Refresh & Reimagine

Fabrics and leathers are more than just coverings — they're expressions of style and personality. Just as a tailored suit does more than simply clothe the body, upholstery brings character and comfort to a space.

If it's time to refresh your coach's interior, our Marathon Coach Service team is here to help. The same expert designers behind our new coach interiors are available to guide you in selecting the perfect fabrics and leathers for your update.

From sofas and recliners to pilot chairs, bedspreads, pillows, and even ceilings — whether you're making a small change or transforming your entire coach, the possibilities are endless. Let us bring your vision to life with custom craftsmanship that's as limitless as your imagination.
