Harvest 2025
The chaos that was

April 2025

March on Theuniskraal

We've survived the madness that was harvest,
Well almost...it's not quite done yet.

March in both the vineyard and orchard is a really chaotic month. With autumn looking over our shoulder, we are under constant pressure to get everything done. Grapes need to be harvested and parsed. Deciduous fruit need to be picked, packed and prepared for export. All this needs to happen before the Easter rain makes it annual appearance.

We always need water, and we are never ungrateful when it does rain. It can however, have a disruptive effect on our day. Rain early in March put our harvest and vineyard activities on hold for a day or two. As can be seen from photos on opposite page.

We are nearly done harvesting and everything should be done by early April. After the crazy rush of harvest, everyone on Theuniskraal looks forward to being able to relax for a few weeks. If only until the preparation for the next season starts everything all over again.

Theuniskraal
Bouquet Blanc
(Natural Sweet) 2023

Colour: Straw with greenish tints.

Bouquet:

Aromas of spice and floral flavours from the Gewürztraminer combined with sun-ripe raisins and a whiff of muscat from the Muscat Blanc.

Taste:

Fresh and sweet with a complexity of fruit flavours and a lingering aftertaste.

Food pairing:

An ideal partner to traditional Cape desserts such as malva pudding. Also excellent with spicy food like curry and traditional Cape Malay dishes like bobotie

Gewürztraminer the heart of our Bouquet Blanc

The German name Gewürztraminer literally means “Spice Traminer” or “Perfumed Traminer”, and is attested in Germany from the 16th century. This grape variety is a mutation of the Savagnin blanc, also named Traminer in South Tyrol (region situated in northern Italy) - Source Wikipedia

According to myth there is an interesting story as to how these jewels came to Theuniskraal, but this cannot be confirmed as yet. Who knows, watch this space.

Thomas Beerman

The founder of Valley Grapes, Germany came to sample our products at the source.

Thomas makes it possible for German Theuniskraal lovers to get their favourite wines locally in Germany.

19 April 1935 - 28 Maart 2025

Met hartseer neem ons afskeid van ons Pa en Oupa. Hy was vir ons 'n steunpilaar waarop ons altyd kon reken en 'n voorbeeld om na te streef.

Op Theuniskraal sal sy diep voetspore nooit uitgewis kan word nie.

Ons harte is stukkend, maar het 'n leeftyd se wonderlike herinneringe. Dankie vir al die lewenslesse wat ons elke dag saam met ons dra.

Met Liefde
