Letter from the Editor

By Charlie Allen

As the seasons begin to change, we're reminded of the constant growth and transformation happening within our ministry. Last month, we celebrated the incredible stories of our members and the impact they're making in the motorcycle community. This month, I'm excited to continue that journey with new content that reflects the heart and soul of BSHDFC.

First and foremost, I want to express my deep gratitude for your continued engagement and support. The positive feedback and thoughtful suggestions you've shared have been instrumental in shaping our eMag into a vibrant, dynamic resource for inspiration and connection. We are committed to evolving and improving with each issue, ensuring that this publication serves as a true reflection of our mission and values.

Your contributions are what make this eMag truly special. I encourage you to keep sharing your stories, photos, and experiences with us. Whether it's a testimony of how you've seen God work in your life, a story about your chapter's outreach efforts, or simply a photo of your latest ride, every piece adds to the rich tapestry of our shared journey.

Thank you once again for your unwavering support and involvement. I look forward to the incredible stories we'll continue to share together in the coming months. Let's keep riding with purpose, living out our faith, and supporting one another as we grow in Christ.

Stay blessed, and enjoy this issue!

"We need to encourage fellow believers to utilize the talents and abilities that God gave them to serve the Kingdom..."

Chaplains Corner #27

Encouraging Others

One of my favorite characters in the Bible is Barnabas. Acts chapter 4 tells us his real name was Joseph, but he was given this new name by the apostles because it meant "Son of Encouragement." When we first meet him, he is giving a large sum of money he had from selling a field so they could do the work they were called to do. He was an encourager. As Chaplains, we need to be encouragers. We need to encourage fellow believers to utilize the talents and abilities that God gave them to serve the Kingdom, reach the lost, and help others. We need to encourage those who don't have a relationship with Christ by introducing them to Him. Or by being an ear to listen, a shoulder to lean on, or a friend to care.

The next time we see Barnabas, he is bringing Saul to the apostles in Jerusalem. Acts 9 tells the story of how the rest of the believers were afraid of Saul and didn't trust his conversion because of his past. But Barnabas did. He spoke up on Saul/Paul's behalf. As Chaplains, we will find ourselves in these situations as well.

Think of what happens when an unsaved biker comes to know our Lord. Will he be accepted in the local church? Who will make introductions for him? Who will help him get established in the disciplines necessary to become a healthy follower of Christ? Will you? Will the lady biker who meets Christ for the first time have a friend that comes along side of her to help her learn about Jesus without judgement?

I've heard it said that every person needs a Paul, a Barnabas, and a Timothy in their lives. Their "Paul" is their mentor – their spiritual leader who helps disciple them and guide them, who helps them grow. Their "Barnabas" is their peer who comes beside them to be their friend, companion, and co-worker in the ministry and journey of life. And, their "Timothy" is the one they pour into – the one they mentor, teach, and guide. While it's important to know who your Paul, Barnabas, and Timothy are, I want you to consider who are you being a Barnabas for? Who are you coming alongside? Who are you befriending? Who are you encouraging? Take some time and think about the people in your life and the relationships you have with them. How can you be more of an encourager? Galatians 6:2 says we are to share each other's burdens. I can't think of a better way to start encouraging others than to invest in their lives and let them see that you truly care because Christ cares for us.

What's In It For Me?

by Linz Philips

In 2006, when Marty Edwards still had hair,

Jim Birmingham was referred to as “Jesus,” and Laz Alba was still in grade school, I felt led to join Black Sheep Harley-Davidson for Christ. The decision to join was driven in part by the wisdom imparted to me by our marriage counselor (as Vicky and I were coming out of a dark period in our marriage) and his recommendation to get involved in “ministry” as our next step in marriage restoration. During those times of marriage struggle, I had fallen in love with motorcycles as a distraction from my personal and spiritual problems. So, after experiencing unmerited grace from God and my family, a renaissance in my faith, a renewed sense of commitment to Vicky, and that I could use motorcycles as a ministry tool, I knew that a Motorcycle Ministry (MM) was where I belonged. Shortly after, I encountered a professional clown, Marty, and his side-kick, the late Ron Walker, at Arizona Bike Week. I knew that the Holy Spirit was saying to me “this is the ministry for you.”

Little did we know at the onset of joining Black Sheep that he would use the ministry to help rebuild Vicky’s trust in me, surround me with accountability partners, we would make hundreds of friends, and we would participate in countless ministry opportunities both across the western USA, but also in Australia. Black Sheep members became an extension of our church “family” and loved us despite our flaws and shortcomings.

After 17 years as a BS patch (15 for Vicky), I began to think that we weren’t of much use to Black Sheep, partly because I had switched over to the “dark side” (riding Indian Motorcycles for the past seven years), and partly because both of my parents were in rapidly declining health (they both passed away last summer). We spoke to the leadership about our intention of leaving, sent our patches to National, and left. The reaction from most was “what went wrong?” Actually, NOTHING really went wrong. We believe it was God’s timing for us to spend quality time with my parents in their final months, but it was also a time to reflect upon “what was in it for me?”

After leaving Black Sheep, I decided to prospect with another two-piece MM. But I realized that ministry shouldn’t be about what’s in it for me, it’s about “how can God use me in this ministry.” At the end of my prospect period, the new MM was going to ask me to patch up. I thought and prayed about it, and realized that any misgivings I had about Black Sheep would be the same misgivings about any new motorcycle ministry. Consequently, I had put in the hard work to join another motorcycle ministry, but felt that God didn’t want me there. He wanted me back with Black Sheep. After all, Black Sheep is our “family” and it was through Black Sheep that I grew in my walk with Christ, Vicky and I grew in our love toward each other, and God used us in countless ways that we will never understand.

No more is it “what’s in it for me?” Today it’s “God, I’m open to be used however you want in whatever organization, ministry, or calling you’ve placed me.” Our pastor recently said, “Do you know how to make God laugh? Tell him YOUR plans for your life!”

Jeremiah 29:11 –
“For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.”

I’m returning to Black Sheep, knowing that this is where I belong ministering alongside so many dear and eternal friends and recognizing that OUR mission and ministry are not complete. While there are things that I would like to see changed in BSHDFC, at my church, in my work, in my community, in my government, in the environment, and in my life, God uses us where we are and in ways we’ll never fully understand.

Proverbs 3:5-5 – “Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your way acknowledge Him, and He will direct your paths.

My name is Abner "Yoda" Octtaviani and I have been a Black Sheep Member since November 17th, 2019.

I was blessed to find out about our beloved ministry by a friend at church. When I saw the Jesus is Lord patch, I was immediately intrigued about the organization. I then met Marty Edwards and Steve Allmand at Daytona Bike Week and we had the opportunity to spend hours talking about the ministry and I felt the Lord speaking to my heart and calling me to ministry through the testimony of these great men of God. I remember being in awe of the passion these men had for sharing the gospel and the love they had for the motorcycle community and people in general and I was hooked. When I got home from Daytona, I called my wife and told her "Babe I need to buy a Harley, but don't worry it's for a motorcycle ministry" and bless her heart she agreed, the rest as they say is history.

Being a part of Black Sheep Harley Davidsons for Christ has been, is and will be one of the greatest blessings in my life. I love that God gives us the opportunity to combine our passion for sharing the good news of the gospel of Jesus Christ with our love for motorcycles and gifts us the opportunity to serve on two and sometimes three wheels. I love that we get to be a part of a huge family and no matter the distance or even the fact that you may have never met but when you encounter another member of the flock you know they are family. I love that as a ministry we have been blessed with a solid foundation, impeccable leadership and a clear mission and vision that has been established and ordained by our Father in Heaven.

During my time in BSHDFC I've been an area contact for South Florida, an area that for many years BSHDFC had been told they would never have a chapter, but praise Jesus, God had other plans. We were able to establish a chapter which I had the honor of being its president and I currently serve as the Regional Director for the Southeast Region while also assisting with our Hispanic Ministry. It's a great honor to be able to serve the ministry and fellow sheep in any position. I praise our Father in Heaven for each one of these roles I've been able to serve in and give Him all the glory for He is worthy of it all. We all get to wear different patches that help identify us but most of us carry the same one and it is the one I am most honored to wear, 100% WOOL. That is what I am and will be until the day I'm riding on the streets of gold. Ride hard, pray harder and be blessed.

What Kind of Member Am I?

ion Of Everyone Who Believes...

Self Examination

Self-examination is vital in the life of a believer. It helps us align our actions with our beliefs, ensuring that we live out our faith authentically. By regularly assessing our spiritual health and involvement, we can identify areas for growth and make necessary adjustments. This practice also fosters a sense of accountability and responsibility, encouraging us to contribute positively to our ministry. Moreover, self-examination promotes personal and communal growth, strengthening the bonds within the ministry and enhancing its overall effectiveness.

2 Corinthians 13:5 advises, "Examine yourselves to see whether you are in the faith..."

Editor's note: When reflecting on these questions, it's important to approach the process with a sense of responsibility and a desire for growth rather than self-criticism. The goal is to identify ways to better align your actions with the ministry's mission of sharing the Gospel. Consider how you can strengthen your relationships, prepare spiritually, and enhance your involvement in a way that contributes meaningfully to the collective purpose. Even small steps can lead to significant impact, reinforcing the values you hold and the broader mission of the ministry.

This verse emphasizes the necessity of ongoing self-assessment to ensure our faith and actions are in line with the Word of God. Additionally, Lamentations 3:40 says, "Let us examine our ways and test them..." This verse encourages us to reflect on our actions, reinforcing the need for regular self-reflection to maintain a strong spiritual connection.

The following series of questions are designed to prompt self-reflection among us members of BSHDFC. It poses a series of introspective questions that cover a range of topics including evangelism, regular participation in church and ministry activities, and personal spiritual practices like prayer and Bible study.

"What Kind of Member Am I? (A Self-Reflection)"

1. How can I deepen my concern for those who need to know Jesus?
2. In what ways can I view BSHDFC as a meaningful opportunity to reach the lost?
3. How do I perceive the distinction between this ministry and a club?
4. How can I better prepare myself through daily prayer and study in God's Word?
5. How regularly do I attend and serve at my local church, and how do I balance this with riding on a mission?
6. What forms of bike ministry or service am I involved in on a monthly basis?
7. How well do I know the members of my chapter, and how well do they know me?
8. How can I focus on encouraging and supporting others more than critiquing?
9. How might leadership view my contributions to the chapter?
10. How often do I ride my bike, and how can I make riding a more consistent part of my life?
11. How connected am I with my HOG / Riding Group community, and do its members know me?
12. Am I up-to-date with paying my membership dues?
13. How often do I pray for this ministry and our leaders?
14. How do I view this ministry: is it more about what I receive or what I have the privilege to give?
15. Am I finding joy in being a part of this ministry?"

This reflection isn't just about personal improvement; it's about contributing to a larger purpose. By turning challenges into opportunities for growth, you ensure that your membership is more than just participation—it's an active engagement in spreading the Gospel and making a positive difference. Embrace the chance to make your involvement more meaningful and impactful, knowing that every effort you make adds value to both your spiritual journey and the lives of those around you.

*"I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received. Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit— just as you were called to one hope when you were called— one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all."
(Ephesians 4)*

TURNING TRAGEDY INTO TESTIMONY

How Intentional Love Brought Jesse to Christ

Jesse, a biker with around five years of riding experience, was recently involved in a severe accident when a car unexpectedly pulled out in front of him while he was traveling at approximately 60 miles per hour. The collision sent Jesse flying, and he landed hard, suffering a broken pelvis and back.

Upon hearing the news, Mark Esola, the president of our BSHDFC Santa Maria chapter, promptly requested that their chapter chaplain visit Jesse in the hospital. The chaplain brought a blanket, prayed with him, and provided comfort during his visit. When Mark later learned that Jesse was being transferred from the Lompoc area to Pasadena, CA, he immediately took action. Mark reached out to Area Contact and International Vice President Greyson Adams and asked if he could visit Jesse at the Pasadena-area hospital.

That same day, Greyson visited Jesse in the hospital. Mark's intentionality and commitment were evident—not satisfied with just the initial visit, he ensured that Jesse continued to receive support from our ministry. As a result, during Greyson's first hospital visit, he was able to pray with Jesse and share the gospel with him. Jesse subsequently gave his life to Jesus—praise the Lord! This divine encounter might not have happened if Mark hadn't been so intentional.

This is why Black Sheep Harley-Davidsons for Christ exists. Yes, we engage in other acts of service, ministry, and fellowship, such as manning free boot shine booths, hosting monthly chapter breakfasts, and riding and serving our designated riding groups and motorcycle dealerships. However, Black Sheep's mission has always been, and will always be, to introduce Jesus to the motorcycle community. We remain focused and committed to sharing the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. Our ministry is rooted in this purpose—to reach out with love, compassion, and intentionality, ensuring that no opportunity to share Christ's love is missed. As Galatians 6:9 reminds us, "Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up."

Mark, BSHDFC Santa Maria chapter, and Greyson's actions exemplify what it means to be a Black Sheep: always ready, always intentional, and always available to lead others to Jesus. Thank you to all that visited and continue to visit Jesse at the hospital. Let's continue to keep Jesse in our prayers. All for His glory!

Santiago Holdson-Barrera "Young Blood"

Ventura Chapter

I was introduced to Black Sheep during the "End of Summer" event at Ventura Harley in 2021. Before meeting Black Sheep, I was a beginner rider, slowly getting acclimated to it, and primarily rode with my family. My knowledge of the motorcycle community was meager, so I relied on what my family had told me about joining riding groups/clubs and decided to stick with riding with them. Regardless, I still wanted to meet more riders and potentially find a group to ride with, which eventually led me to meet the Ventura Chapter of Black Sheep.

What stood out the most to me that day was seeing the top rocker, which states, "JESUS IS LORD." As soon as I saw that, I knew they had to be different, so I approached the tent and started asking some questions. Eventually, that led to my introduction to Erik Roberts, who invited me to meet up with them soon at one of their events. When the time came to saddle up and meet them at the Regional Meeting at the Junkyard Cafe, I was pretty nervous, but looking back, I'm so glad I took that leap of faith to step out of my comfort zone and try something new.

"What I love most about our ministry is that we're a family in Christ."

- "Young Blood"

I personally felt called to join the ministry because I genuinely wanted to grow and develop my faith to where it was before and make it even stronger. As time went by, I began to see all the great things Black Sheep was involved in and doing for the community around them, as well as for each other. This was a huge eye-opener for me. The amount of personal growth I experienced just by being a part of their mission was amazing, to say the least. My personal growth has exploded since then and hasn't stopped. With Erik as my mentor and my fellow brothers and sisters as my guides and accountability partners, I can confidently say that I can look to them for any support I may need. Erik has grown to be a huge part of my life, along with Sean and many others in Black Sheep. Additionally, just being a part of the ministry, helping those around us, and seeing the positive impact we make is the best feeling in the world. It is an absolute honor to be a part of something bigger than myself and to be of service to others.

I love our ministry because of the immense positive impact we have on the motorcycle community as well as the community around us. That being said, what I love most about our ministry is that we're a family in Christ. We're all servants of our Lord Jesus Christ, and we all have an immense amount of love to give to those around us as well as to each other. No matter what happens, no matter what's going on, we all come together and love each other, which is the most amazing thing, let alone the most comforting thing to be a part of.

Best Regards,

Blaaaack Sheeeep! Whats up Fam? I am excited to share with you a little about our Lone Star Chapter!

Sheep, our Chapter of 11 ( 7 Brothers and 4 Sisters) is spread across the Dallas Metro-plex which sometimes feels bigger than some states I've lived in. Our Fellowship time is always amazing but with such a big area, we are all serving wherever and whenever we can. We cover 4 Dealerships in North Texas and of course we have a Monthly Breakfast that is open to any who would like to come. Our Ft. Worth HOG Chapter has really woven themselves into the core of this loud and sometime obnoxious Lone Star Chapter of Black Sheep. I have grown to love those relationships built through this Ministry as we serve and ride along side one another.

When we are consistent in breaking bread, sharing the Gospel, praying, pouring into each other, something amazing always happens. God shows up and blesses those relationships too! My best friends in the World are Black Sheep. That's a pretty cool thing if ya ask me.

Love y'all

Christy - The 2021 Road King

David Zwickl, Vice President of the San Diego Chapter, has taken his passion for motorcycles and his commitment to ministry and fused them into something truly special: "Christy," a 2021 Road King. This motorcycle isn't just about performance; it's about purpose. Every aspect of Christy's build has been thoughtfully crafted to reflect its higher calling.

A Bold Design with a Message

Christy's commanding presence starts with 18-inch Carlini Gangster apes paired with all-chrome controls, giving the bike both an aggressive stance and a touch of elegance. The DNA wheels, featuring black twisted spokes on chrome, create a striking contrast that symbolizes the journey from darkness to light—a perfect metaphor for a ministry tool.

Performance and Purpose Combined

An Arlen Ness heavy breather and Sampson Whipper exhausts ensure that Christy doesn't just move—it makes a statement. The all-LED lighting ensures visibility, much like the guiding light of faith.

Built for Ministry

Custom Details with Meaning

Every detail, from the Red Fox rear fender to the Saddleman seat, has been chosen for comfort and style. The custom paint by Jim Smith Designs includes a cross and Romans 8:28 on the rear fender, making the bike not just a ride but a message of faith.

'Christy' is more than a motorcycle; it's a rolling testament to faith, purpose, and the power of the open road as a path to spiritual journeys.

A Snack-Driven Mission to Share the Gospel To Those Who Ride.

I have been an Area Contact for Black Sheep Harley Davidson for Christ in Tidewater, Virginia for a little over two years. Outside of joining the local H.O.G. chapter, and going on a handful of rides, there has been minimal practical ministry. Recently, my church, Iron Horse Fellowship, partnered with Bikers for Christ in supply baked goods for their fundraiser cookouts held at Bayside Harley Davidson. Bayside Harley Davidson and their H.O.G. did not have a BSHDFC contact, and I felt Holy Spirit guiding me to this location. My time with BSHDFC has been spent with Southside HD (Bayside's rival) and their H.O.G. chapter. I was able to partner with Tom and Dee Sanchez during this time, and one of the things they do is supply snacks for the Southside HD staff. Why not do the same thing at Bayside?

I approached the Bayside HD Marketing Director, Ryen Stone, and got the green light to set up a snack area for the staff. The overwhelming gratitude of the staff has also been mixed with the "Why" question. My response has been simple: "I ride with Black Sheep Harley Davidson for Christ, and we appreciate all you do." My hope is to develop relationships at the dealership that through providing snacks might present opportunities to share the love of Jesus. It is also my hope that word will trickle down to the Bayside H.O.G. chapter and divine conversations may take place.

It's our honor and pleasure to supply the staff at Bayside Harley Davidson with these snacks.

September 2024

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. 1 Corinthians 15:58

King James Version

Being a servant of the Lord is never easy. You will invest your time, energy, and money into nurturing, equipping, and grooming people for the Lord, only to sometimes be betrayed, slandered, or abandoned. All these are part of our walk with God. No matter how well you serve others, people will fail to meet your expectations.

Beloved, don't be disheartened when these things happen to you. Be immovable in Christ because while you are serving people, it is the Lord that you are truly pleasing and not men. Let men do what they want while you do what God wants you to do. That is why your labor in the Lord is not in vain—it is the Lord Who appreciates everything that you do! Hallelujah!
