Title: "Bubbly the Dolphin and the Shiny Shell"

Characters on sticks: Bubbly the Dolphin, Hermit Crab

Props on sticks: A shiny shell

Is the stage ready? Let's begin!

Bubbly the Dolphin swims onto the stage.

Narrator: Bubbly is a young dolphin who loves swimming and collecting seashells.

He was happily swimming along when suddenly... something shiny caught his eye at the bottom of the sea.

Bubbly (excited): Ooo! Something's sparkling down there!

Bubbly swims closer to the shell.

Bubbly: It's the most beautiful shell I've ever seen! It will be the prettiest one in my collection!

Narrator: Bubbly is thrilled. He can already imagine how lovely it will look among his other shells.

Hermit Crab slowly walks onto the stage and approaches Bubbly and the shell.

Crab (shyly): Oh, what a nice shell... just the right size for me.

Bubbly: I found it first! It's mine!

Crab (sighing): Oh well... That's too bad.

Bubbly: Do you collect shells too?

Crab: No... I'm just looking for a new home. I've outgrown my old shell.

Bubbly: I'm sure you'll find another one.

Crab: I've been looking all morning... but all the bigger shells are already taken.

Narrator: Bubbly really wanted to keep the shell. But he looked at the crab... and understood how much he needed it.

Bubbly (quietly): You... you can have it if you want.

Crab (surprised): Really? Don't you want it anymore?

Bubbly: I do, very much. But you need it more than I do.

Narrator: The Hermit Crab jumps with joy and happily waves his claws.

Crab (happily): It's perfect! Thank you! You're a real friend!

Bubbly: I'm glad you like it!

Narrator: And so, Bubbly the Dolphin learned that the most precious things aren't the ones we collect - but the kindness we share with others.

The End

Moral: Be kind and help your friends whenever you can.
