BARK, HIKE, WAG:

Your Guide to Dog-Friendly Fun in the NC High Country

Updated as of April 2025

BECAUSE, DOGS!

The NC High Country is renowned for its dog-friendly atmosphere! Nothing compares to watching the joy of your pups enjoying the outdoors, and accompanying you on your daily excursions and vacations.

We on our Real Estate team are constantly being asked about where people can bring their pets, and also about pet-related services.

In our research for our clients, we realized that while there are great articles about local dog friendly businesses, there was not a comprehensive guide to all things dog-related that include pet stores, vets, humane societies and dog parks.

So this guide was born! We learned quite a bit about how dog gone friendly this area is. Enjoy!

THE RESEARCH

In researching this guide, we want to credit the many resources, reviewers and local guide websites, including:

- Bringfido.com
- Highcountryhost.com
- Exploreboone.com
- Tripswithpets.com
- Petswelcome.com

WHAT'S INSIDE

- ATTRACTIONS 3-4
- TRAILS 5-6
- RESTAURANTS 7-10
- HOTELS 11-13
- PARKS 14
- HUMANE SOCIETIES 15
- DOG BOARDING 16
- VETERINARIANS 17
- PET STORES 18
- OUR TEAM'S DOGS 19

ATTRACTIONS

Grandfather Mountain

Grandfather mountain, named from the shape of the peaks resembling an old man's profile, is an iconic attraction boasting natural beauty and diverse ecosystems. Visitors can traverse the Mile High Swinging Bridge, offering breathtaking views of rugged mountain peaks and valleys below.

The attraction features a Nature Museum highlighting the region's flora and fauna, and an animal habitat including indigenous wildlife like black bears, otters and bald eagles.

Dogs are welcome to most areas on a leash.

King Street, Boone or Main Street, Blowing Rock

Take a leisurely walk with your dog along King Street in Boone or Main Street in Blowing Rock.

In Boone, start at the Jones House and discover historic gems tucked between local shops and cafés, ending your walk at the former site of the Daniel Boone Hotel.

In Blowing Rock, begin at the Robbins House (home to the Chamber of Commerce) and wander past quaint B&Bs, unique restaurants, and shops.

Both streets offer pet-friendly spots and a dose of local history—all in just a few scenic blocks.

ATTRACTIONS

The Blowing Rock

The Blowing Rock is the oldest tourist attraction in North Carolina, located in the town that is its namesake. The attraction offers stunning panoramic views of the Blue Ridge Mountains and Johns River Gorge. Perched over 4,000 feet above sea level, it's renowned for a unique wind phenomenon where air currents appear to flow upward.

Visitors can explore walking paths, observation decks, and a visitors center featuring exhibits and a gift shop. The Blowing Rock promises breathtaking vistas and a touch of local legend.

Mast General Store

Dog friendly Mast General Store in Boone and Valle Crucis, North Carolina, is a historic retail establishment founded in the late 19th century. Offering a wide array of goods, it maintains its original character with wooden floors and vintage fixtures. The store stocks great clothing, state of the art outdoor gear, home goods, toys, and locally-made products. Kids love the huge candy barrel selection!

The Boone location, situated downtown, serves as a hub for locals and tourists alike, while the Valle Crucis outpost retains a rustic charm in its rural setting.

TRAILS

The High Country is a hiking mecca, and most trails allow dogs. The trails noted here are some of the more convenient and flat hikes and walks. Please always keep your dogs on a leash, bring bags to clean up after them, and follow leave no trace practices.

Bass Lake Trail

Bass Lake Trail, with parking off 221 in Blowing Rock Memorial Park near Blowing Rock, North Carolina, offers a flat, scenic .8 mile loop around tranquil Bass Lake. You can also take the gradual hike up to the Moses Cone Manor from the lake.

Price Lake Trail

Price Lake Trail is a serene 2.7 mile loop trail surrounding Price Lake in Julian Price Memorial Park, offering views of Grandfather Mountain. Location: Blue Ridge Parkway, Milepost 297. Price Lake Loop Trailhead.

Boone Fork Trail

A local favorite 5 mile trail in Julian Price Memorial Park, renowned for its diverse terrain, including water crossings, waterfalls, forests, and meadows. Location: Blue Ridge Parkway, Milepost 296.5. Boone Fork Trailhead. Please note that as of now, falls is closed.

Rough Ridge

One of the biggest bangs for the buck, just one mile out and back, Rough Ridge is known for its breathtaking views of Linville Gorge and Grandfather Mountain, accessible via a wooden boardwalk and rocky paths. Location: Blue Ridge Parkway, Milepost 302.8. Rough Ridge Trailhead. Major photo opportunity.

TRAILS

Elk Knob State Park

3.8 miles up and back, the Summit Trail leads to the peak of Elk Knob, granting panoramic views of the High Country. Location: 5564 Meat Camp Road, Todd, NC 28684. Elk Knob State Park Visitor Center.

Glen Burney Trail

A more challenging 2.8 mile out and back trail near downtown Blowing Rock, leading to three stunning waterfalls cascading down the rocky terrain. Location: Glen Burney Trailhead, off Laurel Lane, Blowing Rock, NC 28605.

Mt. Jefferson State Natural Area

Provides several trails offering different perspectives of Mount Jefferson, including the popular Mount Jefferson Summit Trail. Location: Mount Jefferson State Natural Area, 1481 Mt Jefferson State Park Road, West Jefferson, NC 28694.

Beacon Heights Trail

One of the most popular trails off the Blue Ridge Parkway near Grandfather Mountain, and it's easy to see why, the views from Beacon Heights panoramic and beautiful. Dogs are welcome, but must be on a leash. Location: Beacon Heights Trail, Linville, NC 28646

About Our Team

Our team realizes that relationships are more important than transactions, and that includes our relationship with our community. If you look at our social media, we spend a lot of time educating about our beautiful area, and promoting local businesses. We also donate $10,000+ per year to local charities.

For our clients, our relationship extends far beyond the sale, which is why they come to us for recommendations on everything from painters to pets. That is why this guide was developed.

We would love to hear from you, so please connect with us.
