1983 - 2018 COLLECTION

36 x 750ml bottles total

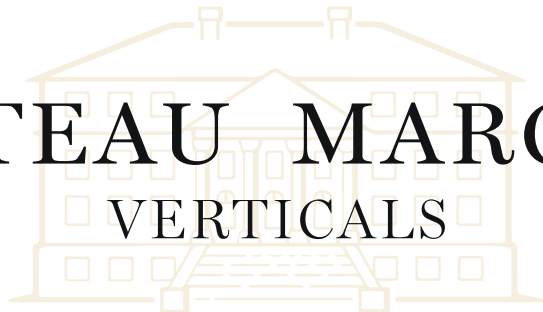

available: 1 set

HISTORY

Known since the XII century, the land was called “La Mothe de Margaux” (the Margaux mound), for in the Médoc, the greatest wines are always produced on sloping land that ensures good drainage. 200 years ago, the manor house was constructed: a great architectural legacy inspired by Ancient Greece. In 1977, André Mentzelopoulos purchased the property and took the steps to bring Château Margaux into its new renaissance. After his death in 1980, his daughter Corinne took over ownership just as Bordeaux wine’s popularity exploded across the world and enjoyed unprecedented success. Her children have recently been handed the reins of the estate.

LANGOA BARTON VERTICAL - 200 ANS SAINT JULIEN

Château Langoa-Barton propose to celebrate the 200th anniversary of the Barton family at Château Langoa-Barton, an exceptional box produced in only 200 copies.

5 X 750ML BOTTLES + 1 x 1.5 L
OF 5 VINTAGES

available: 4 sets

1994, 2000, 2009, 2016 and 2021

Château Langoa-Barton family celebrates two hundred years of history, with the 2021 vintage and this very special commemorative case. An artistic composition of elements and symbols evocative the family and the Château.

Origin (Vintage 1994)
Heritage (Vintage 2000)
Nature (Vintage 2009)
Evolution (Vintage 2016)

The masterpiece is a magnum of the bicentenary vintage 2021 whose label merges the 4 paintings. The vine, symbol of the Circle of Life, mother of wine, and the ironwork, a strong architectural component at the Château, join the images together. They symbolize passing time, the present story unfolds without ever losing sight of the past.

HISTORY

Founded in 1552, Château Giscours has constantly reinvented itself to survive the centuries. Throughout the years, ambitious and visionary estate owners were passionate about pulling together the estate's land and giving this vineyard, named a Third Grand Cru Classé in 1855, a reputation for excellence.

CHÂTEAU LAGRANGE

SAINT - JULIEN

HISTORY

Château Lagrange, Third Classified Growth in the 1855 classification, is nestled in the heart of the renowned Saint-Julien appellation. Château Lagrange's vineyard stretches over two Gunzian gravel slopes where the highest point of Saint-Julien thrones on the beautiful estate. Harmony is the key word for each and every man and woman at the Château. They never force Mother Nature, they merely guide her, with the objective of expressing the best of each terroir in mind. Each year, their work in the vineyard, where attention to detail and age-old traditions are combined, gives birth to a unique, elegant, powerful wine able to age well over time.

HISTORY

Château d'Yquem earned the esteemed title Premier Cru Supérieur in 1855. By the time that the genius of this sweet wine was acknowledged, the Sauvage and Lur Saluces families had been creating this treasure for over 400 years. The LVMH group acquired the estate in 1999 with the continued desire to go on writing the legendary Yquem story, both in keeping with tradition and remaining open to modern advances. From the vineyard to the cellar, the craft behind each vintage is also maintained through respect for the label and determines the destiny of each year's production.
