DESIGNER PICK: ORB Candle Holders

ORB is a set of seven metal candle holders stacked on top of one another to form a modern spherical sculpture. Designed to be functional, each candle holder has two sides to hold long and tealight candles. The collection comes in solid brass and stainless steel making it look charming in any interior setting as a series of seven candle holders or as a single sculpture.

The name, shape of the sculpture and the number of candle holders are all inspired by the mystifying universe.
