LEARN MORE

We've been busy creating some exciting new school leadership webinars to help you and your team to capture all of the great work that you do. Each one is specifically designed to cover all of the big challenges that schools leaders face when seeking to leave the school building each day with clarity and confidence.

Our webinars are not exclusive, and you don't have to be a Nautilus subscriber to benefit. Each one has multiple dates, a video replay link and comes with a fully functional free trial. Since the summer, we've welcomed over 400 school leaders to our one hour workshop sessions. Each webinar is packed with thought provoking solutions to help you to create healthy, sustainable and distributed leadership in your school.
