India

India has everything to offer from the high snowcapped mountains in Ladakh to gorgeous beaches in the South; from the mesmerizing Taj Mahal in Agra to palaces with never ending mysteries in Rajasthan; from offbeat villages to exciting metropolitan cities. It is one of the oldest civilizations with one of the richest cultural heritage in history due its vast diversity.

Nepal

A country in South Asia that is landlocked between Tibet and India - Nepal is booming with history, art, culture and traditions from centuries. Serves as a trekker's paradise, spiritual ground, and offers a host of exhilarating activities.

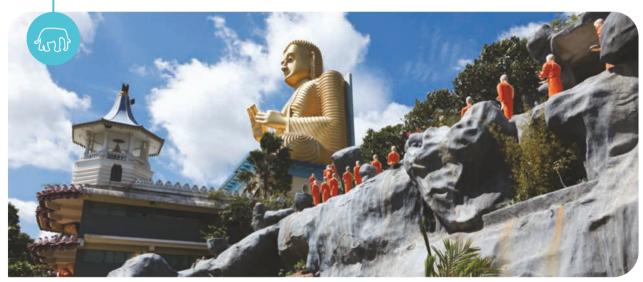

It is the only country in the world that practices
Gross National Happiness over Gross National Income. Fondly and popularly known as the Land of the Thunder Dragon, this country is pure bliss and extraordinary.

Sri Lanka

Sri Lanka is so much more than just unspoiled beaches; it is about gorgeous landscapes, rich cultural heritage, and experiences so unique that it is difficult to not go back for more.

Maldives

Maldives is an obvious choice for a perfect beach destination and to have a holiday of a lifetime. It comprises of exquisite white sandy beaches, remarkable underwater world and inimitable luxury that you simply cannot overlook.

Experiences

Without new experiences, something inside of us sleeps. The sleeper must awaken.

Gustave Flaubert

Festivals

The art of celebration is an essential part of Indian Subcontinent. Not a day goes by in the Indian Subcontinent when there isn't some special happening.

Cuisine

You could eat in Indian Subcontinent every day for a lifetime & never have the same meal. This phrase describes the abundance and diversity of cuisine.

Culture & Hertitage

Indian Subcontinent is, undoubtedly, a cultural treasure trove. Very few countries in the world have an ancient and such diverse culture.

Adventure

It's a little-known fact that Indian Subcontinent is an adrenaline rush of outdoor adventure activities. Whether it's hot-air ballooning, white water rafting, camping, cycling, trekking or cruising, whatever you want to thrill you spirits, you'll find here.

Spa & Wellness

The holistic approach to wellness has always been part of Indian culture. India has emerged as a leading spa destination, offering holistic therapies from the arts of ancient Ayurveda to the latest facial.

Wildlife

Wildlife in Indian Subcontinent is diverse and extraordinary! Where else can you find dancing peacocks, flying monkeys, bathing elephants, striking cobras, swooping kingfishers, lounging lions and legendary tigers? With steady growth in conservation and wildlife preservation, Indian Subcontinent has safeguarded its rare and wonderful creatures for you to spot in their own habitats.

Wherever you travel in the Indian Subcontinent you'll find places of great spiritual inspiration.

Spiritual Special Interest

The remarkable diversity of the subcontinent makes it an ideal destination for special interests.

INDIA

India is not at all predictable but it is absolutely surreal. It is one of the oldest civilizations with one of the richest cultural heritage in history due its vast diversity. People generally find it overwhelming to plan a trip to India, but it is one of the most exotic destinations where one can break all their preconceived notions of it being a difficult place to get around. India has everything to offer from the high snowcapped mountains in Ladakh to gorgeous beaches in the South; from the mesmerizing Taj Mahal in Agra to palaces with never ending mysteries in Rajasthan; from offbeat villages to exciting metropolitan cities. Apart from its diverse landscapes there are also a vast number of activities or experiences to pick from, such as doing a rickshaw ride in Delhi to riding an elephan in Jaipur; opting for some soul searching yoga or meditation to going for adventurous treks in the Himalayas; learning how to do some therapeutic Indian cooking to getting relaxing authentic Ayurvedic massages. In short India as a destination is perfect for every kind of traveler there is, it is an escapade away from the mundane and a never ending love affair.

Travel far enough you meet yourself

David Mitchell

For anyone travelling to India for the first time, the Golden Triangle is the best trip to do. It covers the three most popular cities – Delhi, Agra, Jaipur in just a week's time. Delhi is the capital city of India and it gives a taste of the rich culture and history that defies this country. Agra is home to one of the Seven Wonders of the World – Taj Mahal, which is known to be a symbol of love built by Shah Jahan. Then there is Jaipur, which is the capital of Rajasthan and is popularly known as the pink city. This city will give you more than just a glimpse of the magnificent forts, and palaces, that can be found all over Rajasthan. Handicrafts made here is very popular as it reflects the traditional and cultural heritage of the state.

The Classical North India

Delhi - Varanasi - Agra -Jaipur - Jodhpur - Udaipur - Delhi 11 Days

The Classical North India tour takes you on a journey of a lifetime. Starting with the capital city of Delhi where the deep impact of the Mughals can be seen. Moving on to one of the most spiritual cities, Varanasi where pilgrims from all over the world can be found all throughout the year. It is believed that the sins of mortals can be washed in the holy Ganges river. Another reason what makes this place so special is that it is where Buddha advocated his first sermon after gaining enlightenment. The tour proceeds to Agra where you get to witness the majestic Taj Mahal built as a testimony of love by the great Shah Jahan. Followed by the pink city of Jaipur and the blue city of Jodhpur, both of which are well known for their gigantic forts and palaces showcasing Rajput architecture. Lastly, Udaipur famously called the city of lakes or the Venice of the east is where the artificial fresh water lake called Pichola Lake resides.

LUXURY TRAINS

The railway in India is one of the best ways to explore the country. India has a series of luxury trains that provide the opportunity to see some of the most popular sites in complete comfort and luxury to say the least. These trains are equipped with all the high end amenities that one can think of in a luxury hotel. Here are a few of the popular trains – The Maharajas Express, Palace on Wheels, Deccan Odyssey, and The Golden Chariot. Get on board any of these trains to experience traveling in style like no other 5 star Luxury hotel can compare to.

The Palace on Wheels

The Palace on Wheels which is the senior most in the league and offers historic charm coupled with modern amenities and features. Truly Inspired by the personal carriages used by the former Maharajas, Nizams and Viceroys, the Palace on Wheels journey is one of the most authentic and undiluted way to explore and rediscover royal Rajasthan for the discerning traveler. It's been operating since 1982 and is rated one of the ten best luxurious train journeys in the world. The destinations covered by Palace on Wheels are: Delhi, Jaipur, Chittorgarh, Udaipur, Jaisalmer, Jodhpur, Bharatpur and Agra.

The Maharajas Express

As the name suggests The Maharajas' Express is opulence personified. The Maharajas' Express is India's newest and most expensive luxury tourist train. It's also the first luxury train in India to ferry across the entire country. It offers five different themed tours, with each visiting different parts of India.

The major emphasis is however on Rajasthan and Madhya Pradesh. The Maharajas' Express connects you through the royal palaces, forts, rich natural bounty, untamed wildlife and much more to be cherished as memories for a lifetime.

Indeed a lifetime experience, a journey on The Maharajas' Express brings one closer to the bygone era of Imperial India. Recently The Maharajas' Express, was bestowed the "World's Leading Luxury Train" award at the World Travel Awards for two consecutive years in 2012 & 2013. The Maharajas' Express is considered to be India's answer to the Orient Express of the West.

The destinations covered by The Maharajas' Express are: Delhi, Agra, Jaipur, Ranthambore Gwalior, Orchha, Khajuraho, Varanasi, Bikaner, Jodhpur, Udaipur and Balasinor.

LUXURY RIVER CRUISES

India is also blessed with some of the most gorgeous untouched locations in the Eastern Region. It boasts of its rich colonial history and some of oldest settlements from the time when India was under the British Raj. There are some areas which are left completely immaculate away from tourism and can be accessed only by river or boat cruises. The Luxury River Cruises in this part give travelers the chance to see this part of the country in uncompromised comfort and luxury. Brahmaputra River cruises are quite popular and fast gaining more attention each year.

Ganges Voyager

Ganges Voyager is the most recent and most luxurious vessel introduced by RV Bengal Ganga. The design of the vessel is based on traditional British Colonial Era. The vessel offers 28 Suites with beautiful hand-painted murals and all the comforts of a five-star hotel. All suites have a French balcony with floor-to-ceiling glass doors.

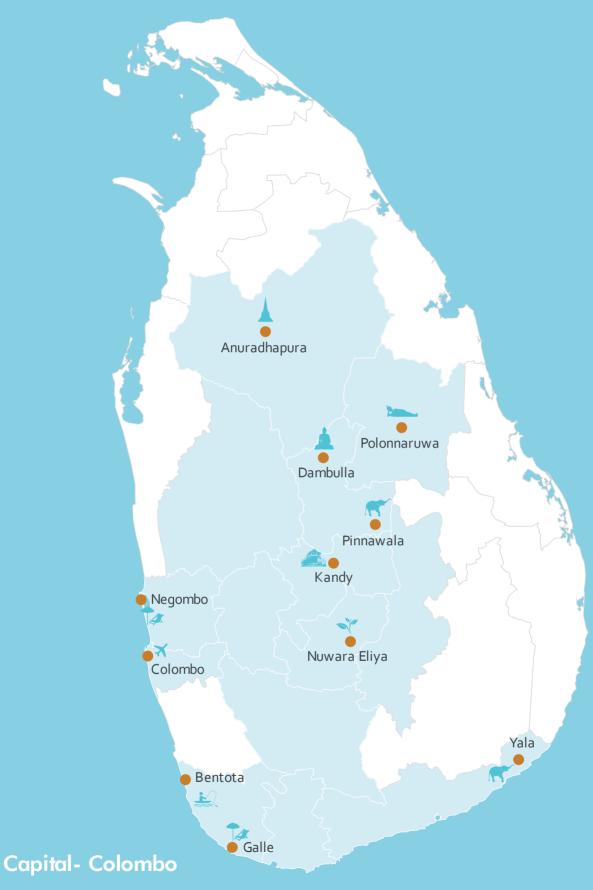

Assam Bengal Navigation (ABN) Cruises are the pioneers of Long Distance River cruising in India over Brahmaputra, Ganges and Hugli rivers. ABN operates cruises on the Brahmaputra from 2003, on the Hugli from summer 2007 and on the Ganges from 2010. They have 4 cruise ships on board - Rajmahal, Sukapha, Charaidew and Charaidew II.

MALDIVES

Maldives is an obvious choice for a perfect beach destination and to have a holiday of a lifetime. It comprises of exquisite white sandy beaches, remarkable underwater world and inimitable luxury that you simply cannot overlook. It is a sovereign archipelagic country located in the Indian Ocean and is officially called the Republic of Maldives. It wasn't until the early 1970s when Maldives gained popularity for tourists. There are around 1192 coral islands which are grouped into 26 coral atolls, and only 185 of them are inhabited by their local population of 300,000. Maldives offers some of the best diving and snorkeling opportunities in the world with its crystal clear waters. Tourism happens to be the major source of income contributing a large portion to their economy. It continues to boom each year with thousands of travelers visiting from all over the world.

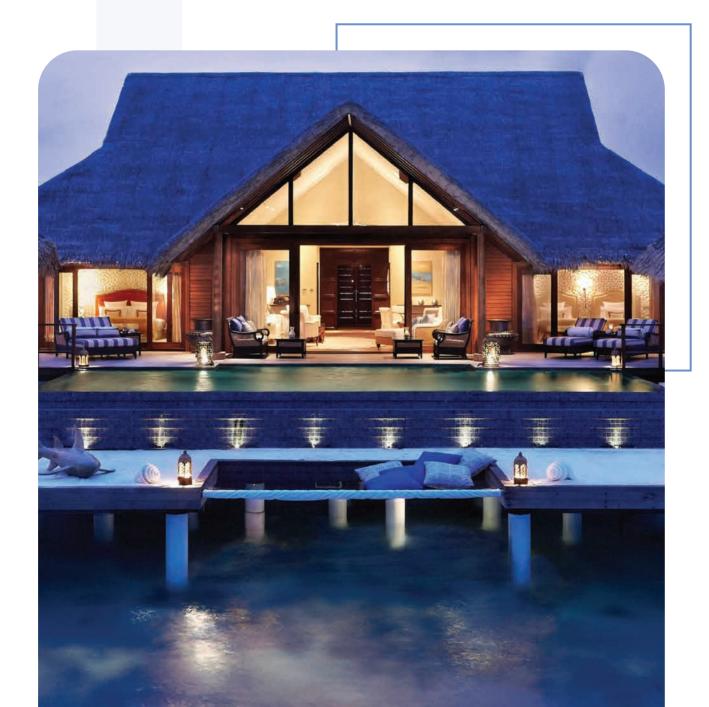

Hotel Information

Taj Exotica Resort & Spa

The Taj Exotica Resort & Spa is an award winning resort located in Emboodhu Finolhu Island's largest lagoons in Maldives. It is the perfect combination of luxury and nature put together famous for its flora and fauna. Surrounded by waters of the Indian Ocean this resort is only a 15 minutes speedboat ride from the airport. There is a lot to do here starting with an amazing infinity pool to lounge in, or going on a wildlife spotting walk or simply lazing around in a hammock in your very own private beach. Enjoy your time here in this oasis away from the chaos of the outside world.

Atmosphere Kanifushi Maldives

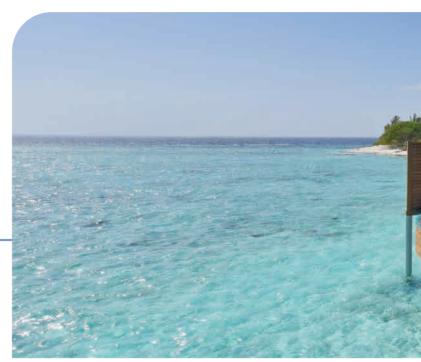

Atmosphere Kanifushi Maldives is a 30-minute Sea Plane ride from Malé International Airport. The Kanifushi Island is around 2 Kms long surrounded by lush green palm trees and tropical vegetation located in the sparsely populated Lhaviyani Atoll. There are stand-alone beach villas set along the white sand beaches and a turquoise lagoon. Here guests can enjoy complimentary activities ranging from excursions, sunset fishing, snorkeling and non-motorized water sports.

Milaidhoo Island Maldives

Milaidhoo Island Maldives is a boutique luxury resort in the Baa Atoll UNESCO biosphere reserve. The island is circled with its very own coral reef, is a protected area and very well known for being an amazing snorkeling and diving site. It is a gorgeous island with tropical greenery in abundance, and of course, the white soft deep sandy beaches. All the villas here offer an ocean view to wake up to.

Niyama Private Islands Maldives

Niyama Private Islands Maldives boasts of the world's first underwater nightclub. ## BHUTAN

Bhutan opened its doors to tourism only in the year 1974, which is why it has been able to keep its traditional culture intact and untouched. It is the only country in the world that practices Gross National Happiness over Gross National Income. Fondly and popularly known as the Land of the Thunder Dragon, this country is pure bliss and extraordinary. It is a rather small country in the Himalayas between Tibet and India. Strong sense of culture and traditions binds this kingdom together, which very clearly differentiates it from all the neighboring nations and attracts all the visitors apart from the fact that it has stunning natural beauty. It takes pride in being called the Last Shangrila due to its flawless abode and congenial society.
