To Every Young Reader...

This Reading Adventure Guide was created for you.

May you always find joy in turning pages, asking questions, and discovering new worlds through books.

Remember that every story has something special to teach us. Sometimes we learn about courage. Sometimes we learn about kindness. Sometimes we discover something new about ourselves.

Just like Peyton, you have your own ideas, your own imagination, and your own story to share.

Keep reading.

Keep wondering.

Keep writing.

Keep believing in the possibilities that are waiting for you.

With kindness and encouragement,

Jennifer Lee Quattrucci

 Keep Reading, Keep Writing, Keep Growing!

Welcome to Your New Adventure!

Welcome, Reader!

Books can take you anywhere — to faraway places, exciting adventures, magical worlds, and even into the hearts of new friends. Peyton loves discovering stories, asking questions, and writing about what she learns. Chance the cat loves curling up beside her while she reads!

This Reading Adventure Guide will help you:

- ★ Discover new books
- ★ Practice reading skills
- ★ Think deeply about stories
- ★ Share your ideas
- ★ Become a confident reader

Remember:

There is no “perfect” reader.

Every reader grows one page, one word, and one adventure at a time.

My Reading Adventure Promise

I promise to:

- ☐ Read every day
- ☐ Try my best when a book feels challenging
- ☐ Ask questions and make connections
- ☐ Use my imagination
- ☐ Celebrate my progress

My name: _____

My reading goal: _____

Date I began my adventure: _____

Peyton's Reading Tip

"Great readers don't just read the words... they think about the story, too!"

Chance's Challenge:

Can you find a cozy place where you love to read? Draw or describe it below!

My favorite reading spot:

Two Friends. One Big Love for Stories.

Meet Peyton!

Peyton Carter is a curious reader who believes every book holds a new possibility.

She loves:

-  Exploring new stories
-  Writing about her ideas
-  Learning about the world around her
-  Asking big questions
-  Finding ways to be kind and helpful

Peyton knows that becoming a great reader takes practice. Some books are easy, and some books are challenging — but every page helps her grow!

Peyton's Reading Motto:

"A new book means a new adventure waiting to begin!"

Meet Chance!

Chance is Peyton's fluffy orange-and-white cat who loves being part of every reading adventure.

Chance enjoys:

 Finding the sunniest spot in the room

 Snuggling with his favorite blanket

 Listening to Peyton read aloud

 Celebrating every reading victory

Even though Chance cannot read the words on the page, he knows something important:

Reading together makes every adventure better!

My Reading Buddy Reflection

Who do you like to read with?

- ☐ A family member
- ☐ A friend
- ☐ A pet
- ☐ By myself

Draw your perfect reading buddy below!

★ Peyton's Reader Challenge

Choose a book today and ask yourself:

Before Reading:

🤔 What do I think this book will be about?

During Reading:

🔍 What questions do I have?

After Reading:

💭 What is one thing I learned?

 Chance's Cozy Corner Tip:

"Books are even more fun when you find a comfortable place, grab a favorite stuffed animal, and let your imagination begin!"

How to Use Your Reading Adventures Book

This book is your personal reading companion. Whether you're reading with a grown-up, your teacher, a buddy, or all by yourself, these pages will help you think about your books, celebrate your progress, and grow into a confident reader!

Step 1: Pick a Book

Choose any book that interests you. It can be a picture book, an early chapter book, or a favorite story you've read before. The best books are the ones you can't wait to read!

Step 2: Complete the "Before You Read" Pages

Before you begin reading:

- Write the title and author.
- Look closely at the cover.
- Make a prediction about what you think will happen.
- Set a reading goal for yourself.

Step 3: Read and Think

As you read, take your time. Stop every few pages or at the end of each chapter to think about the story.

Use the activities in this book to:

- Draw your favorite part.
- Describe the characters.

- Learn new vocabulary words.
- Make connections to your own life.
- Answer comprehension questions.
- Think about the story's lesson or message.

Remember—good readers think while they read!

Step 4: Keep Growing!

Every book you read makes you a stronger reader. There are no perfect answers—just your own wonderful ideas and imagination.

Reading Adventure Tips

- ★ Read a little every day.
- ★ Ask questions when you're curious.
- ★ Try new kinds of books.
- ★ Share your favorite stories with family and friends.
- ★ Most importantly...have fun!

You Can Do It!

Every page you complete is another step on your reading journey. Keep turning pages, using your imagination, and discovering new adventures through books.

Happy Reading, Explorer!

Every Book Is a New Journey!

Readers discover new worlds, meet interesting characters, and learn exciting things every time they open a book.

Peyton keeps track of the books she wants to read so she never forgets about her next adventure!

🌟 Great Readers Think While They Read!

Reading is more than saying the words on a page. Readers use their brains to wonder, question, imagine, and make connections.

Peyton knows that the best readers are story detectives! 🔍

📖 Before Reading: Get Ready!

Look at the cover, pictures, and title.

Ask yourself:

🤔 What do I think this book will be about?

My prediction:

🔍 What do I notice?

📚 During Reading: Think Like a Detective!

While you read, stop and think:

- ★ What is happening in the story?
- ★ How do the characters feel?
- ★ What questions do I have?
- ★ Does this remind me of something?

Something I noticed:

A question I have:

After Reading: Share Your Thinking!

When you finish a book, think about:

♥ My favorite part was...

★ My favorite character was...

💡 One thing I learned was...

Chance's Reading Trick

Chance says:

"Even though I can't read the words, I can still be a story detective! I look at pictures, listen carefully, and think about the adventure." 🐱

My Reader Reflection

Today I was a great reader because:

- ☐ I made a prediction
- ☐ I asked questions
- ☐ I made a connection
- ☐ I learned something new
- ☐ I shared my thinking

One way I grew as a reader today:

Making Stories Come Alive!

Great Readers Connect Books to Their Lives, Other Books, and the World!

Readers Make Connections!

Peyton knows that books become even more exciting when we connect them to things we already know.

When you make a connection, you are saying:

"This story reminds me of something!"

Text-to-Self Connection

This reminds me of me!

Think about:

-  Have I ever felt like this character?
-  Have I experienced something similar?
-  Does this story remind me of my family, friends, or experiences?

This story reminds me of:

Text-to-Text Connection

This reminds me of another book!

Think about:

- ★ Have I read another story like this?
- ★ Does this character remind me of another character?
- ★ Do these books share a similar lesson?

Another book this reminds me of:

The connection I noticed:

Text-to-World Connection

This reminds me of the world around me!

Think about:

- ★ Does this story teach me something about people, animals, places, or events?
- ★ Does something in this book happen in real life?

This book connects to the world because:

Chance's Connection Challenge

Chance found a story about a cat who needed a family.

He thought:

"This reminds me of my own adventure with Peyton. Sometimes everyone needs kindness, patience, and someone who believes in them."

My Reading Connection

The book I read:

Title: _____

My strongest connection was:

- ☐ Text-to-Self
- ☐ Text-to-Text
- ☐ Text-to-World

Because:

 Peyton's Reader Reminder

"Your experiences make you a special reader. No one thinks about a story exactly the same way you do!"

Character Detectives — Getting to Know the Characters in Stories! 🕵️📚🐾

Great Readers Pay Attention to Who Is Inside the Story!

★ Become a Character Detective!

Every story has characters who make choices, solve problems, learn lessons, and grow.

Peyton loves discovering what makes each character special.

Great readers ask:

- 🔍 Who is this character?
- 💭 What are they thinking and feeling?
- ★ What choices do they make?
- 🌱 How do they change?

💖 Meet the Character

Character's Name:

Is this character:

Story Maps — Exploring the Beginning, Middle, and End!

Every Story Takes Readers on a Journey!

☀️ Follow the Story Path!

Every story has important parts that help readers understand what happens.

Peyton thinks of stories like adventures with a beginning, middle, and end!

🌱 Beginning: Where the Adventure Starts

The beginning introduces:

- ★ The characters
- ★ The setting (where and when the story happens)
- ★ The problem or adventure that begins

The story begins when:

Who are the main characters?

Where does the story happen?

Middle: The Adventure Grows

The middle is where:

- ★ Characters face challenges
- ★ Problems become bigger
- ★ Important events happen
- ★ Characters make choices

The biggest event in the middle was:

The character solved a problem by:

End: The Adventure Comes to a Close

The ending tells:

- ★ How the problem is solved
- ★ What the characters learned
- ★ How the story finishes

The story ends when:

The lesson or message of the story is:

My Story Map

Book Title:

Beginning

Middle

End

Chance's Story Tip

Chance says:

"Stories are like treasure maps! If you follow the clues, you can discover the big ideas hidden inside every book."

Reader Challenge

Can you retell your story without looking at the book?

Try using these words:

First...

Next...

Finally...

Peyton's Reader Reminder

"Great readers don't just remember what happened. They understand why it happened."

🌟 Become a Word Explorer!

Peyton knows that every book is filled with exciting words waiting to be discovered.

When readers find a new word, they don't skip it — they become word detectives! 🕵️

Great readers ask:

🔍 What does this word mean?

💭 What clues help me understand it?

💡 How can I use this word?

📖 My New Word Discovery

New word I found:

Where did I find this word?

Book title: _____

Page number: _____

🔍 Word Detective Work

What clues helped me?

- ☐ The picture
- ☐ Words around it
- ☐ What is happening in the story
- ☐ A part of the word I recognize
- ☐ Someone helped me

My clue:

Word Meaning

I think this word means:

A synonym (a word that means something similar):

An opposite (a word that means the opposite):

Use Your New Word!

Write a sentence using your new word:

Chance's Word Challenge

Chance found the word "adventure" in a story.

He learned:

Adventure means an exciting experience or journey.

Chance's sentence:

"My biggest adventure was finding a family who loved me!"

My Favorite Words Collection

Save special words you discover!

Peyton's Reader Reminder

"Every new word you learn is another tool you can use to think, write, and share your ideas!"

🌟 Readers Are Story Predictors!

Before and during reading, great readers stop and think:

“What do I think will happen next?” 🤔

A prediction is a smart guess based on clues from the story.

Peyton knows that readers don't just guess randomly — they use evidence!

🔍 Look for Clues!

Readers use:

📖 The title

🎨 The cover and pictures

💬 What characters say

★ What has already happened

🧠 What they already know

📚 Before Reading Prediction

Book Title:

Looking at the cover, I predict:

I think this story will be about...

My clue is:

 During Reading Prediction

What do I think will happen next?

I predict:

The clue that helped me think this is:

 After Reading: Was My Prediction Correct?

My prediction was:

- ☐ Correct!
- ☐ Almost correct!
- ☐ Different from what happened!

The part of the story that surprised me was:

Peyton's Prediction Detective

Complete the sentence:

I predict _____ because _____.

Chance's Prediction Challenge

Chance saw Peyton packing a backpack with a notebook, snacks, and a flashlight.

He predicted:

"I think Peyton is going on an adventure!"

Chance used clues to make his prediction.

What clues can you find in your next book?

My Reader Reflection

Making predictions helps me become a better reader because:

Peyton's Reader Reminder

"Predictions make reading exciting because you become part of the story. You are always thinking, wondering, and discovering!"

Questions Help Us Learn!

Peyton knows that great readers don't just read the words — they wonder, think, and ask questions!

Questions help readers:

-  Understand the story better
-  Learn new information
-  Understand characters' feelings
-  Make discoveries about the world

Before Reading Questions

Look at the cover and title.

I wonder...

- ☐ Who will be in this story?
- ☐ Where will the story take place?
- ☐ What will happen?

My question:

During Reading Questions

While reading, stop and wonder:

- ★ Why did the character do that?
- ★ What might happen next?
- ★ Why is this part important?
- ★ What does this word mean?

A question I had while reading:

After Reading Questions

Think deeply about the story:

- ♥ Why do you think the author wrote this book?

- 💡 What is the most important thing to remember?

- ★ What would you ask the author?

Question Detective Challenge

Good readers ask different kinds of questions!

Right There Questions

(The answer is in the book.)

Example:

What is the character's name?

My question:

Think & Search Questions

(Readers put clues together.)

Example:

Why did the character make that choice?

My question:

Big Idea Questions

(Readers think about the lesson.)

Example:

What can we learn from this story?

My question:

Chance's Curious Cat Question

Chance wonders:

"If I could ask a character in a book one question, I would ask: 'What was your bravest moment?'"

My question for a character would be:

My Reader Reflection

The best question I asked today helped me understand:

Peyton's Reader Reminder

"Curious readers become lifelong learners. Never stop wondering!"

Summarizing Stories — Sharing the Big Idea! 📖 ✨

Great Readers Know What Matters Most!

🌟 What Is a Summary?

A summary tells the most important parts of a story using your own words.

A good summary does not include every tiny detail. It shares the parts readers need to understand the adventure!

Peyton remembers:

“A summary is like a book's highlight reel!” 🌟

📖 The 5 Finger Summary

Use your fingers to remember what to include:

👉 1. Characters

Who is in the story?

✌️ 2. Setting

Where does the story happen?

 3. Problem

What challenge does the character face?

 4. Important Events

What happens?

 5. Solution

How does the story end?

Chance's Summary Tip

Chance says:

"If you can explain a story to a friend, you understand it!"

Peyton's Reader Reminder

"Readers who summarize show that they truly understand the story."

Finding the Author's Message — What Can We Learn?

Stories Often Teach Us Something Important!

Look Beyond the Words!

Many stories have a message or lesson hidden inside.

The author may want readers to think about:

 Kindness

 Growth

 Friendship

 Courage

 Trying something new

 Helping others

What Happened in the Story?

The character...

What Did the Character Learn?

The character learned:

The Author's Message

I think the author wants readers to know:

I know because:

Chance's Life Lesson

Chance's story teaches:

Everyone deserves kindness, patience, and a chance to feel loved.

My Connection

A lesson from this story that I can use in my own life:

Peyton's Reader Reminder

"Stories can teach us about characters — and they can teach us about ourselves."

Comparing Books — Finding Similarities and Differences

Readers Notice How Stories Connect!

Book Detectives Compare!

Peyton loves reading different books and discovering what makes each story special.

My Reader Thinking

I liked _____ better because:

Chance's Comparison Challenge

Chance compares his favorite stories by asking:

"Do the characters learn something?"

"Is there a problem to solve?"

"Does the story make me feel something?"

Peyton's Reader Reminder

"Every book is unique, but many stories share important ideas."

Act It Out! My Favorite Book Scene

Imagine You Are the Star of a Book!

Have you ever wanted to step inside a story and become one of the characters? Today, you are the actor, director, and storyteller!

Peyton' Pages Coloring Pages ✨

Directions for Readers and Artists

Welcome, illustrator! You are about to bring scenes from Peyton's Pages of Possibility to life with your own creativity.

Choose a coloring page from one of Peyton's adventures and use your imagination to make the scene your own!

As You Color:

★ Think like an illustrator.

What colors match the characters, setting, and feelings in this scene?

★ Add your own details.

You can draw extra decorations, background details, weather, objects, or anything else that helps tell the story.

★ Show the characters' emotions.

Use colors, facial expressions, and details to show how Peyton, Chance, and the other characters might be feeling.

★ Be creative!

There is no “right” way to color a story. Your artwork is a special way to share how you imagine the world of the book.

★ Share your masterpiece!

After you finish, tell someone about the scene you colored and why you chose those colors

My Coloring Page Reflection

The book scene I colored was:

My favorite part of this scene is:

I chose these colors because:

One detail I added was:

You used your imagination to become a storyteller through art!

Every reader sees a story differently—and your creativity helps each story shine. 🙌

About the Author

Jennifer Lee Quattrucci

Jennifer Lee Quattrucci is an educator, author, and creator who believes that learning begins with connection, curiosity, and kindness.

With nearly three decades of experience in education, Jennifer has worked as a classroom teacher, elementary school principal, and instructional leader. She holds a Master's degree in School Leadership and is certified in English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL).

Throughout her career, Jennifer has seen the power of helping children feel valued, heard, and capable. She believes that when children know they matter, they are more willing to learn, take risks, and discover their own possibilities.

Jennifer created the Peyton's Pages of Possibility series to inspire children to believe in themselves, embrace kindness, and recognize that everyday moments can become meaningful stories.

Through Peyton's adventures, young readers discover that:

- their ideas matter,
- their kindness makes a difference,
- their curiosity can lead them to amazing discoveries,
- and every child has the ability to create positive change.

Jennifer is also the author of Educate the Heart: Screen-Free Activities to Inspire Authentic Learning, a resource designed to encourage meaningful connections, creativity, and authentic learning experiences for children.

When she is not writing, Jennifer enjoys teaching, spending time with her family, exploring new places, reading, and finding inspiration in the everyday moments that remind us all that life is full of possibilities.

She hopes every child who reads Peyton's stories remembers:

"You are capable.

You are important.

You have a story to tell.

And every day is a new page of possibility."
