We are an independent bookstore located on the historic Guilford Green, est. 1972. Community involvement is important to us, so we sponsor The Guilford Fund for Education and The Guilford Art Center and host local author events and signings, play readings, and occasional live music. Most of all, we love books and hope to help you find the perfect one!

Pictured is a local author event, a table of new adult nonfiction, a variety of coffee table books, seasonal ornaments and pieces for sale by local artist.

Just a peek at our children's nonfiction from beautifully illustrated gift reference books to small paperback early readers for little ones just starting out.

Adult fictions, including separate sections for mystery, sci-fi/fantasy, horror, romance, and classics. Our piano displays travel books when we're not playing it, and the spinner is filled with pocket-sized journals and guides.

Sometimes a book just doesn't seem like enough for a gift, so we curate selections of items that go together. Stop in to see the variety of paired gifts.

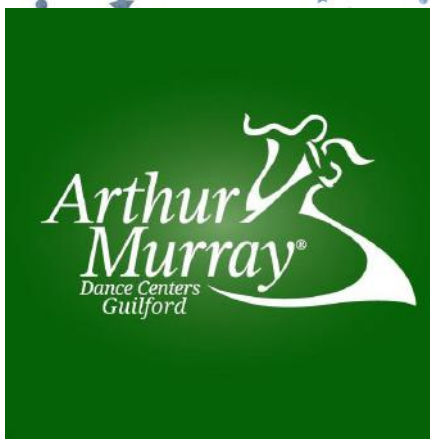

Little Golden Books! We have the classics you remember from your childhood, the newest Disney favorites, nonfiction about planes, trains, dinosaurs and more! Lots of biographies from Travis Kelce and Taylor Swift to Queen Elizabeth II and Martin Luther King, Jr. and so much more!
