

FLAVORS OF DORDOGNE

An aerial photograph of a scenic river valley in Dordogne, France. The Dordogne river flows through the center, surrounded by lush green forests and vineyards. A stone bridge with multiple arches crosses the river. In the background, rolling hills and a small village with red-roofed houses are visible under a bright blue sky with scattered white clouds.

Day EN ROUTE FROM U.S.

1

Day ARRIVE IN TOULOUSE, FRANCE | MERCUÈS (D)

2

Upon arrival an Orbridge representative will be waiting to assist with your transfer to the property. Take time to settle in before joining fellow travel companions for a tasting in the impressive wine cellar and tasting room followed by a lovely welcome dinner.

Day HAUTE SERRE (B,L) Head south to Château de

Haute-Serre for an unforgettable experience. During a guided tour of the vineyard and chai (wine storeroom) hear about the property's epic history, then be seated for lunch and a tasting of some of the winery's most popular varietals. Later sample one of the region's most prized treasures during a truffle tasting. Truffles are a form of mushroom, an edible fungus that many claim enhances the taste of food. Learn more about these "black diamonds," and the patience and care required to cultivate them.

Day ROCAMADOUR (B,L) Explore the UNESCO

World Heritage Site of Rocamadour, a notable pilgrimage destination built against the cliffs above a medieval village. Afterward visit a goat farm for a tasting of AOC-certified Rocamadour cheeses. A spectacular lunch awaits at Michelin-starred Château de la Treyne. Expertly crafted dishes provide a gastronomic journey that celebrates the flavors of the region, showcasing local ingredients and an extensive wine list. The late afternoon and evening are at leisure. Embrace time at the property to wander through the gardens or unwind on the terrace as the sun sets over the enchanting Dordogne horizon.

Day PECH MERLE | SAINT-CIRQ-LAPOPIE

(B,L,D) Peek into the area's prehistoric past at the neolithic caves of Pech Merle. The extraordinary cave system is adorned with striking artwork and engravings dating back approximately 25,000 years. Continue to Saint-Cirq-Lapopie, a quaint medieval village situated atop a cliff with unrivaled views over the Lot River. It's recognized as one of the most beautiful villages in France and home to numerous artisans who display their goods in local boutiques. Return to the property with time to refresh before rejoining the group for a delectable three-course dinner.

Day SARLAT-LA-CANÉDA | LES EYZIES-DE-TAYAC |

EYRIGNAC (B,L) Stroll through Sarlat-la-Canéda's famous weekly market and learn about the region's gourmet ingredients during a tasting. The market features vendors offering produce, breads, sausages, olives, sweet confections and more. Travel to Les Eyzies-de-Tayac for lunch at Les Glycines, a Michelin-starred restaurant committed to sustainable cuisine. This afternoon visit the impressive Gardens of Eyrignac. This must-see highlight is renowned for its intricate topiary art, magnificently sculptured hedges, and recently added rose garden—where more than 5,500 bulbs are planted annually.

Day BEYNAC | LA ROQUE-GAGEAC (B,L) Join an

expert chef for a cooking demonstration and lunch at Le Chèvrefeuille. In the afternoon take a guided tour of Château de Beynac, the most authentic and best-preserved fortress of the Périgord. Admire breathtaking views over the river while exploring the grounds. Before returning to the property stop at the photogenic village of La Roque-Gageac. Stroll the labyrinth of cobbled streets to capture a glimpse of a troglodyte fort, a Romanesque church and panoramic views of the Dordogne River. Dinner tonight is at leisure.

Day LUZECH | CAHORS (B,D) Set out for Château

de Cayx winery—a majestic property owned by the Danish royal family since 1974—for a tour and tasting. Learn how grapes are harvested from separate plots under strict temperature controls and produced into sophisticated varietals—a testament to wine being made in the area since ancient times. Later today stop in Cahors for a brief panoramic tour, passing by Pont Valentré and Saint-Étienne Cathedral. Enjoy time at leisure to explore independently before your return to the property. Tonight gather with fellow travel companions for a convivial three-course farewell dinner at Michelin-starred Le Duèze to celebrate a memorable week in France.
