Discord Team Update

Jason (aka nftgod) and his Web3 Ethos team finished their Discord moderator service contract work with AlwaysGeeky Games on March 15th. In the March 8th Dev Diary, the team stated that Jason's team have been an amazing external service partner, setting them up for future growth as they are building the internal AlwaysGeeky Games team member support for Discord including marketing, player service and overall community management.

The Web3 Ethos team have been keeping the community active since June 2022, hosting a variety of beloved community games on Voxies Twitch such as Marbles, Nitro Stream Racing, PWNK Battle Royale and Boom Bears, and fun activities on the Voxies Discord server such as Voxies Got Talent, Scavenger Hunt and Spot The Difference.

Brian Rohaly (VP of Marketing), Nadeem (aka ChainBrainX, Content Specialist), and Discord moderators Tiffany, Zeeiaa, Tu Leyenda and Royalty will continue working with the community. This includes deploying communications, hosting events and providing general help and player service in addition to marketing of the major launches to come - Unity, Mobile and more!

Before I leave, I want everyone to know I've had great and many pleasant experiences as the CM (Community Manager) for Voxies. In addition to meeting many new friends, I've learned quite a bit from this community during the past two years. I hope to stay in contact we continue our unique journeys in the web3 cosmos.

I also want to share a few "life tips" I have learned over the years:

- 1. Family first. This is my #1.
- 2. Take needed breaks. Some downtime is required (no matter how short) to relax your body and allow your brain to "decompress". If you have never tried yoga, check it out, you might like it. You don't need to go to a yoga studio either, there are countless free videos on YouTube.
- 3. Start a new Hobby. Find one you enjoy and stick to a schedule, no matter how many attempts it takes. It's much easier to continue vs start something. Once you get into a routine, it becomes second nature. I enjoy playing basketball and bicycling.
- 4. Get adequate sleep. Not only do you wake up more refreshed, it is needed for REM and helps prevent impairments such as dementia and Alzheimer's disease.

I now leave you with one of my favorite quotes -
"How you do anything is how you do everything" ~Martha Beck.

(!!!) Watch Out For These Items in the Marketplace/OpenSea

Be careful if you see the items below in the Marketplace or OpenSea! These items are limited-time boxes from previous events of Voxie Tactics that could be opened in the Arcanist's Forge to get item rewards, but they cannot be opened in the forge anymore. They sometimes show up for sale in the Marketplace or OpenSea. Unless you want to buy one of them as an event souvenir, avoid buying them as you won't be able to use them at all in the game!

The History of Special Rarity Items

Whoa, Voxie Tactics recently achieved 1,400 DAU! New players will quickly get used to the rarities starting from Rare to Legendary, even Godly, for Voxie Tactics Items, since they're straightforward to understand. But the Special rarity is a bit odd but fascinating too!

The Special rarity for items first appeared after the Version 0.26.1 update of Voxie Tactics for the WinterVerse event in November 2022. The non-Godly item rewards for the Voxies collection quest from way back 2021 were changed into Special rarity, along with stat increases. By the way, the Voxies collection quest is a very interesting (and expensive) part of Voxies history. I covered it [here]. The epic Bored Helmet and legendary Hermes Winged Sandals were also reclassified to Special rarity back then. Currently there are 16 unique Special rarity items in the collection, including the NFT pets. They can quickly be identified visually by their light blue border on their images.

The first appearance of Special rarity items

While the team hasn't stated their guidelines for deciding what makes an item Special rarity, I have observed the following points about them:

- Special rarity items are 'special' for the Arcanist in the Forge. Currently they don't appear as materials in any recipes and can't be used in the Random recipe. They do appear as forge rewards, e.g., Pendant of Pursuit and The Snow Crystal.
- All of the existing NFT pets (Giraffe, Reindeer, Diamond Goat, Vampire Bat, Pumpkin) are Special rarity. This doesn't imply that future NFT pets will also be Special rarity, but this could also be the case in the future.
- The stats of the weapon and armor Special items vary greatly when compared to the other rarities: they can be around Epic-level stats like the Challenger Sword, Legendary-level like the Executioner's Axe, or even beyond Legendary-level like Hermes Winged Sandals. This stat difference within the Special rarity is best shown by the Special accessories: Lion Heart Pendant [20 HP, 12 STR, 10 ARMOR], Pendant of Pursuit [2 MOVE], Skeletal Lord Wings [2 MOVE and Float status], and The Snow Crystal [10 HP MP ARMOR, 6 STR DEX INT LCK, 40 Resistance to all elements!]. Unless you really, really need that 2 movement increase, The Snow Crystal easily trumps the other 3 special accessories in general usefulness in the game, for me at least.
- The previous observation also translates to the sales and rental market: they vary greatly in price and value. In Rare items for example, you can quickly notice that they are sold for about 8 to 10 VOXEL per item recently. Not for Special items. I remember buying a Challenger Sword for 40 VOXEL months ago, but you won't see a Snow Crystal being sold for 4-digit VOXEL. That's assuming anyone owning it will be even willing to let it go!

How 'special' will the Special rarity items be in the Unity version? Let's find out on April 29th!

About The Author

Caffeinated Moonscaper here! I'm a Voxies and Voxie Tactics Items NFT holder and I've been a part of the Voxies community since June 2021. After years of drinking instant coffee, I decided to convert some VOXEL into cash in order to buy equipment for brewing coffee. Wouldn't it be cool if Voxie coffee beans (cubes?) made by a Chemist were sold in the Merch Shop?
