

Brentwood School

Senior Uniform & Appearance Regulations

Why do we have a school uniform?

At Brentwood we believe there are a number of reasons why having a school uniform is important. Our values – Virtue, Learning and Manners – were written into the Statutes of Brentwood School in 1622 and we use them to inform the decisions we make and the way we interact with each other: having a uniform approach to dress and appearance illustrated Virtue inasmuch as it represents fairness and equality; Learning, in that it removes an unnecessary potential distraction relating to choice of clothes (and the pressure that can come in trying to conform to the latest trends) and allows students to focus on their academic and personal development in school; and Manners, insofar as it helps encourage mutual respect by bringing members of our community together. Having a uniform helps create a sense of belonging and reflects the pride felt by many in being part of an inclusive, caring and open community.

How do we implement our uniform and appearance regulations?

All pupils are expected to be smart and wear their uniform with pride. Students take responsibility for following the uniform and appearance code as they respect the fairness and equality this represents in our community. They understand that regulation school uniform must be worn at all times on the School premises or when representing the School. All students should recognise the importance of adhering to the uniform and appearance regulations for practical reasons and to meet Health and Safety requirements in a school setting. This includes, for example, hair being tied back for all year groups in practical subjects.

In addition to students taking responsibility for their appearance and uniform, form teachers, with the support of the Deputy Head of Year and Head of Year, will monitor uniform, ask students to put right any breaches of the uniform and appearance regulations and will follow up incidents where students are repeatedly breaking these rules, contacting home if required. Staff and parents will then work together in order that the necessary changes are made. Sanctions will be applied for continued breach of the rules.

All staff will monitor student dress and appearance and ask students who are wearing uniform incorrectly, or breaching the appearance code, to put right any issues. Where necessary they will liaise with the appropriate year team. Most of the rules relating to student dress and appearance are objective. However, in a small number of areas we recognise that there is a degree of subjectivity and, as is the case in all schools, staff will make these judgements in consultation with the relevant Head of Year, Deputy Head (Pastoral) then Headmaster as necessary. Senior School Uniform and Appearance Regulations are linked to the Parent Contract, but may be amended from time to time.

It is essential that all clothes worn at school by pupils should be clearly marked with name and initials. This also includes bags and any games equipment. The School Shop offers an embroidery service for PE kit and school bags. This ensures greater security for these items as the text is permanent and visible on the outside of garments and bags.

Facial Hair in Sixth Form

If Sixth Formers choose to wear a beard/moustache, they must follow the regulations for facial hair below:

- Beards should be smart, groomed and intentional (rather than stubble which is not permitted) and must be of an appearance fitting with a professional environment. They should be kept short and neatly trimmed. Beards which take an excessive time to grow (as a rule more than two weeks) and, therefore, do not look tidy, are not permitted.
- Students who wish to grow a beard should plan to do this during a holiday, so it looks smart ready for the return to school.
- The appropriateness of facial hair is ultimately down to the school's discretion and students should expect to have to shave if their beard is considered to be against these regulations. The Director of Sixth Form will be the judge of what is acceptable.

Sanctions

The school reserves the right to apply sanctions if pupils do not adhere to the School's uniform and appearance rules. These will be decided on a case-by-case basis by the relevant Head of Year or member of the Senior Leadership Team in cases of serious breaches. Sanctions could range from the issuing of a detention, being sent home to rectify their uniform or breaches of the appearance regulations, or temporary exclusion.

Requests for variation in the School uniform

All pupils are required to wear uniform. The Headmaster will consider written requests from parents and pupils for variations in the uniform for reasons related to disability, gender reassignment/identity, sex, pregnancy or maternity, temporary injury, and/or on grounds of religion or belief, provided they are consistent with the School's policy on health and safety. The Headmaster will consider such requests on a case by case basis, and may arrange to meet with the parents to discuss the implications of such a request.
