

As we move into the last few weeks of the season, this weekend truly feels like the business end. Of the 17 clubs we cover in the senior Non League competitions here at South Yorkshire Sport, seven are still involved in undecided promotion or relegation battles. But as today marks our first birthday issue, here is a round up of the current situation for all our clubs as we work down the pyramid from our highest-placed side.

Stocksbridge Park Steels

Unsurprisingly, as the genuine minnows among clubs with incredible budgets, the Steels are deep in a relegation fight. The last two games have produced just one point against teams around them, and while disappointing, last weekend's defeat at Workington came against a side transformed under Billy Barr. When he took over, they were ten points adrift at the bottom — they have now climbed above the Steels. The crowd of 980 is also an attendance that Stocksbridge can only dream of. Remarkably, just four points separate the bottom five clubs. Next up is one of the title chasing big boys, Hednesford Town, at Bracken Moor. To understand the gulf, the visitors are rumoured to have spent nearly £1 million on their pitch last summer and, if reports are true, pay some players substantial five figure salaries — at a level still nominally described as part time.

After Saturday, the Steels' final six matches are, with one exception, against mid table teams. While survival is not strictly in their own hands, they still have every opportunity to climb out of the relegation spots.

Hallam

It was disappointing to read a small amount of early season disgruntlement from a minority of supporters. This is a club playing at its highest ever level and facing established names from this tier and above. The job Craig Denton and his staff have done over the past five years, particularly this season amid horrendous injuries, has been outstanding. Comfortably mid table, they have shown they can compete with the big boys and can look forward to an exciting future. The fan base has grown brilliantly — with that support, who knows how far they can go?

Sheffield

It wouldn't be the world's oldest club if there wasn't something happening behind the scenes. With structural changes and ongoing talk of ground moves, Sheffield have still remained in and around the play-off positions all season. Had you asked Vill Powell in August, he would have wanted to be closer to champions elect Liversedge — the side relegated from the NPL alongside Sheffield — but with six

Cup Finals Day Returns

The Sheffield Federation for School Sports finals take over Warminster Road on Saturday, bringing back memories for many of early buses, cold touchlines and checking the Green 'Un for results.

Five trophies are up for grabs, and with 33 schools involved the route to the final has been anything but straightforward. Only two holders remain: Tapton's Year 7s, who also reached the National Final last week, and King Egberts in Year 10.

Tapton meet High Storrs in a repeat of their tight league clash, while the historic Year 8 Sheffield United Shield will have a new name this year, with Tapton awaiting King Egberts or Ecclesfield. Meadowhead are already into the Year 9 final and the sixth form showpiece, where they face Silverdale.

All finals kick off at 10am with presentations from 11.30am. Entry £3 adults, £1 children.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO US!

When we started South Yorkshire Sport and our first publication went out one year ago tomorrow, we never for one moment thought it would grow to what it has done. We were genuinely expecting 100 readers a week and we would have been happy with that. Indeed, we didn't want to take any advertisers because we thought no one would see them!

The 12 months since have flown by and we are now quickly establishing our self with the local and grassroots sports fraternity in South Yorkshire. We average between 1800 and 2000 readers every single week - one recent edition has had over 2700 readers.

We cannot thank all our contributors, leagues, organisations and you, our readers, enough. We are all volunteers but we genuinely could not do it without you. And a special thanks to all the photographers that supply us with their wears each week trudging out in all sorts of weather! We love and admire your work!

We would love to hear what you think about South Yorkshire Sport - both the good and the bad. To help you along the way, we are giving you the opportunity to win a season ticket at one of our local non-league clubs of your choice in a free to enter competition - see page 7 for details.

Fitzwilliam Lead Girls' Cup Charge

Girls' teams from the Don & Dearne clusters battled through three qualifiers last week, producing a competitive lineup for the Don & Dearne Schools Cup.

Swinton Fitzwilliam were the week's stand-out performers, finishing as the only side with a 100% record after their dominant showing at Mexborough Athletic. Goldthorpe and Carrfield could not be separated in the Dearne event, ending level at the top after strong, consistent displays.

Wath C of E proved the sharpest outfit at the Wath Academy tournament, edging out the field to finish as group winners.

Swinton Queen and Rawmarsh Thorogate also sealed qualification, completing the list of schools progressing to the Don & Dearne Schools Cup.

games left, starting to-night (Thursday, March 19) with their third game in eight days against second placed Beverley Town, Club have more than enough to finish in the top five.

Currently fourth, but with three games in hand on third placed Barton Town, they will hope not only to secure third but to chase down Beverley and guarantee home advantage in the play offs. They are unbeaten in the league at the Home of Football Stadium this season, taking 42 of their 62 points there and dropping just six points. Unbeaten in five and with four straight wins following the heavy setback at Barton, Sheffield may just be hitting form at the ideal moment.

Handsworth

A season of highs and lows sees Handsworth sitting four points outside the play-offs with three games remaining. Win the next two and it could set up a final day showdown with Tadcaster Albion, who currently hold the last play-off place. A mid-season purple patch of nine wins in ten propelled the Ambers into contention, and even if they fall short, it has been a fabulous season. A fantastic club with a lovely set up and great people behind the scenes — a club the city should be proud of.

Parkgate

Inconsistency sums up Parkgate’s season. Big wins (Penistone Church 6–1, Golcar 5–4) have been matched by heavy defeats (Sheffield

6–0, Bottesford 6–3). Mid table feels about right. The club do huge community work, and their recent tie up with Rotherham Hospice for naming rights at Roundwood is admirable.

Penistone Church

Copy and paste the Parkgate description — another side epitomising inconsistency. It’s easy to forget Penistone only entered the national league system 12 years ago, and this is their ninth straight season at this level. With a change in their long-serving management team last summer, they’ve never found a sustained run of form. Only two clubs have conceded more, yet they have drawn more than a third of their matches — as mid table as mid table gets.

Rossington Main

It’s hard to know whether their excellent cup runs have contributed to league struggles. Their FA Cup run was ended by giants FC United of Manchester, they reached the FA Vase third round, face Worksop Town next Tuesday in the Senior Cup semi-final, and have a League Cup semi-final next month. Their season will therefore contain at least 54 matches — unrealistic for part time players.

Three points adrift in the final relegation spot, they do have a game in hand and a better goal difference than Albion Sports, plus two games in hand on Horbury Town. Last week’s defeat to Albion was a huge blow, but Saturday’s game against Horbury is enormous. Six pointers do not get bigger.

Wombwell Town

Disappointing is the only word for Town’s season. Their midweek defeat to Handsworth confirmed relegation in their debut Step 5 campaign. They have won only three league games — the last back on 9 September (a 4–2 win over Bottesford Town). After a promising early response to losing their first three, the season unravelled.

But perspective is needed: founded only eight years ago, and with Covid reducing that to six played seasons, they earned promotion in four of them. This is their first setback. They now know what is required at this level, and the work off the pitch leaves them in strong shape to mount a promotion push next year.

Dearne & District

If South Yorkshire Sport had a Team of the Season award, Dearne might well claim it. Beaten by Wombwell Town in last year’s play off final, they have stormed NCEL Division One, losing just four times. Victory tomorrow (Friday, March 20) at Club Thorne Colliery will seal the title with four games left. Highest scorers in the whole league (107) and with the second best defence (30 conceded), it tells the story. Adam Baskerville (28) and Jamie Austin (27) sit third and fourth in the scoring charts behind the phenomenal Zak Khan (48) of Route One Rovers.

Worsbrough Bridge Athletic

Manager Lee Morris affectionately calls them “Little ol’ Briggers,” and they’ve backed it up with a superb season spent mostly in the play-off places. Currently fourth, they are targeting a top three finish to secure a home semi-final. Tuesday’s match at Wakefield could be decisive. A young side who have also enjoyed a brilliant Senior Cup run, they await either Worksop Town or Rossington Main in the final after beating Barnsley U21s on penalties.

Club Thorne Colliery

A flying start of three wins, then four from five, had the Colls top early on, but too many draws may ultimately cost them. Their recent games have been chaotic entertainment — four or more scored in three of their last six, four or more conceded in two of them. Home form (six wins from 16) has let them down; their 11 away wins are among the best in the division.

Armthorpe Welfare

One spot below Thorne in ninth, the Wellies also boast a strong away record but not so much at home. They have never put together a sustained run to keep pace with the top clubs, but the foundations are there for next year.

Dronfield Town

Leaving aside the politics of the UCL move, Dronfield have improved massively on last season, when they finished in a relegation place but were reprieved. Sitting 12th, the simple reading is this: they’re better than the teams below them — the teams above are better.

Swallownest

Losing virtually their entire squad after being moved into the UCL did not deter Chair Louise Pink and her volunteers. The appointment of the highly likeable Brad Jones has steadied things. While some performances — including last night’s heavy defeat to South Normanton Athletic — have been disappointing, the squad have built a new spirit and identity.

Maltby Main

In 14th in NCEL Division One, Maltby’s season has been one of two halves. They were competing at the top before a change of structure and management around Christmas derailed them. One win in ten since the break is relegation form, but their strong first half of the season keeps them safe.

Doncaster City

Their first season in the National League System has brought mixed fortunes. A mid-table finish may look respectable, but expectations at this ambitious club are higher. Their modern training complex proposal in Bawtry was rejected despite officer support (appeal pending). They will use this season as a foundation for a promotion push next year.

Athersley Recreation

One of the region’s most historic names — and consistently a groundhopper favourite — Rec have spent the year nervously close to the drop zone. But two wins in three, including a huge 5–0 victory over Louth Town, have steadied the ship. With a six point cushion over Winterton Rangers and matches to come against the bottom two (Nostell and Glasshoughton), safety is firmly within reach. They will not want a repeat of this season, though.

Controversial comment time.

Dronfield and Swallownest were both moved into the United Counties League this season to form a 23 team division (and leave the NCEL Division One with 22 teams. The NCEL was a merger of the old Yorkshire and Midland Leagues and whilst some may say the fall off of the more southerly based sides from the NCEL into the United Counties may be due to 80’s miners strike politics, its hard to fathom why this league is being allowed to move North and the NCEL being also pushed further north by the FA.

Clubs were moved into the NCEL from a bulging North West Counties League this year. For Swallownest, their own attendances are 21% up on last year but the League’s attendances overall are 25% lower than the NCEL counterpart and that gap will only widen should, as expected the two Retford sides be promoted this season which must play financial havoc with the clubs.

Operationally, the UCL is and will continue to be a South Midlands based league and as an outsider looking in, this is certainly the perception this publication gets based on all the images it portrays. This does neither of our two clubs any good and something that has to be reviewed by the FA when their set up for 2026/27 is decided post season.

Rob Hand Resigns as Sheffield FC Chief Executive

Sheffield FC have confirmed that Chief Executive Rob Hand has stepped down from his role as the world’s oldest football club continues to undergo significant changes behind the scenes. The departure, reported this week, forms part of a wider restructuring process at the historic non league outfit which was covered in South Yorkshire Sport last week.

Hand, who was appointed CEO in March 2025 during a period of transition at the club, had been tasked with steering Sheffield FC through ground redevelopment, commercial strengthening and early stage planning toward a proposed new stadium. His arrival had come alongside the departure of long serving chairman Richard Tims, and the club’s announcement at the time emphasised stability and long term vision.

Although no formal statement detailing the reasons for Hand’s resignation has yet been released by Sheffield FC, the timing adds to a period of considerable movement within the club hierarchy. The latest report confirms only that further internal changes are ongoing and that Hand has now left his post.

Hand’s tenure coincided with several key infrastructure and planning steps. Under his leadership, Sheffield FC progressed refurbishment work at their Dronfield home, including plans for a new playing surface, and continued discussions with Sheffield City Council regarding a long term stadium project intended to safeguard the club’s future and broaden community reach. These were highlighted as strategic priorities upon his appointment and remain central to the club’s redevelopment pathway.

The club now faces the task of identifying the next figure to take on the role of Chief Executive at a time when non league football demands increasingly robust commercial management. Sheffield FC have not yet announced an interim or permanent successor.

Further updates are expected in due course as the club communicates the next steps in its restructuring process.

Jones Leaves Hallam

In news breaking just as South Yorkshire Sports was going to publication, our contributor Ian Jones has tendered his notice at Hallam FC and will relinquish his numerous roles at the end of the season.

In a moving message on X, Jones explained the committee at Hallam understood his reasons and went through some of the wonderful times he has had at the club.

More next week.

Barnsley's Rising Star Ready for Brutal Battles

JAMES BOVINGTON

Kickboxer Mason Decaro has just turned 17 and will travel the length of England on two consecutive early April weekends as he aims to bring back a national title to The Combat Academy (TCA) Barnsley where the Thurnscoe teenager has trained for five years.

“The title fight is the first Saturday and it’s for the British ISKA title at 59kg. ISKA is the main awarding body in kickboxing. The bout with Dom Bury will be five two-minute rounds. The following Saturday in Newcastle I’m back at my regular 60kg weight a I take on a Scottish opponent my age Leo Hut-ton who’s already an intercontinental cham-pion. These will be the toughest fights of my career but I’m ready.”

Mason is no stranger to the ring. “I’ve com-peted on countless shows as I’ve climbed up through the weight divi-sions. I’ve represented TCA at international competitions in Ger-many and Turkey, but my proudest moment was in Brisbane last au-tumn winning two golds in different kickboxing styles at my 60kg weight plus a bronze at the higher 63kg weight and in which my teammate Guyvin Dawkins got the gold. I was also de-lighted in 2025 to achieve my first black belt dan.

“I’m from a kickbox-ing family. My dad Garry is also on the TCA fight team, and my mum Genaya and younger sister have done kick-boxing training. I love everything about this sport. Head kicks can be brutal, but I love the thrill of combat as does any opponent. I’m nerv-ous before a bout but they can give a boost and heighten the excite-ment as you walk to the ring knowing what you’re ready to prove that you’re mentally and physically the tougher fighter. It takes courage, guts even, but I’m proud that people see me prove just exactly what I’m made of.”

In year 12 at Dearne Valley College, Mason studies sports and physiotherapy. “I re-cently got a distinction in a physio exam, and I know I’ll be good at massages, another way of inflicting pain,” joked Mason who interviewed as a confident, articulate and caring young man with a good sense of hu-mour and who is keen for everyone to be happy. “Our son is building a local fanbase relatively easily,” said mum Genaya. “It’s like all Thurnscoe wants to support him. People tell me they’re keen to get behind local talent and love to back a young man who is outgoing, polite, well-behaved and a credit to his family and club.

“I’ve completed TCA’s leadership pro-gramme and graduated to the Black Belt Elite Programme. I’m helping with classes for younger fighters. I do the warm-ups with the youngest, the Ninjas, and then help the teacher and I also assist with adult classes. I’d love to work full time at TCA. It’s brilliant seeing pupils gain confidence and make progress given the knowledge that I’ve im-parted and I’m happy as a role model for them which itself strengthens my commitment to the sport.

“I look up to my coach Gasan Gindra who’s 22 and like a big brother and top-quality role model for teenage lads. Head coach Mick Crossland is tireless in finding fight opportuni-ties for us and has helped me immensely. TCA is more than just a place where we train it’s our second family. Per-haps the best thing about Brisbane was how our group bonded and we’re always at each other’s’ fights offering mutual support. We’re always hearing about young people having mental health struggles and fighters are not im-mune but doing combat sports and thriving at TCA help all of us im-mensely in coping with life’s challenges.

“My medals weigh 5.4 kg. I’m grateful to my sponsors for helping make all this possible so many thanks to Re-covery-Focused Ther-apy, De Metals and Jay Dickens Deliveries. I’m looking forward to com-peting in the October ISKA world tournament in Madrid and want to say how much us fighters appreciate the support offered by our in-house fundraiser Kicking for Change.”

Any new sponsors should contact Genaya Decaro on 07757 695910.

Football’s Everyday Heroes Applauded Once Again

Grassroots football is built on dedication, passion and the unwavering commitment of volunteers who give their time to keep the game thriving in communities across England.

This year’s Grassroots Football Awards, presented by Howdens, once again shine a spotlight on those individuals, clubs and organisations whose efforts make football possible for thousands of players every week. The awards exist to celebrate the very best of the game at local level — the people who create safe, welcoming, inclusive and inspiring environments for everyone to enjoy.

Across Sheffield & Hallamshire County FA area and the wider England Football network, nominations are now open for the 2026 awards. Volunteers, coaches, referees, clubs, leagues and support teams can all be put forward by anyone who wants to recognise their impact.

The process is designed to be quick and accessible, allowing members of the football community to highlight those who have gone above and beyond this season. Nominees are acknowledged individually, with each receiving an email notification, an important reminder that their efforts truly matter.

The awards span a wide range of categories to ensure every key contribution to the game can be celebrated. These include Club of the Year, League of the Year, Match Official of the Year, Young Volunteer of the Year, Grounds Team of the Year, and several Coach of the Year pathways — male, female and disability.

In addition, there are honours for new volunteers, positive behaviour, and special recognitions such as The Lioness Award and The Bobby Moore Award, celebrating inspirational stories that go far beyond the pitch. Each category is shaped to reflect the diversity of people and roles that sustain grassroots football, ensuring that no contribution goes unnoticed.

The Sheffield & Hallamshire CFA emphasises that this is a chance for local football communities to say “thank you” to those who make the game happen. From league secretaries and pitch volunteers to the coaches who give their evenings and weekends to inspire young players, every nominee plays a vital part in shaping what football looks like at a community level.

Many of last season’s winners were recognised for their long-term dedication, inclusive approaches, or for creating opportunities that didn’t previously exist, from pioneering women and girls’ programmes to improving access for disabled players. These stories reflect the power of football to bring people together and transform lives.

Nominations can be submitted through the England Football online portal, where individuals are encouraged to provide as much detail as possible. The judges look for examples of volunteers making football better for more people, acting as role models and showing the ability to create positive, safe and accessible environments.

Contributors are also recognised for going the extra mile, whether through increasing participation, supporting personal development, or overcoming challenges within their communities. After reviewing submissions, County FAs select their local winners, who may then progress to the national shortlist, culminating in a celebration event featuring legends of the game.

For many of last year’s winners, the England Football Grassroots Football Awards ceremony provided a once in a lifetime experience, marked by recognition on a national stage. Hosted by high profile football figures, the event highlighted remarkable stories of resilience, innovation, inclusivity and leadership. From young volunteers bringing new energy to their clubs, to grounds teams transforming facilities on limited budgets, the awards celebrate the beating heart of English football — the volunteers.

As grassroots football continues to flourish across the area and beyond, these awards remain a cornerstone of the game’s culture of appreciation. They remind us that football is more than the action on the pitch — it is built on community spirit, collective effort and the willingness of ordinary people to make extraordinary contributions.

With the 2026 nomination window now open, now is the time to shine a light on the individuals and organisations who make grassroots football what it is. Their passion keeps the game alive. And to say thank you.

Steels Suffer Costly Workington Collapse

STOCKSBRIDGE

ADAM ALLCROFT

A long trip for Stocksbridge to Workington would end up fruitless after a sorry defeat.

On paper, a 2–0 defeat tells a fairly straightforward story. In reality, it was anything but.

Because for large parts of the first half, the Steels were the better side. They started brightly, with a confidence and purpose that suggested they were up for the fight. There was a sharpness to their play early on, particularly from set pieces, and it didn't take long before they began to threaten the Workington goal.

At the heart of that early pressure was Marcus Etherington, who was proving to be a real hand-ful. The defender — clearly enjoying his afternoon at the other end of the pitch — twice came within inches of giving Steels the lead inside the opening exchanges.

The first chance was the one that will linger. A free-kick was whipped in with real quality, finding Etherington completely unmarked at the far post. It looked for all the world like a certain goal. But somehow, Workington goalkeeper Alex Mitchell managed to react, throwing up a strong hand to tip the ball over the bar. It was one of those saves that not only keeps the score level but lifts everyone around you — and you sensed immediately it might be an important moment.

Etherington wasn't done there. Minutes later, another promising move saw him find space again in the box. This time, though, the connection wasn't quite right. Stretching to meet the ball, he could only guide it goalwards off his shoulder, and Mitchell was able to gather.

Two big chances gone, and already that familiar thought creeps in: are we going to regret those?

Gradually, Workington began to settle. The early storm passed, and the home side started to find their rhythm. It became a more even contest, with both teams probing without quite finding that decisive touch.

Still, Etherington continued to be central to everything — and not just in attack. In a moment that rather summed up his all-action display, he was back in his own box to make a crucial goal-line clearance, denying Jack Dickinson with a brave block. It was the sort of intervention that can be as valuable as a goal, and it kept Steels firmly in the contest.

Then came the big talking point of the first half — and one that will no doubt have been discussed long after the final whistle.

A cross from Luke Hunter swung into the Steels box and appeared to strike the arm of Kasper Williams. From one angle, you could argue the arm was tucked in. From another, you've seen them given. The referee, though, didn't hesitate. Penalty.

There was a lengthy delay before it was taken, adding to the tension. Hunter eventually stepped up, looking to make no mistake. But Ben Townsend had other ideas.

Diving low to his left, Townsend produced an excellent save, pushing the ball away to safety. It was a huge moment — not just in terms of the scoreline, but psychologically too. And when Luke Hogg reacted quickest to hack the loose ball clear, it felt like Steels had ridden out the storm.

At half-time, goalless, there was a real sense that this was there for the taking.

But football can turn in an instant. And unfortunately for Steels, the second half couldn't have started much worse.

A corner for Workington caused problems. Bodies went forward, the ball wasn't fully cleared, and in the ensuing scramble, Jack Dickinson reacted quickest. The ball dropped kindly, and he made no mistake, firing home to give the hosts the lead.

It was a scrappy goal to concede — the kind that frustrates managers and defenders alike. One lapse, one loose moment, and suddenly you're chasing the game.

To their credit, Steels didn't fold. If anything, the goal seemed to spark a response. There was renewed urgency, more intent going forward, and the introduction of attacking substitutions added fresh energy.

Workington, for their part, were happy to sit in and protect what they had. Their back line stood firm, throwing bodies in the way and making life difficult. But chances were still there to be had.

Mitchell, who had already made that outstanding early save, was called into action again, producing another important stop as Steels pushed for an equaliser. It wasn't wave after wave of pressure, but there was enough to suggest a goal might come.

Of course, pushing forward brings its own risks.

As the game opened up, Workington began to look increasingly dangerous on the break. One such moment nearly proved decisive when Luke Ellis was slipped through on goal by Jake Allan. It was a clean opportunity, and as Ellis drove a low shot towards the corner, it looked destined to double the lead.

But once again, Townsend came to the rescue. Sticking out a leg, he managed to divert the effort away for a corner. It was a superb reaction save — one that kept Steels in the game and gave them a fighting chance heading into the final stages.

And so it set up a tense finish.

Steels pushed. They probed. They committed men forward in search of that elusive equaliser. You could sense the belief was still there — that one moment, one break, might be enough to salvage something.

But as so often happens, that desperation left gaps.

With time ticking away, Workington found the space they'd been waiting for. Ceiran Casson picked up the ball and spotted the run. His pass was perfectly weighted, threading through the Steels defence.

This time, Luke Hunter made no mistake.

After the earlier penalty miss, there was a sense of redemption as he guided the ball calmly into the net, sealing the result in one smooth movement. Game over.

It was a tough one to take for Steels. Not because they were outplayed for 90 minutes — far from it — but because they'll feel this was a match decided by moments. The missed chances early on, the controversial penalty (even if it was saved), the scrappy goal just after the break.

At this level, those fine margins make all the difference.

There were positives to take. The performance, particularly in the first half, showed plenty of promise. Etherington's display stood out, Townsend made some excellent saves, and there was no shortage of effort or commitment.

But ultimately, football is a results business.

And on this occasion, it's Workington who take the points, while Steels are left with that long journey home and plenty to think about — not least how to turn performances like this into the results they deserve.

Countrymen Rally as Bradbury Hits Landmark

HALLAM

IAN JONES

Hallam’s week had a bit of everything: frustration, resilience, landmark moments and, ultimately, three precious points that nudged the Countrymen up the table and restored some much needed momentum.

If Saturday’s draw with Bridlington felt like two points dropped, Tuesday night’s win over Newton Aycliffe felt like a reminder of what this squad is capable of when it clicks.

It all began at Sandygate with a performance that should really have delivered more than a solitary point. Brandon Bradbury’s thunderous strike after 17 minutes was no more than Hallam deserved after an energetic, front foot start that had Bridlington chasing shadows down the left-hand side. Paulo Aguas and Jay Glover combined sharply before the ball broke kindly for Bradbury, who didn’t hesitate—shaping his body, setting himself, and drilling a low finish into the far corner. A proper midfielder’s strike, clean and confident.

And the Countrymen didn’t stop there. Bradbury, clearly in the mood, whipped in a dangerous cross moments later, while Glover buzzed around causing chaos in the Seaside’s box. A sweeping move just after the half-hour mark nearly produced a glorious second as Jack Brownell bent a teasing ball to the back post, Bradbury delicately nudged it into the danger area, and Kiyani Clayton forced a desperate goal-line clearance. It was vintage Hallam—quick, sharp, interconnected—and had 2–0 been on the scoreboard at the break, nobody would have argued.

But as often happens in this league, the game flipped like a light switch after the restart. Bridlington grew in confidence, hemmed Hallam in, and eventually levelled through a fine strike from Joseph Batty. For a spell the visitors looked capable of more, and Hallam were grateful for a big save from Hugo Warhurst and a wall packed with blue shirts standing firm in the 100th minute to protect a point. Not the result the first half promised, but not a disaster either.

If Saturday was a missed opportunity, Tuesday was all about taking them. Hallam started brightly again against Newton Aycliffe and this time made the dominance count. The first goal was a beauty: Clayton, who had one of his best games in blue, slipped Alfie Smith through with a clever reverse pass, and Smith finished like he’d been in the team for months rather than minutes—low, assured and into the bottom corner.

Aycliffe had their moments, including one shot that cannoned off the underside of the bar and somehow stayed out, but Hallam rode those spells and struck again at the perfect time. With the first half drifting into added minutes, the Countrymen countered from a corner like a side brimming with belief. Aguas spun brilliantly on halfway, fed Clayton, continued his run, and whipped a sublime cross toward the six-yard box. And there he was—Bradbury, arriving with perfect timing to tap home his 50th goal for the club. A milestone moment, and proof once again of his importance to this team.

Bradbury nearly bagged another straight after the interval, but the third goal wasn’t long coming. Aguas switched play, Clayton took over, held off his man and slotted home to give Hallam the sort of cushion they’ve been craving. At 3–0, it felt like the game was wrapped up, and it might have been if Clayton’s fierce strike moments later hadn’t rattled the post instead of the net.

Aycliffe’s late goal from Tony Pascoe ensured a nervy finish, but Hallam showed maturity and game management to see it out. When the whistle went, the three points felt thoroughly deserved.

There’s plenty for manager Craig Denton to be pleased about as the team heads north to Bishop Auckland on Saturday. Clayton was outstanding across both games—creative, confident, relentless. Aguas provided two assists that would look at home in any highlight reel. Smith took his goal superbly. And Bradbury, hitting his half century in Hallam colours, played like a man determined to drag his side upward.

The challenge now is consistency. Too often this season, promising performances have been followed by flat ones. But this week felt different. Saturday brought frustration, yes, but also control, composure and invention. Tuesday brought the clinical edge that had been missing. Together, they hint at a side finding its rhythm at the right time.

Hallam now sit 11th, within touching distance of the teams above them, and with two strong performances in the bank as they prepare for the run in. If they can bottle Tuesday night’s confidence and combine it with Saturday’s first half intensity, the Countrymen could yet make a real push up the table before they return to Sandygate on April 4th.

After Tuesday night’s game, Manager Craig Denton unsurprisingly said he was really happy. “I thought we started nice and bright and I reiterated to the lads at half time how we wanted to keep moving forward.

“Some really good play, the goals have been outstanding. We stuck to the script and took the three points and that’s all we can ask for.”

After a week of swings, setbacks, breakthroughs and big moments, one thing seems clear: this Hallam side is growing—and with Bradbury leading by example, Clayton in sparkling form and Aguas pulling strings, there’s every reason for optimism.

Liversedge Storm to Title in Ruthless Rampage

NORTHERN

MATT JONES

Liversedge sealed the Macron NCEL Premier Division title in commanding fashion on Saturday, producing a ruthless 3–0 victory away at Parkgate to confirm themselves as champions with five games still to play.

Alfie Dean opened the scoring on 33 minutes before second half strikes from Kelan Swales and George Green put the result beyond doubt. From there, Liversedge controlled the contest with the composure of a side destined for silverware, and the final whistle sparked jubilant celebrations among players, staff, and travelling supporters.

Elsewhere in the Premier Division, Tadcaster Albion overturned an early deficit to win 3–1 at Champion and boost their own play-off hopes. Ewan Gregson had given the hosts a 10th minute lead, but Charlie Owen levelled before Ollie Norman’s penalty and Oliver Green’s quickfire finish completed the turnaround before half time. Beverley Town remain in second place after a 3–1 home win over Knaresborough Town, Cam Connelly striking first before Sam Barker equalised early in the second half. Late goals from Luka Suluburic and Conner Harman ensured Beverley claimed the points.

Eccleshill United left it late but edged Frickley Athletic 1–0 thanks to Stevie Ellix’s 89th minute penalty, while Golcar United earned a solid 2–0 win over Penistone Church through second half goals from Ash Flynn and George Doyle. Barton Town enjoyed a productive afternoon at Handsworth, where Tom Waudby scored in the 3rd and 85th minutes to secure a 2–0 away victory.

Pickering Town were in dominant form as goals from Souleymane Coulibaly, Joe Wood, and George Brown earned a 3–0 win over Bottesford Town.

Two of the bottom three met as Albion

Sports claimed a narrow 1–0 success at Rossington Main courtesy of Nash Connolly’s 27th minute strike, while Sheffield edged a lively contest against Thackley in front of 535 spectators to move back into the play-off positions. Cameron Bedford opened the scoring, Hass Gorji equalised for the visitors before Luke Mangham struck in the 90th minute to seal a dramatic 2–1 win. Wombwell Town and Horbury Town shared the points in a 2–2 draw: Jack Wilson and Charlie Rogerson put Wombwell two up before Samuel Kyeremeh and Joe Jagger completed a spirited comeback.

In Division One, Dearne & District edged Brigg Town 1–0 through Cian Guest’s 38th minute finish to strengthen their position at the top of the table.

The match between Appleby Frodingham and Worsbrough Bridge Athletic was abandoned due to a horrific double leg break suffered by the home side’s Alex Hazell, with the visitors leading 1–0 at the time.

Ilkley Town earned a

1–0 win at Crowle Colts thanks to Edson Prata’s goal on the stroke of half time, Doncaster City defeated Nostell Miners Welfare 2–1, with Sam Giles and Joshua Meade on target before Joseph Taylor pulled one back late on. Winterton Rangers struck twice early—Jason Chanayire and Ben Silburn the scorers—to secure a 2–0 win at already relegated Glasshoughton Welfare.

Harrogate Railway Athletic continued their push for a play-off place with a 1–0 victory over Club Thorne Colliery, Alex Ingham scoring inside four minutes, while Leeds UFCA beat second placed Wakefield AFC 1–0 through Harry Brown’s 52nd minute effort.

Armthorpe Welfare came from behind to win 3–1 at Louth Town after Will Pennell’s opener, with Joel Learmouth, Alfie Charlotte, and Kyle Fish completing the turnaround. Selby Town also enjoyed a strong away performance, winning 3–1 at Maltby Main thanks to goals from Archie Micklewaite, Lleyton Brown, and Maximillian Bauer, with Curtis Morrison replying for the hosts.

Route One Rovers impressed in a 4–1 victory over Goole AFC, Zak Khan scoring twice alongside goals from Reece Thompson and David Bayoh, while Nathan Perks netted a late consolation. Khan now has 63 goals in all competitions while Thompson has also found the net 28 times this season, meaning that the pair have scored an incredible 91 goals between them.

South Leeds rounded off the weekend with a 2–1 win over Athersley Recreation, William Law and Reece Evans overturning James Woodhouse’s early strike.

Another busy midweek across the Macron Northern Counties East League brought decisive victories, a five goal thriller in Sheffield, and disappointment for Louth Town in the Lincolnshire Senior Trophy Final.

On Tuesday, Barton Town produced one of the standout results of the evening with a composed 3–0 win at Golcar United, Henry Moore striking after just six minutes to set the tone. Lewis Stephens added a second shortly after the hour and Matthew Stafford wrapped up the points with a 78th minute finish, a result that strengthens Barton’s push for the play offs.

Tadcaster Albion were equally assured as they left Parkgate with a 3–0 victory. Ryan Qualter opened the scoring on 11 minutes before Curtis Senior doubled the advantage midway through the first half. Oliver Green’s goal on 57 minutes ensured a comfortable night for the Brewers.

Pickering Town enjoyed a strong home performance, defeating Eccleshill United 2–0. Souleymane Coulibaly struck after 14 minutes and George Brown added a second just past the hour, securing the win.

The most dramatic match of the night came at Sheffield, where the hosts edged a 3–2 victory over Horbury Town in front of the evening’s highest attendance of 359. Luke Mangham’s goal on the stroke of half time gave Sheffield the lead, and Danny Edwards doubled it early in the second half. Horbury responded through Jacob Hanson and Samuel Awty to level the contest, but Ryan Cook struck an 88th minute winner to settle a pulsating encounter.

Handsworth came from behind to win 2–1 at Wombwell Town, a result that condemns Wombwell to relegation back to NCEL Division One, just twelve months after promotion. Charlie Rogerson put the hosts ahead after eight minutes, only for Mitch Dunne to equalise three minutes later. Jordan Hines completed the turnaround shortly after the restart, with the sides having gone in level at 1–1 at the break.

In Division One, Armthorpe Welfare were held to a 1–1 draw by Appleby Frodingham. Abdulrahman Alghamdi gave the visitors a 21st minute lead before Bayley Lowe levelled on 71 minutes, the points shared before a crowd of 82.

Athersley Recreation secured a narrow 1–0 win over Crowle Colts thanks to Keenan Davies Mosley’s penalty three minutes into the second half.

Leeds UFCA continued their strong form with a 3–1 victory over Harrogate Railway Athletic. Omar Sanyang struck after five minutes and Jaydan Sandhu converted a penalty on 58 minutes before Sanyang added his second. A late own goal from Adam Jones provided Harrogate’s consolation.

Selby Town delivered the night’s most emphatic performance, sweeping aside Doncaster City 6–0. Nathaniel Muenda scored twice inside 37 minutes, Dan Davison added a third before the break, and further goals from Caden McGrath, Maximillian Bauer and Jake Morrison completed a dominant display before a crowd of 230.

Wednesday evening brought silverware as UCL side Grantham Town lifted the Lincolnshire Senior Trophy with a 2–0 win over Louth Town at Boston United’s Jakemans Community Stadium. Lee Shaw opened the scoring on 36 minutes and Alex Roberts added a second midway through the second half, sealing a composed and professional performance in front of 360 spectators. Louth played well forcing Grantham goalkeeper Jack Steggles into some fine saves but the White Wolves were ultimately unable to provide an upset against their step 5 opponents.

Campion’s meeting with Rossington Main finished 2–2, with the hosts twice taking the lead before being pegged back. Ben Grech Brooks-bank opened the scoring after 11 minutes, only for Oliver Nowak to level six minutes later. Shay Muir-head restored Champion’s advantage on 38 minutes, giving them a 2–1 lead at the break. Rossington kept themselves in the contest and were rewarded when Cody Prior converted a 54th minute penalty to secure a point.

In Division One, Maltby Main were beaten 2–1 at home by Club Thorne Colliery, who struck a dramatic stoppage time winner. Player manager James Baxendale put the visitors ahead on 31 minutes, and although Maltby pushed after the interval and equalised through Hayden Habetz on 65 minutes, Jacob Robinson struck in the 90th minute to seal the victory.

Route One Rovers edged a five goal contest as they defeated Worsbrough Bridge Athletic 3–2. Reece Thompson gave the hosts an early lead on 13 minutes, but Keelan Grist equalised right on half time. Thompson struck again just after the restart, and Zak Khan extended the advantage on 61 minutes. Worsbrough responded through Ben Pike seven minutes later, but Rovers held firm to take the points and keep their own play off hopes alive.

Dronfield Rise, Swallownest Struggle

UNITED COUNTIES S YORKS SPORT

Dronfield Town capped an impressive few days with back to back United Counties League Division One victories, while Swallownest endured a bruising spell that underlined the challenges of life at Step Six.

Saturday’s win at Dunkirk set the tone for Dronfield’s resurgence and was delivered with conviction. Luke Walker’s early strike rewarded a bright start and his anticipation proved decisive after Sam Bebbington’s header cannoned off the woodwork, with the forward reacting quickest to make it 1–0. The pressure continued and on 28 minutes the advantage doubled when Ryan Watters burst clear to coolly slot home. From there, Dronfield managed the occasion well, maintaining control without ever needing to force the issue.

Their reward came late on. Substitute Arran Bovill’s fierce strike was handled on the line, Dunkirk’s Ben Maxwell was sent off, and Bebbington swept in the resulting penalty to seal an excellent 3–0 away victory. Dunkirk had their moments, but Lewis Naylor and a resolute Dronfield back line limited them to half chances. The win lifted Town back up to 12th with momentum and three straight home fixtures ahead.

Tuesday’s Stonelow derby against Staveley Miners Welfare brought a different challenge but an equally satisfying outcome. Dronfield started at pace, forcing two early saves before a delightful exchange between Bovill and Chris Simpkins set the full-back through to guide home the opener. Staveley rarely threatened until a disputed penalty on the stroke of half time allowed Nathan Moss to level. The setback could easily have disrupted Town’s rhythm, yet they reasserted themselves and reclaimed the lead when Watters’ long throw was nudged on by Callum Mawbey, leaving Walker to stab in his second goal in as many games.

Staveley rallied late on but failed to carve out a clear equaliser. It was a deserved win for Dronfield, who looked the sharper side throughout and now sit a whisker from mathematical safety—though their form suggests they need not worry too much about the bottom end of the table. Sleaford Town visit on Saturday with plenty at stake for both sides.

While Dronfield enjoyed a near perfect week, Swallownest suffered contrasting fortunes.

Saturday’s narrow 1–0 defeat to West Bridgford came despite a competitive performance and healthy attendance of 182. The only goal arrived on 64 minutes through Kenneth Ta-fireyi. Swallownest once again walked the fine margins that have defined several of their recent outings.

Those margins widened considerably on Wednesday night as South Normanton Athletic ran out 5–1 winners. South Normanton raced into a 4–0 half time lead, including two spectacular long range goals, leaving Swallownest with far too much to do.

It was a harsh reminder of the volatility young squads often experience at this level. Even so, there is no shortage of character in the side, and they will need to draw upon that resilience in the weeks ahead as the division tightens and results become ever more valuable.

In contrast, Dronfield appear to be moving with confidence and clarity, combining defensive control with a growing attacking fluency. Their recent victories have lifted the mood around Stonelow and offered a glimpse of a side capable of finishing the season far stronger than it began.

For Swallownest, the task is to turn competitive performances into points. Saturday’s display against West Bridgford showed they are not far away, but Wednesday exposed some of the work still required. With the season entering its defining stretch, both clubs know precisely what is at stake—one looking upwards with belief, the other searching for the spark that steadies the ship.

LOCAL LEAGUE FOOTBALL

Six Goal Red Rose Roar in Ten Goal Epic

COUNTY SENIOR
WARREN BIRD

The Sheffield & Hallamshire County Senior League delivered box office drama across all three divisions, headlined by a breathless top two shootout in Division One that felt like a title tilt thunder-clap.

Ecclesfield Red Rose 1915 and Thorncliffe Villa traded blows in a ten goal epic, with the leaders finally surging clear to win 6–4 and stretch their advantage to 13 points. With momentum swinging like a pendulum, Ecclesfield’s firepower told in the end as Alex Flanagan, Dane Hodgson (2), Aiden Horspool, Owen Ryan and Jack Hawkes got it done on a day that looked every inch a champions’ statement.

If there’s a chaser with the legs to reel them in, it’s Swinton Athletic. Sitting fourth but armed with five games in hand, Swinton carved out a vital 2–1 success away at Sheffield Union to open a nine point cushion over their hosts. Nathan Walsh and James Copley netted the decisive goals for Swinton. The result keeps Swinton’s faint title hopes alive and their promotion push very much on course.

Elsewhere in Division One, Barnsley Town 2–2 Hepworth United Reserves delivered a hard fought point apiece with goals for Barnsley from Daniel Taylor and Sam Metcalfe. North Gawber 0–1 Parkgate Reserves hinged on a single, ice cold finish from Morgan Bright.

The scheduled clash between the bottom two, Dinnington Town Reserves vs Wombwell Town Reserves, was sadly abandoned due to a serious injury; thoughts across the league are with the player involved.

In the Premier Division, leaders Hems-worth Miners Welfare pressed their Step 6 case with authority, powering to a 3–0 win at Dod-worth MWFC. The points were signed off by Andy Horbury and James Semley, with an own goal completing a commanding away day that opens up a four point lead at the summit.

The chief threat remains Hepworth United, a side with five games in hand and the form to use them. They stayed in the slipstream by beating second placed AFC Dronfield 4–2, driven by a ruthless hat trick from Sam Thompson and a tidy strike from Matty Brooke.

Handsworth Reserves produced a state-ment scalp at the reigning champions, winning 3–1 at Ought-ibridge WMSC thanks to a sharp brace from Fin-ley Musson and a clincher by Ethan Carr.

South Elmsall United Services banked a pro-fessional 2–0 over Jubi-lee Sports, with Charlie Clayworth and Mark Lynch delivering the key moments. And Stocks-bridge Park Steels Re-serves reinforced their top five credentials by beating Penistone Church Reserves 4–2. Cole Thorpe (2), Louis Brown and Callum Pearce did the damage for Steels; Will Heath and Alfie Broughton struck back for Pen-istone, but the visitors’ finishing edge proved decisive.

Division Two con-tinues to be the county’s great grin and grimace rollercoaster, with six sides separated by just three points and every weekend reshaping the picture.

Swinton Athletic Re-serves collected a home walkover after Sheffield Medics were unable to field a team—points banked without a ball being kicked. That left the chasers to make their own moves, and several obliged.

Tusaale United roared to 6–1 over Maltby Main Reserves, a statement victory powered by Nasser El Hyane, a Hanad Mo-hamed brace, plus strikes from Mame Sarr, Malachi Smith and Ahmed Musa.

Rotherham Town were equally convincing, winning 4–1 at Carib-bean Sports as Sam

Dannatt bagged a spark-ling hat trick alongside Kingsley Little, with Tyler Stirling replying for Caribbean.

There was a six goal salvo from Denaby Main Reserves, who swept past Elsecar Dynamoes 6–1. Adam Winder was unplayable with four goals, joined on the sheet by Jack Cranswick and Josh Jones.

The Middlewood Rovers 4–4 Elsecar Main thriller was pure Division Two—end to end and breathless. Middlewood’s goals came via Kian Thornhill, Jack Gascoigne (2) and Fin Marsden.

Baby Shark Bite Back For Comeback Win

BLADES SUPER DRAW S S
KEITH FIRMINGER

Helped by a Logan Liggins double, Loca made it to the County FA Sunday Trophy Final with a 3-1 semi-final victory against fellow Blades Super Draw League Division 1 side Crookes.

Loca went on the front foot from the start and opened the scoring when Oli Grady was brought down in the area and Liggins put the penalty away. With man of the match Jamie Goldenburgh keeping Loca in control it stayed like that until the second half and they doubled their lead when Aaron Williamson’s cross was headed home by Liggins.

Crookes never gave up and in the last few minutes they got a lifeline when Hamish Adamson pulled one back. They then threw everyone forward, but were inevitably caught on the break when Cam Evans supplied the pass for Grady to clinch Loca’s final place. They will meet Barnsley Championship side Shaw Inn in the final on 19 April after their 3-1 victory over Thurlstone.

Nailmakers moved further away from the relegation zone by putting a big dent in Eck-ington MW’s title hopes with a 2-0 victory over them. Eckington should have taken the lead when they were awarded a penalty, but Lestyn Jones spot kick was well saved by Luke Herriott in the Nailmakers goal.

It remained goalless until the second half when Sam Read broke the deadlock when he beat his defender in the air to head home. It stayed like that until the final minute when Dan Beech hit a goal of the season contender with a blockbuster from 40 yard that left the keeper helpless.

Wadsley Bridge Sixers title hopes were also hit as they were held to a very entertain-ing 3-3 draw by another relegation battler in Jubilee Rangers. Jubilee raced into a first minute lead when a good move was finished by Brendan Reid-Flanagan. Sixers hit back with a Luke Beedham header from a throw in. A terrific run and by Danny Barnsley paved the way for Chris Belshaw to then give Sixers the lead, but Alfie Smith equalised by bundling the ball home to send the teams in level at the break.

The second half started much like the first with Reid-Flanagan racing through the Sixers defence to put Jubilee in front again.

With 15 minutes re-maining Sixers hit back to level with a Josh Sta-tham strike, with a draw being the right result from a good contest.

Stannington Village made no mistake though with a 3-1 victory at a Boynton Sports that has now slipped into the bottom half. Sami Eric gave Stannington a 20th minute lead when he finished from the edge of the box. The lead was doubled soon after when Luca DeFalco’s shot took a slight deflection into the bottom corner and it was three before half time when a flick-on by DeFalco was fin-ished by Eric from a tight angle. Boynton never gave up and did manage a consolation goal in the second half when Luke Highton netted for them for the first time.

Chapelton RBL gave their survival hopes a boost as Morgan

Cowell scored 4 in their win at Woodman. RBL took an early lead when Adam Todd set Cowell up for his first. He netted his second after Charlie Cope played a clever pass through the home defence and he completed his hat-trick from the penalty spot before half-time after Luis Afonso-Ferriera had been brought down in the area.

RBL continued on top after the break and made it four when skipper Alex Mosley picked out Todd to fin-ish well. Cowell com-pleted the scoring when he volleyed home a Jacob Walkland cross to claim his fourth of the day.

Hackenthorpe stayed top, but Mosborough Reds kept up the chase with a narrow 1-0 win at Kelham Island. A quiet first half ended goalless and the second was going the same way until Sam Rowden netted his first goal for the Reds. Kelham stayed in the game and looked a threat at times, but it was Reds that almost scored a second when their skipper Jak Hot-chin headed against the post.

AFC Wisewood also stayed in the hunt with a much more convincing 6-1 victory at Cotts thanks to the help of a Leo Edgar treble. Will Osgathorpe netted two and Joe Daley hit Wise-wood’s other, with Mi-chael Blythen netting the home side’s consola-tion.

Baby Shark came from behind to win 3-2 at Norton Oaks. Goals from James Addy and Andrew Bokea gave Oaks a 2-1 lead at the break despite Fabian Johnson’s strike for Shark, but the second half saw strikes by Dan-iel Ramsey and Jerome Slew win it for Shark.

Promotion Drama Erupts

ABACUS
CENTRAL MIDS
RICHARD LANE

It was a pivotal week across South Yorkshire’s foot-balling landscape, with several results set to shape the promotion picture as the season enters its decisive stretch.

From Dinnington to Doncaster, Worksop to Worsbrough, the region’s clubs delivered drama, setbacks and statement wins in equal measure.

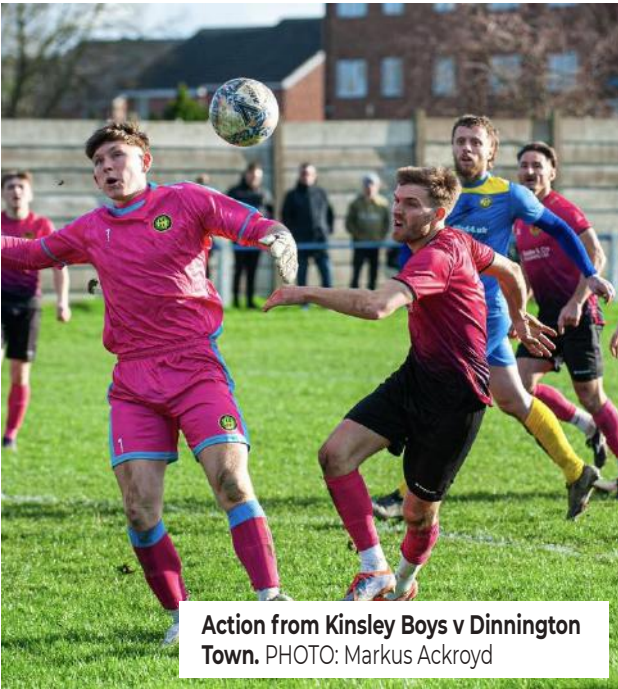

The standout result came at Inkersall Road, where Staveley Miners Welfare Reserves dealt a heavy blow to Dinnington Town’s promotion ambitions. Alex Coates fired Staveley ahead on 35 minutes, and Josh Nicholls doubled the advantage early in the second half. Dinnington rallied through Ali Elkossi with 15 minutes left, but the damage was already done. The defeat leaves Town under pressure, now trailing Brods-worth Main—who still hold a game in hand—and only narrowly ahead of Kinsley Boys, who have three games to spare.

Elsewhere in the promotion chase, Har-worth Colliery produced one of the performances of the week, dismantling Glapwell with a commanding display. Billy Stafford was untouchable, scoring four of Harworth’s five goals, with Daniel Boulton adding the other. Harworth’s form has them emerging as genuine dark horses, especially after another impressive win later in the week at Worksop Town Reserves, where Boulton and Stafford again ran riot.

There was no short-age of drama involving Burngreave United, who overturned a 3–1 half time deficit to beat Teversal 4–3. A second half collapse from the hosts—who conceded two penalties—allowed Abdulrahman Asad to complete a hat trick and flip the game on its head. Burngreave’s attacking threat was on full display again when they brushed aside RHP Sports, racing into a three goal lead inside 20 minutes before eventually winning 4–1.

In the Premier North, Kinsley Boys made a major statement by beating Dinnington Town 3–1 to leapfrog them into top spot. Jack White struck twice, Elliott Stubbs added another, and Kinsley’s momentum now looks ominous for the chasing pack.

Further down the pyramid, AFC Bentley finally found reward for their persistence, ending a five game losing streak with a 2–1 win at Elite AFC. Haris Diagate’s second half brace proved decisive, offering Bentley a much needed lift after a difficult run.

There was frustration for SJR Worksop, who nevertheless secured a solid 2–0 win over AFC Phoenix thanks to goals from Logan Liggins and Calum Edwards. Meanwhile, Ollerton Town showed resilience to fight back from two goals down at Teversal, with late strikes from Rio Alberry and Kian Brennan earning a deserved point.

Staveley Reserves weren’t done for the week either, hammering Glapwell 6–0 in a ruthless display. Charlie Bingham stole the show with four goals, supported by strikes from Michael Wilson and Sam Davies — ideal preparation for their upcoming Floodlit Cup semi final.

Across the region, the promotion picture is tightening, and South Yorkshire’s clubs are right at the heart of the action. Dinnington and Kinsley are locked in a compelling duel, Harworth are gathering pace at exactly the right moment, and Staveley’s young guns are hitting form with silverware in sight. With the season entering its final act, every point, every mistake and every moment of brilliance is beginning to matter.

Sly Fox Strike Twice to Seal Win

MEXBOROUGH
SUNDAY
SHAUN BEST

Asolitary point still separates the top three sides in Division One, after they all picked up victories in the latest round of games.

Swinton Athletic coasted to a 5–0 win at Mexborough Knights thanks to a Regan Kelly hat-trick and efforts from Joshua Bennett and Jaydee Harris.

Hickleton Harriers – top on goal difference, edged out White Hart Wadworth 3–2 courtesy of a Jonathan Davis brace and Kristian Wroe strike.

Patrick Swift’s goal was enough for Denaby United to win 1–0 at Cross Keys Wath and keep pace at the summit.

Elsewhere in Division One, Union Jack squeezed past Highgate WMC 5–4. A Liam Lambert hat-trick was added to by Joshua Renshaw and Luke Jackson. Highgate’s goals came from Oliver Wheeler, Robbie Billam and a Harley Norris double.

Courtyard kept up with the chasing pack thanks to a 2–0 victory at New Masons Arms. Luke Ahern and Mark Clare were on the score-sheet for Courtyard.

In a battle between two sides at the wrong end of the table, Mexborough Athletic pulled clear of trouble thanks to a 2–1 win at Barnburgh WMC.

A Cameron Till brace gave The Sly Fox a 2–1 victory against Ville in the only Premier Division game.

Over in the Steve Venables Memorial Trophy, Westville posted an impressive 8–1 victory at Gym Bar. Jake Phillis picked up a four goal haul for Westville, while Jack Birks and Atley Jackson also bagged two goals apiece.

Finally, in the Peter Walker League Cup, Groves Social emerged 4–1 victors over Swinton Ring O’Bells. Jack Wesley was at the double for Groves, with Joshua Epton and Liam Squires also finding the net.

Gate Inn Cruise, Nelson Not in Title Race

ROTHERHAM
SUNDAY

MARK PILLEY

The Rotherham & District Sunday League served up a bumper slate, but the big picture at the very top is unchanged: The Gate Inn still set the Premier Division pace, Brinsworth DC give chase, and AFC Lord Nelson's eye catching win was about points on the board rather than any title tremors. The Gate Inn are clear on 38 points from 14, with Brinsworth DC on 29 from two games fewer; Nelson are sixth on 17 points, 21 off the leaders, so their job is to stack wins and climb, not to make championship noise.

In the Premier, AFC Lord Nelson were clinical away at AFC Trades Rawmarsh, winning 4–1 thanks to Sam Morley (2), Logan Terry and Jack Thompson, after Brandon Potts put Trades in front.

Clubhouse tightened things at the lower end by blanking Jack in Box 4–0, with goals from Ben Gillott, Kane Swinburn, Joe Taylor and Nathan Harrison, a welcome boost for a side battling in the bottom four, while Jack in Box remain in the relegation picture.

At the summit, leaders The Gate Inn stayed authoritative, beating Thorpe Hesley Village 3–0 through Dillon Middleton, Josh Stead and Nathan Walsh. With 12 wins from 14 and an unbeaten record, Gate Inn remain the ones to catch, with Brinsworth DC the nearest threat on points per game.

In the Championship, promotion chasers AFC Monkwood flexed with a 5–1 victory over AFC Maltby, Owen Evans (2), Wyatt Lakin, Liam Stead and an own goal doing the damage after Callum Davies replied. Leaders Whiston stay out front on 25 points, but Thurcroft Hub lurk just three points back with three games in hand; FC Mailcoach also sit top three after a 2–0 at Maltby Main Haynook, who are bottom.

Handsworth Inn nicked a huge survival tilt win 1–0 at Whiston via Vinny Moore, a result that hurts the leaders but still keeps them top.

Division One has turned into a multi team shootout, with AFC Thirsty Flame setting the pace, with Mill Dam and Shakhtar Sheffield the nearest pursuers; AFC Rotherham Spartans and The Colin scrap at the wrong end.

Against that backdrop, Shakhtar Sheffield bagged a vital away win, 2–1 at AFC Rotherham Spartans, Matt Coleman and Gage West overturning Kingsley Little's opener to strengthen Shakhtar's promotion credentials.

Joker edged a thriller 3–2 against Ecclesfield Blues thanks to Bradley Carroll, Craig Roberts and Jacob Horner (Blues: Joshua Smith, Joe Aitkin), a result that keeps Joker in mid pack and Blues hovering just outside the top chase.

Beighton Magpies JFC 1–1 Manor Hotel shared the points, and The Colin 2–2 Milldam saw Ben Dalton and Josh Brunt net for The Colin as Milldam pocketed a precious away point that matters near the top.

Division Two produced statement wins at both ends. Bradgate banked a priceless 3–0 against Kilton United (scorers Riley Habbin, Jamie Hartley, Mitch Payne) to pull away from the drop fight.

Langold Old Boys hammered Brinsworth FC 5–0 (Ewan Birch, Lewis Cromley, Ryan Parker, Aaron Redfern (2)) to tighten their promotion push.

Hogshead and RUSC85 The Travellers drew 1–1 (Harry Simpson; Jamie Lindsey). The Alma and Hope Valley Tap served a 3–3 classic, Declan Murphy and Harry Wilmott (2) for Alma; Dominic McCloud, Taylor Somerset, Richard Williams replying.

The Park Hotel beat

AFC Loca 4–1 (Luke Carter, Brad Cresswell (2), Fraser Curran; James Woodhouse), while Wickersley AFC stayed in the promotion mix by beating Harthill 5–2 (Sam Martin, Alfie Miller, Jay White (2), Bailey Wolstenholme; Joseph Holmes, Callum Hurt).

Division Three was an avalanche. Aston Athletic crushed Apollo X Legacy 7–0, Adam Fleetwood hitting five with Joseph Kenny and Dominic Webster adding gloss.

Ravenfield Arms rolled Crown Inn Newhill 6–1, and leaders Sheffield Spartans slipped to a 2–1 home defeat against The Woodman Woodlaithes—a result that matters because Spartans, Woodman and East Dene are the promotion pack at the top of the current table.

East Dene themselves won 4–1 at Steel City Whippets (Cole Jones, Nick Sanderson, Seán Thompson (2); Edward Woolfe), while Yorkshire Roses beat Ship Inn 3–1 (Owen Spendiff, Aiden Spendiff, Montelle Williams; Danny Rees).

Division Four stayed wonderfully messy at both extremes. Dinnington Dynamos kept their title tilt motoring with a 4–1 over Inter Rother (Nathan Lees, Zane McCloud (2), Camron McGrail). Kiveton Park Reds pressed their promotion case by beating Earl Grey 3–0 (Alfie Bailey, George Crofts, Craig Winter). Marquis roared 6–2 at Laughton Common with Luca Cronly (2), Cohen Lewin, Ben Siddall (2) and Marley Walker on target.

Parkgate did their prospects of avoiding the wooden spoon a world of good with a 2–0 against Wickersley THS; and The Club Pot edged AFC Sportsman 2–1 (Charlie Crapper, Christopher Gallivan; Adam Ghani).

If you want, I can pin each division's live table snapshot next week alongside the results for a standing by standing graphic.

Rangers Edge Seven Goal Thriller at the Top

MARTIN GILMOUR

Sheffield Rangers returned to action in the top of the table Premier Division clash against Dodworth Miners Welfare. It was Rangers who came out on top in 4-3 a seven-goal thriller and who extend their lead at the top of the Premier Division.

Goals from Jake Widdowson, Joseph Ellis, Daniel Spence and Bailey Smith gave Rangers the points. Welfare replied through Alex Hardeman, Dan McKenning and Sonny Boreham.

In the other Premier Division game Hands-worth FC Ambers ran out comfortable 5-0 winners away at Penistone Church A. Goals for Ambers, Kia Jones with two, Kye Smedley with two and one for Oliver Harris.

Still very tight at the top of Division One with just 4 points separating the top 6 Teams. Athersley Rec take advantage of Abbey Lane's draw and leapfrog them to take top spot.

A hat-trick for top scorer Eromosele Ovienloba and one each for Riley Senior and Carson Armitage gave Rec a comfortable 5-0 home win over Stocksbridge Park Steels Blues.

Abbey Lane despite leading 2-0 at half time through goals from Luke Bissett and Archie Rodgers, both assisted by Jake Spiers were pegged back in the 2nd half and had to settle for a shar of the points against Staveley Miners Welfare Blues who replied through Jack Watson and Jack Lenton.

In the big Worksop Derby it was the away team Worksop Boys who came out on top at Sandy Lane 3-1 against hosts Worksop Town. Matthew Newton with a double and Lucas Snell for the away team, Oliver Ball replying for the hosts.

Penistone Church B go third with a fine 4-1 away win at Ecclesfield Red Rose 1915. Sam Eades for Rose with one a piece for Jack Cartwright, Harry McManus, Dan Fawcett and Luke Fretwell giving the points to Penistone.

The search for the first points of the Season goes on for Worksop Town Yellows who were soundly beaten 11-0 by Kitlocker FC. A hat-trick each for Romeo White and Archies Saxton-Clayton, two for Ewan Jezusek and one each for Sam Pennell, Mark Allen and Isaac Hartley with the goals for Kitlocker.

JULIAN BARKER

This season's Sheffield & Hallamshire County FA Women's Senior Cup final will be contested by Huddersfield Town and Sheffield FC after both recorded home wins in last Sunday's semi-finals.

Huddersfield were 2-1 winners over Barnsley Women in a pairing which has been very familiar over the past decade with five finals involving the duo and also last season's semi-final when Town were comfortable 3-1 winners.

Louise Biggins put Town ahead just before the interval, but the lead was short-lived, Ocean Rolandsen equalising early in the second half. The outcome remained very much in the balance until just before the end of 90 minutes when Louise Biggins netted Town's second to secure a place in the final and also avoid the need for the tie to be determined via a penalty shoot out.

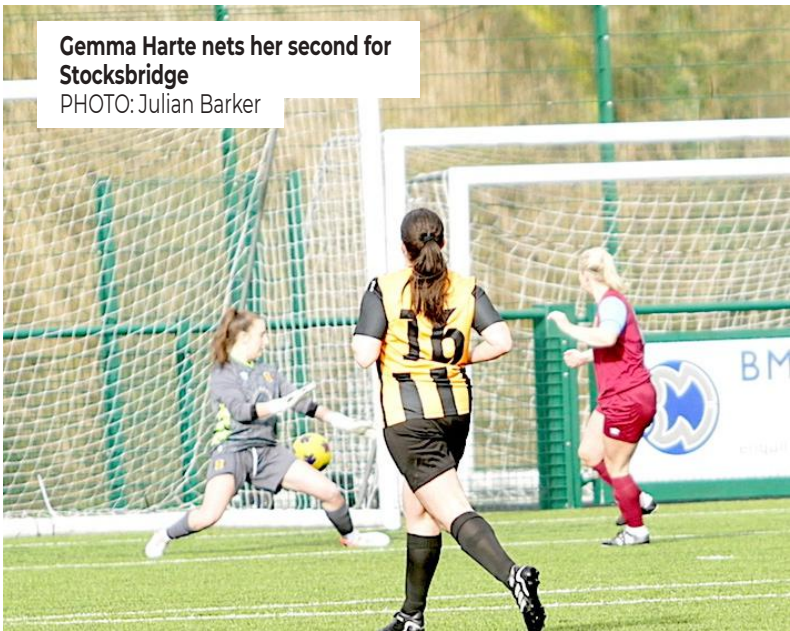

From not having played in this season's competition until last midweek due to the weather causing the postponement of their quarter-final tie at neighbours Dronfield Town, Sheffield have reached the final for the fifth time.

Maya Williams and Tilly Hallas-Potts scored for a 2-0 interval lead against Dronfield and Sheffield doubled their tally in the second half with Lexi Butterworth and Imogen Fowler on target.

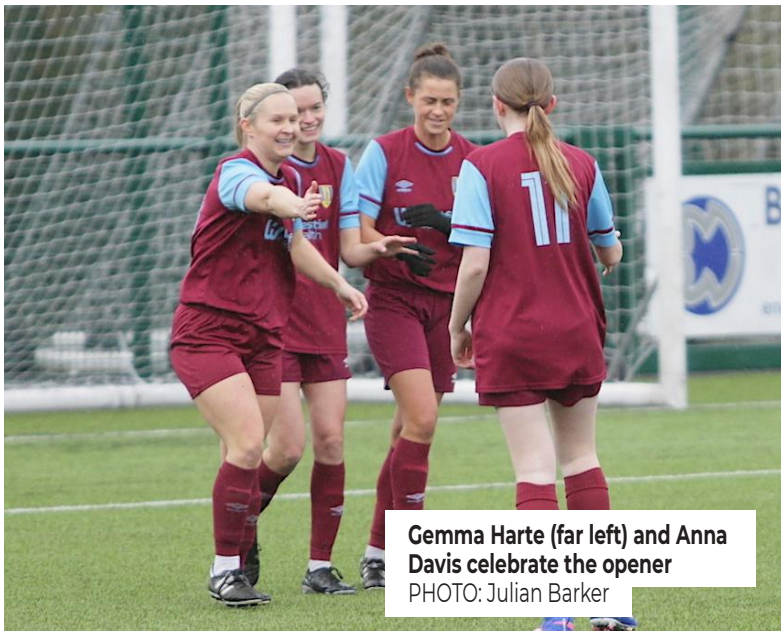

Sunday's semi-final saw Sheffield face another tier six outfit in Handsworth who are pressing strongly for the North East Regional League Southern Division title. Abby Watkinson put Handsworth ahead inside the first five minutes, but Sheffield hit back to level quickly with Butterworth on the mark for the second time in successive matches.

It was still 1-1 at the interval, but Sheffield forged ahead through Molly Crump a few minutes into the second half. Stacey Buxton put the tie beyond Handsworth's reach with a hat-trick inside 15 minutes after netting her first just past the hour mark.

This season's final is a repeat of the 2014-15 meeting when Sheffield beat Huddersfield 4-1 to lift the trophy for the fourth successive season. The long-serving Katie Mallin, who scored for Town that day, played against Barnsley on Sunday.

2026 will be Town's tenth successive final appearance, a competition record (two seasons were lost due to Covid, 2019-20 was abandoned and there was no competition in 2020-21).

Doncaster Rovers Belles have lifted themselves out of the FA Women's National League Division One North relegation places, albeit only via goal difference, but their prospects of staying up look much brighter following a solid first several weeks under recently appointed manager Dylan Wimbury.

Last Sunday's key games affecting the division's relegation places were postponed. Belles secured a very creditable point last Wednesday when they drew 1-1 at home to Leeds United for whom the result moved them into top spot, a point ahead of Huddersfield. Leeds opened shortly after the interval, but then Abi Coley, who came on as a substitute following the goal, levelled within a few minutes direct from a free kick.

Belles have since added the experienced Danielle Witham (her cv includes Barnsley, Brighouse and Leeds) to their ranks.

The Division's remaining fixtures have been further revised. Belles' twice postponed trip to Blackburn is now re-scheduled for 29th March, while another key game for Belles, at home to relegation rivals Chester-Le-Street Town has been moved to the penultimate Sunday of the season.

Rotherham United are assured of a top four finish in the East Midlands Regional League Premier Division. Leah Harrison and Lily-May Jackson were their scorers in a 2-0 home win over Stamford AFC and with two games left, their best possible finish is third, but they would almost certainly need maximum points from both as they are three points ahead of fourth place Mansfield Town who have three games in hand.

Dronfield Town need 12 points from their remaining five games to finish as runners up in Division One North where they likely to improve their current fourth placing by at least one. Sophie Hoyes gave them the lead at home to Lincoln United Development and it was 4-1 at the interval with Krissy Humble having bagged a hat-trick. Zoe Bratley and Humble, with her fourth, were on target in the second half to complete a 6-1 victory, Dronfield's biggest of the season and also Lincoln's heaviest defeat.

Following the departure of Andy Gilligan as manager, Kieron Lee is back in charge at Sheffield Wednesday Ladies who gave him a winning start with an eventful 6-4 home win over Rossington Main in the North East Regional League Southern Division. Both Keely Franklin and Courtney Kaye netted twice along with singles by Amy Broomhead and Milly Colford for Wednesday. Lauren Breen, second in the division's individual scoring stakes, bagged a hat trick for Rossington whose other goal came from Sarah Black.

The top five in the Sheffield & Hallamshire Women’s County League Division One all won and with several six-pointers among the remaining fixtures, the title is very much up for grabs.

Current leaders Stocksbridge Park Steels were quickly in front through Anna Davis at Handsworth Reserves who started with an unbeaten seven game home record. It was 4-0 at the interval with Gemma Harte having netted either side of captain Beth Tonner scoring direct from a free kick.

Steels are five points ahead of YP Women from level games. YP were 8-2 home winners over Huddersfield Town Under-23s to make it 22 goals from successive games (nearly a third of their season’s tally of 68). Both Charlotte Bennehan and Grace Holmes bagged hat tricks along with singles by Liberty Shaw and Kelsey Spink-Robinson as YP extended their 100% home record to six games.

Barnsley Women Reserves are another with a perfect home record, now maximum points from seven games following their 5-0 success over Dinnington Town thanks to goals by Alesha Burton 2, Lizzie Coates, Jess Endley and Fran Lambert.

Town had been beaten 4-0 at Staveley

Miners Welfare, who boast the Division’s only unbeaten record, on Friday night.

Emily Barker and Laura Walsh were on target for Sheffield United Community in their 6-2 defeat at Frickley Athletic whose tally included a hat trick by Laura Ferguson.

Second place Brinsworth Whitehill reduced the gap at the top of Division Two to eight points with a 3-1 home victory over leaders Barnsley FC Ladies. Millie Lee 2 and Caitlin Cooper were on the mark to extend the Division’s only unbeaten home record to eight games, while Charli Hayward scored for Barnsley who started the match with a six game unbeaten away record.

Third place Staveley Miners Welfare Reserves, for whom Lucy Robertson scored what proved a very late consolation, lost 2-1 at fourth place Sheffield Wednesday Reserves both of whose goals were scored by Sophie Wigfield who netted late in either half.

Brodsworth Welfare moved up to fifth and if they continue their recent strong form, then they are likely to finish third. Holly Bytheway netted twice before the interval and Jill Edmonds twice after to give Brodsworth a 4-0 home victory over SJR Worksop Development who started the game in fifth place. Brodsworth’s current five game winning sequence has seen them rattle in 25 goals without reply.

Zoe Barnes scored the game’s only goal late in the second half to give Socrates the points at Millmoor Juniors Reserves, while Dearne & District shared the spoils in a 1-1 draw with Penistone Church.

Division Three leaders Dronfield Town were beaten 5-1 at Swallownest Miners Welfare, while there was another 5-1 scoreline with Maltby Juniors claiming maximum points away to Sheffield Wednesday Development. Tia Treloar bagged a hat trick for Maltby along with singles by Heidi Frost and Georgia Taylor. Tilly Ironside was on the mark for Wednesday.

Mikayla Harper added another hat trick to her name in a 4-3 home win for Kiveton Park Reserves over Barnsley Women Under-21s. Sophie Iberson was Kiveton’s other scorer, while Kara Whittlestone 2 and Aimee Herbert were on target for Barnsley.

Frickley Athletic 2nd XI, who won 4-0 at Aston Swallownest, moved level on points with leaders Brampton United in Division Four. Chloe Channer netted five for Worksop Town in their 11-0 home victory over Sheffield Medics, while Urszula Talalaj was on the mark for the third game running for FURD, Football Unites Racism Divides in their 1-1 draw at Courage FC.

Hooper Hat Trick Headlines Sheffield's Nine Try Surge

SHEFFIELD
RUGC

CALLUM ROBINSON

Sheffield RUFC's roller coaster win at Scunthorpe was the full National League package: a blistering start, costly lapses, big momentum swings and, in the end, the kind of ruthless away day finishing that promotion contenders need.

It wasn't tidy and it certainly wasn't calm, but the 55-31 victory might prove one of the most important of the season—because it came on a day when resilience, composure and raw firepower were all tested.

The selection jigsaw continued, with the prop injury picture forcing another shuffle. Alex Keeton stayed among the replacements as cover, Lewis Taylor filled the right wing berth, Noah Cowan came in at scrum half with Elliot Fisher moving to the bench, and Rhodri Campbell started at hooker with Will Archer among the finishers. Against a side battling in 12th, nothing about this ever looked straightforward.

The opening exchanges were bedlam. Sheffield detonated out of the gate with two tries in the first eight minutes: Chris Hooper first and then Felix Crapper, both converted by the ice cool boot of Callum Posa for 14-0. But Scunthorpe punched back immediately, capitalising on Sheffield's over eagerness and errors. Hooker Olly Arnold crashed over on 10 minutes, converted by Will Dark, before centre Jack Murr cut Sheffield open for a leveller; Dark's second conversion made it 14-14 by 16 minutes.

When flanker Marcus Payne rumbled over on 21 to put the hosts 19-14 up, the contest had flipped on its head inside a quarter of an hour.

Sheffield's response was sharp and emphatic. Hooper, in irresistibly direct mode, found the hole and finished for his second; Posa nudged the conversion for 21-19. Lewis Taylor then finished wide on the right for the bonus point fourth, and full back George Castledine burst through for a fifth, Posa again adding the extras to push the lead to 33-19. A late first half riposte from winger Lewis Talbot trimmed it to 33-24 at the break, but the sense remained that if Sheffield could tidy the details and lower the error count, the game was there for them.

The second half began as the first had: with Hooper on the scoresheet. His hat trick inside the opening minute after the restart extended the lead to 38-24, only for Scunthorpe to reply again when second row Dan Longden crossed and Dark converted to make it 38-31 with half an hour still to play.

From there, Sheffield finally found the sustained control the game demanded. Zak Poole powered over on 56 minutes, unconverted but vital, to buy some breathing space. Replacement hooker Will Archer then smashed over for the seventh try, and with the clock into the final 10, Felix Crapper grabbed his second and Sheffield's ninth. Posa's conversion pushed it out to 55-31, where it stayed despite a late green wave and a goal line siege that was held up. Hooper's secure take from the drop out cleared the danger and effectively closed the book.

Nine tries away from home is a marker. The attack clicked, the bench added punch, and even with the mid game wobbles, the collective solved problems on the pitch. Hooper's hat trick was the headline, but this was also about a backline that kept asking questions, forwards who grew into the physical contest, and a squad that refused to panic when the game got loose.

With the props back next week, the balance should improve again—just in time for the season's most revealing fortnight.

Attention now snaps to Abbeydale, where the stakes and the standard both jump. After ending the long run of away fixtures, Sheffield return home this Saturday for a genuine top of the table clash against Tynedale, who sit second with 18 wins and 4 losses from 22, fresh from beating third placed Macclesfield to move six points clear of them while staying eight behind Sheffield, who crucially have two games in hand. The reverse meeting up in November finished 14-8 to Sheffield, proof this group can control the tempo and win the arm wrestle against elite opposition when accuracy and discipline are front and centre.

With Macclesfield visiting Abbeydale the following weekend, this is the first leg of a defining double header.

Titans Still Top After Gritty Loss

Rotherham Titans lost 22-15 at Blackheath but banked a precious losing bonus to stay a point clear ahead of Plymouth Albion's visit to Clifton Lane on Saturday.

Blackheath made the faster start, surging 12-0 up inside eight minutes through close range finishes from Noah Slood and hooker Billy Harding, their early line out and maul pressure setting a bruising tone.

Rotherham hit back smartly. Jackson Barling's carry and offload opened the door for Lloyd Hayes to score on 16 minutes, the centre then adding the conversion to cut the deficit and settle Titans into the contest.

The visitors might have gone in level or ahead but spilled a gilt edged chance before the interval, a reminder of how thin the margins can be away to form opposition.

After the break, winger Tom Hughes finished to extend Blackheath's lead, before Hayes' penalty kept Titans in touch. Harding's second – his remarkable 41st try of the season – secured the hosts' four try bonus and looked decisive, until Barling powered over late and Hayes converted to lock in the bonus point at 22-15.

Harvey Biljon didn't sugar coat the challenge or the disruption. "It was always going to be tough coming away to Blackheath, they're a form team and playing very well," he said. "Their line out and maul functioned very well and they put us under pressure, and we did well to fight our way back into a game that could have very easily gone the other way. We absolutely believe in our squad and our squad was tested today. We've had a little bit of adversity with losing JB at the last minute, during the game we lost our fly half and unfortunately our line out caller went down and suddenly you're having to problem solve and face that adversity. "So, the credit I've got to give to the players is coming away with a point against a team that's in form. There will be learnings from that game and there were key stages where we invited pressure and we need to address that.

In terms of our discipline, we weren't on the right side of the referee and so we've got to make sure we go away and look at that and make sure we change that before our next game against Plymouth."

That point matters. With Plymouth thumping Rams to close within a point of the lead, Rotherham's cushion remains intact ahead of a potential title shaping afternoon at Clifton Lane.

For Sheffield Tigers, it was a heart breaker at Dore Moor, where Hull Ionians pinched a 24-23 win after trailing 20-7 at half time. Tigers did plenty right early on, crossing through Miles Dodsworth and James Broadley, while Jamie Rudd's boot kept the scoreboard ticking to build a thirteen point interval lead.

Momentum flipped after the restart. Will Wood struck first for Ionians, then fly half Ben Smith orchestrated and finished a decisive burst, posting points in quick succession to nudge the visitors in front.

Tigers kept swinging, and when Archie Upton crossed late on they had a shot to snatch it, but the visitors held out in the dying phases to leave Dore Moor with a one point victory. The RFU match centre confirmed the 23-24 final, and Tigers remain eighth with ten wins from 22 heading into a tricky trip to Preston Grasshoppers.

Context sharpens the frustration. Ionians, fourth in the table, have been in strong form across the last month, and their comeback here – away, under pressure – underlined why they remain in the top four.

Tigers can still take positives. There was tempo in phase play, defensive bite for long spells, and a first half control they'll want to bottle. But the lesson is harshly familiar: tighten the exits, lower the penalty count, and be ruthless in the red zone, especially against top four opponents.

HOCKEY

Sheffield Stay Unbeaten in Derby Battle

SHEFFIELD
HOCKEY CLUB

ANDY PETTIGREW

Sheffield's unbeaten run extends to eleven games after local derby win.

Sheffield Men's 1st team extended their undefeated run to 11 games after their 2-1 local derby win against Doncaster at Abbeydale SC last Sunday.

During the course of the season both Sheffield's team and new coach Kieran Heath have settled down well, becoming a side to be reckoned with in the EHL Conference North.

At the start of the season Sheffield got off to a slow start losing three of their first five games but since their 3-2 victory over new club Neston in early November they have remained unbeaten.

Doncaster were Sheffield's first opponents back in 1993 when Sheffield first won promotion to the national league. Back then, Doncaster played their home games at Quibell Park in Scunthorpe as very few clubs had their own synthetic pitch. Prior to 1993 Doncaster used to travel to Newark for home matches, where they shared the pitch with Kingston-upon-Hull HC.

Sheffield were one of the exceptions in Yorkshire having laid their synthetic pitch in 1989 becoming only one of three synthetic pitches, and the only hockey club in Yorkshire to have their own pitch.

Back in November the two sides met at Doncaster's Bennethorpe base where they ground out a hard-fought 1-1 draw.

Sheffield's unbeaten run has enabled the club to rise to fourth place in the EHL Conference North and with Doncaster only two points in fifth this promised to be an exciting game.

It only took Sheffield four minutes to score when Ben Shorter scored an open-play goal from very close range and seven minutes later Doncaster's keeper Maxwell Davidson managed to save a goal-bound penalty corner shot clear.

The game settled down into an end-to-end affair in the second quarter with neither side finding the net and the large enthusiastic crowd had to wait until after half-time for another goal.

Sheffield's top scorer Christopher Carter scored his tenth of the season two minutes into the second half with what can only be described as a deliberately hard flick along the ground sped into the far corner of the goal. 2-0 to Sheffield.

The game continued to be played at a high pace in the third quarter with Sheffield looking the team most likely to score again. Doncaster did keep Sheffield keeper Alex Findlater on his toes during this period of play, and he had to pull off a couple of finger-tip saves to prevent Doncaster getting on the score sheet.

The fourth quarter was only seconds old when Sheffield captain Dylan Lim Hon was awarded a yellow card as Sheffield took to the field with 12 players. It is the captain's responsibility to ensure that the team has the correct number of players when resuming play.

At same time Sheffield already had a second player in the sin-bin as Daniel O'Toole had been green carded just before the end of the third quarter and his two-minute sit-down included one minute either side of the break between the third and fourth quarters.

Doncaster took full advantage when Sheffield players were sin-binned and although O'Toole was soon back on the pitch, Doncaster's second penalty corner of the game was converted by Matt Gibson to give the visitors hope of recovery.

Doncaster's hopes were soon quashed as Player coach Travis Cresswell received a two-minute green card for his outburst against an umpiring decision.

Cresswell may have only been off the park for two minutes, but Sheffield upped the pace and controlled the game during this time, and although Doncaster tried, they could raise their game enough to find another goal.

Sheffield finished as deserved winners, and, as they have proved in the previous four matches, early goals put pressure on their opponents and though they have not won all the previous four games they have drawn three games and won one against the three teams above them.

Sheffield have two games left, the first one next week against Durham University 2s (18.30 start at Abbeydale SC) whom they beat 2-0 in mid-November in Durham. Sheffield's last game of the season is another home match against bottom team Oxtun who have to win their last two matches and overcome a large goal difference if they are to stay up.

Oxtun face third from bottom club Newcastle University next Sunday in Oxtun a game by many goals they must win if they have any chance to avoid relegation and then beat Sheffield.

Sheffield, meanwhile, have consolidated their fourth position in the league table. They are now six points behind third place Lindum, and five points ahead of fifth place Doncaster who would have to win both their remaining games and Sheffield lose theirs for the two teams to swap places.

Sheffield Women's 1st team knew they had a hard task on their hands in their away trip to Cumbrian club Kirkby Stephen.

Against Kirkby Stephen Sheffield went behind to an eighth minute by Kirkby's goal scoring machine Martha Bainbridge, whose single goal in the match at Sheffield won the game for Kirkby.

Sheffield equalized when Alex Buskwood scored a penalty corner goal.

Kirkby went ahead on 27 minutes when Anthea Bowman scored and that scoreline stood until the last ten minutes when notched up two more, first from Bainbridge again at 62 minutes and then through Tabitha

Paul in the last minute.

Sheffield's task had been to win, a draw would have been useful but in the event Kirkby were just too strong.

Sheffield started the survival process two Saturday's ago by beating bottom team Wakefield 3-2, Sheffield first win of the season.

The first stage in their fight for national league survival plan was completed.

Beating Kirkby Stephen was the second stage.

Alas, it wasn't to be, and although Sheffield still have hope, two wins from their two remaining games remains as their survival recipe.

It is possible that one win could be enough, but it is dependent on other results.

Bottom club Wakefield, like Sheffield, have an outside chance of national league survival.

Anything other than two wins would relegate Wakefield, a club that have been in the national league for over 30 years. Wakefield face two tricky fixtures; first against 5th place Newcastle University at home and then away to 4th place Fylde. Two tough matches for them.

Wakefield would need to win both games to go ahead of Didsbury Northern. This assumes that Didsbury lose both games, should Disbury draw one it would be down to goal difference and at present Didsbury are 10 goals better off.

Sheffield face 3rd place Durham University this Saturday (15:00 start at Abbeydale SC). Sheffield lost Sheffield are only two points behind Didsbury Northern. Durham University won 4-3 in the away fixture back in November, and Sheffield will be hoping a win this week.

Should that happen Sheffield would be on ten points, and should Didsbury Northern lose both of their remaining matches Sheffield would be safe. It is never good to rely on other teams winning or losing but there is hope for Sheffield.

Overcome Durham University, and then as a finale they travel away to 2nd place Alderley Edge who still have an outside chance of finishing top should current leaders Bowdon 2 lose to either Whitley Bay & Tyne-mouth or Newcastle University.

Sheffield Men's 2s, who last week ensured promotion from Yorkshire & North East (Y&NE) Division One to the next season's Premier Division, when they beat Ben Rhydding 2s 3-0.

At the same time 2nd place team Durham University lost 2-1 against Newcastle University gifting Sheffield 2s the Y&NE Division One Championship title.

Sheffield 2s finish the season off with trip to 6th place Middlesborough-based club Stokesley. Sheffield will want to finish the season on a win!

SCHOOLS SPORT

Sheffield Schools Set for City Hoops Showdown

Shooting Hoops as Sheffield Schools go head-to-head in City Finals. Sheffield Secondary Schools Basketball Finals take place next Tuesday at The English Institute of Sport 9.30 tip off.

As the winter season sports programmes reach their finales, seven finals take place across the age groups. Basketball remains a very popular pursuit for many of our city secondary schools with 20/33 schools competing for the titles. To reach the finals teams have a round robin league to win, with winners reaching the semi-finals for a place in the grand finale.

For many pupils, shooting hoops in the playground is a daily pastime as popular as the tennis courts for football. Every break, lunch and evening you will see pupils practising their skills and honing their talents with their school mates in teams.

Sheffield has an enthusiastic and energetic group of staff who have a passion for basketball and unusually not always part of PE departments, but from Maths and English departments, as well as those who devote their time to pupils with additional needs. So much work is done in sports halls and gymnasiums. Wherever there is a hoop you will find pupils dribbling, shooting and dunking, pupils of all sizes and shapes, fitting the requirements of the demands of the game.

At Year 7 the two finals will see the usual suspects involved. High Storrs overcame last year's winners Notre Dame in the semi-finals with a 42-21 win. The winners of Outwood City and Mercia will present a tough test in the final.

High Storrs Year 11 Basketball Team have reached the Quarter Finals of the National Championships. They beat Dame Allens of Newcastle 100-80 to go through

The girls see last year's champs Silverdale once again reaching the final, with King Edwards their opponents.

From 10.30 the year 8 Finals take place, with Mercia taking on Notre Dame. It's the first time that Mercia have reached the finals and they must fancy their chances as they beat High Storrs, last year's winners in the semi-final with a convincing winning margin. Notre Dame are also strong, so this should be an exciting match. The year 8/9 girls see familiar schools in another final. Holders High Storrs will give everything against Tapton School but with both teams unbeaten this year, the outcome is hard to predict.

Tapton play their local rivals Notre Dame in the year 9 final and with last year's champions Silverdale knocked out in the earlier rounds, a new name will be on this year's trophy. Both teams are capable of scoring high points, with Tapton 67 points in the semi-final, this could be a high scoring contest.

At Year 10 it is great to see Outwood City in the final and the way they have been scoring in the early rounds they will be a tough opponent to current champions Silverdale School. The challenge will be great for Outwood as Silverdale have already posted two scores of 88 points this season. Stop them scoring and it may be the key to the title.

In the Year 10/11 Girls event, Holders Tapton won't be wanting to pass the trophy over to their local rivals

High Storrs, but with Mr Kelly and Mr Lowe in charge, both team managers will be susing every ounce of their experience and knowledge to et their girls over the line.

Results and reports in next week's issue.

Sheffield Schools Football Cup Finals Reminder: This Saturday, Warminster Road Playing Fields play hosts to the five annual cup finals, all with a 10 am kick off. £3 Entry for adults and £1 for children, £1 Pro-gramme, refreshments
