HELPFUL HINTS

for a Daily Quiet Time

The Quiet Time with Commentary was created to encourage and facilitate spiritual growth in the lives of Christians as they conduct their own personal investigation into the Bible. Consider the following helpful hints:

- 1 Prioritize your time with God. Morning is often best, but choose the time that works for you.
- 2 As you read the daily passage in God's Word, look at it from God's point of view. Meditate on what you have read. (In one sentence, write the main thought).
 - Apply the truth to your life. (Use first person pronouns: I, me, my, mine). If you have difficulty finding an application for your life, think of yourself as a Bible SPECTator and ask yourself the following questions:
 - S – Is there any SIN for me to forsake?
 - P – Is there any PROMISE for me to claim?
 - E – Is there any EXAMPLE for me to follow?
 - C – Is there any COMMAND for me to obey?
 - T – Is there a TRUTH for me to embrace?
- 3 Read the commentary portion only after you have read the daily passage. This should provide additional insight into the passage.
- 4 Be sure to fill out your Quiet Time sheets. This will really help you remember the things the Lord brings to your mind and establish action steps to take.
- 5 Organizing and documenting your prayer time will help you stay faithful in prayer and rejoice as you see God at work. There are several pages in this book for you to use or you can create your own.
- 6 Each day, purpose to share something you gained from your quiet time with another person. Whether it's face to face, through a phone call, text, or on social media, communicating what you have learned from God's Word encourages others and solidifies its truth in your own heart.

THE CAUSE CIRCLE

The Cause Circle is a simple tool that will help you be more intentional about sharing Jesus' message, the Gospel, with your friends. It is built around three simple priorities: Prayer. Care. Share.

PRAYER. Jesus knew how important it was to talk to God about people, before He talked to people about God...and the same is true for us. When we start by praying for the people we are seeking to reach with the gospel, it prepares their hearts to hear the good news of Jesus.

CARE. Jesus often healed the sick, fed the hungry, and helped the hurting. In the same way, we must show love to those we are trying to reach. We do this by listening to them and caring for them.

SHARE. We must lovingly share the gospel message clearly and confidently. A restored relationship with God is the absolute best news on the planet, so don't be afraid to ask them to put their trust in Jesus!

If they say "No," or "Not now," continue the Prayer, Care, Share process. And if they say "Yes," celebrate! Then get them plugged into a good church, help them grow deeper in the faith, and challenge them to begin their own Cause Circle of Prayer, Care, Share with their own friends.

PRAY

Pray for those who teach in your church to be faithful to the Word.

What is the most powerful, unstoppable force in all the world? A category 5 hurricane? An earthquake? An atomic explosion? Those are good candidates, but they cannot compare to the power of the Gospel which alone can transform a person's character and change their eternal destination! No other message can produce love where once there was enmity (vv. 4, 8) and provide authentic hope that extends beyond the grave (v. 5). Paul reminds us in these opening verses that the Gospel is unstoppable and is constantly producing results and increasing its impact around the world. No earthly force can stop it even though it is met with resistance wherever it goes. What can explain this kind of power? Paul answers this as he expresses his thanks for the impact of the Gospel in the lives of his readers. The Gospel message is powerful because it's not an opinion or idea dreamed up by man. It is truth (v. 5) that is focused on Jesus Christ, the Son of God (v. 4). What can save a person from the penalty and enslaving power of sin? No human effort, religion, or philosophy can do this. Christ alone is able to save. His death paid sin's penalty and His resurrection opened the way to a new life that cannot be defeated by sin's power. Simple faith and trust in Him alone (v. 4) unites me with Him so that His death and resurrection become mine. My sin penalty is paid, and I become a new creation in Him. The Gospel is not a call to have faith in just anything or anyone or a commitment to live a certain way. It's an invitation to continually place one's total confidence in Christ alone to save.

How confident are you in Christ's power to save? Have you given up praying for someone's salvation? Start praying for them again today! Notice that Paul's confidence was rooted in the hope of the Gospel which brings forth fruit wherever it is known. Your job is to pray for the lost and boldly proclaim the Gospel wherever you can. It's God's job to bring about transformation and new life based on the response of the hearer. Do not give up. Do not stop praying!

PRAY

Israel – Pray for the Jewish people to call on the name of Yeshua the Messiah.

What do you think your prayers reveal about your spiritual focus? In these verses, we can see just how spiritually-minded the Apostle Paul was as we have been given a glimpse of his “prayer list” for his readers. It’s challenging to note that every single request has something to do with spiritual growth and is centered on the Father and the Son. Paul asked for five basic things for the Colossians: 1) they might be filled with an understanding of HIS will, 2) they would walk and serve in ways that please HIM, 3) they would know HIM better, 4) they would be strengthened with HIS power, and 5) they would be filled with gratitude to HIM. Paul did not ask for these things occasionally. Rather, these requests were constantly on his lips as he prayed for his readers (v.9). What we continually pray for is an excellent indicator of the spiritual temperature of our lives. Paul’s prayer life was red hot because the affections of his heart were tied to eternal things!

Paul’s desire for the Colossians mirrors God’s desire for every believer. We must work diligently to grow in our knowledge of His will through examination and application of His Word. Notice Paul’s emphasis on knowledge (vv. 9-10) and continued growth in this area. When we devote ourselves to these pursuits, our lives will be examples of fruitfulness and good works, all to the glory of God!

LIFE STEP

Are you genuinely interested in growing increasingly to be like Jesus? If you are, then Paul’s prayer for the Colossians should point you in the right direction and keep you on the right path. Take a moment to assess the quantity and quality of your Bible intake. Do you read the Bible regularly? Are you applying biblical truth to life’s issues, challenges, and problems? Do others see good works and fruitfulness in your daily walk with God? Do you pray consistently with an attitude of thankfulness? Ask God right now to help you see the areas where you need to grow.

PRAY

Praise the Lord for the faithful believers who have had the greatest positive impact on your life.

Today's brief reading contains one of the most complete descriptions of the absolute supremacy of Jesus Christ in the entire Bible! False teachers were claiming that Christ was simply one of several created beings, including angels, which proceeded from God and by whom man had to pass in order to reach Him. In this section Paul affirmed that Christ is not part of creation; He is the Creator of all things! The term "firstborn" (v.15) does not refer to time but rather to rank (see also Psalm 89:27). Everything that exists in the visible and the invisible realms was made by Him, for Him, and through Him, including all angels regardless of their rank (v.16). All of creation not only originated with Him but it continues to depend on His continuous, sustaining power. Christ did not create all things and then leave them to spin on their own. He actively holds all of creation together (v.17). He is not only the Head of the current creation but also of the new creation which He is already bringing into being as people are born again to become new creatures in Him (2 Corinthians 5:17; Revelation 21:5) and members of His body, the Church (v.18). He leads the way as "firstborn from the dead" (v.18). This does not mean that He was the first to rise from the dead but that He was the first to rise with an immortal, glorious body as we will have one day (1 Corinthians 15:20-23; Philippians 3:20-21). There can be no doubt that Jesus Christ occupies the highest place (v.18). The final verse of today's text is one of the most powerful affirmations of Christ's deity (v.19). He is fully God!

LIFE STEP

Read today's text several times while imagining yourself standing before Jesus Christ. What's your reaction? Guilt and shame? Rest in His righteousness which is yours by faith. Hardened rebellion? Submit to Him and you will discover that He is a Good Shepherd. Awe-inspiring wonder? Worship and admire Him! This is the beginning of wisdom.

PRAY

Argentina – Pray for the local church to reach out spiritually and economically to the 500,000 people living in slums.

To catch the impact of these verses we must remember what Paul was addressing in this letter. False teachers were claiming that Christ was not sufficient for salvation and sanctification. They taught that Christ was neither fully human nor fully divine but that He was a spiritual emanation from God who was only part of the path to reconciliation with God. In other words, Christ was not entirely sufficient. You needed far more than Christ if you were to ever be made right with God. Paul strongly denied all of this by affirming the deity of Christ, His coming in the flesh as a human being, and the fact that His death alone made reconciliation possible between hostile sinners and a holy God. Notice the result of Christ's ministry of reconciliation. We who were once hostile aliens whose evil actions were simply the natural outward expression of what we were on the inside (v. 21) became holy, blameless, and beyond reproach in God's sight (v. 22). How in the world is that possible? It is not something that we can ever accomplish ourselves because it involves a fundamental change of what we are, not just what we do. Only Christ could change what we were. He did this by dying in the flesh in our place. By His death, what we were was crucified with Him so that we could become the righteousness of God in Him (2 Corinthians 5:21).

LIFE STEP

It's very easy to fall into the same error that the false teachers were pedaling. Our natural tendency is self-reliance. We think that somehow, we must add to Christ's work if we're ever to be accepted by God. We imagine God standing at some distance, arms crossed, observing us with concern on His face as we do our best to pray more, work harder, fight off sin, and generally try to be better Christians and earn His "well done." Who do we think we are? Christ and Christ alone is our standing before the Father. Right now, express your gratitude to God that Christ is sufficient for your salvation. Find a way to remind yourself of this throughout the day so that you'll constantly depend on Him to live out what you are in Him.

PRAY

Libya – Pray for the tiny Libyan Church to be united and established despite intense persecution.

Imagine the rusted hulk of a once beautiful old Rolls Royce now sitting abandoned in a remote field with trees and bushes pushing up through the wreck. What hope does such a sorry ruin have of ever being returned to its former glory? None, unless a skilled expert rescues it from the field and carefully restores it over time. What about us? What hope do we have of ever being put back into a proper spiritual condition before a holy God? Is there any hope of being completely free of the anger, bitterness, lust, jealousy, fear, discontent, and loneliness that seem to constantly eat away at us like rust? There is! Such hope is not found in ourselves and our abilities or good intentions. We can no more restore ourselves to a right condition than the rusted vehicle can restore itself to its former glory. Our only hope of glory is Christ in us (v. 27). It is not simply the fact that Christ died and rose again on our behalf. That is essential of course. But it is the fact that Christ now lives within us (Galatians 2:20). He is our life and our very identity before the Father (1 Corinthians 1:30-31). It is only the release of His power within that can enable us to walk in victory over sin's corruption and enable us to bear up under the inevitable suffering, toil, and struggle that are a normal part of serving Him (vv. 24, 29). Paul's goal was not to somehow coerce people into making themselves presentable to God. His objective was to present everyone complete in Christ and in Christ alone (v. 28). Which goal are you vigorously pursuing?

LIFE STEP

What means are you using to pursue spiritual growth in yourself and in others? Scripture reading and memorization, accountability, faithful church attendance, protective hedges of some kind? These are excellent but they'll never produce genuine godliness if they are devoid of a conscious dependence on the indwelling presence of Christ. Write out one way you can consciously depend on Him today. Then do it!

PRAY

Hungary – Pray for a recommitment to evangelism, holiness, and spiritual maturity within the church.

Having spent the first chapter affirming the supremacy and sufficiency of Christ in the Gospel, in spiritual growth, in creation, in the church, and in his own ministry, Paul now warned his readers against all attempts to undermine Christ by pursuing spirituality through human philosophy and methods. The danger was very real, and it was a huge concern to Paul. He mentioned how greatly he was struggling (v. 1) to ensure that his readers would not be led astray by false teachers who were using extremely persuasive arguments (v. 4). This translates a Greek word only used here in the New Testament. It describes speech that is fine-sounding, plausible, and extremely compelling. At its core was the notion that simple faith in Christ might be a good place to start but such simplicity could not take them very far. They needed to move beyond childish faith in Christ and pursue mystical wisdom and knowledge, something which the false teachers could help them achieve! They could access hidden secrets and enjoy mystical experiences that most people missed, if they would simply purchase their books and attend their conferences! What was Paul's response? Bogus! All the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are found in Christ. The one who has Christ has everything necessary for a complete and victorious new life in Him. Therefore, the way one begins through simple faith in Him is the only way to make real progress.

LIFE STEP

In the information age we live in, we may easily be led astray by exposure to false teachers who sound right, but who teach wrong doctrine. Do not be deceived by fine-sounding arguments that emphasize hidden or secret truths from God (2 Corinthians 11:3). Notice Paul's simple encouragement in verses 6-7. In the same way you started your walk with Jesus, keep on walking! In the same way you were "rooted" in Him, keep abiding in Him as you grow and mature spiritually. Identify one specific way you have been attempting to make spiritual progress without depending on Christ. What can you do to change that today?

PRAY

Panama – Pray for strong Christian impact on the multitude of nationalities passing through the Canal Zone.

Paul continued his warning not to turn away from Christ and seek after meaning, purpose, and fulfillment in human philosophy. The problem wasn't with philosophy in general (defined as "the love of wisdom") but with the source of wisdom some chose to love. Paul's readers were in danger of being influenced by human traditions and ideas rather than on Christ in Whom are found all the treasures of wisdom (vv.3, 8). Human philosophy bases itself on surface issues Paul referred to as "elementary principles of the world"-- appearances, feelings, impressions, and opinions — rather than on the profound, eternal realities found in Christ. The one who has been united with Christ in His death, burial, and resurrection has already been made complete in Him. Our former lost, empty, and guilty condition has been replaced with Christ's fullness (vv.9-10). Sin no longer defines us nor can it require us to pay for it in hell. Why? Because Christ fully paid the debt of our sin. In verse 14, Paul had in mind the practice of nailing a sign above the heads of crucified criminals stating the crime(s) for which they were paying (Mark 15:26). It was a certificate of debt which would become void once paid. In Jesus' case, Pilate could not find any charge to write so he wrote a title instead! However, there was indeed a certificate of debt nailed to Christ's cross: ours! Jesus Christ paid our debt! There is no condemnation remaining for those who are in Christ (Romans 8:1). Hallelujah!

LIFE STEP

Take out a sheet of paper and make a list of those specific sins for which you have trouble sensing God's forgiveness. You know what it's like. You ask yourself, "How can God possibly forgive me for _____?" If you haven't struggled with this issue, list those sins of your past you wish weren't part of your past (or present). They may have been committed years ago but they still haunt you. Now cross them out by writing "Paid in full by Jesus Christ!" over them all. You are forgiven. You are no longer under the bondage of that sin-debt because Jesus canceled that record of debt (v. 14). Live free today!

LIFE WITH JESUS LASTS FOREVER

List a few things that don't last.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

Most everything in our world wears out and needs to be replaced. We get new clothes, new phones, and sometimes new friends. When we are really pressed to think about it, we realize not much lasts forever. That is what makes God's promise of eternal life, life with Jesus forever, so amazing.

Read Romans 6:23

According to this verse, what has God given to us as a gift?

- A better attitude
- Eternal life
- The ability to do good works

Notice that the verse says eternal life is a gift. If something is a gift, all you need to do is receive it and it is yours; there is no work involved!

Read Romans 3:23

According to this verse, what is it that we all do?

- Seek God
- Try to do good
- Sin

If eternal life, life with Jesus forever, depended on you and me being good enough to deserve it, it would be a lost cause because we all come far short of God's standard of sinless perfection. We all think, say, and do things that disobey God; we all have sin as a part of our "DNA." We were born with a natural propensity to sin. Think about it: no one had to teach you how to lie, you just did it instinctively.

Read John 3:16

This verse says God gives eternal life to everyone who believes. That is so simple. Anyone who believes in God's one and only Son (Jesus) can have eternal life, life with Jesus forever. Jesus is God. He was born of a virgin and lived a perfect life without sin. Jesus took the punishment for our sins. He died and rose again, proving He is God and has the power to forgive our sins and give us eternal life. By believing in Jesus, we receive the forgiveness of sins and eternal life that lasts forever.

Read John 10:28

What promises do you see in this verse? (Check all that apply.)

- I will never perish.
- If I am a good person, I receive eternal life.
- Jesus gives me eternal life.
- No one will take me out of God's hand.

This verse teaches that eternal life is given, it's not something you work for or something you have to work to maintain. ETERNAL LIFE IS A GIFT THAT LASTS FOREVER!

We can have confidence that eternal life is a gift from the loving and never-changing God of the universe. The next time you are thinking about those things that DON'T last forever, let it remind you of the one thing that does last forever, eternal life. Remember, eternal life started the day you believed in Jesus and will last forever.

ACTION STEPS

- As you wake up each day this week, take a few minutes to thank Jesus for giving you eternal life that lasts forever.
- Write out a prayer to God thanking Him for the forgiveness of sins.

QUIET TIME

Now that you have begun a relationship with the Best Friend you will ever have, you will want to spend time with Him every day; this is called a quiet time. Quiet time is all about spending time with God, learning how to listen to Him (by reading the Bible) and learning how to talk to Him (through prayer).

Read Psalm 42:1-2

What words do you see in this verse that show the writer's desire to spend time with God? (Check all that apply.)

THIRST LOOK LONG PANTS

In the following paragraph, put a box around “Word of God,” circle “the Bible,” and highlight “Best Friend.”

The Word of God, the Bible, changes us as we read it, think about it, and do what it says. God's Holy Spirit, Who lives inside every believer, also uses the Bible to speak to us. He takes the words written in the Bible and tells us what God wants us to know for our lives. Investing time to read the Bible, trying to understand it, and then applying it in your life, will have an incredible effect on you!

YOUR QUIET TIME PLAN

Think through your typical day and decide what time you will set aside for your quiet time. Select a time that you can make consistent each day, when things are quiet, and you can really think. Choose a place that is quiet and has no distractions. Put a reminder somewhere, like on your phone, to help you build the habit. Plan to share what you learn each day with a friend, youth leader, or parent. The more detailed you are about the plan, the more likely you will be to follow through with it.

YOUR TIME WITH GOD

Pray

Before you start reading, take some time to talk with God by asking Him to speak to you through His Word. Ask Him to help you understand what you read and also to help you do whatever He tells you.

Peruse: “to examine with attention”

Go to the Quiet Time page and look up the Bible verses. If you aren’t sure where the verses are, use the index in the front of your Bible, do a Google search, or use a Bible app. Read the verses and answer the questions. Your Word of Life Quiet Time will help you think about the meaning of the verses and how they can apply directly to your own life. You can use some of the following questions to help you with this:

- What does this passage teach me about God, others, myself, or life?
- Is there a command to obey?
- Is there a promise from God that applies to me?
- Is there a warning for me to pay attention to?
- Is there an example to follow or avoid?

If you have any questions, get stuck or have a hard time understanding something, feel free to ask for help from the person going through this lesson with you.

Practice

The last step is to apply God’s Word. This is when you take what you read and do something about it. Ask yourself, “If I were to take action on what I have learned, what would I do?” These questions can help you think through your application:

- Is there sin in my life I need to stop?
- Is there a way of thinking or an attitude that needs adjustment?
- Is there something I can celebrate and thank God for?
- Is there an action I need to take or a conversation I need to have?
- How will I live this out in my life today or this week?

You can reinforce what you learn by:

- Posting what God shows you to your favorite social media platform.
- Make a note about what you learned somewhere and read it a couple of times a day.
- Text what you learned to your parents, a friend, youth leader, or pastor and ask them what they learned from their quiet time with God.

ACTION STEPS

■ Get your own Quiet Time this week at wol.is/Quiettime. If needed, have the friend going through this lesson help you. Once you have your Quiet Time, use the information in this lesson to set up your plan. (Scan the QR code)

- WHEN - I will have it: ■ morning ■ afternoon ■ evening.
- WHERE - I plan to have it at this location: _____
- WHO - I will daily share what I learn with: _____

■ Have at least one day of Quiet Time before your next meeting.
