ART ON A POSTCARD

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY AUCTION

Art On a Postcard returns with their fifth annual International Women's Day Auction featuring artist picks from eight guest female curators. Bidders can anticipate high-caliber, original postcard-sized artworks from a variety of emerging and established female artists with all proceeds going to the Hepatitis C Trust, specifically supporting the work they do with women affected by the criminal justice system, both in prison and local communities.

Amongst this year's curatorial line up is 'All About Art' podcast host, writer, and historian Alexandra Steinacker-Clark. Steinacker-Clark will bring artworks from the intimate and evocative Unskilled Worker, the wonderful and grotesque amalgamations of multi-disciplinary artist Flora Bradwell and the 'mad-scientist' approach of London-based, Australian artist Eva Dixon.

Art advisory and curatorial specialists CURA Art will showcase multidisciplinary artist, model, and art director Precious Opara, the emotionally drenched reimagined icons of painter Gill Button and the winner of the 2023 Emma Thompson Women in Art Prize, Svetlana Semenova.

Vanessa Murrell is a writer, co-host of Art Fictions Podcast and co-founder of Ye Collective, a Curatorial collective co-creating cultural actions and amplifying solidarity within the art industry. For AOAP Murrell champions the nostalgic and humorous adolescent depictions of Super Future Kid, the Chinoiserie influenced works of sculptor and ceramicist Hannah Lim and the digitally native aesthetic sensibilities of Maja Djordjevic.

Art historian, curator, writer, and presenter of 'Jo's Art History Podcast', Jo McLaughlin has selected Rhona Taylor with her explorations of space and dimension, paint and paper collage artist Jo Hummel and cross-cultural painter Elaine Woo McGregor.

Vittoria Beltrame, an independent curator, art dealer and advisor, is auctioning works by abstract painter Rebecca Hardacker, socially driven feminist painter Roxana Halls, abstract figurative artist Gal Schindler, fashion illustrator Jessica Bird and Phoebe Boddy with her signature poppy still-life's.

Female-led not for profit community, Women in Art who aim to support, mentor, and promote women artists will also join the curatorial bill. Their auction line-up includes oil painter turned photographer Tracey Goldfinch Elson, the curiosity driven and ever-evolving multi-disciplinary artist Maayan Sophia Weisstub and portrait artist Han Han.

Art On a Postcard Founder, Gemma Peppé's own selection includes sculptor and curator of the 2024 Royal Academy Summer Show Ann Christopher RA. Christopher is accompanied by the provoking works of artist Justine Smith, the culturally rich depictions of Simona Rusheya's Bulgarian heritage, the dystopic media inspired stylings of Louise Reynolds, the surreal and uncanny figurative works of oil painter Xanthe

Burdett, the familial narratives of Catherine Repko and renowned illustrator Magda Archer.

Gemma Peppé comments, "I'm so proud of all the curators who've given their time and expertise to the auction. The artists they have got on board are so interesting and talented. The Trust do the most inspirational work within women's prison's and over time the programmes they have put together that follow on from being incarcerated to are not only innovative but so compassionate. It's wonderful that women in art come together to help women who are in need. Getting back their lives and self-respect is all possible when the support is there. This year's show will be one not to miss."

Proceeds from Art on a Postcard's International Women's Day 2024 auction will be directed towards supporting The Hepatitis C Trust's initiatives for women who have encountered the criminal justice system, aiding them both during incarceration and as they reintegrate into local communities. Last year, the Trust initiated its maiden Women's Community Criminal Justice programme, which has already had a remarkable impact.

2024 also marks the ten-year anniversary of AOAP and their efforts to redirect the wealth invested in the art industry towards uplifting charitable causes, with 100% of proceeds raised in Art on a Postcard auctions going to charity. AOAP raises money for The Hepatitis C Trust and their campaign to eliminate hepatitis C in the UK by the year 2030.

Curated by Women in Art

On behalf of the Women In Art initiative. We are a not-for-profit organization dedicated to championing emerging women artists in the art world. We also organize the “Women in Art Prize” each year. Our motivation is to provide opportunities such as potential exhibition spaces, residencies, and monetary prizes for female artists. We exhibited 22 of the finalists this year in September at the Roundhouse where we held the awards for the winners, we recently participated in the Women in Art Fair at the prestigious Mall Galleries. Following our participation, we’ve been invited back to exhibit our finalists at the Women in Art Fair 2024. This is a promising opportunity for us and for our artists. We are forming a collaboration with the University of Arts London (UAL) and hoping for the Art Academy, as Sue Spuall (is one of the judges) to introduce ‘The Young Woman in art for upcoming artists.

Spirit of Boudica

Curated by Lee Sharrock

Lee Sharrock is a curator, writer, global creative publicist and sometime artist based in London.

*“My curation of the International Women’s Day AOAP auction is themed around Boudicca, Queen of the ancient British Iceni tribe. Boudicca, meaning ‘Victorious Woman’, comes from Brythonic boudi ‘victory, win’ and kā meaning ‘having’. The brief I gave the artists was to create artworks inspired by Boudicca’s image, spirit or strength, depicting women from history of modern-day Warrior women who continue the fight for gender equality, independence and freedom, or women who have made a contribution to society in a public way, or in a more personal way on a family or friend level. It’s been so inspiring to see how each artist has interpreted the theme, some in abstract and some in more figurative ways.”
