INHERENT RIGHTS AND POWERS OF UKC

*(Revised December 18, 2009)

United Kennel Club holds and has reserved to itself certain inherent rights and powers in connection with conducting its business, registering litters, transferring registrations of dogs, licensing events, and awarding titles. These inherent rights and powers include but are not limited to the following:

United Kennel Club has the right to inspect all reports, scorecards and documents related to UKC events. Some, but not all, of the items subject to inspection are:

- a) scores;
- b) disqualifications of dogs for fighting or other reasons;
- c) errors by the recording person; and
- d) documentation excluded for any reason.

UKC reserves the right to correct any mistakes found during such inspection whether or not the document has the signature of a Judge or Club Officer.

UKC reserves the right to itself and in its sole judgement and discretion, to take such actions and impose such sanctions as would:

- a) Bar an individual from entering or participating in any way in any UKC licensed event.
- b) Bar an individual from transferring or registering any pups or dogs in that person's name (joint or full registration) or to any member of that person's family.
- c) Bar an individual from receiving Championship points for any dog registered in that person's name (joint or full registration).

By way of illustration, the following constitute some, but not all, of the situations calling for the above sanctions:

- a) Falsification or alteration of a UKC Registration Certificate, Pedigree, UKC Easy Entry™ Card or any other UKC document.
- b) Falsification or alteration of any reports of wins issued to UKC.
- c) Falsification or alteration of receipts issued by UKC Judges.
- d) Switching, wrongfully using or attempting to use a UKC Registration Certificate, Pedigree, UKC Easy Entry™ Card or any other UKC document.
- e) Selling or attempting to sell a dog with false or incorrect UKC Registration Certificate or Pedigree.
- f) Intimidating, threatening, or injuring a Judge, Club/Association member or official, event participant or spectator, or UKC representative.

The six illustrations given above are only by way of example and UKC reserves to itself its inherent right and power to impose such sanctions in any other circumstances deemed appropriate by UKC.

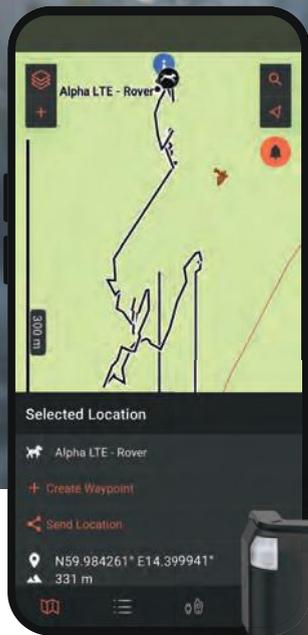

Any individual who is found guilty by a court of law of a crime involving dogs will be barred from United Kennel Club for an indefinite period. A person shall be considered guilty in a criminal proceeding if they are convicted by a judge, jury, or if they enter a plea bargain or other arrangement to plea to a lesser offense, or if their case is disposed of by any form of deferred adjudication; a person shall be considered guilty in a civil proceeding if they are held responsible or liable by a judge, jury, or if a compromised settlement is reached between the parties.

How quickly I forgot all the baby steps a puppy takes in their journey to become a hunting retriever. Each day along the way is a new adventure and part of the learning process. In the south, March and April are loaded with hunt tests, which bring new sounds, smells, and challenges for a 5-month-old puppy. Those opportunities are priceless and very hard to recreate anywhere else. Learning not all dogs are as friendly as your big brother and don't like to be licked in the face is quickly accepted! Having to sit for hours listening to duck calls, whistles, and the splashing of water from your dog box can create some anxiety, but getting all the extra love and attention from the gallery during breaks makes the weekend a huge success for any pup.

Coma has reminded me why I love our game so much and that bringing the bird back to hand is not a God-given trait she was given and must be taught. 12

We have several rule-change proposals that are currently being voted on. The results of those votes will be presented at our national meeting.

Our By-Law amendment committee has worked hard and has some amendments to present for approval from the board of directors. The committee will also present the formation of the Complaint Response Committee. The CRC, if approved, will investigate all formal complaints in HRC. If you haven't attended one of our national meetings, I highly recommend you consider it.

Plans for our Youth Handler Program are quickly coming together. Exciting details for the launch of that program should be coming soon!

Your HRC EC has an open-door policy and strives to be totally transparent. If you have any questions or concerns, we will do our best to quickly address them.

I Love HRC, the People, & the Dogs...
God bless you all.

Pat Johnson, Vice-President

Hope this finds everyone doing well. By the time this makes the magazine, hunt test season will be in full swing for most areas, and everyone is back knocking the rust off both our four-legged companions, getting back together as a team, and fixing a few things we didn't like during hunting season.

I have been part of HRC for 32 years now and have watched the organization grow into over 150 clubs across North America. That is a testament to what Mr. Omar Driscoll started back in the 1980's. I don't think he and the first few members of HRC ever thought we would have grown to what we are now, and I look forward to us still growing in the future. That's what a group of enthusiastic retriever owners can do to make something world-class and build it to where everyone from new handlers just getting started to women and young handlers can enjoy and have the opportunity to run dogs in our events.

We have built HRC into something great for everyone to enjoy. We have multiple youth handler seminars across HRC every year and a few lady handler seminars. I and the rest of the executive committee would like to start seeing that number grow even more for the ladies. When I became involved in 1993, there were very few women handling dogs in the weekend events. If you look now, there are women and young ladies handling dogs at every level on the weekend events and at the Grand, our premier event. They are doing a fantastic job at it and hanging right in there with us men and swallow your ego boys doing better than us at times. If clubs are thinking of holding seminars for the youth, please remember to try and have one for the ladies, maybe get with clubs in your region or the neighboring region and do a combined one. I think you will be surprised by the number of ladies that will attend. I think this is an important part of our future growth of HRC if the ladies are involved and make it a true family affair.

Just a reminder, please remember sportsmanship as you run tests this year. We are supposed to be running our dogs for fun, making better retrievers and improvement of our breeds. Please just remember this as we dive into another hunt test season. Everyone be safe, and hopefully, I will see a few of you on the line at a hunt test somewhere this spring. Safe travels and straight lines.

Sarah Krause, Secretary

It has been a great Spring so far, filled with hunt tests, judging, and all the wonderful fellowship with our HRC family and friends. Even though my little yellow girl is thirteen and retired from running hunt tests now, it's still fun to go and support the HRC clubs and help out wherever it is needed.

Charter Fee notices went out back in February. Did you receive them? Have you had recent elections within your club? Please head over to our website at hrc.dog and click on Clubs and then Club Admin. There, you will find where you can update the new officer information. We will need this updated information for our Annual Board of Directors meeting.

We are so close to our Annual Board of Directors Meeting that will be held in St. Louis, MO. June 13 and 14. I personally love the meeting because it's where I get to see everyone from HRC. All the different regions. All those wonderful HRC friends that are all over the United States and Canada. The ones that I don't normally get to see at a weekend hunt test. It's like a huge family reunion and one that I personally look forward to every year!!

Kristine Odden, Treasurer

Happy Spring from NE Oklahoma! Spring has definitely showed up early, with trees blossoming and warmer temps in the forecast. But unfortunately, spring storms have already made an early appearance with severe weather and tornado warnings – typical for Oklahoma springtime but not enjoyable by any means...

As of this writing, spring hunt tests are coming into full swing, with already one club in my own region holding their first hunt test for the year. And the number of expense reports being processed is also a testament to how busy our Field Reps are getting. Their time and dedication are truly noteworthy! But I also can't leave out our Running Rules Reps, PR Reps, Grand Committee, Sponsor Committee – each committee dedicates lots of time throughout the year, much of it "behind the scenes" but nonetheless valuable for this organization. From my heart, I thank each one of you and appreciate all the hard work people dedicate to HRC!

As for my own little corner of the world, I have been busy with tax deadlines coming up, but looking forward to getting outside, doing some traveling to visit clubs and judge, and hopefully meet more new friends!

God Bless!

MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

The Hunting Retriever Club is composed of individuals and clubs interested in the improvement of the retrieving breeds, in the training and testing of Hunting Retrievers, in the awarding of Championships to those dogs that pass the testing program, and in the fellowship, cooperation and learning that can take place when people and dogs, rather than competing with each other, are working together to reach mutual goals of excellence.

The hunts have been designed to closely duplicate actual hunting conditions and situations. The training aspect of the program and the four levels of competition allow dogs and handlers at all levels of experience to learn, improve and work toward Championships.

Your membership includes a year's subscription (6 issues) to HUNTING RETRIEVER, a membership card and a copy of the UKC/HRC Rules and Guidelines for Hunting Retriever Tests. In Memory of

GRHRCH(3) Playtime's Play It Again MH ("Stella")

Yellow Labrador Retriever Female

A Tribute to Stella: A Dog Who Left Paw Prints on Many Hearts

Over the weekend, we lost one of the most extraordinary dogs to ever grace the world, Stella—GRHRCH(3) Playtime's Play It Again MH. While she was a renowned dog, excelling in hunt tests and showcasing an unmatched work ethic, her contributions went far beyond the field. Stella's story is one of love, service, and unyielding loyalty, touching the lives of many, both human and canine alike.

Stella's legacy is one that lives on and off the field. Her skills and drive were unmatched, earning her the prestigious title of Grand Hunting Retriever Champion x3 and Master Hunter. For the Whitaker family, Stella wasn't just a partner in the field—she was family, a cherished companion whose presence brought joy and comfort to every day.

But what truly set Stella apart wasn't just her working ability. She was much more than an athlete; she was a healer, a friend, and a source of strength to those around her. As a certified therapy dog, Stella worked alongside Emily Privitt, a speech therapist, to help non-verbal children find their voices. Through countless sessions, Stella brought comfort to children and their families, offering a calming presence that helped foster breakthroughs in communication. There were moments when Stella's gentle spirit seemed to transcend words, speaking to the hearts of those she helped.

Stella's impact extended far beyond her direct therapy work. She was a symbol of love and resilience, and those who met her felt an immediate bond with her. It wasn't just her work as a therapy dog that made her special, but the way she showed up for everyone—always gentle, always loving, and always present. For the Whitaker family, Stella was more than just a dog; she was a member of the family. She celebrated holidays, comforted during times of need, and was always there with her wagging tail and eyes full of understanding.

Even in her passing, Stella continues to be an inspiration. Her legacy lives on through her offspring, who carry forward her spirit and work ethic. For those who knew Stella, it's clear that she left her mark not just in the field but in the hearts of everyone she met. As the Whitaker family continues their journey, they will always see pieces of Stella in her descendants, a lasting reminder of the dog who touched so many lives in such a profound way.

To remember Stella's remarkable journey, a series of photos taken just hours before the accident that took her life have been turned into a memorial—moments frozen in time that reflect the vitality, joy, and strength she embodied. These images are a tribute to her life and the love she shared, both with her family and the countless others whose lives were forever changed by her.

Stella's story is one of incredible accomplishments, both in the field and beyond. She was a champion, not just in name but in every way that matters. As we remember her, let us not just reflect on her titles and awards but on the lives she touched and the lessons she taught. Stella was more than just a dog—she was a healer, a companion, and a friend. She will be remembered with love, gratitude, and respect for all the lives she made better just by being herself.

Stella's passing may have left a hole in the hearts of all who knew her, but her legacy will continue to shine brightly. The lessons she taught—of love, service, and the power of a kind and gentle spirit—will live on forever.

In Memory of

HRCH UH Bear's River Bottom Milo SH ("Milo")

Yellow Labrador Retriever Male | 500 Point Club

November 13, 2008 - December 23, 2024

Owned by Jeremy Browning

Milo had just turned 16 in November. My son, Reilly, and I met a lot of lifelong friends with him in the hunt test world, running tests with him in 6 states. He was the first dog we trained, and boy, was he a challenge. He was the first titled dog in a 5-generation pedigree. He never was a good marker, but he had a really good nose, and he ran really straight, which pulled him out many times. He was definitely not the most intelligent animal at a test, but he had street smarts. At one time, he had passed 17 finished tests in a row without handling on a mark... and then broke at the next test. You just never knew what he might do. He never really understood the upland game, but eventually, we got through that title. He was extremely slow and ran great blinds. He hunted everywhere and was a great duckblind dog. He always wanted to go, primarily for breakfast. Ducks were secondary. He never sired a litter as he had a bad hip. We will miss him.

HALL OF FAME SHOWCASE

GRHRCH(7) UH WIDE OPEN YELLOW CADILLAC HOF

Requirements for earning a Hall of Fame certificate were set forth by HRC. A dog is required to have passed four Grand Hunts and have accumulated 1,000 Championship Points. Fewer than 100 dogs in the history of HRC have accomplished this. UKC has reached out to HOF dog owners to showcase these incredible athletes. Read about them in this series.

“I was blessed with a really fine animal who I got to share 14.5 wonderful years with. Every day that we spent together, whether training, running an event, hunting or just hanging out was a great day.”

Amateur Handler, Dickie Edmund from Little Rock, Arizona

GRHRCH(7) UH WIDE OPEN YELLOW CADILLAC HOF, CADDY, LABRADOR RETRIEVER, FEMALE

Q: Are you a professional or amateur handler?

A: I am an amateur handler who attributes any success I've had to a strong HRC club in PIN OAK HRC, an awesome training group that works together to benefit and support each other, and access to some great training grounds.

Q: How long have you been involved with HRC? What drew you to HRC, and/or how did you get involved?

A: I grew up in southeastern North Carolina where my duck hunting was pretty much limited to wood ducks. My career in agriculture moved me to Arkansas in 1989 where I was introduced to real duck hunting and labrador retrievers. I had my first lab within a couple of years and like many, used the famous “Water Dog” by Richard Wolters to train him to hunt. Fast forward several years, a PIN OAK member named Ray Akridge saw me training one day, introduced himself and invited me to attend a club meeting. I eventually did, joining the club in 2003. A few months later I ran my first hunt test with my third labrador retriever, Cooper, who eventually became my first HRCH. After passing that first Started test with Cooper, I was hooked.

Q: Who are the sire and dam? Are there any other HOF/notable dogs of relation?

A: Caddy's sire is FC AFC Close-Hauled To Windward and the dam is My-emma's Yellow Daisy MH. On the sire side are some great dogs in FC AFC Fordland's Bored Out Ford and 2xNAFC 2xCNAFC FC CFC Ebonstar Lean Mac. The dam side had FC AFC Hunting Hills Coriander and FC AFC Blackwater Rudy as notable dogs. All in all, I felt like Caddy had a very nice pedigree.

Q: What is the dog's personality like? Tell us a bit about them!

A: Caddy was a sweetheart and a true companion in every sense of the word. She was a 60 pound lap dog at night who I had to share my chair with while watching television. When outside, she needed something in her mouth to carry around whether it was one of her play bumpers or her pink ball which she loved playing catch with. She also loved her belly rubs. Every time she reached a holding blind, the first thing she would do was roll over on her back exposing her belly and kick her legs until I gave her a good belly rub. That belly rub had to happen prior to heading toward the line.

Q: What are the dog's strengths? Does he/she have any weaknesses that you've had to work through?

A: Caddy's main strength was her ability to overcome my weakness as a trainer/handler. She was very consistent and rarely had a bad day. She had a tremendous work ethic going just as hard in any drill I asked her to do as she did when picking up marks or hunting. She had a natural ability to run straight lines, was an excellent marker with a great memory and a total team player. She was very intense when working, a strong water dog that had no fear.

Q: At what age did he/she acquire their first title, and at what age was he/she when entered the HOF?

A: She earned her HR at 16 months followed by her HRCH 6 months later. She was my first Grand dog earning that title prior to turning 5 years of age which was before the Hall of Fame was established. We took some time off to have a litter of pups which was about the time HRC introduced the Hall of Fame. That became our new goal with her earning HOF honors when she passed the WISILL HRC Fall Grand in 2019 just prior to turning 10 years old. That pass gave us her 5th Grand pass, 1000 points and HOF all in one event ...what a day!

Q: How has she developed over the years? What's something you see now that you didn't see when she was younger?

A: In general, I feel that retrievers are so much smarter than we give them credit for. Reflecting back on Caddy's career, she had a total of 1300 points never failing a regular HRC or AKC hunt test until she was 11 years old and I can say it was honestly more my fault than hers when she failed that test. We failed a few Grands along the way, but again, I will take the blame for most of those as well. Her patience and understanding of the hunt test game was what progressed over time. It was remarkable how she seemed to be able to pick out the scenario, especially where the blind should be, lining up on her own after picking up the last mark.

Q: Did you train him/her? If not, who with?

A: The short answer to this question is that I trained her. However, the longer, truer answer is that it was a group effort involving the retriever community. This includes the benefits of a strong HRC club like Pin Oak. I am also part of an awesome, amateur training group that gets together almost every Saturday morning that we aren't running an event or hunting. This group includes some dog savvy folks like Larry McMurry, Chris deBin, Jim Templeton, and Eddie Benetz to name a few of them and there are several others. We challenge each other, we critique each other, offer advice and support one another with the end goal to make us all better. I also have several Pro trainers who are great friends and have always been there to answer questions or offer advice when needed. Thanks to them as well.

Q: How would you explain your relationship with him/her?

A: Labradors are just a special breed and Caddy was no different. She was simply a family member who brought us great joy and demonstrated unconditional love 24/7/365. Her tail was always wagging and those big brown eyes always asking was it time to go to work.

Q: Tell us your favorite hunting story or a special non-hunt test moment with your Hall of Fame dog.

A: Caddy had just turned 6 years old and had her Grand when I took a nephew from South Carolina hunting in an Arkansas rice field. After a group volley, we had a couple of mallards in the decoys along with a wounded mallard drake that sailed several hundred yards from the pit across the field before falling. Caddy picked up the ducks in the decoys then I lined her up for the blind. Several levees and three whistles/casts later she picked up the bird with a really nice blind retrieve. My nephew couldn't believe it and to this day, he brings it up every time we get a chance to visit and talk about old times.

Q: Points aside, what, to you, makes him/her a Hall of Fame dog?

A: Her desire to please, her consistency, the intensity at which she went about her work and her willingness to be a team player are key traits that led her to the HOF. She maintained a high level of performance until the end of her career being the 2nd oldest female to pass the 2020 Kentucky Fall Grand and the oldest female to pass the 2021 Southern Flight Spring Grand at 11.5 years old.

Q: What does having this HOF accomplishment mean to you?

A: Earning HOF honors was really more about Caddy. It was the opportunity for her to be recognized as an elite retriever who had had an outstanding career. I was blessed with a really fine animal who I got to share 14.5 wonderful years with. Every day that we spent together, whether training, running an event, hunting or just hanging out was a great day. The HOF title was just icing on the cake for me but was something she truly deserved.

Q: Reaching the Hall of Fame is no easy feat. What words of encouragement do you have for those striving to reach HOF?

A: The first thing needed to reach the HOF is a patient spouse. I thank mine for the understanding and support she has given me while traveling around the country chasing titles with our dogs. I also thank her for loving and caring for them when my job prevented me from doing so. Next is to realize it is a process and something that will not happen overnight. It is commitment that requires self-motivation, a lot of hard work, and a talented retriever. As a trainer/handler you must always strive to get better. Your goal needs to be for both you and your retriever to get 1% better every time you train. There is a tremendous amount of information out there provided by some great trainers that can help you get better as a trainer/handler. I thank them for sharing it. Be a student of the game. Study hard and implement what you learn. Learn to read your dog and gear your next training session toward what looked weak the time before. Do this while also trying to maintain a balance and keep your pup happy.

Q: Do you have any final advice for those just getting into the world of HRC? What advice do you have for someone starting out?

A: First of all, get involved in your club and participate in as many club activities as you can. I think it is very important to find a training group to share the ride with. Jump in and earn your stripes by being a worker in the group. Watch, listen, and seek advice from group members who have more experience than you. Do not get in a hurry but have a goal in front of you that you are working toward to help keep you motivated. Once that goal is achieved, set the next one.

Is there a better way to spend a frigid January day than to bundle up for a pheasant hunt and hike after a couple fine flushing dogs? Let them bust the roosters out of the heavy CRP grass, be steady to wing and shot, and then retrieve the ones that get shot. Then, home to warm up with a nice pheasant casserole with bacon-wrapped breasts in cream of chicken soup on a bed of chipped beef. Mmmmm! Doggies! It don't get any better than that.

UPLAND TRAINING FOR RETRIEVERS

Part 1: Introduction and Quartering

Rich Carpenter | 22039 County Rd 9, Weldona, CO 80653 | rich@theriverbottom.com

Introduction

Whether it is to use our retrievers to hunt pheasants or other upland birds or to pursue the UKC/HRC Upland titles of UH or the newer UHCH, many of us want to train our retrievers for upland hunting as flushing dogs. In earlier HRC days, when entries tended to be smaller, we needed to do it for regular HRC licensed hunt tests, as an upland series could be part of Seasoned and Finished HRC retriever hunting tests. I know there are members who have pointers and pointing retrievers, but I plead ignorance about pointer training and will leave suggestions for their training to others.

What each person wants from a dog varies. Most HRC members don't need or want a retriever that works like a field trial Springer Spaniel, but neither do they want a dog that is always underfoot without a clue about upland hunting or one so out of control it flushes the birds out of shotgun range. This doesn't cover every aspect of upland training, but hopefully enough to cover the essentials. Be advised there are many ways to teach upland work, and this method reflects the biases formed from trying to take the best of what I've learned from spaniel and retriever training and combine it to get a really good dual-purpose hunting retriever for upland and waterfowl hunting as well as hunt test work. You may choose to do it differently, and that is fine. This is offered as one way that has worked well for several hunters and their retrievers that I'm familiar with. Just as many basic retriever training techniques were developed and refined by retriever field trial trainers, so we owe English Springer Spaniel field trial folks a debt for the upland training techniques developed for the dogs that are really pheasant flushing specialists. But just as certain goals and approaches in hunting retriever training differ from retriever field trials, in upland training, we want to take a little different approach and set some goals different from those of the flushing dog field trial trainers. So, what are we upland hunters after in a good flushing retriever? One description of an ideal upland hunting retriever might be:

*A dog that will use its nose, adequately quarter within range of the hunter(s), intelligently work out the cover likely to hold birds, and flush the birds.

*A dog that, when a patch of cover is missed, can be directed into that cover.

*A dog that will sit at the flush of a bird or the sound of a nearby shot and wait for further directions.

*A dog that will remain sitting when the bird is shot, mark, and retrieve on command from out in the field.

*A dog that can be stopped momentarily or called off a running bird.

*A dog that will work a defined area in brace with another dog and not be distracted by, nor distract, the other dog.

*A dog that doesn't run so hard in a classic flat pattern that you need two or three dogs for a day's upland hunting.

Some of the most helpful information on upland flushing training I found was in books aimed fully or partially at the Spaniels, such as Spaniels for Sport by Talbot Radcliffe, Hunting Dog Know How by Dave Duffy, and Gun-dog Training: Spaniels and Retrievers by Ken Roebuck. After I settled on an approach, James Spencer came out with HUP! Training Flushing Spaniels the American Way. A very good book with quite a bit of similarity.

The focus here is on the practical use of the hunting retriever for upland work, not the absolute flat patterning, hard-driving, spring-into-the-air flush that can earn style points for winning on the Springer field trial circuit. Please be clear I am not bad-mouthing Springer field trials.

Licensed upland hunters gather to hear test description and watch this brace of Golden Retrievers run as test dogs. Running is great fun, and spectating gives a good view of some fine dog work. And unfortunately, the occasional run when the hoped-for ribbon suddenly disappears. We can't pass them all, but it's fun to try.

Probably not many of us will get to hunt ptarmigan in Alaska. But we can dream. This hunter might be dreaming of when she and her husband can afford a house with a yard and can get a Lab puppy to hunt with.

Those trials are great entertainment, and I'd encourage you to attend one to see some excellent flushing dog work. We in HRC can learn from them in realism for our Upland HRC hunting tests and in improving gunning at them. I spent three years training and hunting pheasants and quail with Springer field trialers before HRC arrived here. My 85-pound Lab thought he was just a big Springer born without spots.

For those of you with pups, the question will come up as to when to start the upland training (and even if it is a good idea at all). There are several options, all with trade-offs. If you get started too early, you may run into some problems and conflicts with steadying efforts on the retriever training end. There is a school of thought which holds that you will corrupt a dog's blind retrieving straight lines by training for quartering. That does not have to happen if you have the young dog running solid blind retrieves first. Most dogs get cranked up and addicted to upland hunting in short order, no matter the age they are introduced, so delaying until then won't hurt. But you will have to decide for yourself. A lot of quartering and flushing work with live birds really gets most young dogs ginned up and can lead to breaking problems if not handled properly. The more dogs you have trained or helped train, the better idea you will have about how your dog can deal with both kinds of training at once. Other than the concern some have as to causing the dog to quarter on the way to a blind, the most likely problem is to add to the steadying headache if you get ahead of yourself (or follow the common practice of letting your dog break, chase and retrieve shot birds). But if you persist, you can handle even that; my Springer trial friends intentionally planned that to build a hard-driving, spring-into-the-air flush. They then come back later to steady the dog. But the average person training the hunting retriever is probably ahead to avoid teaching what must later be untaught.

Regardless of when (or even if) the upland training is to start, it is always good to get the pup some good exploring experiences out in the wild. Take the pup on walks in various covers, winds, and weather conditions. You may want to teach a quiet whistle cue to match the verbal "Close" command to stay in shotgun range. It seems a whistle is less apt to spook wild pheasants out hunting than voice. Encourage the pup to get out ahead and have a good time. Many spaniel handlers train their dogs to change directions with a quick "tweet-tweet" of the whistle. You can start doing this as you get the pup's attention and change direction as you zigzag across the field. Encourage the pup to stay sort of in range, but mostly, just let the pup have his head and develop some hunt. We can close in on the details as we progress. Some retriever folks think that doing only this and getting the dog into some wild birds while hunting is all that is needed; the discipline and training from the non-slip retriever work will take care of range and stopping the dog. No doubt, many good hunting retrievers have developed this way. But let's aim for a bit more.

Teaching Quartering

OK, let's get started. While admitting that there are several approaches, here is one. Assume we wait to start until the pup is retrieving well to hand with dummies and pigeons or that we are starting the upland training for an adult dog. Let's hope we have cultivated some boldness in the dog as a pup, with lots of time spent in fun exploration afield. We need a couple of helpers and some dead (or wing-clipped pigeons). Dead pigeons are suggested to start, as too much work on wing-clipped pigeons by some young and/or bold dogs can get some bad habits started in rough handling of the birds. Toss the dead pigeon a short way, a time or two, and have the dog retrieve it. This will remind it about what is expected after finding a bird. This stage of upland training can proceed even if you have not yet steadied the young dog for retrieving. If the dog has not had an introduction to birds, put this training on hold until that is taken care of. Remember, don't try to do too much with a pup at one time.

Set up to walk into the wind. Now, have your dog sit facing you and get a helper out 10 to 15 yards on either side of you with a dead pigeon. (These helpers will later become the guns on either side of you and will help the dog gauge side-to-side range.) Give your dog your release command; "Find a bird," "Hunt 'em out," tweets on whistle, or whatever, while swinging one arm out in an underhand fashion toward the helper on that same side. At the same time, that helper is to call the dog's name in an excited fashion and shake the pigeon. The dog probably will go over there; if not, the handler goes along and encourages the dog. When the dog reaches the first helper, the pigeon is tucked away, and the opposite helper begins to call and shake a pigeon. As time goes on, less and less encouragement is needed from the helpers. Once the dog gets the idea, while it is headed to helper #2, helper #1 tosses his pigeon out on the ground shortly ahead of it (and slightly toward center of course) while the dog is not looking. Usually, the dog will come over far enough to scent or see the pigeon and will go to pick it up. The handler then calls the dog in with the retrieve, praises the dog, gives the bird back to the helper, and the drill continues.

Quartering drill: After dog gets the idea, as the right gun (helper) gets the dog's attention to go all the way over without shaking a dead bird, the left gun tosses that dead bird out (so the dog doesn't see it) where the dog will find it on the return cast. Dog retrieves bird when it finds it. Rewarded for covering the desired ground.

As the dog quarters, give a “tweet, tweet” just as the dog is turning. Get this as a conditioned response and minimize later corrections. Each dog is different, and it will take different amounts of this drill to get the dog to the point of quartering without enticement. To spur interest, as well as to help the dog learn to work out scent on a traveling bird, use some flopper pigeons (enough wing feathers clipped or primaries pulled that the bird cannot fly). The harder driving the dog is, the fewer live birds should be used. The less interested dog may be helped by more live birds, even a flopper, to entice quartering.

If the dog is cutting the pattern short on either side, get a bird on the ground, and with the same underhanded arm sweep, encourage the dog with “all the way” or some other command. Don’t use “over,” and avoid the horizontal “over” arm cast. If you’ve started your dog on handling, the first “over” or horizontal arm cast may send it into the next county rather than urge it over 10 or so yards. Most dogs pick up the difference quite easily, but it is easiest to avoid confusion. This “all the way” command and hand signal will be handy later. Dogs tend to short a bare spot, and until they get some experience, may not cross it to get into a patch of cover that may very well hold a bird. Related to quartering is just directing the dog into a small patch of heavy cover (like a wild plum thicket in Nebraska) and working it out. A good way to do that is to command “get in there” or “hunt it out” and use an underhanded arm swing forward to order the dog in. If the dog hesitates, show it by example-- you get in there! It really helps if it sometimes finds a bird in there. Toss the bird in from a distance so it is not following your track into the patch.

Work on the quartering drill until the dog is quartering well within the range you want: That is generally approximately 20 yards to either side and 10 to 20 in front. Set this to suit yourself. The faster your reflexes and the faster you can rustle your stumps to get in shooting range when the dog starts to show a bird, the further away you can set quartering range limits. Some dogs need to be held back, and others need encouragement to get out from underfoot. If you are going to do much of your hunting alone or with one other person, do some quartering drill without one or both helpers. Otherwise, the dog may only quarter with the wing guns on each side. Later on, after live birds are flushed, continue starting out with a dead bird tossed out, in close, on either side, as well as one pitched in ahead of the handler once in a while (pitched out of sight of the dog) just to help keep the dog believing the action is close to the handler. On a birdy, hard-driving dog that wants to get down the course to the birds, this may have a much more corrective effect than applying the e-collar or appropriate tennis shoe training correction. And if you start this way, maybe you’ll avoid a fault that needs correcting. One of the guys running Springer trials back then trained and ran his NFC NAFC dog, and he did that in every training session until the dog retired.

A way to encourage the dog to think that the bird is not way out ahead but that the action may be close to the handler. Dead birds are planted up close where the dog will find them right away, even on the initial cast off to hunt. If dog punches out too far, it can be brought in closer to find these birds.

What we are teaching here is basically the flat pattern of the trial dog; however, you probably will keep the range a bit narrower. You will find that many dogs will run really hard here and at a pace they cannot keep up all day. Don’t worry about it. Just get the dog out the first season and hunt hard. Most dogs will begin to find a reasonable hunting pace. Some Springer Spaniel field trialers didn’t hunt their dogs for just this reason. Hunting experience with a variety of birds, as well as a variety of terrain and cover, will help the dog develop hunting savvy. It’s a joy to watch an expert upland flushing dog do its work. But! We’re not quite ready to take the pup hunting yet. 🐾

THERE IS NO OFF SEASON

By Lynne Frady

I have the pleasure of training both people and dogs. I grew up playing softball, weightlifting, racing cars, riding and working horses, training dogs, and keeping up with my older brother and Dad. As I grew older, my focus changed a little, and I added archery competitions, bow hunting, bench rest rifle shooting, and waterfowl and upland hunting to the ever-growing list of things I loved to do. I have trained dogs the longest of all the things on my list, and the dedication that it takes proves “there is no off-season.”

How many of us have a highly active lifestyle when the weather is warm and sunny? We run, we work in the yard or garden, we go to the lake or beach, swim, and play. Life is good. When old man winter rears his ugly head, however, we duck for cover and hibernate unless we hunt with our retrievers. Have you ever set your clock for 4 am for a hunting trip? When the alarm rang, did you think about turning over and going back to sleep? The bed is nice and warm, and the wind is howling outside at a 20-degree temperature. I am guessing every hunter has had this thought and acted upon the impulse a few times.

Retrievers are like people in so many ways: they love to eat, they love to play, and at times, they can be a perfect couch potato. I will admit that Sky has no trouble snuggling up to watch a good movie, if I share the popcorn with her. Yet, our everyday lives are far from couch sitting and movie watching.

As hunters, if your hunting season has been long and eventful, the last day out in your blind is very bittersweet. On the one hand, you hate the thought of hunting season being over, but on the other hand, your sore, sleep-deprived body is looking forward to some downtime.

Here is the challenge: how much downtime do we take, and how many months off do we give our dog? For me personally, I train in some capacity every day. I am a group exercise instructor and a personal trainer, and I have always enjoyed being at the gym. As for Sky and the other dogs that I have personally owned, they also train in some capacity every day.

For my retrievers and my client dogs, a training regime is necessary to keep them in great health. They also need to play and time to just run around and be a dog on a daily basis. I do not run Sky on 100-yard keyhole blinds every day, and this winter has been challenging because it has been so cold and windy here. I find training in these conditions extremely unpleasant. Sky, on the other hand, does not understand how her perfect weather is my most dreaded. Nonetheless, I find at least 30 minutes a day to train her. This keeps her mentally sharp; it helps keep her in good physical shape, and I do not have to try to work winter weight off her in the spring. Sky is 9 years old, and it is my responsibility to protect her joints and her soft tissue.

I also know there are plenty of handlers that do not hunt; they only run the HRC Hunt Test. There is nothing wrong with that at all; retrievers love to do what they were bred to do, RETRIEVE! Yet again, they need to work and train all year and not start training a month before the first hunt test of the season. Would you run a 5K if you had not trained for it? I do not think so. I have personal training clients that train for a year just for one 5K. How many hunt tests do you participate in a year?

During the cold winter months, I make sure Sky has ample time to warm up her muscles before I train her. She gets about 5 to 10 minutes to run around and stretch before we start training. I then start with short single retrieves and then slowly increase the distance and add doubles and triples. If I work blinds first, I start them within thirty yards and make them tricky by putting them in thick cover, which slows her down a little. Then, I slowly increase the distance. My main concern is to keep her muscles loose and warm to prevent injury.

Most folks do not do a lot of water work in the winter unless they hunt. Seems that a wet dog shaking freezing water all over their trainer can be less than enjoyable, for the trainer, lol. Thank goodness for Gore-Tex! A dog that has not been conditioned to working in cold temperatures can suffer injury and hypothermia, so be mindful. Neoprene vests are a terrific addition to your dog's equipment arsenal. It helps hold body heat even when it is wet.

Another thing to be mindful of is where you are training. I have a few farmers that will allow me to use their property to train on. Be careful in agriculture fields, especially corn fields. There will be stubble left from where they cut the corn, and when it's tuff and frozen, it becomes as sharp as a knife blade and can do major damage to a dog's legs and belly. Running a vest in these conditions is also a good idea.

Your dogs are athletes and should be treated as such. Train hard, but be aware to keep them safe as injury-free as possible. Big running retrievers are prone to injury just like human athletes; it's not if they will suffer an injury but when. Sometimes, a few extra minutes of warm-up and paying special attention to your training ground will prove invaluable in the health and well-being of your dog.

Just like all athletes' proper nutrition is necessary, I feed Purina Pro Plan Sport 30/20 and feed this formula year-round. There have been studies and discussions on how much protein a dog needs at certain ages and at certain physical levels. I am sure you have your own opinions on this topic, so I will share mine. If you have an older dog with a very sedentary lifestyle that only gets a leash walk or two a day, then yes, this high protein level is probably too much. Suppose your dog is like Sky, who has a highly active lifestyle, training, running, playing, and keeping up with us working outside. Protein provides amino acids to build and repair the soft tissue in the body. It is the same for humans and dogs. Not only does it build muscle and heal tissue, but it also aids in a healthy immune system. It has been found that in humans, the older we get, the more protein we need, and I feel the same works for dogs.

I work with several adults over the age of fifty at the gym who are vegetarians. Their protein comes from beans, nuts, tofu, and dairy products, and a few eat eggs. They struggle with stamina and muscle gain. The adults that I work with over the age of fifty who get their protein from lean meat, chicken, fish, eggs, and dairy can run rings around the others energy-wise and develop muscle mass much quicker and can maintain it. You be your own judge for your dog's lifestyle.

Now get off the couch and do your best to keep your dog and yourself in top physical form year-round. Remember, there is NO OFF SEASON! Now drop and give me twenty!

Until next time, keep your nose in the wind!

BUILD YOUR

Dream Dog

By Jay Hill

Sage, Jay Hill, wife Karen, and Maggie, at last spring's Roadrunner Hunt Test in New Mexico.

For every handler headed to the Grand, for every handler chasing 500 HRC points, for every handler trying to complete his Finished Title, there are dozens of handlers out there that just want a solid hunting dog who is a good citizen with manners around the house.

HRC offers lots of help to amateur handlers. Visit a Hunt Test, and you will see fabulous dogs doing multiple retrieves of over hundreds of yards on both land and water. Handlers with dogs doing amazing things. Things that a beginning trainer could never imagine possible. Scary

Most amateur dog trainers are completely different from the professionals they see working their wonder dogs. Amateurs have one, maybe two, dogs that sleep inside the house, sometimes on their owner's bed. Professional dog trainers have a kennel full of their dogs and client dogs. Pros work with each dog for minutes each day while the amateur lives with his dog.

The first thing that an amateur trainer needs to determine is what they want from their dog and how best to develop their dog to meet those goals. At a club training day, I witnessed a slight woman get knocked down and dragged by her big, male black Labrador while it was on a leash. I quickly helped her to her feet and got the dog under control. "He's still a puppy," she stated. "He's only three." The thought went through my mind, is she building the dog she wants?

Similarly, I have a friend whose big dog leaps up and barks in your face every time you enter their home. When I questioned the dog's behavior, my friend confessed that if the dog bit one more neighbor, they were going to have to get rid of it. I know they love their dog, but is that the dog they want?

While the professional trainer's focus is on developing a well-mannered dog that is great in the field, the amateur has a life companion, and, truth be told, the amateur retriever spends far more time on walks in the city, hikes in the country, fishing trips, road trips, and doing a broad range of other activities than they will in a duck blind. I find that I spend dozens of days each summer hiking or fly fishing with my dog and, if I'm lucky, ten days hunting each fall. Where I go, my dog goes. She is my companion.

The amateur retriever spends hours each week with their owner, while the professionally trained dog gets a fraction of that with a trainer. It's simple math. If a professional trainer works eight hours each day training dogs and if he has 12 dogs, that means he has 40 minutes to devote to each dog each day. But wait, there is set-up, reloading wingers, airing dogs, feeding and watering dogs, etc. If each of those dogs gets 20 minutes of individual attention daily, I would be surprised.

These are two totally different situations, two totally different dogs. Let me give you an example. My latest dog, Sage, came to me at fourteen months of age and had been started on basic retrieving. Having just retired, I wanted a dog that could go with me full-time from the very first day. When I got Sage, she was everything I was promised, basically a Started Level Hunt Test dog. She joined us in April, and we immediately went fly fishing together and fished almost daily that summer. She had her basic obedience and was a great dog. That fall, we jumped into hunting with trips to South Dakota, Nebraska, Wyoming, and here in Colorado.

What Sage didn't have is any house manners. She had lived her entire life, before joining me, in a kennel and was never indoors. She was afraid of stairs. She was not housebroken. She did not know her place indoors. She was very nervous in her new indoor environment. Crate training gave her a place of her own; she quickly grew very comfortable in her crate with the door open. It's still her favorite place in the house.

I soon joined the nearest HRC Club and started attending their training days. Working with the group, I learned a lot from watching others handle their dogs. When I had issues, I could ask questions. Inevitably, someone in the group had faced a similar problem and could give me a quick fix. I formally trained my dog twice a day, every day. But in addition, she was with me all day. Every situation was a training opportunity. Her skills advanced rapidly.

The next spring, we began running hunt tests, and she quickly earned her Junior Hunter, Senior Hunter, and Seasoned Titles, along with lots of ribbons along the way.

Another advantage amateurs have is vocabulary. Professional trainers use a very short list of words when training dogs. Sit means sit and stay, here, place, kennel, back, over, etc. All short, easy-to-understand words/commands. Pro trainers have to keep it short because they are working with a number of dogs. They use the same language with each dog.

When you're an amateur, you are living with your dog. You use lots of words. I now have two Labradors, and I speak to them in sentences. Since we are together for so many hours, I think of them as friends and talk to them as such. They understand me. Some experts say that the smarter breeds of dogs, such as Labradors and Golden Retrievers, can understand about the same number of words as a two-year-old child, between 200 and 350 words.

So, I converse with my dogs in sentences. “Would you like a treat?” “Go get on your rug.” “Do you want to go out?” “Let’s go to school.” and so on. Don’t get me wrong, I don’t use different sentences trying to confuse the dog. I use the same sentences over and over. The difference is that I don’t just give commands. We talk. We even have words for when I miss a bird or lose a big fish.

I think every outdoorsman likes to share his lunch with his canine companion. At the same time, we don’t want to develop a dog that pesters us for food or constantly begs. So, I ask, “Would you like a treat?” and then share the last corner of my sandwich. I then hold up both empty hands, palms out, saying, “It’s all gone; go lay down.” With that, they head for the shade of a nearby bush. The same commands work in the house when sharing the last bite of steak at the dinner table. Once it is all gone, I show them palms up, and they go lie down. No begging. I know, bad habit, but hey, she’s my buddy.

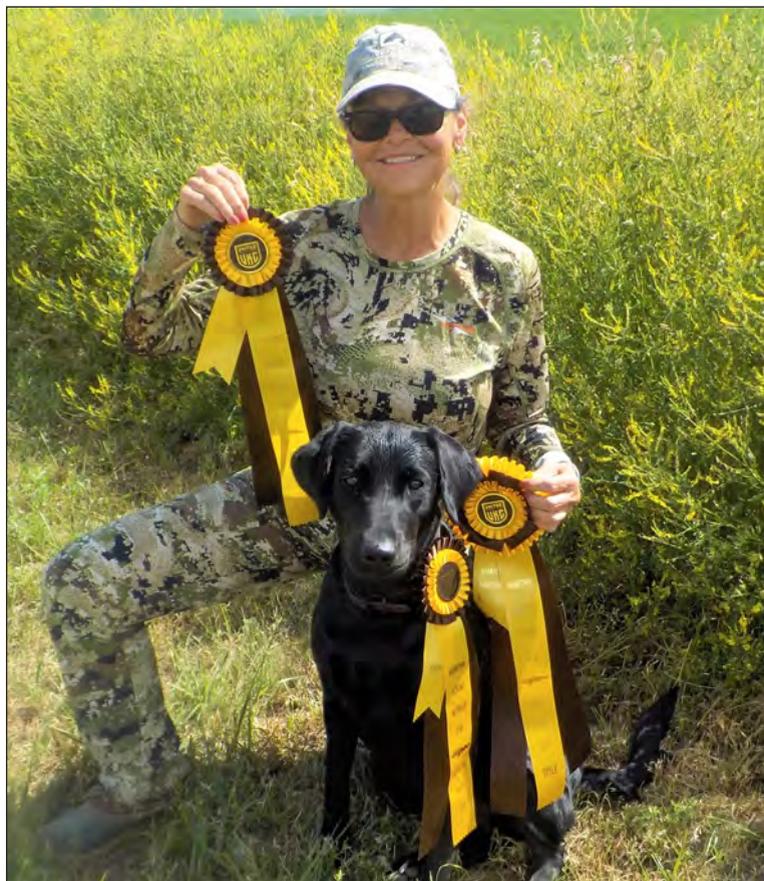

Retrievers can even understand nuances in commands with similar meanings, similar commands. When I air my dogs, I use the command “Hie On.” I’ve had a couple of professional trainers recommend this command. Nothing looks sillier to me than a grown man chasing his dog, shouting, “Go potty, go potty.” Dogs don’t know what the potty is; you can use any words you want and retain some dignity.

I live on four unfenced acres; my house has a small patch of bluegrass in front. That leaves about 176,000 square feet where my dogs can do their business in wild grass and sagebrush, and I don’t have to clean up after them. Thus, the command, “Down the Hill.” Both dogs quickly learned that they are to go downhill, off the lawn, to take care of business. My father did the same thing with his dogs in the city. He constructed a fenced, gravel kennel along the back of the yard. His dogs were taught to “Go to the Kennel” to air and would go all the way out, even on the snowiest Colorado nights.

My dogs also know not to run off or to run down to the county road. I initially taught this by going out with them every time they aired. I still go out with them occasionally. They quickly learned where they can go and where they are not allowed. No invisible fence, just some consistent fieldwork. That’s an advantage of living in the country.

At times, I want my dogs to go number two before I load them in the truck. Thus, the command “Finish Up.” Since I spend nearly all day with my dogs, I know their schedule. By teaching “Finish Up,” when I know they have to go, I establish a pattern connecting the words with the action. This allows me to take care of business before I take my dogs to public places such as city parks.

One final bathroom command. As mentioned earlier, I spend a lot of time fly fishing with my dogs. One of our area's most popular tailwater sections requires you to pick up after your dogs. Not wanting to carry a little green bag of dog poop with me while I fish, I expanded the command "Down the Hill" to "Up the Hill" and "Finish Up." My dogs will run forty to fifty yards uphill into the national forest above the river and finish up. This is no different than casting a dog to the left or the right. So, if I've done the math right. I use ten different words when airing my dog.

Another hunting-based situation that carries over into everyday life is honoring. Once you train your dog to honor another dog while it is working in the field, you can apply that training to situations in the city and during outdoor activities. Say you are walking your dog either in the city or while hiking outdoors. You come upon a friend with their dog, "Wild Thing," who is full of energy, pulls on the leash, and is generally out of control. Your dog, trained to honor, is put on sit at your side and completely ignores the bundle of energy your friend is trying to control while you talk. Once again, you have a dog you can be proud of; you have built the dog of your dreams.

Quartering is another desirable trait in a hunting dog. To teach quartering, you need a dog that looks back to check on where you are and what direction you are going. I start training quartering when the dog is young. I take the young dog out in tall sagebrush or cover. At some point, the dog will get out of sight; when it does, I hide. Once the little bundle of energy realizes you are out of sight, it will charge back hard, searching for you. The second step of this drill is to change directions when you hide. Soon the puppy is regularly checking back for you. A side benefit of this drill is that you and your dog always know where the other is, reducing the chance of losing your dog.

I continue this drill into adulthood. If my older dog gets out of sight when we are hiking, I will step behind a tree or hide behind a bush. This reinforces the idea that the dog has to always check in on where I am and where I am going. Quartering easily follows this drill. Simply change directions to 90 degrees while the dog is out of sight. When they check back and see you going in a different direction, they will soon learn that you are not going in a straight line. This is a great drill to start in a park or on a golf course in the evening after work.

So how do we get there? How do we amateurs build our ideal dog? The first step is to decide what you want from your dog. Identify where you will be spending most of your time together. Then, step by step, work on training to build the dog you want. If you invest fifteen minutes morning and evening in training your dog, you are giving them as much or more daily individual attention as they would get with a professional trainer.

Use every situation as a training opportunity. On walks, in the house, and while going about your daily activities, look for opportunities to create a learning moment. I carry a whistle on my fishing lanyard. When asked recently by a client I was guiding what the whistle was for, I told them that I use it to train my dog as we hike into backcountry streams. Whistle training sit, over, come; all become part of our daily routine.

Second, gather with similar-minded handlers. There are HRC Hunt Clubs all over the country filled with handlers who love to share information with new dog owners. When the lady with the big, black Lab mentioned above was knocked down at our club training day, two of us quickly helped her up, looked at her equipment, and suggested a different collar/lead. I took the lead off my dog, put it on her dog, and showed her how her dog would not pull against that kind of pressure. Another handler recommended a different collar. There is lots of assistance out there; just go looking for it.

Finally, talk to professional trainers; they have a ton of knowledge. Many hold seminars and classroom sessions to teach their tricks. Then you can personalize their information, applying it to your dog, to your individual situation.

You probably don't need four different commands to air your dog. But you will have individual specific needs to build into your ideal dog. Most amateur trainers don't need a Finished/Grand Champion dog to be happy. You do need to build a dog that is a good companion. One that you can take anywhere, city or country. A dog that is welcome in any hunting field or blind.

That is the dog you are proud to call your own, your dream dog.

ATTENTION, ALL HRC CLUBS!

If you would like to have your club report included in the Region Reports section of HUNTING RETRIEVER, please follow these guidelines.

- First and foremost, be aware of the magazine deadlines. Each Public Relations Representative must observe the magazine deadlines, so make every effort to get your material to them well ahead of each deadline. They will need time to compile all the club reports into one document, so don't wait until the last minute to send or e-mail your information to them.

The deadline is the 15th of January, March, May, July, September and November (or the next business day thereafter if the deadline falls on a weekend or holiday). That is the final date the material must be into the magazine, therefore, ideally, all club reports should be received by the Representative no later than the 10th.

- Any club reports sent directly to HUNTING RETRIEVER magazine, bypassing the PR Rep, will be returned to the sender.
- If your club is not going to submit a report, be sure to let the Representative know so they are not waiting on it.

- Very Important! If you are emailing photos, please send each one as a separate attachment, and please supply photo captions for each photo. Please don't embed the photos in your text document as this changes the values of the photos, making them unusable.
- Please don't alter the photos in any way - including changing the file size or the resolution, and cropping. Please remember that all digital photos will reproduce at the same resolution at which they were taken. A photo taken at a low resolution photo will remain "low res" even if it is "bumped up."
- Please furnish clear descriptions and/or captions for all photos.
- *If the photos were taken by a professional photographer, written permission to publish must have been obtained, and a photo credit must be included.
- Region Report Content Guidelines: The following can be included in the Region Reports: Hunt test descriptions; hunt test photos (group pass photos, for example); items that will be of interest to all national members; photos that relate to the report.
- Please proof all of your material before sending it to the Public Relations Representative.

Ottawa Valley HRC - submitted by Rod Stoddart

With Spring just around the corner, we have started planning for our regular hunt test. We are having our annual AGM this week coming and look forward to some fun and exciting things for the hunt test coming up this summer. We had such a great time last year that we just can't wait for this year. We are excited to see what this year has in store for our dogs and what adventures we can go on. We look forward to seeing you all soon.

Lake Ontario HRC - submitted by Mikayla Wilson

With spring in the air and the snow finally starting to melt, we are over the moon to start getting back to training. Our hunt test will be coming up soon and we have started planning for that. We have some lovely ladies in the kitchen this year and are so excited to see what they cook up for our big banquet dinner on Saturday night. We look forward to seeing you all at the next training day.

Georgian Bay HRC - submitted by Ben Leger

As we wind down for the winter months, we gear up for some fun and exciting summer months ahead. We look forward to getting everyone out and about for some training and prep work for our annual hunt test. This year, we decided to move the date for our hunt test to July. We hope to see you there!!

Essex HRC - submitted by Curtis McFadden

Spring is here and the snow is gone, along with some of the ice off the water. We are clear on our way to some water work with the dogs soon. We are thrilled to have spring and summer on their way. We have started to prep for our one-day test in May and look forward to our regular two-day test in July. We can't wait to see you all there.

Luther Marsh HRC - submitted by Erica Wilson

Snow has just left the fields and we have had an exciting start to spring here in Ontario. We started the spring time off right here at our house with a new puppy. Her name is Nightmare (named by our 8 year old son) and she has fit in with the gang like she was always suppose to be here. She is a beautiful yellow lab and she is getting ready for some fun times with ducks and pheasants. Another piece of exciting news is that Tyler received his 1,000 point jacket for 'HRCH UHCH Stella Wilson'. So proud of you Tyler and Stella.

In February we hosted a Region 1 Judges/Handler seminar. It was a great success with over 25 people attending. We had both judges and handlers attend to learn all about what it takes to run an HRC test in started, seasoned, finished and upland. Thank you to Rusty for a great seminar.

I told you we had a fun and filled start to the year, and to end it off with what we have done already, we attended the Toronto Sportsman Show – as a prime spotlight. We were able to attend and showcase our dogs in the most amazing ways. I am sure we will see some of these kids out there in the future. We completed demos of what it takes to get a dog to be a bird dog, starting with basic obedience and transitioning all the way to poison birds and triple retrieves. We have also brought back the Golden Whistle where we have people complete with their dogs to run a small trial in the evenings at the sportsman show. We start off with preliminaries on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and 2 dogs from each day go on to make it to Sunday for the finals. It was a great success, and really allows us to showcase the working dog. We socialize with the public and show them how well these dogs are cared for and what we love to do with them. We also offer the public information packages for them to be able to find a local club near them. We will be back next year as well.

With all of this past excitement, we cannot forget about what we have planned coming up. We are gearing up for our upland training day on March 22, and then our upland test is planned for March 29. We are so excited about upland and cannot wait to get going on that. It's all planned, we just have to wait for the day. As Spring is just around the corner and the snow is all gone, we look forward to our regular training days in April. We will see you all soon.

Conowingo HRC is pleased to announce that we are going to host our first Upland Test mid-May. It has been approved by HRC, judges have been confirmed, and the premium should be available very soon. It will be a one-day quad. You have the opportunity to earn your Upland Title in one day!

Because of this new venture for the club, we will hold only one regular hunt test this year, in October 2025. There are not a lot of Upland Tests in our area, so we hope you take advantage of this opportunity. Please watch for more details.

CHRC continues to hold monthly training on the fourth Sunday of every month. If you are interested in joining us, please check out our website or Facebook page.

Phil and Nancy Magnuson escaped the New England weather for a few weeks at the H Cooper Black area in Cheraw, South Carolina. They report seeing a few of their Region 2 friends and making new HRC friends from around the country. At the Low Country HRC test they were treated to roasted oysters and a low country boil at the tailgate. Love the HRC family.

Guns Up HRC held their first club meeting by Zoom in February. They discussed plans for the year and elected new officers. They will be taking part in the annual Sportsmen's Show at the University of Maine in Orono doing water demonstrations.

Several of our members attended the Region 2 judges seminar at Cabela's in Scarborough so they could be reinstated. Looking forward to a great season of training and a successful hunt test in August.

Hudson Highlands will be hosting its 2025 Regular Hunt at Stewart State Forest. We have a great panel of judges who will make the tests fun as well as challenging. We have secured our ducks, so no concerns in that regard. In addition to a tailgate dinner, a raffle is planned for Saturday evening after Finished series completion. Now that bird hunting seasons and preserve hunts are wrapping up in our region, we are now shifting focus to training and sharpening up our retrievers as we get ready to begin the Hunt Test season which will be here very soon. We look forward to seeing our fellow HRC handlers in the region at the upcoming tests and hope all had a great holiday season.

Lake Audrey HRC of SJ - submitted by LuAnn Riebel

Lake Audrey HRC held its General Meeting and Holiday Awards Dinner in January. The Dinner was an awesome night of being with friends and sharing a great meal. Many certificates were awarded and special plaques handed out. A plaque for 2024 Most Improved Handler and Dog Team went to Drew Gerbereux and his Dog Piper, 2024 Most Hunting Titles went to Bob VonSuskil and his Dog Storm, and 2024 Most Non-Hunting Titles went to Faith Mintel and her Dog Bowie. Many of our members compete in different venues, and we are proud of those who expand their knowledge of their dogs sport. Everyone had a great time and is looking forward to next year's dinner.

It's a busy time here at Lake Audrey HRC, we're getting ready for our upcoming April Hunt Test. We're Region 2 first hunt test to the start off the Hunt Test season. Since it is Easter weekend, we will be holding the Linda Harlow Easter Egg Hunt for the children. A great weekend for the whole family.

Training here is held every Sunday, weather permitting, and the weather has been a big factor this winter season.

We hope everyone has a wonderful spring and has a Happy Easter!!

Hunt test season is underway in Region 3, and our members are busy making preparations for what we all hope to be a successful spring test season. Mother Nature has been a bit erratic with weekly rain and wind, but warmer temps are just around the corner.

We are excited about our spring test which will already have been held by the time this issue gets sent out to all the HRC Members. It was great to see the numbers of entries, particularly in Finished. It has been a while since we ran 3 flights of finished!

We are very thankful for our landowners who allow us access to their properties! We are not able to host first class events without their generosity.

Rappahannock River HRC - submitted by Noah Ford

Rappahannock River HRC members have had an action-packed hunting season chasing birds in the fields and marshes in Virginia, Canada, California and everywhere in between. As hunting season draws to a close, our attention turns towards preparing for the upcoming hunt test season. Our monthly training days continue to be a cornerstone of the club, providing a great opportunity for handlers and retrievers to sharpen their skills.

The club recently held its annual meeting in February, where we took a moment to celebrate the clubs achievements from the previous year. Several members and junior handlers were recognized for their outstanding contributions throughout the year and were awarded with custom duck calls made by Chris Jabs of Jabs Custom Calls. Our junior handlers were also presented with toy pump action shotguns to practice safe gun handling as they progress in their training. Additionally, outgoing President Justin Diercks was honored with a Legacy award for his dedication to the club and his instrumental role in revitalizing the HRC spirit in Virginia.

As we look ahead to the upcoming hunt test season, let's continue to embody the passion and camaraderie that makes HRC such a special community and we can't wait to see everyone at the line!

Contentnea Creek HRC - submitted by Jeremie Lovejoy

I want to thank all the folks that came out and supported our club by running their dogs in our preliminary hunt test this past March in Kinston. We enjoyed hosting you all, and it felt good to kick off the hunt test season in eastern North Carolina. We got to see a lot of great dog work and a lot of ribbons and titles were earned this weekend.

As we all know, it takes a village of people to come together just to put these hunt tests on. This being our first test, we were blessed to have the support from surrounding clubs and individuals that allowed us access to properties to conduct the test, as well as bringing in equipment to run the test until we can get enough funds to purchase our own club equipment. We had a lot of members really pitch in this weekend to ensure everything operated smoothly, and it didn't go unnoticed by those that attended.

I also want to thank our judges (Kevin Nunn, Mark Parsons, Richard McCullough, Charlie Whitehurst, David Lambert, Marcus Bullock, Brian Lanning and Shawn Swindell) for taking the time to sit in the chair all weekend and challenge the dogs.

Again, we thank everyone for coming out and making our event a success, and wish everyone a successful year chasing ribbons.

Etowah HRC has had a very busy Spring 2025! We kicked everything off with our Upland Training Day, and followed that up with our Upland Quad Hunt Test in February. Once we had the Upland test behind us, we started working on the regular Hunt Tests, beginning with our Training day at the end of February. By the time you read this, we will have held our Spring Hunt Test at Kingston Downs on April 5th and 6th. We have two full finished flights and good numbers in Started and Seasoned.

While our club schedule has kept us hopping this Spring, our members have also been busy running tests at several of the area clubs, with a few even venturing out of state to chase some titles. We wish everyone good luck this Spring, and hope all your birds land belly up.

A great turnout for Etowah's Upland Quad!

Hello everyone, we hope you all are doing well and enjoying another hunt test season. Springtime weather has finally arrived. What a crazy fall and winter it has been, with hurricanes and significant snowfall here in Georgia.

Middle GA held our spring test the beginning of March. Although our entries were lower than normal, we had an absolutely great weekend. There were lots of titles earned. It was a great time of visiting with old friends cultivating new friendships.

Congratulations to Carol Cassidy and her dog Pancake on earning their 500 points. Also congratulations to Chris Stewart and Ken Daughtry (owner) and his dog Rocket on reaching 500 points. See you at the line!

The Cherokee Foothills HRC has always been a great place for retriever lovers to come together and improve their skills. It's a place where both dogs and handlers grow together. From our recent Upland Training Day to the upcoming tests, there is a lot to look forward to.

Our annual meeting and training day was a great success. This was a great opportunity for members to come together, not just for training but also to discuss club updates, upcoming events, and ways to keep growing as a group. After a long hiatus, the Cherokee Foothills HRC proudly hosted an Upland Training Day. This event provided handlers and their retrievers with a valuable opportunity to refine essential upland hunting skills, including flushing, retrieving, and maneuvering through challenging terrain. Whether seasoned handlers or newcomers to the sport, everyone left with new insights, strengthened techniques, and a renewed enthusiasm for training in realistic field conditions.

As we look ahead to a busy spring, the excitement is building for the upcoming test. It's the perfect chance for handlers to show off the hard work they've put into their dogs, and for newer members, it's a chance to experience competition and see what it takes to get to the next level. CFHRC isn't just a place to train dogs—it's a community where we come together to share our passion, push ourselves to be better, and celebrate the things that make this sport so special. With so many exciting events on the horizon, we look forward to another great season of training, competition, and good fellowship.

Midlands held their Annual Meeting at the beginning of February at the Palmetto Shooting Complex in Edgefield, SC. They provided us with a very nice room and a kitchen, if needed, and if members want to shoot a round of sporting clays before the meeting that can be arranged. The Club provided lunch of 2 homemade soups, sub-type sandwiches, chips and a drink.

Our upcoming hunt test was discussed along with information about a new online entry platform that has started in our area. A Club member, Bill Snyder, spoke about Hunt for the Cure, which Midlands sponsored last year. They are thinking of expanding to 2 days this year and hope that Midlands will be willing to again be part of the event. The date is yet to be determined and plans are ongoing. We agreed to participate again this year, but to what extent will be further discussed. Those who participated in last year's event had a great time. We also elected a new Club treasurer, Lee Lybrand. No other board positions were up for renewal.

With the start of hunt test season in the south, a few Club members were seen at Low Country HRC and Middle Georgia's tests in late February and early March. Some were successful, and some found they and their dogs need a bit more work/training. Mike Menchinger and Ruby, Lois McCracken and Bonnie, Bobby Siau and Willie, Scottie Hendrix and Hub and Don White. and Ali were seen on the beautiful grounds at Low Country. Not running, but judging, was Drew Ellyson. I believe Ruby and Ali were the only successful participants (at least for one day) that weekend.

Next up was Middle GA. Mike, Bobby, Scottie and Don were there, along with Shawn Radford, Greg Shaffer, and Larry Domas all running Finished. Bill Snider was there in Started with Storm, a client dog who was run by Noah

Horton, an employee, for Storm's SHR title. Mike got Ruby through one day, Bobby and Willie found they could be a team and got through on Sunday. Shawn and Rye passed on Saturday, but Rye was a bit antsy on the line on Sunday and was not going to get away with it! Larry was there on Sunday with Luke and they passed. Don and Ali made it through both days.

Central Florida HRC - report submitted by Carol Caito

Spring has arrived in Central Florida, and we are currently covered in yellow pollen from the oak trees.

In January, we held our first training day of the year followed by our annual club meeting. We had a good turnout for both. Our training coordinator Kelli Riggs told us about the New Training Program that she and co-training coordinator Sue Barnett saw the need to develop. This will be geared specifically for Started & Transition dogs and their owner-handlers after seeing declining numbers in the lower stakes at many tests. The new monthly program will focus on beginner dogs, dogs in transition, and one on one coaching with their novice, owner-handlers. Each dog and handler team will receive a step by step approach to help them progress their dogs and their training skills at a consistent, steady pace. We have also decided to incorporate an advanced dog training day for dogs who have already run at least one finished test. This will be headed up by Clint Beaty with help from Ray Caito to focus on dogs at the more advanced levels. These training days will also be held once a month beginning in March. We decided that splitting the training days into beginning and advanced will allow everyone in attendance to get more learning opportunities at the appropriate level of where their dogs are.

We held our spring hunt test in February at the Golden Oaks Ranch where we had beautiful weather. We had a decent amount of dogs running finished, but we had a very low turnout for the lower stakes, but we had a very low turnout in our started and seasoned stakes, we made the unfortunate decision to cancel our tailgate and raffle on Saturday evening. We are hoping to have a better turnout at our fall test where we plan to have an even bigger raffle.

We had several dogs title at our test, and there were several title baths taken. Congratulations to Brock and his dog Laci on earning their started title, as well as to Daniel and Valor on earning their started title. Also a huge congratulations to Wendy Huntzinger and her dog Bullet who earned his Seasoned title at our test. This 2-year-old is full of spunk, loves to train and is fully focused at the line.

We also had a junior handler step to the line for the very first time after attending our 'kids training day' the previous 2 years. Liam Brayman, who is the grandson of club member Robin Aronoff, was given the opportunity by club member Kelli Riggs, to run her dog Edwin for his started title. Liam was handed Edwin's lead and stepped up to the challenge; where he passed Edwin both days and earned Edwin's Started Title. Liam handled Edwin like a pro! HUGE congratulations to Liam, Edwin and Kelli. It was a special moment for all involved.

We had a great turnout at our first started/transition training session on Saturday, March 1, where all attending teams were evaluated, and each team was given "homework" to work on until the next time we meet. These training days are not just dogs running set-ups, but careful observations of each team to identify holes in training and to help problem solve any issues early on. Members all seem very excited about the opportunity to train with dogs at pretty much the same level so they can all learn from each other and progress together.

We would also like to congratulate club member Alan Wilcox on being appointed the field rep for Region 4B.

Well, another successful WMHRC hunt test is in the books. The rain held off and didn't pour on our test. However, the Silver Creek Equestrian Center, where we held our test, was muddy. We are fortunate to have exemplary hunt test sites with rolling hills and natural habitat. We had to do some last minute changes so as not to tear up the land too awful much. Great tests were the order for both days. West Mississippi HRC always has a cat fish fry banquet for the Saturday Night Social and Ribbon Ceremony. This was enjoyed by all who attended. It continues to be true, our club members are always ready to pitch in and do whatever is needed to ensure a great weekend is had by all. Our ducks were outstanding, they lasted the entire weekend. As the Tennessee River Hunting Retriever Club reflects on the past year, we want to take a moment to express our heartfelt gratitude to all of our members and participants for an incredible Hunt Test season. Your dedication, enthusiasm, and passion for the sport have made our events not only successful, but also memorable. We appreciate everyone who contributed their time and effort, ensuring that our tests ran smoothly and were enjoyable for all involved.

Looking ahead, we are excited about the upcoming Hunt Test season. We have planned a variety of training days throughout the year, designed to help both handlers and their dogs hone their skills and prepare for the challenges that lie ahead. We encourage everyone to join us for these training sessions, as they are a fantastic opportunity to learn, share experiences, and strengthen our community. We are particularly looking forward to our Hunt Test on April 15th and 16th, and we hope to see everyone there as we come together to celebrate our love for retrievers and the sport.

In this moment of reflection, we also want to honor the memory of a beloved member of our club, HRCH UH Sage's West TN Trooper MH, who recently passed away. Trooper was not only a remarkable golden retriever, but also a cherished family member to Eddie and Jayna Watkins. His talent and spirit shone brightly in the Hunt Test world, and he left an indelible mark on all who had the pleasure of knowing him. Trooper's legacy lives on through his many prodigy, who continue to embody the qualities that made him so special. As we move forward, we will carry his memory with us, celebrating the joy and companionship that dogs like Trooper bring to our lives. Thank you all for being a part of our community, and we look forward to another fantastic year ahead!

Spring is in the air, and so is the start of the HRC season. Club member Andrew Kanik and HRCH Crush achieved their UH title in April at Retriever's Unlimited test in February, passing all four of the quad tests. While some members are preparing to run tests, others are scheduled to judge. It's nice to see such an active membership as ours, as we support other clubs with our entries and judging jobs.

Please be aware that we've changed the dates of our spring tests to better accommodate bird techs, club members, and handlers. Our date is listed in both the magazine, and on the UKC Event Calendar. We have also changed the location of the club headquarters, and will now be in the main office building of the West Kentucky WMA on Ogden Landing Road. We hope to see you in June!

We had a great award banquet to celebrate our club members who achieved titles and those who hit 500 point milestones! We're now a week away from our annual quad upland hunt, and in full swing of preparation for our regular test in May. If you've never had the opportunity to run our regular test, I would encourage you to come. We have fantastic grounds and a great tailgate banquet on Saturday night, along with a junior handler event for the kids. Spring is right around the corner, and we all will be enjoying warmer weather to train in. Hope to see you at a hunt test soon!

Michigan HRC - submitted by President Bob Zapalski

Greetings from Howell, Michigan! Spring has finally arrived (almost) and our training grounds opened on March 1. It was a cold but sunny day. A few of us braved the elements to begin the process of getting our dogs ready for the 2025 hunt test season.

Our annual award and general meeting took place on February 1st. It was the largest turnout that we have had in years. It was fun listening to all the hunting stories from the past season. If they were all true, it is yet to be determined. Overall, everyone in attendance enjoyed themselves.

The upcoming Carol Ford Fun Hunt will be held at the MIHRC training grounds on Saturday April 12, 2025. This is an event where all clubs in Region 7A get together to host this event that duplicates an actual hunt test. It is basically a training day for all who attend. Proceeds go to fund the Carol Ford Scholarship Fund.

We had several achievements this past year, with a good amount of handlers titling their dogs. This goes to show that a club with a dedicated training program, along with experienced members helping each other out, produces success.

Remember, every day is a training day. Stay safe, healthy, and have fun!

St. Clair Flats HRC - submitted by Kenneth Frazee

An enjoyable time was had during our annual banquet in January. John Nowakowski and David Mackie were honored with lifetime membership to our chapter for their valuable contributions over many years. Congratulations to Grainger for his UKC APLA Master title earned in February to go along with his HRC HOF honors.

Plans are underway for our May Hunt Test, with new holding blinds being ordered and other efforts being made in anticipation of this event. As this is being written, waterfowl are returning north and the ice is leaving the fields. Our members are ready for spring.

In this quiet season, Founding President Don Williams shares the following history: "Thirty years ago, less than 10 members formed 'St. Clair Flats Hunting Retriever Club.' We started with little equipment using pigeons on landmarks and blinds, ducks on water, all hand thrown. Burlap bags served as holding blinds. Very simplistic. Early on, there were very few Grand Hunting Retriever Champions. Several members bought puppies from the 9th Grand Champion 'Honker.' In the early days, members struggled with learning training techniques since there wasn't much information shared by pro trainers at the time. When the Michigan Hunting Retriever Club sponsored a Grand Hunt, our members were able to network with some of the better trainers in HRC and share information. Wingers were not being produced yet, and only one flight was held at the Grand. Quite a change to today with over 1,000 entries and modern equipment seen today at the Grand." Don reports he is so proud of this club and how far it has come. "With its great leaders, Board of Directors and members, I look forward to another 30 years."

Southern Michigan HRC - submitted by Todd Burger

The Southern Michigan Hunting Retriever Club (SMIHRC) is excited to announce a series of upcoming events aimed at promoting responsible hunting practices and enhancing retriever training skills within our community.

Youth Hunt:

On March 9, SMIHRC will host a Youth Hunt at Ringneck Ranch in Hanover, Michigan. This event is designed to introduce 30 young participants to the fundamentals of bird hunting with dogs. Through hands-on experience and guidance from seasoned hunters, the youth will learn about safety, ethics, and the essential role of retrievers in hunting.

Upland Hunt Test:

Following the Youth Hunt, SMIHRC will host an Upland Hunt Test in partnership with Central MI HRC on March 15. This event provides an opportunity for handlers and their retrievers to demonstrate their skills in a controlled environment, adhering to established hunting standards. Participants can showcase their dogs' abilities in locating and retrieving game, reflecting the training and dedication invested in their development.

Ongoing and Upcoming Training Programs:

In addition to these events, SMIHRC has been actively engaged in puppy training sessions every Saturday, fostering the growth of young retrievers and their handlers. Looking ahead, the club is set to launch some new training classes in April.

Beginner Retriever Skills Class:

Tailored for newcomers, this class will cover foundational training techniques essential for developing a well-rounded retriever.

Casting and Lining Class:

Offered at both beginning and advanced levels, this class will focus on refining the directional commands and precision required for effective fieldwork.

These initiatives underscore just a few of SMIHRC's commitment to education, skill development, and the promotion of ethical hunting traditions with our beloved retrievers. For more information on these events or to participate, please visit our website or Facebook.

Thanks to all of the club members and handlers that shared the weekend with us. Congrats to all handlers that titled, including our own Rick Niepert and Ruby for earning their UH title.

Other than taking advantage of some Spring Snow Goose Conservation Hunts, most members are turning their efforts towards training. We are taking whatever Mother Nature deals us to start up our normal training, including our weekday Satellite Training Groups.

Thanks to those members who came together to make it such a great event. After that, there was our Upland test. Good work again everyone. It was a great test that made everyone's efforts to make it efficient successful. Oh, and sprinkled in between all of this was a few hunting trips and weekly upland training, as well as some very well-attended Upland tests at neighboring clubs. A group of members even squeezed in working a 400 bird tower hunt at a local game preserve. The pickup dogs and handlers were all HRC members. Waterfowl season is over in our region, for better or worse. Retrievers Unlimited has had a busy start to the year. We held multiple upland training days to get dogs and handlers back into the swing of training. We held our upland hunt test in February at Quail Country Hunts in Mulberry Grove, IL. We would like to thank our judges, Mark Leahy and Dave Rasmussen, for judging all four flights. We would also like to thank members of the club for all of their help.

We are now turning our attention to our Spring Hunt test. Longtime HRC/RU member and judge Bev Amelung passed suddenly, immediately following our fall hunt test. She truly loved HRC, especially youth handlers. She will be missed greatly. We will be honoring her memory and service to HRC at this hunt, the Bev Amelung Memorial Hunt test. Arrowhead HRC - submitted by Deann Zimmer; President Jace Tramontin

In February, our Arrowhead HRC club enjoyed a winter get-together complete with a potluck meal and tractor ride. I don't know about you, but I always enjoy a good potluck. If anyone went away hungry it was their own fault. We had fun waving to those who drove by along our tractor route and seeing some wildlife along the way. Next year we may need to plan our tractor ride earlier in the season as the deep snow prevented us from getting back into the fields. However, the weather was nice and balmy, and we had a great day together.

One of the activities during the afternoon included a dog handling communication exercise that was led by Chris Spikberg. In teams of two, while only using a clicker to communicate a positive action, the handler had to guide the 'dog' to complete an activity such as going through a course to put on a hat, open a can of pop, or turn on a light switch etc. Only the handler knew the action or objective to be completed, and any positive step toward the goal was marked by the clicker. We learned a lot about timing and generally found that we needed to give more positive feedback, especially when the 'dog' became confused. It was a great lesson in communication in how our bodies, voices, and timing can help the dog to understand what it is that we are commanding. Thank you, Chris, for teaching us better communication and handling skills to improve teamwork.

In collaboration with the Minnesota Iron Range Retriever Club (MIRRC) we are looking forward to hosting an informal trial on May 3-4. There will be started, seasoned, open, qualifying, derby, and puppy stakes. It is a walk in/day of registration event. We are also looking forward to our Annual Regular Hunt Test and banquet later this summer in August. We hope you can join us! Stay positive and remember to click treat!

A handful of club dogs have been in Texas for winter training with Casey, taking advantage of the weather and most definitely an opportunity to hit the water; which might not be possible here until May.

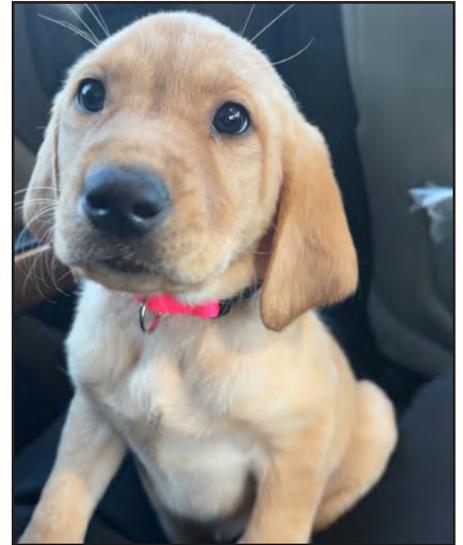

As an HRC judge over the years, I've judged some amazing dog work and had an opportunity to present a pass slip to handlers for titles in Started, Seasoned, Finished, Upland, Upland Hunter Champion, 500 Points, 1,000 Points, and also judged milestone retirement runs. Those are all great accomplishments, and I'm always so excited for the handlers; but recently, I was truly honored to judge and pass a Hall of Fame (HOF) dog. During the winter months, we have been busy with our chucker competition hunts and the dogs have performed exceptionally well. I hope to have some pictures shortly from these events.

On the hunt test side of our club's activities, we have been working hard to get everything in place for the Lake Country HRC spring test, and have finalized the premium. Our test will offer started, season, and finished events each day. We are in the process of adding a second finished event on each day if we get enough interest. The premium should be on Hunt Secretary shortly. The interest is high within our club membership, and we are looking forward to this test following last year's inaugural event. You'll notice we have three apprentice judges, which bodes well for the future, and all three are listed in the summary of judges in Region 8B.

By the time you read this, they will have finished upland training and held our quad upland test in mid-February. As always, Mother Nature showed her face. A week earlier, we received seven inches of snow, with subzero temperatures arriving the weekend of the test. The dogs didn't seem to mind it much, but the handlers, on the other hand, wore a few extra layers of clothing to stay warm.

Rich Lemmer and Bandit headed out to the Dakotas Quad Upland test in early March with one goal in mind: to reach 1,000 points and add three new letters to his name. With that said, I'd like to introduce you to the newest member of the HRC Hall of Fame: GRHRCHx4 UH FR's Black Hills Little Bandit MH HOF.

Spring has sprung in Southern Arkansas, and the training grounds are buzzing with activity! The warmer weather has everyone fired up and ready for the upcoming hunt test season. March is a particularly exciting month for us, and we're really looking forward to seeing many familiar faces—and hopefully some new ones!—on the hunt test circuit.

Our club's hunt test, scheduled for March 22-23, promises to be a fantastic event. It's a wonderful opportunity to put our canine companions through their paces, compare notes with fellow trainers, and simply enjoy the camaraderie of the sport. We always have a great turnout, and this year should be no exception.

It's also a pleasure to welcome new members Brian and Angela Todd to our club. We're thrilled they've joined us, and equally excited to see their promising young dog, Dutch. Spring Hunt Test Season is here. Time to shake off those frosty feelings and stretch out those retrievers in preparation for upcoming hunt tests. Our first training day of 2025 was the first week of February. Unfortunately, old man winter decided to give us one last burst and about 12 inches of snow. We postponed for first week of March, and it was worth the wait.

Sunny but brisk, we all met at The Retriever Academy for some long marks and blinds. Truly getting those dogs to look out after hunting can be a challenge.

Greetings from the Sunflower State!! We have recently welcomed new club members: Marcus Gaeddert along with Baby Ramirez. Congratulations to the Ramirez Family.

The membership has kicked the year off with officer elections, a healthy debate regarding new proposed running rules, discussing training days and negotiating Mother Nature. In the coming month, we will start initial discussions around our fall HRC hunt test. YAYAY! Spring days are ahead, and we will discuss HRC National Meeting preparations.

We would like to extend our gratitude to HRC and Joy Freeland (HRC Parliamentarian) for hosting a special training day on the basic principles of Robert's Rules of Order. Member Marion Grace attended, and I'm sure we will put her knowledge and notes to good practice as we grow our membership and meeting attendance.

Also, follow us on social media and check out some of the updates to our website.

Lake Charles Retriever Club is enjoying the Spring weather. Members are out training and running hunt tests. Preparations and training efforts are being made for those running the Spring Grand. It is late this year (May) so it will give more time to get our retrievers in tip top shape. Good luck to all those running.

New Club officers were installed. Congratulations to President Robert Falgoust, Vice President Boogie Lejeune, Treasurer Chris Fontenot, and Secretary Curtis Lindsey. I know they will do a great job.

Stay tuned for upcoming events! We're planning exciting opportunities, from training days to hunt tests, that will challenge and inspire both new and experienced handlers.

Amite River HRC - submitted by Ron Lewis

Our members have been busy preparing for our annual spring hunt test in March, which will be over by the time you read this piece. Hopefully, I can report in the next issue that it was a success and a fun time was had by all.

Many members and their retrievers are back training in preparation for the spring hunt test season. Thanks to Brian Beatty and crew for organizing these training days. Also, thank you to Ron Anderson for allowing us to use his property recently. Training days have been well attended, and we have had some fun reconnecting and socializing. Come out and join us!

Future events to note:
*We will host a SRS event May 8-10 and another one in late August.

*Our 2026 Spring Hunt test will be our club's 40th anniversary. We will start planning soon to make this test special.

Please mark your calendars to come out to help - we always need volunteers to assist hunt tests.

Mud, drizzle, wet socks, and cold hands were in abundance as CLRC held their spring hunt test on February 22-23 at Moreauville, LA. That being said, camaraderie was high at HQ and in the field, and our judges and marshals got the job done. As a bonus, CLRC tested the rain resistance of its equipment and found that all canopies are not created equal. Just another example of HRC judge dedication (and thoughtful packing of rain gear) to our sport!

We concluded Saturday's hunt with a Puppy Run sponsored by Delta Waterfowl. Ducks were thrown for seven kids as they donned a new DW cap and practiced their handling skills. As the Tailgate Supper was served, ribbons were awarded. A cypress bateau, hand-crafted by Scott Ducote, was displayed for all to see with cards being sold to possible winners. Mary Anne Sayer's King-of-Diamonds was called, and she was SO, SO HAPPY! This was a fun evening with good friends and wonderful food. Thank you, President Scott and Stacey, for your Cajun hospitality and commitment to CLRC.

As we celebrated our 40th anniversary in August, we now wish Cajun HRC and its members a "happy 40th anniversary" and continued success! CLRC will have members and friends competing in the spring Grand; the best of luck to all!

Our club meetings are the third Thursday of most months, 7 pm, at 1889 Monroe Highway in Pineville with a training day on the following Saturday. All retriever enthusiasts are welcome!

Cajun Hunting Retriever Club - submitted by Katina Hebert

This year is Cajun HRC's 40th Anniversary. Here is a little history of Cajun HRC:

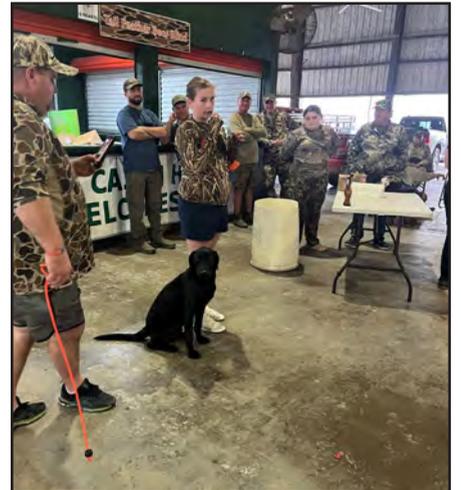

Cajun HRC was established in January 1, 1984. We were the third club formed. Our first officers were Mike Welch, Dave Fullerton and Jessie Lanclos. Ernie Istre and Ed Thibodeaux were also some of the first members of our great club. During the last 40 years, Cajun members have been a vital part of the National Organization. 1985-1987 Dave Fullerton was Treasurer. 1995-1999 Glenn Stelly was Vice President, 1999-2005 Glenn Stelly was President. 2003-2005 Rod Smith was President.

Glenn Stelly also served as President of the HRC Foundation from 2003-2023. He was also on the Grand Committee for 20 plus years and has never missed a Grand in those years. We have hosted four Grands: 1987, 1995, 2002, and 2018, which were all Fall Grands. The 1987 Fall Grand we hosted was only the third Grand HRC had held at that time.

Cajun's first test was September 29-30, 1984, which was a preliminary hunt. On April 13, 1985, Cajun Retriever Club held its first Spring UKC licensed hunt. We had 91 entries. There were 34 started, 13 seasoned and 12 finished dogs that past all tests. Tailgate dinner was a bowl of seafood gumbo.

We had been making plans our Spring anniversary hunt test for several months. Our test was March 8th-9th. We had 3 flights of finish, 1 seasoned and 1 started. Saturday, we had 74 finished, 21 seasoned, and 18 started dogs. Sunday, we had 70 finished, 16 seasoned and 18 started dogs. 142 dogs have passed this weekend. There was a 1,000 pt ribbon, a 500 pt ribbon and also 1 dog which earned his Grand Hunting Retriever Title. We attracted handlers from Michigan, Florida, and Texas, and a judge from Oklahoma. We held our Lloyd Courville Memorial Puppy Run on Saturday. Our local Ducks Unlimited Chapter donated duck calls, caps, and bags for each of our participants. There are a few people we would like to thank for coming out and helping us celebrate our 40th anniversary: Tim Blan, Keith and Natalie Hill, Tom Vandenbrand, and our local Region 10 judges for making sure we had some great tests set up. We would also like to send out a special thanks to all of our club members for their help in making sure the tests ran great.

Greetings!

Spring is around the corner, and the club is about to host our Snake Avoidance Clinic on March 22 in Weatherford, Texas. Looking forward to another great event while helping to keep our puppies safe from snake encounters, which are frequent in Texas.

Additionally, we've started plans for our Fall Hunt Test. We're moving it in two weeks this year to avoid conflicts with the Fall Grand, so it will be held September 20-21 in Tioga, Texas.

Club members continue to train independently and as groups, and the club hosts monthly training days (weather and schedule permitting). I wish you the best of luck this year in both your training and testing!

Cowtown HRC - submitted by President Keith Hill

Greetings from Cowtown!

As we transition from winter to spring, we enter our second favorite season: Hunt Test season. We've been busy at cowtown prepping our dogs for the test season. A great time was had at our February training day; everyone pitched in and helped make it flow smoothly so that everyone had the opportunity to run twice. It was great to see dogs and handlers make adjustments and improvements on that second run.

Speaking of tests, Cowtown has been busy getting ready for our Hunt Test on April 26 and 27th. It should be another great one, so make plans to attend. I would also like to encourage you to run a test in another region; it's a great way to see different setups, to meet new people, and make new friends. The one constant is that people are just as friendly and inviting. Until next time, play hard and train harder!

Lonseome Dove HRC - submitted by President Sharon Freis

Spring Hunt Test is upon us, and most of us are probably glad to see the spring and, hopefully, say goodbye to the seesaw weather we have been having lately.

Lonseome Dove recently finished another successful test. A big shoutout to all of the judges and club members that took the time out of their schedules to make this a fun and challenging test for the handlers and dogs. Mother Nature wasn't completely cooperative, but in the end she pulled through. Many club members had ran the test: Hayley Walden in Started, Kim Dunbar in Seasoned, Ryan Compton in Seasoned and Finished, Juli Mitchell in Started, Connie Whitman in Seasoned, Dennis Berger in Seasoned, Patti Southerland in Seasoned, Courtney Prater in Finished, Melissa Alldredge in Finished, Kyle Alldredge in Finished, Mark Freis in Seasoned and Finished, and Sharon Freis in Seasoned and Finished. We had a strong club showing that reflects all of the hard work club members are putting into training and working with their dogs. A special shoutout to all the women handlers from the club that helped and ran the test this year, we definitely had a strong showing.

We will be holding our annual Snake Avoidance Clinic in San Angelo, Texas, on April 12th this year. This is always a well-attended event, with usually 80-100 dogs of all kinds experiencing the "fun." Connie Whitman heads this for us every year and does a great job planning the logistics of the processing of that many dogs.

With many more hunt tests to come this spring, we hope to see and meet friends, old and new. Good luck to all and safe travels!

Lone Star HRC - submitted by President Kyle Krause

Lone Star members have been busy running their dogs and judging at several of the hunt tests in and around our region the past few weeks. If they haven't been judging or running in hunt tests, they have been out at the training grounds working on water and landmarks along with blind work. We have been hosting monthly or bi-weekly club training days, but with the weather being as strange as it has been, we have had to cancel or postpone a couple of the training days. At the time of this article being sent in, we are in the final stages of our hunt test planning for the test on March 22-23. We are hoping for good weather, a great turnout of workers, handlers, and dogs, and an all-around great weekend.

North East Texas HRC - submitted by Amie Kelly

As the hunting season ends and the hunting test season starts to gear up in full swing, North East Texas HRC is working and getting ready for their upcoming Spring Hunt Test in April, with much training and getting the dogs into full swing of the test season. Getting the dogs back into the the test mindset is what we are all striving to achieve.

There are several things that we must keep in mind as we work on our dogs: the hot days are coming up, some dogs are not in the testing shape that they left off in, and those nasty snakes. So, just a few things to keep in mind when preparing your dogs. Watch and make sure you are not overheating them. Some dogs took a long break, and did not get worked much, so they need to be stretched out slowly so that there aren't any torn muscles or injuries. Last, is when you can try to attend a snake avoidance clinic with your dogs. This is very handy, and it could save you or your dogs' life; I highly recommend it. These are just a few things that need to be considered while you're gearing up for the big hunt test season.

Mount Rushmore HRC - submitted by President Alan Case

Mt Rushmore HRC got moved from Region 13A to Region 13. A little shuffle of clubs to hopefully make things easier for our Field Reps. Russ Fadling, our Region 13A Field Rep, did come and present a judges/handlers seminar on February 22nd. He did a great job, lots of questions and discussion. Thank you Russ.

We also had a booth at the Black Hills Sports Show in Rapid City. We had some good interest in our club, and now Dale Christensen has contacted everyone who wanted us to contact them. We also had a week of property clean-up. We removed 40 trees and ground over 350 stumps. We cleaned up enough logs, brush, and branches to create over 15 slash (burn) piles. The work was done in the North 10 (north of the house) and Elk Glenn (behind and west of the pine tree pond). Thanks to Dale Christensen and Mary Burns for coordinating all of the work and making it go smoothly. We believe we made some good progress and opened up some new areas for training and testing. I also want to thank Greg McGranhan, who cut most of the trees, Pete Shattuck and Walt Foster who cut and split wood, Scot Hoscheid and Alan and Brodie cut wood, picked up brush, and whatever else needed to be done. A special thanks to Dale and Mary's friends, Gary and Nancy Cuvellier from Lawler, Iowa. Gary ground over 300 stumps and got the grapple connected to the Bobcat and running. Nancy worked everyday making piles of brush for the Bobcat to pickup and gave guidance to Dale in the Bobcat. In the coming weeks, we still have more stumps, logs, and limbs to take care of. We have voles to eliminate, and we are going to make a new bird pen. So, busy times plus getting everything ready for our hunt tests. Hope everyone made it through winter and are ready to train and test retrievers.

Platte Valley HRC - submitted by President Rudy Krupka

As our hunting season in Colorado comes to an end, Platte Valley started the New Year by electing several new officers: Rudy Krupka (President), Curt Lacey (Vice President), Lea Ann Heldt (Treasurer), and Mike Kuetemann (Secretary). We also have several new Board Members: Ryan Armstrong, Jeremy Lowry, Alan Goff, Chris Jeffers, Jim McLaughlin, Mike Brockman, Joe Soucek and Brett Morganflash, and a new Social Media Director – Kelly Friday. Thank you all for you time and dedication to PVHRC.

The hunting season concluded with several PVHRC members enjoying time in the field with members, friends, family, and their four-legged partners. We kicked off 2025 strong with an upland training day on March 8th and we hosted an Upland Hunt Test on March 15th and 16th, which included Curt Lacey's famous "chucker fry" lunch. Thank you to all of you who participated and helped with our Upland Hunt Test activities in March. And, PVHRC is hosting our Spring Hunt test April 26-27 at Indian Meadows Hunt Club. To say the least, it will be a busy Spring for our members.

Just a friendly reminder to help volunteer where you can, it takes an enormous amount of work to put on our hunt tests and your contribution is always very greatly appreciated. HRC has always been about fellowship, working together, and enjoying this great sport we're privileged to participate in. We want to wish everyone a safe hunt test season making memories running your dogs. Best of luck to all this Spring.

Salt Valley held its second Upland test in late February. We took over Beede's lodge the night before and had a chili potluck (and maybe a few adult beverages). A good time was had by all. The record cold temps just a few days before subsided, and we had fantastic weather day for our test. We have had two false springs in the Valley this year, and training has started and stopped twice for most club members. What are you going to do when you have a March blizzard in Nebraska? Cascade HRC - submitted by President Pam Ullsh 2025 is off to a fast start. Cascade had their first training day the first Saturday in February. Like all good Cascade days, we had a mix of weather, including a threat of snow. Our turnout was a little smaller than usual, but that allowed everyone to run while it was still dry. Our meeting was held on March 8th with free training for members. A good time was had by all.

Cascade members are the best! It is great to see new friendships starting as experienced handlers help newer people get started by sharing their time and knowledge. We also have members wanting to help set up and/or run the line. Having more people be willing and able to share the load makes the day easier for all. We also have a swap equipment box where people can get or leave training equipment and gear.

Many of us have extra collars or leads that we no longer use, and this allows this equipment to have a new life in another home; just another way our members support each other.

Cascade is getting ready for their test April 12-13. We will have a regular hunt each day (with 2 flights of Finished) and an upland hunt on Saturday. We will be at Cascade Retriever Grounds as well as at Cherry Valley Game management Unit. Hopefully all the crazy weather we have been having will be done and the weather will be calm and boring.

Looking forward to the 2025 hunt test season. It will be great to see old friends and make some new ones. The experienced dogs know that trial season is coming and the new pups have no idea how much fun they are going to have. Happy Training!

Participation in our annual membership meeting means a free raffle ticket! This year's wine-themed basket winner, Roxanne Heller with VP Dean Olson.

Lower Columbia HRC - submitted by President Dave Carey

Training days have begun in earnest, now that the weather has warmed. Winter this year has been warmer than usual with only a couple of weeks below freezing temperatures. I am not looking forward to (stink) bug season. Ready for rain season before summer? Running in the rain is only a problem resulting from the quality of your rain gear! Rain leads to water work, especially for the younger dogs.

Hunt test season is about to begin in three weeks from this writing. Western States Boykin Spaniel Club running in Corning, California will be the first hunt test this year in Region 14. Looking forward to judging Seasoned on Saturday and running a Finished test on Sunday. Great grounds to set up and run tests, always a challenge.

Finalizing our Hunt Test in June, Judges Dinner, Saturday night feed, auction items, ducks, poppers, winger operators, upgrade batteries in receiver/transmitters (yes, they do wear out over usage and time), signage to improve our test locations, porta potties, and garbage. Lots of little details to remember and address. Covering the fine details determines if you will have a smooth and efficient running test with minimal problems. Good luck to all the Region 14 area clubs on their upcoming Hunt Tests.

Northeast Washington Gun Dog Club - submitted by Gina Goodrich

Spring is in the air and the NEWGDC is kicking off 2025 with its first training days on Saturday March 15th and 29th at Burlington Ranch in Chewelah, WA. Our goal is to have two training days each month from now through August. Members and non-members are welcome to join us. We'll be holding our annual meeting on March 15th, where we will be updating members on planned events for 2025 and re-electing/electing our Board members.

Check out our website at www.newgdc.com where you can view our training dates and register for training days. You can also follow us on our new Northeast Washington Gundog Club Facebook page! Special thanks to Ron Stahl for updating our website and adding the new club logo.

We're looking forward to the first of our two hunt tests in 2025 on the first weekend in May on the beautiful training grounds at Burlington Ranch in Chewelah. We are hoping for a great turnout and expect the grounds and ponds to be in prime condition for the test.

Watch for more information on signups and we hope to see you there!

Salt Chuck HRC - submitted by Wendy Tisdale

The Salt Chuck Hunting Retriever Club is looking forward to the arrival of Spring on Vancouver Island! The club is gearing up for our upcoming double hunt test and Upland test weekend. In preparation, on February 23rd the club held a "Mock Hunt Test" day.

The weather was forecast for a VERY wet day at the Swallowfield estuary, but Mother Nature was on our side and the rain held off until we had packed all the gear into the trailer. Members David Aberdeen and Peter Fargey were apprentice judges under Sylvia Lawson's experienced and watchful eyes. There were: 9 Started, 10 Seasoned, and 13 Finished Teams of Golden, Labrador and NSDT Retrievers, and 2 Standard Poodles.

Louise Roberts arranged a club raffle: a bucket filled with training bumpers, an organizational Golden Retriever themed bucket apron, 8 assorted Yellow Dog beer and ales, and a wine tasting gift certificate from a local winery.

Spring in the scenic Cowichan Valley and Swallowfield Field Estuary is a beautiful sight! I hope you are able to experience it for yourself in joining us at our spring test days!

Spokane Bird Dog Association - submitted by John Gilbert

After a wimpy pre- and post-Christmas, Old Man Winter threw us a few weeks of what it could have been (meaning below zero temps and a couple of feet of snow). But, that ended fairly quickly. Spring is peeking out as we get our ducks in a row for the new year (pun intended). I'm sure all clubs can relate to what's involved in getting duties, supplies, and jobs assigned to make our events happen. Cold or not, the work has already started and continues until events are done.

On the fun side, we had our yearly banquet, where we swapped lies and handed out club trophies to those with the most success in 2024. As I get older, yearly gatherings underline the growing list of two and four-legged friends departing for that everlasting hunting season. Such is life. We dearly miss them and hope to see them on the other side.

Our upcoming training days are perking us up from the winter doldrums. SBDA has not had a Super Singles competition in several years, and one is scheduled for April 5 (SBDA website). For those unfamiliar, this is one of the few times we depart from the qualification mindset of hunt tests. Rules are set by the assigned judges and geared so young, inexperienced dogs can successfully compete against older dogs. Sometimes, non-retrievers throw their hat (er, dog) in the ring. Our SBDA camaraderie with canines is not typically based on competition. But this is the one day out of 365 where we have "a" winner, not winners. Check your humility at the door for this one head-to-head day; we all have fun. What's at stake? Of course, bragging rights. Sometimes, even an unofficial beverage side wager. But you didn't hear that from me. Welcome Twenty Twenty-five!

Treasure State Retriever Club - submitted by Margo Ellis-Lingohr

As the winter turns slowly to spring, our club members have been mostly doing online training to prepare for the upcoming season. Mike Heard has been doing zoom sessions talking about drills for marks and blinds. We also had a zoom for members that wanted to learn more about SRS scoring.

We will have completed our judge seminar, and hopefully shortly after that, we might be able to find some good footing to start knocking the rust off us and the dogs. I have been busy getting our July hunt ready for approval along with the SRS in June. It is shaping up to be another busy year for the club.

In closing, TSRC would like to send our condolences to Mike Sanders for the sudden loss of Pliny. He was an exceptionally talented dog, and I'm sure he will be greatly missed by Mike and Terri. Hug your dogs as they are only with us for a short time.

Five Valley Retriever Club - submitted by Kay Donahue

Hello from Five Valley Retriever Club! We are all enjoying the warmer weather now, and by the time this article comes out, we should be getting our weekend group training started again. We are so thankful yet again for Mark Reiling and his allowing us to use his property in Lolo, MT to host our group training. We have a great group of dogs and handlers who are both new and seasoned members of our group.

We have also begun the preparations for our 2025 Hunt Test and are looking forward to that. This will be our club's 15 year anniversary. We did move the date of our test back a week, it will be July 19-20 this year; this will be a permanent change. We are also hosting it in Butte, MT again, on TSRC Property. Huge shout out and thanks to them for allowing us to use their property again.

We hope everyone has a great spring and summer, and we look forward to seeing you all at tests! Happy training!

South Hills Hunting Retriever Club - submitted by Terri Sanders

South Hills HRC is gearing up for the season. We will be hosting a seminar with Bob Owens of Lone Duck Outfitters the weekend of April 5th focusing on transitioning your dog. Then, we dive right into test season with Mountain West HRC putting on the first test of the year.

We will be hosting our test in Fruitland the weekend of May 17-18.

Our club members have several new puppies that will be coming up during the year, so it should be a fun time training and getting them ready to run tests.

HUNTING RETRIEVER CLUB, INC. Point Club RECOGNITION PROGRAMS

The 500, 1,000, 1,500, 2,000, 2,500, 4,500 & 5,000 Club Programs are recognition programs for HRC members who own dogs achieving 500, 1,000, 1,500, 2,000, 2,500, 4,500 and/or 5,000 UKC Championship points in the HRC Hunt Test & Upland Hunt Programs.

The HRC member-owner of the dog must be a member in good standing with HRC, Inc. for a minimum of 12 months prior to the time the dog earns the qualifying Championship Points (500th for 500 Club & 1,000th for 1,000 Club, etc.).

HRC recognizes the 100 Championship points that count toward the retriever's HRCH title & all additional points (including Preliminary Hunts) earned in Finished, Grand & Upland Hunt Tests toward the Point Clubs.

The Programs consist of the awarding of a specially designed distinctive jacket embroidered with the HRC logo, owner's name & the qualifying retriever's name. Only one jacket will be awarded for each 'qualified' dog. However, additional jackets may be purchased by the owner through the HRC Administrative Secretary. This is to allow co-owners, spouses, family members, handlers, etc. to participate in the recognition of the accomplishment of the dog.

A Certificate of Accomplishment & Letter of Congratulations will be issued & sent to the 'qualified' dogs announcing their induction into these prestigious Clubs. An order form for the jacket will be included with the Certificate.

It is the desire of HRC & UKC, due to the significance of the accomplishments of these Hunting Retriever Champions, that the jackets be presented at a ceremony to the recipients at a National HRC event/by their home HRC Club with special ceremony.

Direct questions to Tammy Cobb, HRC Administrative Coordinator, at 269-364-2054/ tcobb@hrc.dog

No new entries as of March 17, 2025.

Notice of Suspension

UKC makes every attempt to maintain an accurate and up-to-date "Notice of Suspension" list, and the list is updated regularly. However, as there may be lag time between disciplinary action and adding an individual to the list, and also because mistakes and omissions can and do happen, UKC will not guarantee the accuracy of this list. If an individual is in question, customers should call UKC directly to obtain the most up-to-date information regarding that individual's disciplinary status. UKC can only confirm or deny a person's disciplinary status and cannot provide details on that person's case.

The following is an updated list of individuals who have been suspended or barred until the date indicated. During the period of suspension or barring, a person who is suspended or barred may be prohibited from, but not limited to, one or more of the following:

1. They are barred from registering any dogs in their names (joint or individual ownership). They may, however, transfer any dogs currently registered in their names (joint or individual ownership) to another individual(s), except they may not transfer dogs to any member of their families, spouses, or companions. Companion is defined as anyone who resides at the same address as the suspended individual.
 2. They are barred from registering any dogs in their names (joint or individual ownership) and they may not transfer any dogs currently registered in their names (joint or individual ownership).
 3. They are barred from registering any litters and from signing any litter registrations in any capacity. No offspring of a dog registered in their names (joint or individual ownership) is eligible for registration with UKC.
 4. They are barred from entering or participating in any way in any UKC licensed event, including, but not limited to, co-owner, handler, back-up handler, judge, guide, spectator, or UKC licensed official.
 5. They are barred from holding office in any UKC approved club or association.
 6. No dog registered in their names (joint or individual ownership) may be entered or participate in any way in any UKC licensed event.
 7. No championship points, wins toward a title, or monetary payouts from any UKC specialty program will be awarded for any dog registered in their names (joint or individual ownership).
 8. They are barred from advertising in any UKC publication or UKC internet site.
- Any violation of these sanctions or any other UKC rule or policy during the time period in which the individual is barred or suspended may result in their being suspended indefinitely.
