KENYA SAFARI: THE BIG 5

Black Rhino | Leopard | Elephant | Buffalo | Lion

Orbridge

Dear Alumni and Friends,

Join Brandeis Travelers on the journey of a lifetime into the heart of Kenya's wilderness. This 11-day epic safari provides unparalleled access to the reserves and national parks of The Big Five, home to the endangered black rhino, leopard, elephant, buffalo, lion, and a plethora of other wildlife.

In Nairobi, you'll explore the Samburu National Reserve, famous for its diverse and abundant wildlife. Next, experience Lake Nakuru National Park, described as the greatest ornithological spectacle in the world. Travel along the Great Rift Valley's western rim into the Maasai Mara National Reserve, where approximately 95 species of mammals, amphibians, and reptiles have been recorded along with over 400 species of birds.

Trek aboard 4x4 safari vehicles through the savanna plains during legendary game drives with expert guides. Enjoy visits to conservation organizations that play pivotal roles in rescuing and rehabilitating at-risk wildlife, protecting endangered species, and preserving the ecosystems and biodiversity of the region. During community visits, engage with locals for a deeper understanding of their rich cultures and vibrant traditions.

In partnership with local guides and experts, our tour will be led by Dan L. Perlman, professor of biology at Brandeis, who will enrich and inform the journey with his deep knowledge of animal behavior, conservation biology, environmental studies, and ecology.

After exhilarating days of exploration, relax and unwind at luxurious lodges and tented camps in the evenings, each offering exceptional hospitality and superior amenities.

Join us for a uniquely Brandeis experience — one that offers stimulating conversation, camaraderie, and connection with other intellectually-curious alumni and friends. We expect this small-group tour will fill up quickly as space is limited. Reserve your space today for this spectacular journey by calling Orbridge at (866) 639-0079.

Sincerely,

F. Patricia Fisher
