Syllabus Breakdown

Year 1

Vocab / Study Book: Bayna Yadayk Book 1

Introduction:

essential Arabic vocabulary and dialogues. Focuses on listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills in a gradual, unit-based structure. Each unit includes vocabulary lists, comprehension passages, and oral practice.

Nahw (Grammar):

10 Lessons of Arabic Grammar + First Steps to Understanding Grammar

10 Lessons: Covers the absolute basics — nouns, verbs, particles, sentence structure, gender, number, and case endings.

First Steps: Expands on foundational nahw — introduction to i' rāb, subject-predicate structure, verb conjugation basics, and usage of common particles.

Sarf (Morphology): First Steps to Understanding Sarf

Introduces the concept of Arabic root systems. Covers the basic verb forms (I-III), conjugation for past, present, and command. Focus on recognition of patterns for vocabulary building.

Reading: Qasas an-Nabiyyīn simplified stories of the Prophets in accessible Arabic. Reinforces vocabulary and grammar learned in class. Provides exposure to classical Arabic style but at a beginner-friendly level.

Milestones By the end of Year 1

Vocabulary foundation established through Bayna Yadayk Book 1, covering core everyday topics
Ability to construct simple nominal and verbal sentences with correct basic i' rāb.
Recognition of root patterns and formation of basic verb conjugations (past, present, command).
Reading fluency developed through Qasas an-Nabiyyīn, with understanding of simple classical Arabic style.
Grammatical awareness of nouns, verbs, particles, gender, and number firmly established.

Year 2

Vocab / Study Book: Bayna Yadayk Book 2

Builds on Book 1 with more advanced vocabulary and complex dialogues.
Themes: travel, health, work, education, environment, media, and Islamic values.
Stronger emphasis on speaking fluency and extended comprehension passages

Nahw (Grammar):

Classical beginner's matn in grammar.
Introduces technical terms of nahw.
Covers detailed rules of i' rāb, types of words (ism, fi' l, ḥarf), sentence types, marfū' āt, manṣūbāt, and majrūrāt.
Prepares the student for more advanced texts.

Sarf (Morphology): Matn al-Binā

Core beginner's sarf text.
Covers verb forms systematically, including triliteral and quadriliteral patterns.
Teaches students how to recognise verb conjugations across all pronouns and tenses.

Reading: Iqra Series

Short stories and graded readers in Modern Standard Arabic.
Builds fluency in reading with comprehension questions.
Moves gradually from short simple stories to longer, more descriptive texts.

Milestones By the end of Year 2

Expanded vocabulary and conversational ability through Bayna Yadayk Book 2.
Competence in foundational nahw rules as structured in Ajrumiyyah, including marfū' āt, manṣūbāt, and majrūrāt.
Mastery of basic verb forms and conjugations across all pronouns using Matn al-Binā'.
Reading fluency developed through Qasas an-Nabiyyīn, with understanding of simple classical Arabic style.
Grammatical awareness of nouns, verbs, particles, gender, and number firmly established.

Year 3

Nahw (Grammar): Qatr al-Nadā

Intermediate-level grammar text.
Provides detailed explanation of i' rāb with examples from Qur'an and classical texts.
Expands on topics from Ajrumiyyah with more depth and precision.
Introduces conditional sentences, advanced particles, and complex grammatical constructions.

Sarf (Morphology): Tasrīf al-Izzī

Intermediate sarf manual.
Systematic practice in deriving verb and noun forms from roots.
Covers weak verbs, doubled verbs, hollow verbs, and hamzated verbs.
Builds mastery of the 10 major verb forms.

Balāghah (Rhetoric): Al-Balāghah al-Wāḍiḥah

Introduces students to Arabic rhetoric.
Covers ma' ānī (sentence structures and meanings), bayān (figures of speech), and badī' (stylistic embellishments).
Practical exercises in recognizing and applying rhetorical devices in Arabic texts.

Reading: Selected Passages (Kaylānī, Tantāwī, others)

Exposure to refined Arabic prose and essays.
Includes literary, historical, and moral themes.
Develops advanced comprehension and stylistic appreciation.
Prepares students to engage with both classical and modern Arabic literature.

Milestones by End of Year 3

Solid grounding in intermediate nahw through Qatr al-Nadā, with ability to analyse complex sentences.

Strong sarf skills from Tasrīf al-Izzī, including irregular verb patterns and derivation of nouns and verbs.

Ability to read and appreciate refined Arabic literature through selections from Kaylānī, Tantāwī, and other authors.

Preparedness to engage with both classical Islamic texts and modern Arabic works with confidence.

Mission

Statement

Through The High Wycombe Arabic Project, we are committed to delivering a comprehensive, milestone-driven Arabic programme that progresses from foundational skills to advanced grammar, morphology, and rhetoric.

Our mission is to provide a structured pathway that combines classical texts with modern resources, enabling learners to build fluency, precision, and depth in their understanding of the Arabic language. This project is designed to equip learners not only for confident communication, but for meaningful engagement with the Qur'an, Hadith, and the treasures of Islamic and Arabic literature.

Built on a clear, step-by-step syllabus that integrates vocabulary, grammar, morphology, reading, and rhetoric, The High Wycombe Arabic Project is a programme that we hope will bring consistency, clarity, and long-term results in mastering the language.
