WE ARE EMPOWERING THE
NEXT GENERATION OF CANADIAN ENTREPRENEURS

LETTER FROM THE CEO

THIS YEAR MARKED A DEFINING MOMENT in the history of NEXT Canada. Fifteen years ago, we set out with an ambitious goal: to identify, develop, and support the next generation of Canada's most promising entrepreneurs—and in doing so, to contribute meaningfully to the country's long-term prosperity. Today, it is deeply gratifying to reflect on how far that vision has carried us.

Since our founding, more than 1,300 alumni have completed a NEXT Canada program. Together, they have launched over 700 companies, creating thousands of jobs from coast to coast and building businesses that are shaping Canada's innovation economy. One powerful measure of this impact is the capital our alumni have raised in support of their ventures—$5.7 billion to date, a figure that continues to grow at an accelerating pace.

A highlight of the year was our 15th Anniversary Alumni Celebration, hosted at the Eglinton Grand in Toronto. It was an evening that captured the essence of NEXT Canada: founders at different stages of their journeys coming together to celebrate shared experience, ambition, and impact. It was also a moment to recognize the extraordinary generosity of our alumni community. To date, NEXT Canada alumni have committed nearly $1.5 million in pledged support, an important component of the $15 million pledged over the next decade to sustain and grow this organization.

Like many charities, NEXT Canada faced significant headwinds during and following the pandemic. I am proud to say that we have not only weathered those challenges, but emerged stronger and more resilient than ever. While this year reflects a modest revenue shortfall against budget, that outcome is a direct result of a deliberate strategic focus on securing longer-term commitments—strengthening our financial foundation and positioning NEXT Canada for stability and impact in the decade ahead.

This Annual Report reflects our activities during the fiscal year from September 1, 2024 to August 31, 2025, while also celebrating contributions and commitments made through December 31, 2025 for recognition purposes.

The photograph above was taken at Venture Day, and it captures a partnership that has been central to NEXT Canada's success from the very beginning. My partnership with Reza Satchu, our Founding Chairman, is one I am profoundly proud of, and one I will cherish always.

As this report goes to print, I find myself in my final days as CEO of NEXT Canada, preparing for retirement with deep gratitude and reflection. Leading this organization has been the privilege of a lifetime. I am delighted to pass the torch to Jennifer Reynolds, an exceptional leader who joins an already remarkable team and will be supported by one of the strongest boards in the country.

To Reza, our leadership volunteers, our donors and partners, our alumni, and the extraordinary NEXT Canada team—thank you for the trust you placed in me, for your partnership, and for the opportunity to work so closely with you in service of NEXT Canada. It has been a privilege to build this organization together.

KYLE J. WINTERS
CEO, NEXT Canada

NANCY LOCKHART
Former Board Chair, Royal Ontario Museum

NANCY LOCKHART is a long-time champion of Canadian culture, education, and entrepreneurship. Her leadership and generosity have supported countless organizations, and her commitment to fostering innovation – especially among women founders – has made a lasting impact on the NEXT Canada community.

Over the years, Nancy has been an extraordinary supporter of NEXT, including a remarkable $100,000 gift this year that reinforces her belief in the power of entrepreneurship to strengthen Canada’s future. She has also graciously hosted NEXT’s signature garden parties, bringing together donors, founders, and partners in the warm, inclusive way she’s known for.

We are deeply grateful for Nancy’s leadership, philanthropy, and the encouragement she continues to offer to the next generation of Canadian innovators.

PARTNERS & DONORS HIGHLIGHTS:

NIMA JALALVANDI

CEO, Ready Plan Go
NEXT AI Montréal Alum, 2025

NIMA JALALVANDI exemplifies the spirit of NEXT Canada's alumni community – innovative, driven, and committed to giving back. As CEO of Ready Plan Go and a graduate of the 2025 NEXT AI Montréal cohort, Nima has continued to scale his venture while remaining deeply engaged with the NEXT ecosystem.

This year, Nima made a generous pledge of $25,000 over five years to support future founders. His commitment reflects the impact the program has had on his own entrepreneurial journey and sets an inspiring example for fellow alumni. By choosing to invest in NEXT Canada, he is helping ensure that the next generation of entrepreneurs has access to the same mentorship, community, and opportunities that shaped his path.

ALIM SOMANI

His steady support, guidance, and advocacy have made him an invaluable partner throughout our multi-year relationship.

Alim has also helped create greater day-to-day collaboration between the two organizations. Hatch now uses 8-10 dedicated desks in the NEXT Canada office, allowing their team to work alongside founders and staff, sparking more ideas, conversations, and shared learning.

We are grateful for Alim's leadership, his generosity of time, and the genuine enthusiasm he brings to supporting Canada's next generation of innovators.
