemy does not need to be present during this first session. As you are vindicated in your one on one with God, God will vindicate you against the enemy of your promises (more on this next week). Simply flow in the Spirit. Speak with God and wait upon Him so that the clarity and verdict may be awarded to you. Be prepared to receive insight and answers to questions such as: Are you ready to receive this promise? What is God requiring of you in order to trust you with the promise?

What Does the Bible say About the Mouth (Part 2)

By Theresa McGinnis

Last week we ended with James 3:3-8, "When we put a bit into the mouth of a horse to make them obey us, we can turn the whole animal. Or take ships as an example. Although they are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are steered by a very small rudder wherever the pilot wants to go. Likewise, the tongue is a small part of the body, but it makes great boosts.

Consider that a great forest is set on fire by a small spark, The tongue also is a fire, a world of evil among the parts of the body. It corrupts the whole person, sets the whole course of his life on fire, and is itself set on fire by hell. All kinds of animals, birds, reptiles and creatures of the sea are being tamed and have been tamed by man, but no man can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison."

In the last article I talked about putting a bit into a horse's mouth. Now, let's take a look at the ship. James compares the tongue to the rudder of the ship.

A ship is a great structure that can be carried to and fro by the tremendous forces of the wind and the waves, yet that ship has one small decisive piece, the rudder. It is that rudder that determines the whole course of the ship.

When the rudder is used properly, the ship will arrive safely into the harbor. If the rudder is not used properly, the ship is likely to be shipwrecked.

It is the same in our lives. The tongue is the rudder. The tongue controls the course of our lives. Used properly, it can keep us on course, if not our lives will become shipwrecked.

Then James talks about a small spark that can start a forest fire and forest fires cause a lot of damage. One wrong word or conversation can destroy a lot in the spiritual realm also. More than one church has fallen and no longer exist because of damage that is done by the tongue.

The final example that James gave is that of a source of lethal poison. He tells us that the tongue is like a deadly element that can poison us by spreading infection through the whole system of our lives.

Consider these examples again: the bit in the horse's mouth, the rudder in the ship, the spark that starts a forest fire, and a poison that is injected into the life stream. The illustrations are all the same. All are small things; the bit, the rudder and the spark- just like the tongue, and all can cause inestimable damage that cannot be undone.

It is so important that we watch what we say, with the tongue, we can either build up or tear down a person, we can shine the light of the Lord with our mouth, or we can scatter God's sheep and cause them to fall.

What are you doing with your mouth?

WAR

Sis Grace Crescenzo

We are living in a war in these times. In a war there are soldiers that must fight! Even people in surrounding communities fight and support the soldiers on the front lines.

Our present-day war is in a spiritual realm, and we are all in this together.

As soldiers must fight each day and pick up their weapons; guns, ammunition, bombs, etc., we must pick up our spiritual weapons He has supplied, by the power of the Holy Spirit and use them daily; Praying in tongues, scriptures decrees & declarations, praise and worship, etc.

Weapons are used against the enemy many times daily for survival, protection, and victory. The spiritual war that we are in also requires us to use our weapons daily!

Our body is the temple of the Holy Ghost and He will use our mouths to shoot out (prayers, decrees, & declarations of Holy Scripture verses, which are mighty spiritual bullets that hit the mark! And our praise & worship are bombs (nuclear weapon) in the Spiritual realm.

Isaiah 55:11, So will My word be which goes out of My mouth: It will not return to Me void (useless, without result), Without accomplishing what I desire, And without succeeding in the matter for which I sent it.

The angels are around us, waiting to take the scriptures, and do His bidding here on earth.

Hebrew 1:7&14, And concerning the angels He says, "Who makes His angels winds, And His ministering servants flames of fire [to do His bidding]."

Are not all the angels ministering spirits sent out [by God] to serve (accompany, protect) those who will inherit salvation? [Of course they are!]

Our weapons need to be released on the enemy every day. We can't let them lie dormant but release them out of our mouths into the atmosphere. The angels are waiting to take them, and to do His bidding.

We cannot grow weary of doing these things. It's so easy to grow weary, thinking that it is not making a difference... that is a lie of the devil... because the LORD GOD says that His Holy Word/Scriptures are powerful like a two-edged sword (Rehema and Logos) destroying the enemy! We might not see it with our natural eyes, but we can be assured that GOD DOES NOT LIE !

We are in this war daily so we must fight daily with HIS weapons: Praying in the Holy Spirit tongues, and decreeing, declaring, and praying His Scriptures/Word out of our mouths into the atmosphere where His Holy Angels take them and do His bidding!

In war there are strategies that are written and given to win. In the spiritual war that we are in these last days, there are books available that have scriptures already listed under topics, such as, warfare, healing, salvations, deliverance, etc., scriptures for us to proclaim, decree & declare over people, family, church, and nations daily.

Galatians 6:9, Let us not grow weary or become discouraged in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap, if we do not give in.

Solar Eclipse Revelation on April 8, 2024

Reverend Astrid Sherriff

God tells us about the signs of His second coming and the rapture. The Lord has given us many signs, and even people do not believe.

Well, we are in the fourth seal where he talks about plagues and calamities in 2024. On April 8, 2024, the Moon's shadow will completely darken the skies over parts of North America for about five minutes, turning day to night.

A few centuries ago, this event was a source of fear on the part of the population, attributing supernatural powers to it.

In Joel 2:28-32 After this, I will pour out my Spirit on every human being. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, you will have dreams, the old will have dreams, and the young will receive visions. 29 In those days I will pour out my Spirit even on male and female servants. 30 In heaven and on earth I will show wonders: blood, fire, and pillars of smoke. 31 The sun will be turned into darkness, and the moon will be turned into blood when the day of the LORD comes a great and terrible day. 32 And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved, for on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be salvation, as the Lord has said. And among the survivors will be the calls of the Lord.

God is speaking to us here of the things that are to come in the nations and at the same time there will be the last revival in the nations before His second coming. It will go through pestilences, earthquakes, and calamities, but the light in us will help the harvest to be saved.

As April 8, 2024, and with it, the total solar eclipse in Mexican territory, approaches, many fans of astronomical events are carefully studying everything related to these natural phenomena, including prophecies that could be related.

The eclipse is a sign of the apocalypse: Although the Bible mentions the darkening of the sun as a sign of the end times, there is no direct relationship between the April 8 eclipse and the apocalypse. A strong prophetic sign seems to indicate perhaps a judgment from God or a call to repentance. The Bible speaks of signs in the heavens, this means that biblically we have support and reference to understand what will happen after this event.

We can conclude that a striking phenomenon that includes the 7 cities of Nineveh and the 7 cities of Salem converge at the same point like a cross in the center of the United States. These eclipses, which were both the one in 2017 and the one in 2024, occurred in 7 years, within 7 cities Nineveh and Salem that form a cross and add up to 7 minutes in total. In the Old Testament, prophets often describe eclipses or celestial phenomena as illustrations of a higher power in prophesying.

Isaiah 13:10 The stars of heaven and their constellations will not show their light.

EYELID BUMPS

Reverend Naomi Nichols

STYE - looks like a pimple or a blister, usually along the outer rim of your eyelid. It's red and painful to touch.

- * usually stems from an infection in an eyelid oil gland or eyelash follicle.

- * stress and hormonal changes can also cause it.

CHALAZION - grows on the upper eyelid that looks like a stye but may grow up to the size of a pea. It's more likely to come back.

- * happens when a tiny part of your eyelid called a meibomian gland becomes blocked.

- * you can get it from a stye that is no longer infected but has left hardened material stuck in a gland.

XANTHELASMA - soft yellow collections of plaque under your skin, usually near your nose.

- * can be a sign of cholesterol problems

- * common in people who have a liver disorder called primary biliary cirrhosis

- * also common in people who have skin conditions such as erythroderma, dermatosis and contact dermatitis.

- * your doctor should check your cholesterol levels

- * they may give you a medication such as a statin to help shrink them but they won't go away on their own.

- * your doctor can remove them by freezing or cutting them or by using a laser or a chemical.

MILIA - tiny white cyst that are common in children.

- * also called oil seeds and milk spots.

- * occurs when dead cells get trapped under your skin

- * skin damage can also cause secondary or traumatic milia

- * they go away on their own.

- * don't try to pop or remove them. Trying to scrape off milia might cause scarring

- * use exfoliating treatments like salicylic acid to help get rid of dead cells.

- * Secondary milia can be permanent.

WHEN TO SEE YOUR DOCTOR

- * In severe cases, your doctor can drain the bump and give you antibiotics or a steroid injection to help it heal.

- * If the bump is an unusual color or seems to be changing color or shape.

- * If you have a lot of milia or if you're worried about how they look, your doctor can remove them.

- * Talk to your pediatrician if your baby has milia that won't go away within 3 months.

The Blood of Jesus Takes the Witness Stand in the Courts of Heaven – Part 5 Jesus Blood Speaks of the Authority Stripped from the Devil

Nancy Connell

An important thing we need to realize when taking the blood of Jesus to the courtroom is that it has already obtained all the power and authority over the devil. We need to understand that the devil has no authority over us and to find the open doors he uses and get them closed.

With Adam's disobedience the devil gained a certain amount of control over mankind. Sin had created a barrier between God and man giving the devil plenty of room to do his evil deeds, schemes, and plans.

At the time of the temptation of Christ, the devil obviously had a great amount of authority in the world system according to Luke 4:5-7 NKJ

Through His death and resurrection, Jesus defeated the devil and stripped him of his authority (Colossians 2:15, Hebrews 2:14-15).

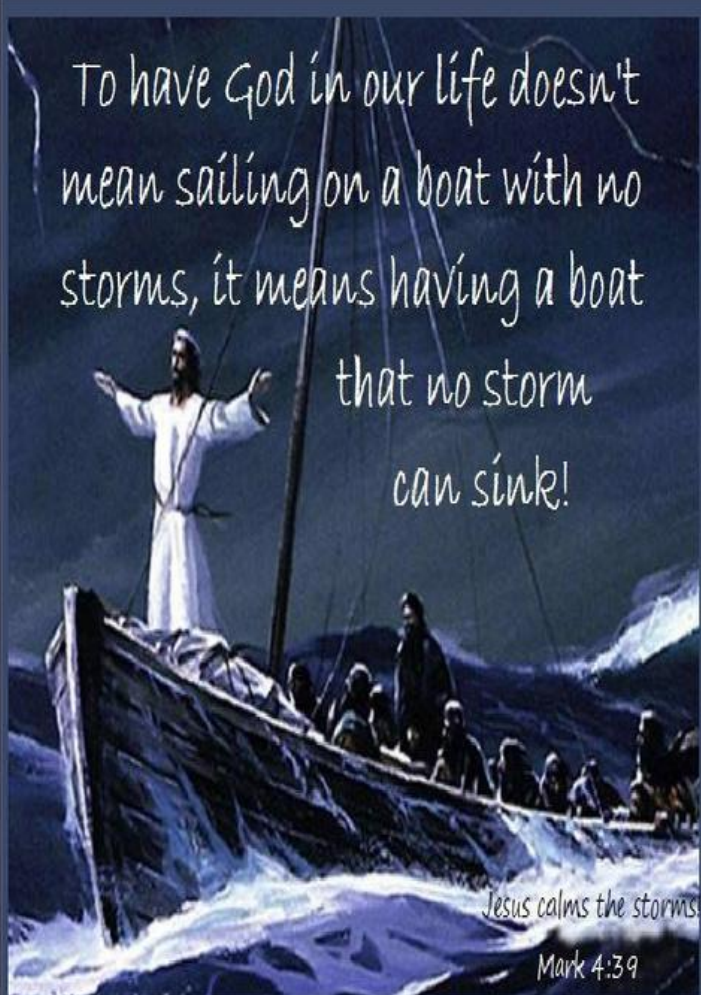

Because Jesus announced that He had all authority after His resurrection (Matthew 28:18), the devil evidently retained no authority.

Even though the devil is still called the god of this world, or age (2 Corinthians 4:4) it does not mean that the devil is the god of the earth, but of those ungodly people who put him in that place. He has this control through the yielding of ungodly people to speak his words and do his deeds, through sin. He also gains the power that people give him such as through their words, actions, and disobedience to God. Even speaking against the plans and will of God, like Peter in Matthew 16:23, can be used if it is not rebuked and cast down.

Therefore, all authority the devil may be using now is illegitimate. Only through sin, deception, disobedience, and ignorance is he able to carry out his evil plans and have open doors to legally carry out things – unless directly offered by God as a test. That doesn't mean he isn't going to do a lot of illegal things and will continue to do so until he is challenged. But also remember all things must go through God first before satan can do anything and you can find that in the dialogues God and satan has in Job.

Unfortunately since the Church – the believers of Jesus Christ are not exercising their God-given authority against the devil it is giving him the ability to operate virtually unhindered. Unsaved people are already under his dominion, and find it hard to resist him (John 8:44, 1 John 5:19). So if the believers of Jesus Christ are not using the authority to come against him then what about the lost souls?

As members of the body of Christ, we have been delegated the use of His authority on earth to see that God's will is carried out (Matthew 16:19, Luke 10:19, Philippians 2:10). We must exercise that authority. We first need to exercise this authority in our own lives by taking the blood of Jesus Christ to the courtroom and allow it to speak of the authority and power of the enemy and speaking against these illegal operations and remove all the things that enemy is doing in our lives that he does not have any LEGAL right to do. That way anything left you are able to handle and deal with as God leads.

To have God in our life doesn't mean sailing on a boat with no storms, it means having a boat that no storm
can sink!

Jesus calms the storms
