Celebrating 50 years!

Dear Members:

Stack up the bubbly because it's time to celebrate! Can you believe it? Our 50th Anniversary is just around the corner, and we're gearing up for an unforgettable occasion. Join us on August 10th at the Dog Days of Summer Dressage Show at Wills Park Equestrian Center in Alpharetta, Georgia for a fantastic party filled with camaraderie and excitement.

The Dog Days of Summer Dressage Show isn't just about competition—it's a full weekend of fun on August 10th and 11th at Wills Park Equestrian Center. Get ready for an exhilarating display of talent and passion!

One of the highlights of our Saturday afternoon festivities is the Golden Elegance Design Award. Farm or other groups are invited to showcase their creativity by setting up themed tables adorned with exquisite decor and delightful hors d'oeuvres or desserts under the covered arena. It's a chance to shine and win a fabulous prize from our generous sponsor (details coming soon). Registration is free (register on the website <https://gdcta.org/event-5425351>), so don't miss out on this exciting opportunity!

This show marks a special milestone as a USEF/USDF dressage show weekend at Wills Park Equestrian Center and celebrates 50 incredible years of GDCTA. Our members' dedication and achievements have fueled our growth, enabling us to offer diverse programs and events that cater to riders of all levels, from beginners to Olympians. Here's to many more years of success and community spirit!

Join us in the competition! GDCTA is now using HorseShowOffice.com for convenient online entries, not just for this show, but for all future events.

Sign up today to become a sponsor, vendor, or participant in the Golden Elegance Design Contest through our website.

For advertising opportunities in the show program, contact June Brewer at yearbook@gdcta.org or purchase your ad directly here <https://gdcta.org/event-5746943>.

To discuss sponsorship, reach out to Julie Shannon at 770-317-3336 or julie@shannondale.com.

For vendor inquiries, contact Lacey Halstead at 404-590-1064 or wholehorsesaddlefit@gmail.com.

And last but not least, we welcome volunteers to help us maintain the excellence of our shows. Reach out to Caren Caverly at 770-713-4025 or ccaverly@comcast.net to get involved.

Follow us on Facebook and Instagram for event updates and join the celebration!

Let's make our 50th Anniversary a memorable milestone together. See you at Wills Park!

Transparency is crucial in this industry, and I should know, as I got taken advantage of with my first book, and that is why authors are especially interested in joining our family of award-winning authors!

FEATURED BOOK “What the Pet Food Industry Isn't Telling You”

As a former competitor in Show Jumping and Dressage, with over 25 years in the equestrian world, and having dogs since I was a baby, I understand the bond between pets and their owners. My journey from competitive riding to becoming a certified raw dog food nutrition specialist, functional medicine practitioner, and educator led to uncovering the truth behind pet food. Available now on Amazon for just $4.99 for the eBook edition, and frequently offered for free to spread awareness far and wide. Offered anywhere books are sold nationally and internationally. Help me spread the word to reverse pain and illness in pets and prevent it before it happens.

PARTNER WITH US “Do you have a platform dedicated to pet wellness?”

Do you have a platform dedicated to pet wellness? Let's collaborate to spread the word about this essential book and revolutionize pet care worldwide. Together, we'll ensure pets live long, healthy, and happy lives.

The Georgia Dressage & Combined Training Association (GDCTA) is committed to advancing the equestrian sports of dressage and eventing through member education and organizing shows to help members achieve their goals.

As one of the most vibrant equestrian organizations in Georgia, GDCTA offers a year-round schedule of events. Nearly every weekend, GDCTA provides educational opportunities, organizational assistance, and volunteer support, encouraging new organizers and riders while cheering on advanced competitors.

History and Origins

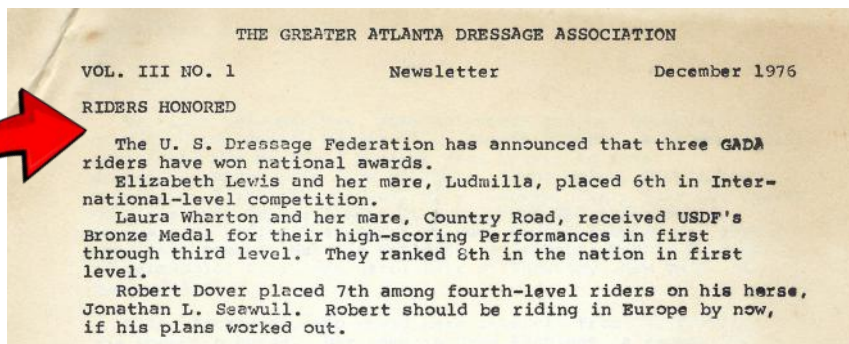

The GDCTA traces its roots back to 1974 when a group of dressage enthusiasts in metro Atlanta formed the Greater Atlanta Dressage Association (GADA) to promote dressage in Georgia. The first nationally recognized dressage competition, the Greater Atlanta Dressage Southern, was held in April 1974 at a farm north of Atlanta. The judge for this event was Robert Dover, who later represented the United States in dressage at multiple Olympic Games.

In 1976, the GADA newsletter began featuring a list of Honored Members. Notably, three GADA riders received national awards from the US Dressage Federation:

- Elizabeth Lewis and her mare Ludmilla placed 6th in international-level competition.
- Laura Wharton and her mare Country Road received the USDF's Bronze Medal for their high-scoring performances from first through third levels, ranking 8th in the nation at the first level.
- Robert Dover placed 7th among fourth-level riders on his horse Jonathan L Seawull and was expected to ride in Europe.

To address the growing statewide interest in combined training and eventing, GADA voted in 1984 to expand its focus to include these disciplines.

The remarkable achievements GDCTA members highlight the dedication and passion our members have to advance their skills and contribute to the equestrian community. As a result, GDCTA continues to thrive, offering a wide range of programs and events that cater to riders of all levels, from beginners to Olympians.

Since she was originally an eventer, a long time ago, Mary Fowler was the person who named the Greater Atlanta Dressage Association to Georgia Dressage and Combined Training Association.

Memories from Mary Fowler: "GADA was a dressage group, meeting at Mary Lewis's house on High Point Rd in Atlanta. Laura Wharton and her dad were always there. Bonnie Mays was the treasurer doing a very good job. Very little funds. Some meetings were held at Anne Genovese's house. Once we became involved, GDCTA held an Adult Camp down at Big Bear Farm. Housing and feeding campers in the cabins at Callaway Gardens. We held GDCTA recognized shows to cut costs for competitors. Tried very hard to bring and enlist volunteers to grow the club. GDCTA had one AHSA (now USEF) show a year. One year, Bill Fowler had to put the upfront show costs on his personal credit card! So often when volunteers found it was real work, they disappeared. I cooked for the camp for that reason. GDCTA eventually became financially stable. We added "Kudzu Clinics" with volunteer instructors. I could go on and on!"

NOTICE TO MEMBERS REGARDING CHANGE IN ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT

On Wednesday, July 25, 1984, the Board of Directors of Greater Atlanta Dressage Association, Inc. approved certain changes to the Articles of Incorporation of the Greater Atlanta Dressage Association. Those Articles of Amendment are attached hereto. You should read these Articles carefully. Essentially the Articles change the name of Greater Atlanta Dressage Association, Inc. to Georgia Dressage and Combined Training Association, Inc. and include in the purpose of the corporation furthering the art of combined training as well as dressage.
At the annual meeting of our members on the ___ day of November, 1984, these Articles of Amendment will be submitted to our members for their approval. These Articles of Amendment may only be adopted upon receiving the approval of 2/3's of our members then voting.
The Board of Directors of Greater Atlanta Dressage Association, Inc. unanimously approved these amendments and we urge you to approve them as well.

Dog Days of Summer Dressage

August 10–11, 2024 @ Wills Park 11915 Wills Rd, Alpharetta, GA 30009

This new show for GDCTA is a USEF/USDF dressage show at Wills Park and this year it's 50th Anniversary of GDCTA being a Group Member Organization (GMO) of USDF celebration.

So, we are looking for volunteers to be part of the committee and to work during this show (and the others, too, of course!), specifically we could use a Hospitality Host to help during this show.

Volunteer at a Dressage Show: Be Part of the Equestrian Community!

Are you passionate about horses and want to contribute to the exciting world of horse shows? Look no further! Volunteering at a horse show is a rewarding experience that allows you to be part of the action while supporting the equestrian community. Join us in making horse shows memorable and enjoyable for all.

Newsletter Submission Guidelines

Collected Remarks is the official publication of the Georgia Dressage and Combined Training Association, Inc.

(GDCTA), a non-profit, exempt corporation organized under Section 501© (3). It is the monthly newsletter designed to inform, educate and entertain the membership. The Editors encourage members to submit original advertising, articles, photographs, and artwork for possible publication. The editors of 'Collected Remarks' reserve the right to reject any advertising or article deemed to be unsuitable for this newsletter.

- Editorial contributions of 600 words or less (accompanied by photos with permission to publish, if applicable) are welcomed although publication cannot be guaranteed.
- GDCTA is not responsible for the opinions and statements expressed in signed articles or paid advertisements.

GDCTA Collected Remarks welcomes submissions of quality color dressage and sport-horse photographs. All mounted riders must be wearing appropriate headgear (a safety helmet, a derby, or a top hat). Photos must be accompanied by complete captions, including the full names of all subjects.

For print, only high resolution (300dpi) Jpeg or PDF files will be accepted.

Please submit electronically to designonpenny@yahoo.com and webmaster@gdcta.org.

DISCLOSURE

WHO IS GDCTA?

The Georgia Dressage and Combined Training Association (GDCTA), founded in 1974, is the largest United States Dressage Federation Group Member Organization (GMO) in Region 3. As a 501(c)(3) non-profit, GDCTA encourages an interest and understanding among horse enthusiasts in dressage and eventing through educational activities and competitions.

PROGRAMS

GDCTA programs are offered to help riders across the membership reach their goals and realize their dreams through rider education, camaraderie, scholarships/grants, awards (so many awards!), USDF group membership, and events – clinics, camps, symposiums, competitions - as well as youth-focused activities.

01

STRONG COMMUNITY & RELATIONSHIPS

GDCTA aspires to give members a sense of community by developing relationships that enhance greater awareness, understanding, and appreciation for dressage and eventing.

02

MEMBERSHIP

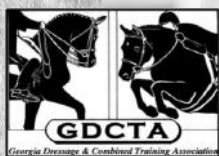

Membership is open to all levels of riders and all breeds of horses, including Junior/YR, Adult Amateurs, and Professionals. Even a few Olympians are among our ranks!

OPPORTUNITIES

GDCTA cultivates opportunities to participate within our community for your own enjoyment, improvement, and to benefit the horse through education and competition in a fun environment. We encourage our members to be ambassadors for equestrian sport both within members' states and in the equestrian community at large.
