The Registers of Whicham.

1569—1812.

WHICHAM.

Volume I. consists of a small volume of 100 leaves of parchment, the largest of which is 8 inches by 6, and recently bound : they have originally been made separately and contain all existing documents from 1569 to 1745.

From the beginning of the year 1604, 17 pages, it is in one good clear handwriting and copied from other documents of those dates. Later the entries are made as they occurred, but neither entered nor bound in sequence : for example the entries of the years 1678 and 1679 are put in anywhere where a vacant space occurred, with a heading "A marriage in the year 1679," "A baptism, etc."

The whole yearly entries are put together in this volume.

The gaps are numerous and will show in the records.

Volume II. is in very good condition and contains 20 leaves of parchment with the Register from 1745 to 1808 : there are also three paper sheets, one at the commencement with two Baptismal entries of 1806, which are included in the Register and two sheets at the end containing the Terrier of 1798.

Volume III. is a well-bound parchment book in which the majority of sheets have been cut out as not used.

There are entries on five pages only to 1812 of Baptisms and Burials, with two pages of letters, in copy, of 1886 concerning Whicham Grammar School, and two notes on the back given in the appendix.

Entries with ordinary brackets are made by the Transcriber and thus [.....] from the Bishop's Transcript at Lancaster.

A True Terrier of all the Tithes and other Rights belonging (p. 43) to the Rector of Whicham Church in the Deanery of Copeland, County of Cumberland and Diocese of Chester, delivered in by the Minister and Churchwardens of Whicham at the Primary Visitation holden at Ulverstone by the Right Revd. Beilby, Lord Bishop of Chester, ye 4th day of July in the year of our Lord Christ 1778.

First, the Parsonage House, now made into 2 Dwelling Houses containing in all 7 Bays of Timber:—one Hay and Corn Barn, 9 Bays; Another Out House called Cow House, 3 Bays; Another Building called the Stable, 2 Bays; one other called the Peathouse, 2 Bays; and most of the aforesaid Buildings formerly straw covered, but now covered with old slate, but are all well built and in good and Tenantable Repair, and in much better Repair than when our present Rector came to it, as he has been at a very great expense with ye Houses and Fences, and received no Dilapidations from ye late Incumbent.

Of the Glebe Lands—one garden and orchard joining to the House about 40 yards in Length and 20 in Breadth. The Glebe Lands consists of many Inclosures both of Meadow, Arable, and Pasture Ground, Lays from the Mansion House and are Bounded as follows, viz. North East, and East bounded upon the Demesne Lands of Whicham Hall—East and South East, upon some ground belonging to John Kirkbank called Hordays—South, upon some ground called Kellbank Fields—South West and West, upon a certain Tenement called Compston Ground or Compstons to which estate the Rectors of Whicham in their respective successions stand as Lords: and the Owner of the said estate pays to the Rector yearly the sum of 6s. 8d. one half a finable Rent, the other a Modus in lue of Tithe Corn for the said estate—Norwest and North, upon the Common, a part of the Great Mountain called Black Coume. The aforesaid Glebe Lands will measure about 70 acres, mostly Earth Fences, except a long track of Stone Fence which the present Rector made against the Common and upon that part of it called the Parsonag Breast he the Rector has the whole pasturage for upwards of 200 sheep. No Exchange of the aforesaid Lands hath been made at any time that we know of.

No Estates or Lands in our Parish are pretended to be exempt from paying Tithes; but all acknowledged to be Tythable. As to the Customs for After-Math, Agistment (obventions paid) we know not what is the Custom, having never known any paid.

Mortuaryes are paid according as the Statute in that case requires.

There is a small Perscription paid to the Rector, for a Water Corn Mill, called the High Mill, formerly belonging to the Right Hon. the Earl of Derby, but now in the Hands of Mr. John Muncaster, the sum is 3s. 4d. which is paid at Michaelmas.

And about a third part of the Parish called above Beck pays a Modus for all their Corn; no Estate less than Sixpence, nor none above Three shillings, the whole amounting to the sum of One pound Thirteen shillings and Sevenpence payable at Micaelmas

Corn, save in the Division above mentioned is paid a Tenth part when it is made fit for the House, giving proper Notice for it to be Tythed by the Minister.

A small Modus is paid for Hay throughout the whole parish, save only the Denesne of Whicham Hall, for which we can not find that any Modus hath ever been paid.

Tithe Wool is paid in specie throughout the whole Parish, the Tenth part either by weight or count.

Lambs are paid also in specie, for every Lamb under 5 only one half penny, for 5 half a lamb, for 6, a Lamb abating 2d. to the owner. Bees paid in specie for every swarm under 5, one penny, for 5 Half a swarm, and for 6 a swarm, paying 4d. to the owner. Geese, one paid to the Rector out of every Flock in the Parish. Henns are paid, one from every Housekeeper.

For every Foal bred in the Parish the owner pays 2d. to the Minister— No Milk or Calf paid in specie, but for every 5th Calf 1s. 8d. and for the 6th Calf 3s. 4d. abating for every Calf short of Ten 2½d., and receiving for every Calf under 5—2½d., and for every Hand Milk'd Cow a ½ only—

Oblations paid at Easter each Communicant 1½.—

There are two Estates in Millom called Poolhouse which pay each four shillings for Tithe corn to the Rector of Whicham due at Michaelmas.

There are two other Estates in Millom called Lacra, and Swinside which pay each four good Fleeces of Wool to the Rector of Whicham in lue of Tithe for Sheep going upon Whicham Fell.

There is another part of Millom called Kirksanton, Loscals, Bankside, Woodses, &c., that pay a Monthly Tithe of Wool for Sheep going upon Whicham Common. For every Marriage by Licence 5s. by Publication 2s. and for every Funeral only 1s. but in the Chancel 3s. 4d. No Compositions for any Tithe in our Parish save for the Demesin of Whicham Hall, which has been for three successions, but altered at the change of the Minister as Parties could agree—and now ye owner of the Estate (which is Sir James Lowther) will pay no more than what has heretofore been agreed of by other Clergymen, which is four Pounds and Peats sufficient for one family in lue of all Tythes, one half the first of August, and the other half the 29th day of September yearly and every year.

Piggs are paid in specie as the Bees above.

The Cup we have is mark'd thus "The Gift of William Brockbank the elder late Citizen and Grocer of London to ye Parish Church of Whicham 1629."

Vol. III. on the back.

Mem: That in the year 1821, in consequence of an Order made by the Bishop at his Extraordinary Visitation of the Diocese, in the summer of that year, the Singing-pew was removed from the North-east corner of the Church to the North-west corner ; and that, with my Permission first obtained, Two Neat Pews were erected in the said N.E. corner, entirely at their own expence, and for their own accommodation, and that of their families, respectively, by Mr. Isaac Kirkbank of Cumpstones Hall, and Mr. Thomas Brocklebank, of Sylecroft, both of whom, until then, had been destitute of such accommodation in Whicham Church.

Allison Steble, Rector,

1 June 1822.

Mem: In the year 1858 the two Pews above referred to, situated in the Chancel, were out of order, and leave was given by the undersigned, the Rector, to Mr. W. B. Walker of Sylecroft, whose family occupied the former, and to Mr. John Kirkbank of Cumpstones, whose tenants, with others, were accommodated in the latter; to repair at their own proper charge and expence the said Pews, and this without prejudice to the rights of the present or succeeding Rectors. Dated this 7th day of December in the year of our Lord 1858.

George Wilkinson, Rector.

W. B. Walker.
