The Legend of Dobrivoje

The legend speaks of a day when a knight will arrive-the protector of little travelers.

A knight who will face the merciless Serbian roads, fearless before potholes, sharp turns, and epic tantrums.

A knight named Dobrivoje.

The one who will win many hearts-and remain unshaken, so help him ISOFIX!

Or so the legend says.

Dobrívoje's Oath - The Unbreakable Vow

■ I swear by my ISOFIX that I will not budge even a millimeter, no matter how many times the road tries to shake every other passenger loose.

■ I swear by my harness that it will never fail-not under pressure, not under acceleration, and not under the relentless force of tiny but determined fingers.

■ I swear by my cover that it will endure everything-from juice, to yogurt, to mysterious liquids no one remembers spilling.

■ I swear to withstand tantrums, whining, crying, escape attempts, and epic battles against seatbelts.

And above all else:

Five years. No compromises.

I give you my word-because I am Dobrívoje. A knight. A protector of little travelers.

And not just any car seat.
