Clubs enhance learning through interaction and discussion. Every activity conducted by the clubs encourages students to cultivate a broader perspective on life. Students are given the opportunity to showcase and develop their talents. Activities carried out in schools not only help to shape their interests and hobbies but also foster leadership and social skills. The goal is to provide a holistic education by balancing academics with extracurricular activities. Our syllabus is designed to make learning stress free for students without compromising on quality. This is why our school has established various clubs that cater to a wide range of interests. With this in mind, I am pleased to present the club reports, highlighting the diverse activities and accomplishments of our students.

ECO CLUB

The Eco Club at St. Peters Senior Secondary School was formed with the objective of fostering awareness about environmental conservation and encouraging students to participate in eco-friendly initiatives. The activities of the club kicked off with a World Environment Day Plantation Drive on June 3rd, where 1000 saplings provided by the Forest Department were planted within the school premises, with Principal Narayanan Sir inaugurating the event. This drive was expanded through outreach activities, with class leaders from Classes 9 and 10 planting saplings outside the school. Additionally, the Eco Club distributed saplings to students from Grades 5-10, offering guidelines on plant care. The club also initiated a Sapling Distribution and Replanting activity, with Class 3 students taking charge of rejuvenating abandoned plants, guided by the Eco Club.

In an effort to foster deeper environmental consciousness, the club participated in the Haritha Sabha Seminar, organized by the Aikaranad Grama Panchayat, where a group of students from Classes 6-9 presented the school's efficient waste disposal practices and engaged in discussions on sustainable waste management. As part of its educational outreach, the club assigned students from Classes 9-12 to create projects on Energy Conservation, focusing on methods to reduce energy consumption at home. These diverse initiatives, led by Johannah and Basil, not only engaged students in meaningful conservation activities but also helped to create a culture of sustainability within the school. To ensure that our children receive the best, our teachers continually enhance their skills by attending specialized training sessions. This year, our dedicated educators participated in various programs, including the High-Performance Coaching (HPC) sessions. These workshops equip our teachers with innovative teaching strategies, child psychology insights, and tools to create inclusive and engaging learning environments.
By staying updated with the latest in education, our teachers not only enrich their own knowledge but also bring fresh perspectives and ideas into the classroom, ensuring that our kindergarten remains a hub of inspiration, care, and excellence.

Kindergarten is a vibrant world where young minds bloom through play, exploration, and discovery. Our curriculum is thoughtfully designed to foster holistic development, nurturing every aspect of a child—intellectual, physical, emotional, and social. Activities such as storytelling, role play, music, dance, crafts, and outdoor games are seamlessly integrated to enhance their creativity, confidence, and critical thinking. Each day is a step towards building strong foundational skills, nurturing curiosity, and instilling values that prepare our little ones for a bright future.

As we conclude this vibrant and memorable year, we bow our heads in gratitude.

First and foremost, we thank God Almighty for showering us with blessings, strength, and an unwavering spirit throughout the year.

Our deepest appreciation goes to the management for their steadfast support, which paved the way for every success we celebrate today. We extend our heartfelt gratitude to our school leadership for their visionary guidance and encouragement, which have been instrumental in shaping this year into an enriching experience for both our students and teachers.

To our dedicated teachers, enthusiastic children, and supportive parents — your collective efforts, passion, and trust have made this year a resounding success.

With hearts full of gratitude and a spirit of hope, we look forward to another year of love, learning, and limitless possibilities.

Thank you!

CONGRATULATIONS GOVIND

Heartiest congratulations to Govind Menon of Class 11D for his outstanding achievement in the 27th Shitoryu Karate National Championship held in Mysore, where he won the Silver Medal, bringing immense pride to our school. His dedication, skill, and perseverance in martial arts have earned him the distinguished opportunity to represent India at the 16th Asia Pacific Shitoryu Karate-Do Championship in Singapore, where he showcased his remarkable talent on an international stage. Govind's relentless pursuit of excellence is a testament to his hard work and discipline, inspiring us all. We applaud his accomplishments and wish him continued success in his karate journey. Way to go, Govind!

LITTLE CHAMPIONS

SYMPHONY OF SUCCESS

With immense pride and elation, we share the outstanding achievement of our talented students, Arun George Saji and Paul K Shans of Grade 8, who made their maiden entry into the CBSE National Science Exhibition with their innovative project, "Nanban" – an artificial intelligence aid for the blind. Competing under the sub-theme Mathematical Modelling and Computational Thinking, their exceptional idea, guided by the dedicated mentorship of Mr. Aneesh Mohan, stood out among numerous entries.

Their journey reached new heights as they advanced to the final round of the prestigious exhibition, held in Chhattisgarh yesterday. From an overwhelming 380 exhibits, their project was among the few that secured a spot in the finals—a marvelous achievement in itself! Though the final round was fiercely competitive and we couldn't claim a position, their dedication, ingenuity, and perseverance have brought immense pride to St. Peter's.

ALUMNI PAVILION: AN INTERVIEW WITH DR. SHAL KAKKATTIL

Dr. Shal Kakkattil is currently the Urology department's HOD at MOSC Medical College Kolenchery. He did his schooling at St. Peter's Senior Secondary School Kadayiruppu and Pre Degree in UC College Aluva . His initial step as a doctor began at Kottayam Medical College where he did his MBBS. Later, he did his MS Surgery at Pune and Mch Urology at KEM Bombay. He has proven himself in his field of work and is much sought after for his exemplary skill.

1. How did St. Peter's act as a fountain to your career?

My alma mater has helped me develop skills essential for my profession. It has helped me discover my passions and refined social skills. My teachers have taught me the morals and values that have built my character.

2. What are your most precious school life memories?

At that time our school used to have a hostel. Even though I was a day scholar my best friends were hostel mates. After school we would all play 7 Tiles and rubber ball cricket. So spending time with my friends were my most precious memories.

3. What was your favourite spot in the school and why?

I don't exactly remember having a favourite spot as during my years there the school was quite compact. The place I spent the most time at though was our small "playground" which has now been converted into a bus bay.

4. Through your eyes, what sets apart St.Peter's from other schools?

Unlike most schools, St. Peter's doesn't focus only on academics. St. Peter's offers countless extra-curricular activities for students to develop and refine their talents. The sports wing of our school is most admirable for the amount of facilities as well as the opportunities they provide.

5. What were your thoughts on the Alumni Meet PARASPARAM?

The Alumni meet PARASPARAM made me relive my school life again. Even though we were all mostly in touch, seeing old friends made me recollect my memories of my childhood. I was extremely happy to meet my teachers again as I had the chance to see the vibrant minds that taught me again. It was all in all a very livening experience.

6. How has St. Peter's evolved since your graduation?

Since I graduated in 1990, St. Peter's has evolved in many ways. It has done remarkably in providing excellent facilities for students. The management has become much more advanced. Other than that new ideas and technologies have been implemented and it has made learning more enjoyable to students. Seminars and workshops are held to imbibe knowledge on different social, economic and environmental issues. Not only that, the Senate elections are held every year that allow students to make their own choices that we were not provided.

7. What life lessons have you imbibed from your school life?

My school has blessed me with countless life lessons. It has taught me the importance of teamwork, honesty and respect. My teachers have taught me compassion and gratitude. My school has sharpened my virtues and dulled my vices.

8. Who is your favourite teacher and how did she/he influence your life?

My Maths teacher in 7th grade was Kurien Sir. He was a disciplinarian who often gave out beatings for low grades in exams. He was extremely strict and we would scutter to our classrooms as soon as we heard him approaching. It was quite a shock for me and my classmates when he died a few years later. Though his actions had hurt us then I now realize how good he was at heart. He has taught me many life lessons that have remained with me through my life. He made me realize that with a good heart and good intentions you can be anything you want in life.

9. Given a chance would you like to relive your school life?

Absolutely. I would love to relive those times, when life was less complicated with fewer responsibilities. I would then be able to relive my friendships and to see my teachers in their prime. School life is a time where there is no pretending personalities, no ego issues between friends, we are all just simple souls learning how to live life.

WHISPERS OF SERENITY

A velvet shroud, the heavens wore,
As teardrops fell, a gentle pour.
A whispered language, soft and slow,
A voice unknown, yet seemed to know.
Each falling tear, a tender touch,
A calming balm, I loved so much.
The rain, a veil, embraced my form,
Washing away the brewing storm.
It seeped within, a cleansing tide,
Through hidden depths, where sorrows hide.
The world grew hushed, a tranquil sigh,
As peace descended from the sky.
And then, the veil began to lift,
The heavens cleared, a healing gift.
The sun peeked through, a golden ray,
My heart, once heavy, found its way.

ANITTA SARA SANIL

Whispers of a Star

She was a diamond in the sea,
Known by all, yet truly unseen.
Through the tides, the jewel was scarred,
Until it vanished, lost forever.
Once a dark-haired beauty,
They sculpted her into a blonde statue.
She knocked on the glass cage that bound her,
But no one heard her silent plea.
Adored by many, known by none,
Her cries and whispers fell into oblivion.
She smiled, she wept,
She was dead, she was alive.
Charisma was her armour,
And loneliness her closest friend.
A butterfly longing to soar,
Yet unaware of who she truly was.
Like candy, she was sweet yet fleeting,
Like a candle, she burned bright but brief.
Her unheard cries consumed her mind,
Her unheard thoughts destroyed her.
Fame and love were Marilyn,
Oblivion and sorrow were Norma Jean.
The world cherished Marilyn,
But no one searched for Jean.
She was everywhere, yet invisible,
A comet streaking across the sky—
Brilliant, swift, unforgettable,
But destined to fade too soon.
Golden curls gleamed under sunlight,
While flooded eyes sparkled under moonlight.
Men and desire betrayed her twice,
Leaving her wrecked and broken.
Now, she rests untouchable,
A diamond shimmering in the heavens.
Calm and peace finally found her,
Her smile brighter than ever before.
Yet, somewhere, she still dreams
Of the life she never had.

Class: VII C

Once upon a time in a small hilly village, there lived a little boy named William. William loved making paper Origami. He had a big book of colourful papers to make them.

Each day he would make at least one Origami. Some of his favourite origamis are Mr. Duck, Mr. Crane, Big Seed Avocado and Moly Macaw.

Months passed and fall came. In William's book only one page was left and, as it was fall, it was very windy. So William had an idea of making a little WindMill as his last Origami of this book. He took the paper out of his book and began crafting a small "Wind Mill". He named it 'Autumn Wind' because it was made in the fall. Autumn Wind made so many friends. But his best friend was Mr. Duck. All day they used to play together and exchange jokes together; and even slept together.

Weeks passed and it was the time for winter. One day William took his favourite Origamis and Autumn Wind outside. Autumn Wind started spinning by the cold breeze. But, suddenly the breeze turned into a big wind and large amounts of snowfall began. Poor Autumn Wind started to fly in the air and was flown away.

William started crying by seeing his little windmill flying away. Autumn Wind flew and flew across the small village he lived in. He flew even far and far away. Suddenly a big dark thing just captured him, and he sat on a tree. He looked up and saw a huge crow looking at him. He asked him "who are you, little thing"? And what are you doing near our little village? Autumn Wind replied "I have not come here to hurt you. I was blown away by a big wind." Then the crow said, "Well I do not believe you…….little thing. "Soldiers [loudly] come and get this thief who is trying to hurt us." The Wind Mill said "No, No, No….. I am not going to hurt you."

Autumn Wind was carried away by the crow soldiers, and was put in front of the King. The King asked, "What are you up to, you little thief?" "Your Highness, I am not a thief. I was just blown away by the wind."

The crow said, "No; your Highness, I saw him fly aiming at our village." The King said, "Well, then I think we should probably throw him in the river." So they threw Autumn Wind into the river and began laughing madly.

But in the area it was a warm climate, though the river was frozen. So Autumn Wind sank to the bottom of the river. If he is not rescued, he will be torn apart because he is just a paper.

But a little gold fish noticed the situation and tried to help him; and got him back to the shore. But the strong currents of the river pushed them to the edge of a big waterfall. But luckily they both didn't get hurt. The fish asked, "Who are you, little paper Origami; and how did you end up here?" Autumn Wind told the whole story and the fish replied "those crows are always very naughty. Whoever or whatever comes to our village is treated very badly." Autumn Wind said, "Thank you for saving my life. But now I am all wet and what will I do?" The fish said, "I will ask my little friend, Mrs Hamster, to help you till you get better."

Months passed by; and Autumn Wind was still living in Mrs. Hamster's home. One day she asked, "Are you feeling better now"? and Autumn Wind said, "Yes".

Then suddenly Mrs. Hamster's another friend, Michale Hamster came and asked, "Who is this new friend of yours, and what is he doing in your house?" Mrs. Hamster narrated the whole story. Then they both discussed the house-changing plan. Later Michale Hamster left the house. Mrs. Hamster said, "We both are planning to leave together to the other part of the world; and till you get better you should also be staying there; and if he agrees that you should also live therefore forever. Otherwise, he will never talk to me.

Fearing that it would hurt him, Autumn Wind planned to escape from the house and walked miles and miles away and slept somewhere there. By the time he woke up, he saw that he was trapped in the jungle. He was confused. How did he get there? And not only that he was in front of a snake's burrow; and, in fact, a snake was also standing in front of him. Then Autumn Wind started to fly by himself to escape from the snake. He flew and flew and the snake could not follow him.

Then a big monkey, who wanted to play with him, kept following him. Then he came across a Lion's terrifying roar; and his pride made him think that the fellow had come to disturb his den. He also began chasing him. A group of Yak also blocked his way by running in front of him.

Most of the animals started following him, as some others thought that he was a threat to them. Some others thought that he was food for them, and still others wanted to play with him.

Suddenly the snake gobbled him up. But, a peacock stepped on to the snake's body and the snake spat him out.

It continued for a long while. But a kind hearted eagle was watching this whole mad episode, and he flew away with Autumn Wind. She put him into her nest, and settled him: near her chicks. The Eagle said that she had noticed the entire thing . Meanwhile, the naughty Owl tried to kidnap him during the night and threw him down to the ground.

"Where is your home?" The Eagle asked. Autumn Wind narrated the whole story. "Well, I know that the little Origami was made by William. But you are too far away from home. You are now in a forest near the Indian Ocean". But, by the time she almost completed her words, one of the chicks threw him down the cliff. The Eagle tried to catch him but he flew and flew into the water.

Autumn Wind started crying. It has been since one and a half years that he has left his home; and all happenings to him turned out to be only misfortunes.

A jellyfish heard this story. He carried him far far away. He also faced many mishaps and after three months they reached the Pacific Ocean.

Suddenly a whale just sprayed water from his blow hole and Autumn Wind landed on a little island, where the humans lived. He walked through the island. But, finding no one, he sat there and cried.

Suddenly the familiar voice of Mr. Duck was heard. When he looked he saw his friend running toward him. His friend told that they came across so many dangers, passed through forests and deserts looking for him; and finally they came into a little ship and jumped onto the island thinking that he would be there. Mr. Duck's expectation became a reality.

Both of them asked the humans to help them to get back to their home. And the humans agreed to help them. By a ship and a taxi they reached back home, at last.

William was so happy to have them come back. He promised that he will be careful with them every time, thereafter.

Autumn Wind, by now, learned that there will be so many ups and downs in life; and they should take them as adventures. Patience, calmness and confidence are what are needed in such situations. Then only there can be success.

RAIN, MY LOVE

Chithira Ravikumar
CLASS: 11 B

Rain, my love would you accept me?
As my world is brightened by thee,
Do you see me the way I see you?
Though I know what is true,
You're the tears of God,
But I know you're much beyond,
You're a joy in the forest,
As for them you're the warmest,
You're the poem of earth and the song of monsoon,

I wait for your arrival in June,
Praying for you to come soon,
Your presence is what I yearn,
Yet there is a lesson left to learn,
Words kept hidden in my heart,
Reluctant to do its part,
I would love to hear your stories,
With all its glories,
For you're the listener of my sorrows,
Rain, would you accept me?
For you're my love...

HER JOURNEY

DEVANANADA S PILLAI
CLASS: XI D

"What are those" she asks,
"all those scars on your face, hands and your back?
Why are your eyes
so so black?"

Doesn't she know,
that it's a sign
of a disciplined daughter,
a disciplined sister,
of an obedient and disciplined wife...

Why can't I react
even if I want to?
'Cause I am the 'good' wife,
the lady of the house,
who can't talk all my life...

My skin is burning,
from the pain, my boiling blood,
and from the rage in my head...
I want to run away
into the dark,
to a place where
no one can find me,
no one can control me...
And I do, on a starry night,
run into the wilderness,
towards the world, my freedom,
towards the life, MY life...
Like a small child,
exploring the world,
I take my baby steps
into a new life...
And then, I fight,
for the life I had longed for,
for all those years...
Then I become strong and mighty,
and live my life happily enough,
when they saw me
flying high,
with the wings I made in the never-ending sky...

They don't like a woman above them,
so they try to snatch
the life I had earned...
But they don't know
who I am.

I had fought all my life,
I am mighty, brave and strong,
and all those prayers
of the long gone
generations like mine who fought life long
like a guardian angel, would save me from doom...

They think I'm weak
and fragile as a flower.
They think they can destroy me,
break me, shatter me...
But they don't know
who I am...

'Tis I...
I am the Queen of my life and the saviour who might suffice to get all my fellows out,
and teach them to fly high...

Hey you fool!
Look at me!
Acknowledge me,
admire me...
Who said I need
a man to save me?
Who said I need
a man to protect me?

I ain't any damsel in distress,
I ain't any sleeping beauty.
I am the damsel who causes distress, and I am the beauty, who puts you to eternal sleep...

BIRTH OF MY DREAM CITY

Euan Issac Motin
CLASS: 4E

One day, I found my old remote-control helicopter, but it wasn't working. So, I decided to make a toy car.
It was my first time making a car, and I only had two wheels from the helicopter.
The car went a little fast.
Then, I found my old toy car with four wheels. I put those wheels on my new car, and it looked much better.
I started to imagine I had a car company. I named it 'EMOSE'.
My first car was called the 'EMOSE Fly'.
Later, I made a car that looked like a jeep. I named it the 'EMOSE Jimmy'.

Then, I found my cousin's old toy car with six wheels. I used those wheels to make a truck.
Next, I wanted to make a showroom for my cars.
Finally, I decided to build a city. First, it was very small. I put my showroom there, built a few houses, planted trees, and made a tall tower called 'Bhuj Kitha'.
I felt sad because my city was still too small. Then, I had an idea to make it bigger. I added a park, a school, a tile shop, a car showroom, a hospital, and a Kids Crush.
Now, I am very happy because my city looks big and beautiful with lots of facilities.

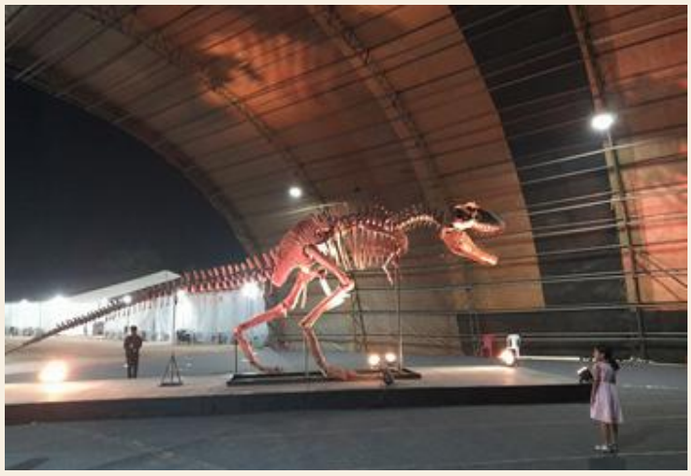
MY TRIVANDRUM TRIP

EVANA ELDHOSE
CLASS: 4D

One afternoon, my parents surprised me by saying that we were going to Thiruvananthapuram the next day because a science exhibition was taking place there. I was really happy.
The next morning, we started our journey at 8 o'clock and reached there by 2. First, we went to Veli Beach, where my brother and I had a great time. We both went on a horse ride as well. Then, we visited Kovalam Beach, but it was very crowded, so we couldn't enjoy it much.

At 7 in the evening, we went to the exhibition because my papa told us that it looks spectacular at night with the various light arrangements. The Global Science Festival Kerala was an amazing experience. There, we stood on a glass surface, which scared me because I thought we might fall. But they explained that it was a small model of the solar system. I didn't understand much, but I heard the names of some planets. Then, we saw large models of the Moon and Mars.

In another area we saw the model of the first Indian rocket. They showed us some real parts of rockets. Then we saw a big Dinosaur skeleton and an ancient model ship.



Then, they showed us real body parts and organs, but the problem was that it was very stinky. There were many other interesting things as well, and I wished I could visit again.

But then, something terrible happened—my grandmother fell down and broke her finger. We immediately took her to a hospital, and thankfully, her finger was treated and became okay. After that, we went back to our hotel.

The next morning, after breakfast, we first visited the zoo. There, we saw many animals and birds. I was excited to see a white tiger. We spent time there until noon.

After lunch, on our way back home, we visited Jatayu Para. There, we saw a huge statue of an eagle called Garuda. We went up in a cable car, which was an amazing experience.

Finally, we returned home and reached by 11 at night. I was really thrilled to share all these experiences with my friends in the next class.

TWIN NIGHT

Feyona Anna Basil
CLASS: VI C

It was a stormy night. I heard a knock on the door and looked through the peephole. I saw a person with a small suitcase standing on my porch. I went closer to him and he turned to my side. Then I realized it was my father. He went inside the house and I gave him dinner. When he took the spoon, I saw some wounds on his hand. I asked, "Dad, what happened to your hand? He did not answer, but after some time he answered my question. He said, "I had a small accident". By that time Dad had finished his dinner. I went to wash the plate then there he stood, my father!

I was confused. "Then who's the other one I was talking to?" I spoke to myself. Seeing me in a confused state, he came from his room. I explained everything to him. He asked the man who looked like him. "Who are you?" He asked many times and they began to fight with each other. So I called the police officers. They came very fast. Police came and somehow brought them under control. They looked at the man who looked like my father. Then they said that he was a criminal, the police arrested him and I was relieved.

THE MOUNTAIN

Imran Muhammed Salim
CLASS: XII B

Paul had always wanted to climb a mountain. Something about the majesty and beauty of it had always appealed to him—the idea of standing atop the world, surrounded by clouds, feeling as though one could see the very edges of the earth.

Paul thought that the mountain—a behemoth of rock and ice—stood as a poignant metaphor for life itself. The climb represented the various toils one must endure, while the journey and the view symbolized life's happiness and sadness. The peak of the mountain, the culmination of all that one is, offered a view of the heavens that seemed like a collage of one's life. He stood at the foot of the mountain, looking up. He could almost make out the peak towering above him, and he thought it looked magical.

He walked on green grass, surrounded by pines whose apexes were capped in brilliant white. Birds flew above him—gliding, soaring, and fluttering in that distinct way they do. Far in the distance, just above him, he thought he could make out the silhouette of a mountain goat, though he wasn't sure. Paul climbed on.

Paul thought he had arrived at the entrance—the gateway to the mountain's slope. Until now, the journey had been almost easy, an expression of whimsy. But now the climb had begun in earnest, and Paul was filled with a vigor he had never known before. He was eager to prove himself to the world, to conquer this mountain, and to find his peace. He climbed on. He walked along the very body of the mountain, surrounded by a wasteland of ice. And yet, even in such desolation and hostility to life, life still thrives. Birds flew, cruising the cold currents, and Paul saw the mountain goat he had glanced at earlier, now more clearly. The climb was harsh, taking him over rocky slopes and icy stones, but Paul navigated his way onward.

He was nearing the summit now—the culmination and fulcrum of his toil. His bones ached, and his steps faltered, lumbering through the snow. Yet, he had not forgotten his resolve, and his gaze was set ever forward. This far up the mountain, at what felt like the base of the heavens themselves, all that accompanied Paul were the clouds. His fatigue and lethargy had become old friends.

Paul mused on the journey thus far, painting in his mind a vivid picture of all he had seen and experienced. He was satisfied. Paul thought that even if his journey were to end there, he would not be sad. But his body could still carry him forward, and so Paul climbed on.

The peak—the fulcrum, the apex—a culmination and denouement of all that had come and all that was yet to come. Paul had reached the summit, and he could look no further upward, as beyond him stretched the infinite, inexorable sky. So, Paul looked ahead. He saw the horizon far away and the entire path he had traversed—a testament to his journey. The clouds were closer than ever, and Paul felt he might almost reach out and touch his wispy companions.

Paul felt at peace, in tune with a state of mind he had never experienced before. The sight before him transcended the physical world, reaching out to something beyond—something alien yet familiar. Paul knew that his journey had not been in vain; the unceasing climb had come to an egress.

WHAT SHALL I MAKE FOR DINNER?

J Harishankar
CLASS: 11C

My last visit to the grocer was three days ago. Then, I had barely bought anything—though not from a starving wallet or a gluttonous pantry, but for the fact that the subtle difference between salted and unsalted butter is simply lost on me. Right next to the low-fat and no-fat milk was a carton that prided itself on its high-fat content. The boon of choice forced me to return empty-handed.

It is now eight in the afternoon (also known to some folks as "night"). My quaint luncheon of an apple and a can of apple juice had fueled my sedentary lifestyle for over eight hours. But time now comes for when the author must feast again. First course of action—surveyance.

The refrigerator.

Condiments line the door side; the whiteness of mayonnaise contrasts with the bottles of ketchup and soy sauce of all races, for the writer is a citizen of the world. My eyes caught a glimpse of—two eggs! Ha! Critics of the poor chicken's calcium-clad gift of protein too often dismiss it as an unborn chicken, but as is known to the savant, the eggs that we eat are unfertilized. Yes, the egg is an egg, with no mention of sperm or zygote and definitely none of an embryo. Therefore, eggs—if one were so inclined to use the irrefutable logic of logic—are the period of the chicken. A rancid thought. I no longer want eggs.

Up next: beneath the eggs, lemons. A lot of them. Seven lemons. Citrus and the C-vitamin. Sour, salubrious, but not an evening meal. Seven lemons? I do not recall buying seven lemons. The other day, I made lemonade out of three lemons for a friend of mine and for me… myself. I remember counting out six—s-i-x—lemons post-lemonade. Has life given me yet another lemon? Of what use are seven lemons to an unmarried fellow such as myself?

Life continues to give me lemons, but there's only so much lemonade one can make and drink before one's hands grow tired of all the wringing and one's tongue shrivels up from all the acid. Nor am I ungrateful for all the lemons, but are lemons what I truly want? Or is it grapefruit? I will not be content either way.

Thirty more seconds of browsing led me to close the door, only to be opened again by yours truly. The eggs, the lemons, and the Great Wall of Condiments greeted me once again. This time, I spotted, in the corner of the bottom shelf, a dead roach lying on its back, its six legs curled inwards toward its stomach. However the critter got in, its "out" was out of the cold, but I like to imagine that it ate itself to death, given its lifeless limbs clutching its stomach like some glutton. This common image (dead pest) in its uncommon grave (the fridge) resulted in the loss of my appetite.

Yesterday, I had chicken for dinner. Lamb the day before, and a fancy meal of veal and wine paid for by a client of mine two days ago. I face no poverty and am of considerably good health. As illustrated, I eat well. But tonight, for a change, I shall sleep on an empty stomach.

The fridge was closed that night for the last time. I made my way to bed and made myself not even a glass of water. I lay prostrate. I thought again of the eggs. Eggs are versatile, delicious, and a friend of the neophyte. They are a great source of protein and healthy fats. But a train of thought I had boarded while trying to deter the critics of the egg landed me on their side, with a rancid observation. An embryo I shall eat, but no period for me. Period.

And the lemons, all seven of them. On judicious use, they would have made over seven glasses of lemonade. But I do not want lemonade, nor grapefruit. I don't want anything. I drifted off to sleep thinking of tender game meat, fresh fish, and cheeses from some faraway European village. I thought of all those delicacies that I would have, at that moment, traded for nothing at all.

PRETTY GARDEN

Johan George Elson
CLASS: 4D

Once upon a time in a small village there was a pretty garden. An old lady was taking care of the garden. She used to nurture the garden by watering it every day. The garden looked lovely when the flowers bloomed.

When we enter the garden, the stunning rose plant with delicate petals and perfume-like fragrance greets us. Near to the rose bush, there was a sunflower plant which had bright yellow petals. It looks like a miniature sun.

Near to the sunflower there was a cactus plant which was full of spines. It looked like a bodyguard which protected the garden from mischievous creatures. There was a big wise old mango tree situated in the center of the garden. It provided shade to the plants and shelter to birds and squirrels. In the garden there were also marigolds, orchids, hibiscus and beautiful bougainvillea with different colours.

There was a small pond in the garden, covered with some tall reeds. Inside the pond there were different kinds of fish, curious little frogs and some water lilies. The Garden was a beautiful home of birds like kingfishers and hummingbirds, buzzing bees and colourful butterflies. They collected pollen and drank nectar from the flowers. All of them made the garden very beautiful and happy.

One day a critical situation arose in the garden. There was an argument between the sunflower and the rose. Rose claimed that she was the most beautiful among all flowers and sunflower insisted that she was the most beautiful with vibrant and striking appearance. Some plants stood one by one with the sunflower and others with the rose. The rivalry among them increased. So, there was an unpleasant situation in the garden. The birds' bees and butterflies stayed away from the garden in distress.

The mango tree took a decision and called the meeting of all plants. He said "My dear friends, why all of you are fighting and arguing? Each one of us is unique and special in our own ways and that makes our garden beautiful. Kindly stop this argument and let's move on in a harmonious way". They looked at each other and felt ashamed of themselves. They apologized and promised that they will not quarrel with each other.

Ater that the garden came to its peaceful state, full of beauty and charm. The birds, bees and butterflies returned to the garden and they lived happily and appreciated each other.

MY TOOTH FAIRY

JONATHAN GEORGE JOJO
CLASS: 6B

The Tooth Fairy is a beloved mythical creature who visits children while they sleep to collect their lost baby teeth. She is often depicted as a small, winged fairy with shimmering wings and a gentle smile.

According to folklore, when a child loses a tooth, they should place it under their pillow before going to bed. While they sleep, the Tooth Fairy will magically appear, collect the tooth, and leave a small gift or a coin in its place. This tradition is believed to bring good luck and encourage children to take care of their teeth.

The Tooth Fairy's origins can be traced back to various cultures and traditions. Some believe she is related to ancient beliefs about tooth preservation and good luck. Others connect her to folklore about fairies and their magical powers.

The moon was a sliver of silver, casting long, dancing shadows across my room. I lay awake, a gap in my smile where my tooth had been. I clutched my pillow, a tiny, wiggly tooth tucked beneath it. Excitement bubbled in my tummy. Tonight, the Tooth Fairy will visit!

But my Tooth Fairy isn't like the ones in the stories. Mine is a bit of a bookworm. Instead of a coin, she'll leave a tiny, folded note with a riddle written inside. I'll have to solve the riddle to find the real treasure.

One night, I found a riddle about a "shining treasure, round and bright, that melts with warmth and disappears from sight." I searched high and low, finally finding a delicious, shimmering chocolate coin hidden in my bookshelf.

Another night, the riddle led me on a treasure hunt around my room. Clues were hidden under my stuffed animals, behind my favorite picture, even taped to the ceiling fan! The final clue led me to a small, beautifully illustrated book tucked away in my nightstand drawer.

My Tooth Fairy, with her love of riddles and books, made losing a tooth an exciting adventure. It taught me to think creatively, to look for hidden clues, and to appreciate the joy of discovery. And even though I'm all grown up now, I still remember those magical nights and the special bond I shared with my unique Tooth Fairy.Whether you believe in the Tooth Fairy or not, the legend serves as a reminder of the magic and wonder of childhood.

A HOME WHERE DOORS DON'T SLAM

LANA RAEESA RIYAS
CLASS: 10 E

I'm building a home for myself,
Where doors don't slam, where hearts don't shelve.
Where peace is found in every room,
And kindness blooms without a boom.

Where voices are soft, no need to yell,
And comfort is woven in every spell.
Love scattered across the kitchen table,
With every touch, it feels more stable.

The chairs will sit with patience and grace,
Built from respect, leaving no trace
Of anger or haste, just hands that care,
Crafting a space that we can share.

In this home, warmth fills the air,
With no harsh words or burdens to bear.
A place where hearts are free to grow,
And kindness is all we'll ever know.

HEALED OVER TIME.

In the darkness of the night, a shadow loomed,
A force so cruel, my innocence consumed.
In the echoes of silence, my screams unheard,
A shattered soul, with every painful word.

Tears like rivers, flowing endlessly,
A heart betrayed by a trusted enemy.
But in the depths of despair, a flicker of light,
A spirit resilient, ready to fight.

With each sunrise, a new dawn begins,
A journey of healing, where hope wins.
Though scars may linger, and pain still stings,
I reclaim my voice, as my spirit sings.

For I am more than a victim, I am strong,
I rise above, where I once felt wronged.
In the tapestry of my life, a thread of grace,
A survivor's anthem, in every embrace.

So here I stand, against the tide,
With courage as my ally, and love as my guide.
For though the road ahead may seem steep,
I walk with purpose, my soul to keep

MY HAPPINESS

A CLOUD

Oh! When I looked up,
I saw a cute teddy smiling at me.
And then I looked up,
I saw a pretty fairy flapping her wings.
And later when I looked up,
I saw big purple trees with pink branches.
I love Clouds…

THREADS OF EMPATHY

Laya S
CLASS: XII E

A fleeting glance, I feel your ache
No words be told, there's no facade
Your heavy burden, I feel it too
Together we stand , it's never only you
Amidst the shadows ,I reach out
Quiet but present , one never doubts
In your eyes,the same battles flow
An unknown face, yet the pain, I know

When hearts tread together
And souls knot and gather
We hold each other tight
Through the life's stormy night
So let the world grow cold and wide
In each other's light, there's nowhere to hide
For in the space where hearts align,
Your struggle, love, is forever mine.

THE SAD ICE-CREAM MAN

LINET MARY PAUL
CLASS: 5D

Once there lived a sad ice-cream man. He always thought if he had selected a better job, he would have been happier. One day a lady noticed his sad face and asked him what happened. He explained his plight to her. Then she told him, “you shouldn’t be sad because every child likes you, whenever we feel exhausted, you give us tasty ice-cream and isn’t it great seeing children smile in the morning itself.” He realised his mistake and thanked the lady. Then onwards he lived happily ever after.
Moral of the story is, be grateful for everything you have.

THE TREASURE HUNT

NATHAAN BOBY PAUL
CLASS: 7D

The sea was blue,
We found treasure without any clue

The sea we saw was dark,
We saw a shark

The fish started to run,
We couldn't catch any of them for fun

The Shark started to follow me
I escaped and found a key

We found a ship under the sea,
On the way a stone hit my knee

And yet, still I got the treasure,
I jumped with pleasure.

READING MAKES A MAN PERFECT

Navami Panicker
CLASS: 6D

"There is more treasure in books than in all the pirate's loot on Treasure Island." – Walt Disney.

I would like to start my article by discussing the different types of books available, such as fiction, non-fiction, drama, romance, and many others. Reading is both a habit and a hobby that can transform our minds and enrich our lives. It helps improve vocabulary, imagination, knowledge, and concentration. Additionally, it has a calming effect and fosters mindfulness, making it a perfect activity for relaxation.

Books cater to various age groups, providing an array of options suited to different interests and developmental stages. For children aged 4 to 6, comics and fairy tales work wonderfully to spark imagination and creativity. Kids aged 7 to 8 can enjoy classics like Enid Blyton's Famous Five series or Grandma's Bag of Stories by Sudha Murthy. For those aged 9 to 11, popular choices include Diary of a Wimpy Kid by Jeff Kinney and Dork Diaries by Rachel Renée Russell. Readers aged 12 and above can delve into engaging series such as Harry Potter by J.K. Rowling, Aru Shah by Roshani Chokshi, Percy Jackson by Rick Riordan, and the Shiva Trilogy by Amish Tripathi. These books captivate readers with their compelling stories and vibrant characters.

In today's digital age, children are often glued to electronic devices. Instead, we should encourage them to explore the magic of books that suit their age and interests. Whether a child prefers fiction or nonfiction, we must support their choices and nurture their love for reading. Books have the power to shape young minds, build empathy, and introduce new perspectives.

Personally, I began my reading journey in the 5th grade with Diary of a Wimpy Kid and Dork Diaries. Over time, my love for reading has grown, and I am currently enjoying the book The Immortals of Meluha, the book 1 in the Shiva Trilogy series. Reading has not only been an enjoyable pastime but also a source of immense learning and personal growth.

BUDDHA: THE LIGHT OF ASIA

Navami Panicker
CLASS: VI-D

Gautama Buddha, is revered as the "Light of Asia," Born as Siddhartha Gautama in Lumbini, Nepal, around the 6th century BCE, he was a prince who renounced his luxurious life in search of deeper meaning. Disturbed by the realities of old age, sickness, and death, Siddhartha set out on a journey of self-discovery, ultimately leading to his enlightenment under the Bodhi tree in Bodh Gaya, India.

Buddha's teachings are centred on the Four Noble Truths: that life is filled with suffering, suffering arises from attachment, suffering ceases when attachment ceases, and liberation can be achieved through a right, balanced and ethical lifestyle, focusing on right values. Founded on Buddha's teachings, Buddhism spread rapidly across Asia, profoundly influencing cultures, philosophies, and religions. Emperors like Asoka of that times followed and propagated Buddhism. The focus on personal responsibility, mindfulness, and meditation continues to inspire millions, making Buddhism one of the most widely practiced religions globally.

The Dharma Chakra is the symbol of Budhism. According to Buddhism, Nirvana is the highest state a person can attain, which is a place of perfect peace and happiness like heaven.

The legacy of Buddha is not limited to spiritual followers; his teachings also resonate in the fields of psychology, social justice, and environmentalism. As the "Light of Asia," Buddha provided a new perspective that emphasized inner peace over material wealth, compassion over conflict, and awareness over ignorance. His timeless wisdom shines as a beacon, guiding individuals towards a life of balance, purpose, and harmony all over the world even now. For those who seek truth and inner peace, Buddha's path remains as relevant today.

Still, I wonder why Buddha is known as the Light of Asia, instead of the World.

THE COURAGEOUS HEART OF ROHAN

Nivedh Naveen
CLASS: 1B

Once upon a time there lived a boy named Rohan. He was a brave and kind hearted boy. One day while he was on his way back from school, he saw a thief trying to steal from a shop. He ran to the shop. He hit the thief and chased him away. The shopkeeper was very grateful and praised Rohan for his courage, "You are a true hero, you saved my shop today" he said with a smile. Rohan felt proud but also remembered that one has to be humble, so he simply smiled and thanked the shopkeeper before heading back home.

THE LITTLE DEER

POORNIMA BINNU
CLASS: 2D

Long long ago in a jungle there lived a deer. It was smaller than the other animals.
One day the animals and the deer were drinking water from the lake. The deer heard some noise from the bushes. It went to check and saw the King with the archery kit.
The deer ran and told the other animals what he saw. By listening to the deer, the animals went to their own houses.
The king looked and was surprised to find there were no animals in the forest for his hunting. Sadly, the king went back home.
The animals came out from their own houses. The animals thanked the deer.
The lion, king of the jungle, decided to make the deer his minister.

10 DAYS IN BHUTAN

Rayah Judil
CLASS: 8 A

I’m Rayah, and this is an account of my visit to Bhutan, Land of the Thunder Dragon, so that other travel lovers like me can discover the wonders of this magnificent country. Enjoy!
We flew from Chennai to Bagdogra, West Bengal, and from there, we travelled to Phuentsholing, a small town in southern Bhutan, by car. The journey took nearly 4 hours, and it was late evening by the time we arrived at our hotel. Phuentsholing is right next to the border between India and Bhutan, and on the other side of the border in India is Jaigaon. It is located in Bhutan’s Chukha district, also known as the Gateway to Bhutan. After settling down, we visited a small music festival, where we listened to people playing live music. There were English, Hindi and Dzongkha (Bhutanese language) songs. We also tried some street food, like Tongba (a millet-based drink made in Bhutan, Nepal and some parts of Sikkim and Darjeeling) (“we” refers to those who are legally permitted to drink), a chicken liver preparation, some fried chicken and a mini pizza. After returning to our hotel, we had a good night’s rest.
After a refreshing sleep and a scrumptious breakfast, we went to the immigration office to get our travel permits, and met our guide and driver, who welcomed us with a smile. Then we drove from Phuentsholing to Thimphu, Bhutan’s capital city. The journey took around 4 hours, and we saw some interesting sites. At a place known as Gedu, we visited the Eight Dharmakaya Stupas. They are used for religious worship and are built in the Tibetan style of Buddhist architecture. Many beautiful sights along the way prompted us to stop quite often to take pictures. Another novel feature we noticed were traditional prayer flags. They are flags that have prayers inscribed on them, and are of 5 different colours: Blue signifies the sky and space; white, the air and wind; red represents fire; green, the water and yellow, the earth. They were either hung on poles or wires at elevated areas, or in houses, shops, cars and many other places all over Bhutan. We stopped for lunch, where we tried Ema Datshi. Ema Datshi is the most popular dish in Bhutan as well as being the national dish of the country. Chillies, which can be both fresh-out-of-farm green or dried red chilli, are stewed with traditional Bhutanese cheese, white in colour and usually yellow when sun-dried. Pork Datshi was another dish we tried, along with pork curry with rice (something quite commonly found in other areas, including India). We reached Thimphu late in the evening and settled in for the night.
The next day was jam-packed with shopping. The Thimphu Post office and Postal Museum was our first stop. The museum provides a distinctive opportunity where one can get their stamps personalised with their photos. We got our stamps and also sent postcards to friends and relatives in India using them (it took two whole months to get here, but hey, let’s look on the bright side of things.). It was a unique experience to learn about posting letters and postcards as the system is not widely used anymore. We spent a lot of time in the Handicrafts market in Thimphu, going through the various stalls and handmade products. We saw a wide assortment of masks, shawls, scarves, magnets and other curios.
On day 4, our first destination was the cool and breezy Dochu-la (Dochu pass, la meaning pass in Dzongkha), where 108 chortens had been built. They were built in honour of the Bhutanese soldiers who had been killed in the December 2003 battle against Assamese insurgents from India. A pass is the highest point reached while travelling from one valley to another. We then travelled to Punakha, another district of Bhutan, famous for rice farming. The special variety of rice cultivated there, is known for its soft texture, nutty flavour and russet colour. There were many picturesque sights along the way, and we stopped to click a few memories. Punakha is warmer than Thimphu, and very sunny. We saw two rivers, the Mochu(female) and Pochu(male). The female river was calm, while the male river rushed along with a very strong current. The two rivers converged to form the Punakha Chu (Chu=River), and at the point of convergence a small fort was built to signify this.
Our go-to spot on day 5 was the Phobjikha valley, a place in Wangdue district, which has a lot of farms. On the way, we also stopped at the Punakha Dzong. It is the administrative centre of Punakha district. It is the second oldest and second-largest Dzong in Bhutan and one of its most majestic structures. The many pretty Jacaranda trees in full bloom, decorating the ground below with a purple carpet of flowers, were a mesmerising sight to see. The valley has a high altitude and is colder compared to Punakha. Along the way, we saw yaks grazing on the slopes. At Pele-la (another pass), we bought a yak bell. It is a bell that would have been worn around the neck of a Tibetan yak or buffalo. Each bell has its own unique chime. It was a long and interesting journey, on winding roads of high altitude, and we reached in the evening. The slopes were bursting with exotic flowers, like rhododendrons and drumstick primroses, each slope painted a different hue of white, yellow, pink, red and purple.
The Black Necked Crane centre was our first stop at Phobjikha, the only migratory birds that visit Bhutan from Siberia. We saw the two cranes kept captive- Karma and Pema. We then visited the Gangtey Goenpa(monastery). On the way to the monastery, we were greeted with a rare sight of about a hundred vultures in the backyard of a hotel where they were being fed. In the evening, we went on a mini trekking trail which lasted around two hours. Then we returned to our hotel.

The next morning, we travelled back to Thimphu, reached late in the afternoon, and were well rewarded with a good dinner.

Day 7 being a Sunday, we attended a prayer gathering and had lunch there. We bought some peaches, and then visited the old handicrafts market. From there, we went to a fresh produce market which had fruits, vegetables, dried fish and other eatables. Then, we spent the evening at the Buddha Point. In Thimphu, it is one of the main attractions. There was a special worship going on attended by many. It also rained a bit. We then headed from there to a restaurant, and had an awesome dinner. We went back to our room and prepared for the next day's trip.

The next day was the day of our departure. We left Thimphu immediately after breakfast. In the late evening, we reached Bagdogra via Phuentsholing and Jaigaon.

On the last day of our trip, we visited the Hong Kong market in Siliguri (a city near Bagdogra). We were lucky to buy things at low prices there. After lunch, we boarded a flight to Chennai and from there, we had to take another flight to Cochin. After landing we took a cab from Cochin airport and reached home.

To put it in a nutshell, Bhutan is a wonderful place to visit, a hidden gem in the Himalayas, where ancient traditions, stunning landscapes, majestic dzongs await you. It is full of natural beauty for nature lovers and exquisite viewpoints. It is a very small and peaceful country that is a must visit for those who love travelling. I enjoyed my stay and look forward to visiting again.

EXPLORING THE FUTURE: TERA ROBOTS INDUSTRIAL VISIT 4.0

Sarah Sinoj
CLASS: 8B

I was super excited about the trip. I packed some snacks because the teacher said we could bring them, and I was especially thrilled since snacks were allowed! I also packed a book and a few pens to note down everything. There were about 40 of us in total from grades 7 and 8. I couldn't stop talking about the upcoming trip the night before, to the point where my brother kicked me out of the room. Honestly, I never thought I'd get selected.

The next morning, we were asked to report near the office. After the national anthem, the announcement was made asking the students going on the industrial visit to assemble. When we reached the venue, one of our accompanying teachers, Aneesh Sir, told us to take note of everything.

I took out my notepad, excited about the visit, and there stood the building filled with advanced technology that looked quite expensive.

We were given IDs and divided into four groups, which were later combined into two groups. Our host at TERA enlightened us on why the event was called TERA Industrial Visit 4.0. The "4.0" referred to the fourth generation of human evolution, marking the era of cyber-physical systems. He explained the four generations and the technological advances of each, which was fascinating as it was all new to me.

We continued the tour, moving from lectures to the practical area. It was amazing! We got to learn and experience the world of robots. There were three versions of delivery robots: the W-3, T-5, and T-8. Personally, I liked the W-3, with its open and closed inventory system and the ability to access the lift to go to other floors—unbelievable, right? The T-5 and T-8 were also impressive with their self-charging and meal pickup features. These robots could navigate automatically and were incredibly fast and efficient.

The TERA Industrial Visit 4.0 opened my eyes to a whole new world of technology. After the robot demonstration, we had a class on how to make drones. It was fun to learn about the software they use and the materials required. What I really appreciated was how clearly they explained everything so that even someone like me, an amateur, could understand.

And then, the fun part began—free time! We could play virtual reality games, like football with machines. Although I lost (I wasn't used to it), it was still a lot of fun.

Soon, the trip came to an end, and I was really sad to leave. It was such an enjoyable experience, and I'm grateful to the organizers who made this trip possible, as well as to the teachers who accompanied us.

Thank you!

Once upon a time there was a girl,
Very much happier she was with

Once upon a time there was a girl,
Who started to learn about life
And it's nature where she became
Unknowingly stubborn and self-reliant
Once upon a time there was a girl,
Growing in her family, following the

She thus married
With her husband as

within the walls
Which checked her from pursuing her space
Once upon a time there was a woman, who
Had two children and led a family life,
Well and fine according to the society
Once upon a time there was a woman,
Quarantined inside the kitchen doors
Repressed she was and her freedom
There's a woman,
Very old and weak walking with sticks
With a toothless mouth She still waits
To fly with

There is her home beyond the skies
Where she'll live with no worldly cares .

TWO LITTLE GIRLS AND A WATERMELON

SUZAIN ELDHO
CLASS: 3B

Once upon a time there lived two little girls, Priya and Shreya. They were best friends. They loved watermelons. Everyday they would each buy a watermelon on their way back home. One day there was only one watermelon left in the shop. They both picked the juicy fruit and held it close to their hearts. They started fighting and the shopkeeper begged them to stop. But the red juicy flavour was all they could smell. They shared the same wall to their respective houses. They kept the watermelon on the wall and continued fighting and shouting at each other. After some time Shrey noticed it was missing. Priya too was shocked and showed Shreya the monkey on the tree playing with the watermelon seeds.

हमने ओणम, क्रिसमस सब मनाया |हमने इन मौकों पर खूब आनंद उठाया| हम संख्या में कम थे,पर हमारी मित्रता गहरी थी , जो आगे भी ऐसे ही रहेगी |

मुझे बरसात का मौसम बहुत पसंद है| जब बारिश होती है तो कंबल के नीचे सोना बहुत आरामदायक होता है| बारिश में जब बाहर देखते हैं तो बहुत सारी पक्षियों को अपने घोंसलों में बैठे हुए देख पाते हैं| सभी खेत पानी से भरे हुए होते हैं |हम नाँव बनाकर, पानी के छींटें मारकर खेल सकते हैं | कभी -कभी पानी में कीचड भी मिला हुआ होता है| ऐसे पानी में खेलने का मज़ा अलग ही है|

लेकिन एक बार, बरसात के मौसम का मुझे बुरा अनुभव भी हुआ | अगस्त 2018 में मेरे पिताजी का घर जो आलुवा में है बाढ़ से प्रभावित हुआ था| घर और सड़क पानी से भर गए थे| मेरी दादी ,मौसी और चचेरे भाई वहाँ से एक सुरक्षित जगह चले गए | जब पानी कम हुआ तो मेरे पिताजी और उनके चचेरे भाई -बहन उनके पास गए | उन सब ने मिलकर घर की सफाई की | रसोई की सफाई करते वक्त उन्हें वहाँ साँप, मझलियाँ आदि मिले |घर की सफाई में उन्हें बहुत समय लगा क्योंकि घर कीचड और गंदे पानी से भरा हुआ था | उनका सारा सामान या तो बह गया या बेकार हो गया था |सब कुछ ठीक करने के बाद सब वापस आ गए |घर को ठीक करने में लगभग आठ महीने लगे|
अब मुझे बारिश में लोगों को झेलने पड़ने वाली तकलीफों का अहसास है |

ഓർമ്മയുടെ നീർത്തുള്ളികൾ ഒലിച്ചിറങ്ങി അങ്ങനെ നിൽക്കുകയാണ്. ഒരു രാത്രി കൊണ്ടാണല്ലോ ജീവിതം തകിടം മറിഞ്ഞത്. ഞങ്ങളുടെ ചിരി എന്നെന്നേക്കുമായി മാഞ്ഞ രാത്രി. ഒരു നാടാണ് ഒലിച്ചിറങ്ങിയത്. എനിക്കന്ന് ആറോ ഏഴോ വയസ്സ് മാത്രമാണ് പ്രായം. ഒരു നിലവിളി കേട്ടാണ് ഉണർന്നത്. നോക്കുമ്പോൾ കാണുന്നത് മൃതശരീരങ്ങൾ എന്റെ ദേഹത്തേക്ക് അമരുന്നതാണ്. എനിക്ക് വല്ലാത്ത ഭാരം അനുഭവപ്പെട്ടു. എന്റെ കണ്ണുകൾ മെല്ലെ അടഞ്ഞു. പിന്നീട് കണ്ണു തുറക്കുമ്പോൾ ഞാൻ എന്റെ സ്കൂളിലാണ്. ഒരു അമ്മമ്മ എന്നെ തലോടി. പകച്ചുനിന്ന എന്നോട് പേടിക്കേണ്ട എന്ന് അവർ പറഞ്ഞു. ഞാനെന്റെ അമ്മയെ തേടിപക്ഷേ അവിടെയെങ്ങും കണ്ടില്ല. പൊട്ടിക്കരഞ്ഞ് എന്നെ ആ അമ്മാമ്മ ആശ്വസിപ്പിച്ചു. അമ്മ ആശുപത്രിയിലാണെന്നും ഉടനെ വരും എന്നും അവർ എന്നോട് പറഞ്ഞു. ഞാൻ സ്കൂളിന് പുറത്തിറങ്ങി എന്റെ വീടിരിക്കുന്നിടത്തേക്ക് നോക്കി. അവിടെ വീടുമില്ല, ഒന്നുമില്ല. ഒലിച്ചിറങ്ങുന്ന മണ്ണ് മാത്രം. ആരൊക്കെയോ ചേർന്ന് മണ്ണിനടിയിൽ പെട്ടവരെ തിരയുന്നു. പെട്ടെന്നാണ് മണ്ണിനടിയിൽ ഒരു കൈ ജീവനുവേണ്ടി പിടയ്ക്കുന്നത് ഞാൻ കാണുന്നത്. ആ കൈകൾ എനിക്കറിയാം. ആ കൈയിലെ വളകളും എനിക്കറിയാം. എന്റെ അമ്മ! ഞാൻ നിലവിളിച്ചു കൊണ്ട് പുറത്തേക്കോടി. അപ്പോഴാണ് പുറത്തു കൂട്ടിയിട്ടിരിക്കുന്ന മൃതദേഹങ്ങൾക്കിടയിൽ ശാന്തനായി ഉറങ്ങുന്നതു പോലെ എന്റെ അച്ഛൻ. ഇല്ല എന്റെ അച്ഛൻ ഒരിക്കലും മരിക്കില്ല. എന്റെ അച്ഛൻ സൂപ്പർമാൻ അല്ലേ. ഞാൻ അങ്ങനെ ആശ്വസിച്ചു കൊണ്ട് അമ്മയുടെ അടുത്തേക്ക് ഓടി. ഇന്ന് ഇതെല്ലാം കഴിഞ്ഞിട്ട് ഒരു വർഷം ആകുന്നു. ഇവിടെ ഇപ്പോൾ ഞാനും അമ്മയും തനിച്ചാണ്. ഒറ്റ രാത്രികൊണ്ട് മൺമറഞ്ഞു പോയ ഞങ്ങളുടെ സ്വപ്നങ്ങൾ. ഒരു നേരത്തെ ഭക്ഷണത്തിനു വേണ്ടിയും തണലിനു വേണ്ടിയും ഞാനും അമ്മയും അലഞ്ഞു. സഹായവുമായി കൂടെയുണ്ടായിരുന്നവരെല്ലാം ഇന്ന് പോയ് പോയിരിക്കുന്നു. താങ്ങായും തണലായും എന്നു പറഞ്ഞ ആളുകൾ എവിടെ? ഞാൻ അമ്മയോട് ചോദിച്ചു. കൂടെ കാണും എന്ന് പറഞ്ഞവർ എവിടെപ്പോയി അമ്മേ? നിറഞ്ഞ കണ്ണുകളോടെ അമ്മ പറഞ്ഞു. ജീവിതം ഇങ്ങനെയാണ്, പ്രകൃതി പരീക്ഷിച്ചത് നമ്മളെയല്ലേ? വിവരമുള്ളവർ ചെയ്യുന്ന തെറ്റിന്റെ ഫലം അനുഭവി ക്കുന്നത് നമ്മളെപ്പോലുള്ളവരാണ്. ഇന്ന് ഞങ്ങൾ ഒറ്റയ്ക്ക് തുഴയാനുള്ള ഒരു ശ്രമത്തിലാണ്. ജീവിച്ചല്ലേ പറ്റൂ. ആകെയുള്ള മൂലധനം എന്റെ വിദ്യാഭ്യാസം മാത്രമാണ്. പഠിക്കണം. അങ്ങനെ പറന്നുയരണം. പ്രതീക്ഷകളുടെ ആകാശത്തിന് അതിരുകൾ ഇല്ലല്ലോ?

സോവി എന്ന പെൺകുട്ടി

സോവി എന്ന പെൺകുട്ടിയെ നോക്കാൻ ഒരു അമ്മൂമ്മയെ ഏർപ്പാടാക്കിയിട്ടാണ് അച്ഛനമ്മമാർ അമേരിക്കയിലേക്ക് പോയത്. അമ്മൂമ്മ അവളെ നല്ലവണ്ണം നോക്കും എന്നായിരുന്നു അവരുടെ പ്രതീക്ഷ. പക്ഷേ ആ സ്ത്രീക്ക് അവളെ ഇഷ്ടമല്ലായിരുന്നു. അവർ അമ്മൂമ്മയ്ക്ക് കൃത്യമായി പൈസയും മറ്റും അയച്ചുകൊടുത്തു കൊണ്ടിരുന്നു. അച്ഛനമ്മമാർ ഫോണിൽ വിളിക്കുന്ന സമയം അമ്മൂമ്മ അവളെ നല്ലവണ്ണം സ്നേഹിക്കുന്നതു പോലെ അഭിനയിക്കും. വർത്തമാനം പറയും. പക്ഷേ അത് കഴിഞ്ഞാൽ അവർക്ക് അവളുടെ കാര്യത്തിൽ യാതൊരു ശ്രദ്ധയുമില്ലായിരുന്നു. അവർക്ക് സ്വന്തം മകന്റെ കുട്ടിയുടെ കാര്യത്തിൽ മാത്രമായിരുന്നു ശ്രദ്ധ. മതിയായ ഭക്ഷണം പോലും അവൾക്ക് കൊടുത്തിരുന്നില്ല. ഇടയ്ക്ക് മാതാപിതാക്കൾ വിളിക്കുമ്പോൾ അവൾ ഇക്കാര്യം സൂചിപ്പിച്ചിരുന്നെങ്കിലും അമ്മൂമ്മയുടെ സ്നേഹപൂർവ്വമുള്ള സംസാരം കാരണം അവർ അത് അത്ര കാര്യമായി എടുത്തില്ല. മതിയായ ആഹാരം കിട്ടാതെ ക്രമേണ അവൾ ഒരു രോഗിയായി തീർന്നു. രോഗിയായ അവസ്ഥയിലും അമ്മൂമ്മ കാര്യമായി അവളെ നോക്കിയില്ല. ഒരു ദിവസം അവൾക്ക് ഒരു സർപ്രൈസ് കൊടുക്കുവാൻ എന്നവണ്ണം നാട്ടിലേക്ക് തിരിച്ചെത്തിയ മാതാപിതാക്കൾ വീട്ടിലെത്തിയപ്പോൾ കണ്ടകാഴ്ച ഭയാ നകമായിരുന്നു. ഒരു പായിൽ കിടത്തിയിരിക്കുന്ന തങ്ങളുടെ മകളെ കണ്ട് അവർ ഞെട്ടിത്തരിച്ചിരുന്നു പോയി. പണം സമ്പാദിക്കുന്നതിനു മാത്രം മുൻതൂക്കം കൊടുത്തപ്പോൾ തങ്ങൾക്ക് സംഭവിച്ച വലിയ നഷ്ടം നികത്താൻ ആവാത്തത് ആണെന്ന് അവർക്ക് മനസ്സിലായി.

ടാവേലി : കേരളത്തിലെ ചിത്രപ്പാട്ടുവായന

വർണചിത്രങ്ങളില്ലാത്ത ബാലമാസിക നമുക്ക് സങ്കൽപ്പിക്കാനാകുമോ? അച്ചടിയുടെ കുത്തകയിലാകുന്നതിനുമുമ്പ് കുട്ടികളെങ്ങനെയാകും കഥകളറിഞ്ഞിട്ടുണ്ടാകുക മുത്തശ്ശിക്കഥകളിലൂടെ എന്നാകും നിങ്ങളുടെ ഉത്തരം. എന്നാൽ ചിത്രങ്ങൾ കാണിച്ചുള്ള കഥ പറച്ചിൽ ഒരു തൊഴിൽ തന്നെയാക്കിയവരെക്കുറിച്ച് നിങ്ങൾ കേട്ടിട്ടുണ്ടോ? തുണിയിലോ കടലാസിലോ വരച്ച് ചുരുൾ രൂപത്തിലാക്കിയ ചിത്രങ്ങളു (Scroll Painting) മായി വന്ന് അവർ കഥ പറയും. പശ്ചിമബംഗാളിലെ പട്യാകൾ, രാജസ്ഥാനിലെ 'പാബു ജി കാ പട്' വായിക്കുന്ന ഭോപ്പമാർ, ഗുജറാത്തിലെ ഗരോഡകൾ, ബാലിയിലെ ബലാങ് ബീവർ അവതരിപ്പിക്കുന്ന ദലാങുമാർ ഇവരൊക്കെ നല്ല രസികൻ കഥപറച്ചിലുകാർ തന്നെ. ഇവരെ നമുക്ക് ചിത്രപ്പാട്ടുവായനക്കാർ എന്നു വിളിക്കാം.

നമ്മുടെ കേരളത്തിലും ഇത്തരമൊരു ചിത്രപ്പാട്ടുവായന! എറണാകുളം ജില്ലയിലെ ചില പ്രദേശങ്ങളിൽ മാത്രം കാണുന്ന 'ടാവേലി' യാണ് അത്. പ്രത്യേകം തയ്യാറാക്കിയ ചിത്രത്തുണിച്ചുരുളുമായി കലാകാരൻ വീട്ടിലെത്തും. ചിത്രകഥകളിലേതുപോലെ പല ചിത്രങ്ങൾ കളങ്ങളിലാക്കി അതിൽ വരച്ചു ചേർത്തിട്ടുണ്ട്. വീട്ടുകാർ നിലവിളക്ക് കൊളുത്തി ഭക്തിയോടെ വേണം അവരെ സ്വീകരിക്കാൻ. ചുരുളഴിച്ച് നിവർത്തിയ ചിത്രപടത്തിൽ നീണ്ട വടികൊണ്ട് ചൂണ്ടിക്കാണിച്ച് താളത്തിൽ അവർ നമുക്കൊരു കഥ പറഞ്ഞുതരും. ഗദ്യമോ പദ്യമോ അല്ലാത്ത താളാത്മക ശൈലിയിലാണ് കഥപറച്ചിൽ. ചിത്രങ്ങൾ വരച്ച് തുണി ചുമരിൽ തൂക്കിയിട്ട് നിലത്തിരുന്ന് വായന ആരംഭിക്കുന്നു. ഒട്ടേറെ ചിത്രങ്ങൾ ചിതറി കിടക്കുന്ന ചിത്രത്തുണിയുടെ കീഴിൽ വലതു വശത്തുള്ള ചിത്രത്തിൽ തുടങ്ങി മുകളിൽ ഇടതു വശത്തുള്ള ചിത്രത്തിൽ വായിച്ചു അവസാനിപ്പിക്കുന്നത് ആണ് പൊതുവേ കണ്ടുവരുന്ന രീതി.

പ്രസിദ്ധമായ ചീരത്തോപുരാവൃത്തമാണ് ടവേലിയിലെ പ്രധാന കഥാവസ്തു. ചിരുത്തൊൻ തന്റെ ഏക പുത്രനായ ചീരാളനെ സന്യാസി വേഷത്തിൽ എത്തിയ പരമശിവന് ബലി നൽകുന്നതായും പിന്നീട് ശിവപ്രീതിയാൽ തന്നെ അഞ്ചു വയസ്സിലറത്ത കുട്ടി ഏഴു വയസാകേ മടങ്ങി വരുന്നതായി പറയുന്നു. ആന്ധ്രപ്രദേശ്, തമിഴ്നാട് എന്നിവിടങ്ങളിൽ നിന്ന് കേരളത്തിൽ കുടിയേറിപ്പാർത്ത വീരശൈവരാണ് ടാവേലിയുടെ അവതാരകർ. അങ്ങനെയാവാം കേരളത്തിൽ ഈ കഥയെത്തിയത്. ഇവിടെ പാരന്മാർ എന്ന പേരിലാണ് അവർ അറിയപ്പെടുന്നത്. പപ്പടനിർമാണമാണ് കുലത്തൊഴിൽ. പിതൃപ്രീതിക്കും സന്തതിഗുണത്തിനുമായിട്ടാണ് ഈ അനുഷ്ഠാന കലാരൂപം അവതരിപ്പിച്ചു വരുന്നത്. ചീരാള കഥ കൂടാതെ ടാവേലിയിൽ ശിവരാത്രി മാഹാത്മ്യത്തെക്കുറിച്ചും പറയുന്നു. ഉമ്മറപ്പടിയിലേ ഇരിക്കരുത് അടിച്ചുതളി സന്ധ്യാനാമം സന്ധ്യവിളക്ക് മുട്ടിക്കരുത് എന്നിങ്ങനെ ചില ഉപദേശങ്ങളും തരുന്നു. ചിലയിടങ്ങളിൽ മ്ലാവേലി, രാവേലി, ഡാവേലി, മിടാവേലി, ബ്ടാവേലി എന്നൊക്കെയാണ് ഇതറിയപ്പെടുന്നത്. പുത്രനെ (കിടാവിനെ) ബലികൊടുക്കുന്ന കഥയാണല്ലോ ഇത്. 'കിടാവുബലി' എന്ന പദം ലോപിച്ച് കിടാവേലി എന്നും ടാവേലി എന്നും പേരു വന്നതാകാം. സങ്കടകരമായ മറ്റൊന്നു. ഇന്ന് കേരളത്തിൽ ഒന്നു രണ്ടുപേർക്കുമാത്രമേ ടാവേലി വായന അറിയൂ. അടുത്ത തലമുറയോടെ നല്ലൊരു കലാരൂപം കേട്ടുകേൾവി മാത്രമായി തീരും.

കേരളം ദൈവത്തിന്റെ സ്വന്തം നാട്. മനോഹരമായ പ്രകൃതി ഭംഗിയുള്ള ജാതിമതഭേദമന്യേ ജനങ്ങൾ സ്നേഹത്തോടെ കഴിയുന്ന നാട്. ഇന്ത്യയിലെ സംസ്ഥാനങ്ങളിൽ എന്നും മുൻപന്തിയിൽ തന്നെയാണ് കേരളം. എങ്കിലും ഇപ്പോഴും ശ്രദ്ധിക്കപ്പെടാത്ത, പരിഗണിക്കപ്പെടാത്ത അല്ലെങ്കിൽ ശ്രദ്ധിക്കപ്പെടേണ്ട ധാരാളം വിഷയങ്ങൾ ഉണ്ട് കേരളത്തിൽ. കേരള ത്തിലെ ജനങ്ങൾ ഇന്ന് ഏറെ ബുദ്ധിമുട്ട് അനുഭവിക്കുന്നുണ്ട്. അതിൽ ഏറ്റവും കൂടുതൽ ചർച്ച ചെയ്യപ്പെടേണ്ട വിഷയമാണ് സ്ത്രീ സുരക്ഷ. എന്നും സുരക്ഷിത ത്വത്തോടെ പുറത്തിറങ്ങി നടക്കുക എന്നത് ലോകമെമ്പാടുമുള്ള സ്ത്രീകളുടെ അവകാശമാണ്. പക്ഷേ വർദ്ധിച്ചുവരുന്ന പീഡനക്കേസുകളും സ്ത്രീ കൾക്കെതിരെയുള്ള അതിക്രമങ്ങളും ആശങ്കാവഹ മാണ്. അതുപോലെതന്നെ ചർച്ച ചെയ്യപ്പെടേണ്ട മറ്റൊരു വിഷയം മാലിന്യ വിമുക്ത ലോകം എന്നതാണ്. ഹരിതാഭ നിറഞ്ഞിരുന്ന കേരളത്തിൽ ഇന്ന് നോക്കിയാൽ കാണുന്നത് മാലിന്യ കൂമ്പാരങ്ങൾ ആണ്. എന്തുകൊണ്ടാണ് ഇങ്ങനെ നടക്കുന്നത്? ഉപഭോഗ സംസ്കാരവും വ്യവസായവത്കരണവും വികസനത്തോടൊപ്പം സൃഷ്ടിച്ച ആഘാതങ്ങൾ ചെറുതല്ല. ഇന്നും കേരളത്തിൽ തന്നെ പലയിടങ്ങളിലും ശുദ്ധജലം പോലും ലഭിക്കുന്നില്ല. പ്രാഥമികമായ ആവശ്യങ്ങൾ നിറവേറ്റാൻ ബുദ്ധിമുട്ടുന്ന അനേകം ആളുകൾ ഇപ്പോഴും നമുക്കിടയിൽ ഉണ്ട്. സുനാമിയും, വെള്ളപ്പൊക്കവും, കാലവർഷക്കെടുതികൾ സൃഷ്ടിക്കുന്ന കഠിനാഘാതങ്ങളും നമ്മുടെ നാടിനെ തളർത്തിയി ട്ടുണ്ട്. പക്ഷേ നാം ഒറ്റക്കെട്ടായി നിന്ന് ആ പ്രതിസന്ധിയെ മറികടക്കുകയാണ് ചെയ്തത്. എന്നിരുന്നാലും എല്ലാ ഒത്തൊരുമകളും പിന്നീട് മറക്കുന്ന കാഴ്ചകളാണ് നമുക്ക് ചുറ്റും കാണാനുള്ളതും. അധികാരദുർവിനിയോ ഗവും, രാഷ്ട്രീയകളികളും ആരും ചോദ്യം ചെയ്യാനില്ലാത്ത അവസ്ഥയും സമൂഹത്തിൽ അരാജകത്വം സൃഷ്ടി ക്കുന്നു. ദുർവിനിയോഗവും ചൂഷണങ്ങളും തട്ടിപ്പുകളും നാം ഇന്ന് അനുഭവിച്ചുകൊണ്ടിരിക്കുന്ന വലിയ പ്രശ്നങ്ങൾ തന്നെ യാണ്. എന്റെ നാട് എന്ന വികാരം ഉൾക്കൊണ്ട് നാടിന്റെ നന്മയ്ക്കായി അതുവഴി ലോകത്തിന്റെ നന്മയ്ക്കായി പ്രയത്നിക്കുന്ന ഒരു തല മുറയാണ് ഉണ്ടാവേണ്ടത്. നമ്മുടെ നാടിന്റെ പാരമ്പര്യവും പൈതൃകവും പൊതുസമ്പത്തും കാത്തുസൂക്ഷിച്ച് പരിസ്ഥിതിക്ക് ഭംഗം വരുത്താതെ വികസനത്തിലേക്ക് കാലെടുത്തു കുത്തി നല്ലൊരു നാളെയിലേക്ക് നമുക്ക് നടക്കാം.

ഒരു ദിവസം അപ്പു നടക്കാൻ ഇറങ്ങിയപ്പോഴാണ് വഴിയിൽ ഒരു പൂച്ചക്കുഞ്ഞിനെ കണ്ടത്.
അപ്പുവിന് പൂച്ചകളെ പൊതുവേ പേടിയാണ്. പക്ഷേ പൂച്ച അപ്പുവിനോട് പറഞ്ഞു.
സഹോദരാ എന്നെ കണ്ട് നീ പേടിക്കേണ്ട. ഞങ്ങൾ പാവങ്ങളാണ്.
"ഓ, അപ്പോൾ നിങ്ങൾ പാവങ്ങൾ ആണല്ലേ?"
"എന്നെ നിന്റെ വീട്ടിലേക്ക് കൊണ്ടു പോകാമോ"?
പൂച്ച ചോദിച്ചു. ശരി ഞാൻ നിന്നെ കൊണ്ടുപോകാം. അപ്പു സമ്മതിച്ചു.
അങ്ങനെ അവർ രണ്ടുപേരും വീട്ടിലേക്ക് മടങ്ങി.
അവർ നല്ല ചങ്ങാതിമാരായി കഴിഞ്ഞുപോന്നു.
അങ്ങനെയിരിക്കെ ഒരു ദിവസം അവരുടെ വീട്ടുമുറ്റത്ത് ഒരു കുഞ്ഞു കിളി വീണു കിടക്കുന്നത് കണ്ടു.
അപ്പുവും പൂച്ചക്കുട്ടനും കൂടി ആ കിളിയെ എടുത്ത് അകത്തേക്ക് കൊണ്ടു പോയി.
മുത്തശ്ശി കിളിയുടെ മുറിവിൽ മരുന്നു വെച്ച് കെട്ടി. കിളിക്കുഞ്ഞിന് പൂച്ചയെ ഭയമായിരുന്നു.
പക്ഷേ അപ്പുവിന്റെയും പൂച്ചക്കുട്ടന്റെയും സ്നേഹവും പരിചരണവും കിട്ടിയപ്പോൾ കിളിക്കുഞ്ഞിന് മനസ്സിലായി, ഇവർ തന്റെ ശത്രുക്കൾ അല്ല മിത്രങ്ങൾ ആണെന്ന്.
അന്നുമുതൽ കിളിക്കുഞ്ഞും അവരുടെ കൂടെ കൂടി അവർ മൂന്നുപേരും ഉറ്റ ചങ്ങാതിമാരായി മാറി.

ഞാൻ 11 വയസ്സുള്ള ഒരു കുട്ടിയാണ്. മാതാപിതാക്കളെ അനുസരിക്കേണ്ട പ്രായമാണ്. പക്ഷേ ഞാൻ എടുത്ത തീരുമാനത്തിൽ പറ്റിയ ഒരു ചതിയെ കുറിച്ചാണ് ഇവിടെ എഴുതുന്നത്. ഞാൻ എന്റെ അമ്മയെക്കാൾ അധികം കൂട്ടുകാരനെ വിശ്വസിച്ചു. അതുകൊണ്ടുതന്നെ അതിൽ നിന്ന് ഒരു ദുരനുഭവം എനിക്ക് ഉണ്ടാവുകയും ചെയ്തു. എന്റെ കൂട്ടുകാരൻ പറഞ്ഞതു പോലെ ഒരു തെറ്റായ കാര്യം ഞാൻ ചെയ്യുകയും, അവൻ പറഞ്ഞ പാതയിലൂടെ മാത്രം ഞാൻ സഞ്ചരിക്കുകയും ചെയ്തു. പക്ഷേ പിന്നീട് എനിക്ക് മനസ്സിലായി, അതൊരു ചതിയായിരുന്നു എന്ന്. അതുകൊണ്ടുതന്നെ ഞാൻ അതിൽ നിന്ന് പിന്മാറുകയും ചെയ്തു. എല്ലാകാര്യങ്ങളും എന്റെ മാതാപിതാക്കളോട് തുറന്നു പറയുകയും ചെയ്തതുകൊണ്ട് ഒരു ചതിക്കുഴിയിൽ നിന്ന് എനിക്ക് കര കയറാനായി. അതുപോലെതന്നെ എന്റെ കൂട്ടുകാരനും രക്ഷപ്പെടണമെന്നാണ് എന്റെ ആഗ്രഹം. ഞാൻ ഈ അനുഭവം ഇവിടെ പങ്കുവെച്ചത് എല്ലാവർക്കും ഇതൊരു പാഠം ആവാൻ വേണ്ടിയാണ്. മാതാപിതാക്കൾ നമ്മുടെ നന്മയ്ക്ക് വേണ്ടി മാത്രമേ എന്തും ചെയ്യുകയുള്ളൂ. അവരെ അനുസരിക്കുക

ഒരിക്കൽ ഒരു പൂമ്പാറ്റ ഒരു പൂവിനെ കണ്ടുമുട്ടി. വിശന്നിരിക്കുകയായിരുന്നു പൂമ്പാറ്റ. പൂവിനെ കണ്ടപ്പോൾ അതിന് സന്തോഷമായി. പൂവിൽ നിറയെ തേൻ ഉണ്ടായിരിക്കുമെന്ന് കരുതി, അത് പൂവിന് അടുത്തേക്ക് പറന്നു. ചെന്ന് നോക്കിയപ്പോഴോ കഷ്ടം! തേനില്ല. അത് പൂവിനോട് തേൻ ചോദിച്ചു. പൂവ് പറഞ്ഞു നാളെ വന്നാൽ നിറയെ തേൻ തരാം. പിറ്റേ ദിവസവും പൂമ്പാറ്റ പൂവിന്റെ അടുത്തേക്ക് ചെന്നു. പക്ഷേ അപ്പോഴും തേനില്ല. അതിനു സങ്കടം വന്നു. അപ്പോൾ പൂവ് പറഞ്ഞു നാളെ വന്നാൽ ഞാൻ തേൻ തരാം. പിറ്റേ ദിവസം പൂമ്പാറ്റ നേരത്തെ വന്നു. അപ്പോഴാണ് മറ്റു പൂമ്പാറ്റകൾ അതിൽ നിന്ന് തേൻ കുടിക്കുന്നത് കണ്ടത്. ഞാൻ നേരം വൈകി വന്നതു കൊണ്ടാണ് എനിക്ക് തേൻ കിട്ടാതിരുന്നത് അല്ലേ. അത് സ്വയം പറഞ്ഞു. ബാക്കിയുള്ള തേനിൽ നിന്ന് പൂമ്പാറ്റയും തേൻ കുടിച്ചു.

ഗ്രാമത്തിൽ നല്ലതുപോലെ മഴ ലഭിച്ച ഒരു മഴക്കാലം ആയിരുന്നു അത്. പുഴയിൽ വെള്ളം നിറഞ്ഞു. പുല്ലുകൾ തളിർത്തു. ഗ്രാമവാസികൾ സന്തുഷ്ടരായി. അവർ മഴക്കാലം നന്നായി ആഘോഷിച്ചു. എന്നാൽ ഒരു കൂട്ടം ഉറുമ്പുകൾ ആകെ കഷ്ടത്തിലായി. കൂട് ഉപക്ഷേിച്ച് ഉണങ്ങി ഏതെങ്കിലും സ്ഥലം അന്വേഷിച്ചു പോകേണ്ടതായി വന്നു. അവർയാത്ര തുടങ്ങി. കഷ്ടം! അവർ പുഴയുടെ തീരത്ത് കുടുങ്ങിപ്പോയി. പുഴ കരകവിഞ്ഞ് ഒഴുകുകയായിരുന്നു. രാമു കുറെ സമയമായി ഉറുമ്പിൻ കൂട്ടങ്ങളെ നോക്കി നിൽക്കുകയാ യിരുന്നു. അവർ പുതിയ പാർപ്പിടം അന്വേഷിച്ചു പോവുകയാണെന്ന് അവന് മനസ്സിലായി. അവൻ കുറെയധികം ഇലകൾ എടുത്ത് ചേർത്ത് പിരിച്ച് ഒരു ചങ്ങാടം ഉണ്ടാക്കി. ഉറുമ്പുകൾ അതിൽ കയറ്റി വിട്ടു. ഉറുമ്പുകളെ സന്തോഷപത്തോടെ പുഴ കടന്നു പുതിയ താമസസ്ഥലം അപനേഷിച്ച് നടന്നു പോയി.

ഒരു ദിവസത്തെ ട്രിപ്പുകൾ പ്രതീക്ഷിക്കാതെ രണ്ടോ മൂന്നോ ദിവസം ആകുന്നതിന്റെ സന്തോഷം ഒന്ന് വേറെ തന്നെയാണ്. എന്റെ അപ്പയും അമ്മയും ലേഹ് ഇൽ കഴിഞ്ഞ നവംബർ മാസത്തിൽ പോയിട്ട്, ഞങ്ങൾക്കും പോകണമെന്ന് ആവശ്യപ്പെട്ടപ്പോഴാണ് ഡിസംബർ വെക്കേഷനിൽ കാശ്മീരിൽ പോവാം എന്ന് തീരുമാനിച്ചത്. അങ്ങനെ ഞങ്ങൾ ഡിസംബർ 25 രാത്രി എയർപോർട്ടിൽ എത്തിച്ചേർന്നു. സെക്യൂരിറ്റി ചെക്കിങ് എല്ലാം കഴിഞ്ഞ് ഞങ്ങൾ വിമാനത്തിൽ കയറി. ക്രിസ്മസ് ആയിരുന്നു. അതുകൊണ്ട് വിമാനത്തിൽ അങ്ങനെ തിരക്കുണ്ടായില്ല. ഞങ്ങൾ ഡൽഹിയിലെത്തി. കാശ്മീരിലേക്കുള്ള വിമാനം രാവിലെ ആയിരുന്നു അതു കൊണ്ട് ഞങ്ങൾ ഡൽഹി എയർപോർട്ടിൽ കിടന്നുറങ്ങി. 26ന് രാവിലെ വിമാനത്തിൽ ബോർഡ് ചെയ്യുമ്പോൾ ആണ് ഞങ്ങളുടെ ഒരു ബാഗ് കൊച്ചിയിൽ തന്നെ ഇരിക്കുകയാണെന്ന് അറിയുന്നത്. അപ്പോൾ തന്നെ അപ്പ, ഡൽഹിയിൽ തന്നെ നിന്നിട്ട് അടുത്ത വിമാനത്തിൽ ഞങ്ങളുടെ ബാഗ് വരാനായി അപേക്ഷ നൽകി. അങ്ങനെ ഞങ്ങൾ ഒരു 9 മണി ആയപ്പോൾ ശ്രീനഗർ എയർപോർട്ടിൽ എത്തി. വിമാനം ലാൻഡ് ചെയ്യുന്ന സമയത്ത് ഞങ്ങൾ ഹിമാലയാസ് രണ്ടു വശത്തായിട്ടും കണ്ടു. എയർപോർട്ടിൽ എത്തിയതിനു ശേഷം ഞങ്ങൾ രണ്ടു ലയർ ഉടുപ്പിട്ട് പുറത്തിറങ്ങി. അപ്പോൾ അവിടെ 6 ഡിഗ്രിയായിരുന്നു തണുപ്പ്. ഞങ്ങൾ എയർപോർട്ടിന്റെ അടുത്തുള്ള ഒരു കടയിൽ കയറി അവിടെനിന്ന് ചൂട് പലഹാരങ്ങൾ വാങ്ങി. അപ്പ വരുന്നതും കാത്ത് ശ്രീനഗർ എയർപോർട്ടിന്റെ എൻട്രൻസ് ഷെഡിൽ ഇരുന്നു അവിടെ വെള്ളം ഐസ് ആയിരിക്കുന്നത് ഞങ്ങൾ കണ്ടു. ആ ഇരിപ്പ് ഉച്ചയ്ക്ക് ഒരു മണിവരെ നീണ്ടു. അങ്ങനെ അപ്പ വന്നു. അപ്പയുടെ കയ്യിൽ ഉണ്ടായിരുന്ന ബാഗിൽ ആയിരുന്നു ഗ്ലൗസുകൾ. അതുകൊണ്ട് തണുപ്പ് ഞങ്ങളെ വളരെയധികം ബാധിച്ചു. പിന്നീട് ഞങ്ങൾ ഗുൽമാർഗിൽ പോവാൻ ഒരു ടാക്സി വിളിച്ചു. പോകുന്ന വഴി ഞങ്ങൾ കഴിക്കുവാൻ ഇറങ്ങി. അങ്ങനെ റൂമിൽ ചെന്നപ്പോഴേക്കും വൈകുന്നേരം ആയി.താഴെയുള്ള റസ്റ്റോറന്റിൽ നിന്നും നൂഡിൽസ് വാങ്ങി കഴിച്ചു. കിടന്നുറങ്ങി. രാവിലെ എഴുന്നേറ്റ് റെഡിയായി പുറത്തിറങ്ങി. അവിടെ ഒരു ടാക്സി ഉണ്ടായിരുന്നു. ഞങ്ങളുടെ ടാക്സി ഡ്രൈവർ ഒരു നാഷണൽ ലെവൽ സ്ക്രീയിങ്ങ് ചാമ്പ്യൻ ആയിരുന്നു. അയാൾ പോലീസ് ആവാൻ വേണ്ടി പഠിക്കുന്നു എന്ന് സംസാരത്തിൽ നിന്നും മനസ്സിലായി. അങ്ങനെ ഞങ്ങൾ മനോഹരമായ ഡ്രൈൻ വെള്ളച്ചാട്ടം കാണാൻ പോയി. പക്ഷേ അവിടെ ചെന്നപ്പോൾ ബഹു രസം വെള്ളം വീഴുന്നില്ല. എല്ലാം മഞ്ഞും ഐസുമായി മാറിയിരിക്കുന്നു. തിരിച്ചുവരുമ്പോൾ ഞങ്ങൾ റോഡിൽ ഒരു കാഴ്ച കണ്ടു. റോഡിലെ പൈപ്പ് പൊട്ടി വെള്ളം തെറിക്കുന്നു. പക്ഷേ അത് വെള്ളമായിട്ടല്ല ഒരു ഐസ് ആയി വലിയ ഒരു വടിപോലെ നിൽക്കുകയാണ്. ഗുൽമാർഗിലേക്ക് പോകുന്ന വഴി എനിക്കും അമ്മയ്ക്കും അനുജത്തിക്കും വേണ്ടി റബർ ബൂട്ടുകൾ വാങ്ങിച്ചു. പിന്നീട് ഞങ്ങൾ പോയത് കാശ്മീർ രാജാവിന്റെ കൊട്ടാരം കാണാനായിരുന്നു. അവിടെ ചെന്നപ്പോൾ ബൂട്ട് ഊരേണ്ടി വന്നതുകൊണ്ട് ഞങ്ങളുടെ കാലുകൾ തണുത്തു മരവിച്ചു പോയി. പിന്നീട് ഞങ്ങൾ മഞ്ഞു വാരി കളിക്കണമെന്ന ആഗ്രഹത്തോടെയാണ് മഞ്ഞുള്ള ഒരു സ്ഥലത്തേക്ക് പോയത്. പക്ഷേ അവിടെ ചെന്നപ്പോൾ മഞ്ഞില്ല. പക്ഷേ പിന്നീട് പതുക്കെ മഞ്ഞു പെയ്യാൻ തുടങ്ങി. അത് നല്ലൊരു അനുഭവമായിരുന്നു. ഞങ്ങൾ അവിടെ നിന്ന് തിരിച്ചു പോരാൻ തുടങ്ങുമ്പോൾ മഞ്ഞു വേഗത്തിൽ പെയ്യാൻ തുടങ്ങിയിരുന്നു. ഗുൽമാർഗിൽ നിന്ന് താഴോട്ട് ഇറങ്ങുന്ന വഴി മൊത്തം മഞ്ഞുമൂടിയിരുന്നു. അവിടെ ആകെ ബ്ലോക്ക് ആയിരുന്നു. അതുകൊണ്ട് ഞങ്ങൾ വണ്ടി നിർത്തി പുറത്തിറങ്ങി. അത് കാണേണ്ട ഒരു കാഴ്ച തന്നെയായിരുന്നു. ബ്ലോക്ക് ഇപ്പോഴെങ്ങും തീരുന്നില്ല എന്നു കണ്ടു ഞങ്ങൾ റോഡരികിൽ മഞ്ഞുകൊണ്ട് ഉണ്ട ഉണ്ടാക്കി കളിച്ചു. പക്ഷേ അധികം തണുപ്പ് തോന്നിയില്ല. അങ്ങനെ ഞങ്ങളുടെ വണ്ടി പതുക്കെ പതുക്കെ മുന്നോട്ടു നീങ്ങാൻ തുടങ്ങി. മഞ്ഞ് പതുക്കെ അലിഞ്ഞു തുടങ്ങിയപ്പോൾ വണ്ടികൾ തെന്നാൻ തുടങ്ങി. ഞങ്ങളുടെ വണ്ടി സ്ലോ ആയപ്പോൾ പുറകിൽ നിന്ന് ഒരു വണ്ടി ഞങ്ങളുടെ നേർക്ക് ഇടിക്കാൻവന്നു. പക്ഷേ ഭാഗ്യത്തിന് അത് വഴിയിൽ നിന്നു പോയി. കുറച്ചു ദൂരം ചെന്നപ്പോൾ ഒരു വാഹനം റോഡരികിൽ വീണു കിടക്കുന്നത് കണ്ടു. അത് ഞങ്ങളുടെ മുന്നിൽ നേരത്തെ ഉണ്ടായിരുന്ന വണ്ടിയായിരുന്നു. അങ്ങനെ വണ്ടിയിലിരുന്ന് മടുത്തു തുടങ്ങിയപ്പോൾ ഞങ്ങളെല്ലാവരും പുറത്തിറങ്ങി നടക്കുവാൻ തുടങ്ങി. ഞങ്ങൾ മഞ്ഞിന്റെ വലിയ ഒരു ഉണ്ട ഉണ്ടാക്കി ഉരുട്ടിക്കളിച്ചു. അങ്ങനെ റൂമിലെത്തി ഭക്ഷണം കഴിച്ചു കിടന്നു. രാവിലെ നേരത്തെ എഴുന്നേറ്റ് ഞാൻ മാത്രം പുറത്തിറങ്ങി അപ്പുറത്തെ മഞ്ഞിൽ കളിക്കാൻ പോയി. കുറച്ചുനേരം കഴിഞ്ഞപ്പോൾ അപ്പ വന്ന് എന്നെ വിളിച്ച് റെഡിയാകാൻ പറഞ്ഞു. എയർപോർട്ടിൽ ചെന്ന് ചെക്കിൻ ചെയ്യാൻ തുടങ്ങിയപ്പോഴാണ് വിമാനങ്ങൾ ക്യാൻസൽ ആയ കാര്യം അറിയുന്നത്. മഞ്ഞായിരുന്നു കാരണം. കുറച്ചുനേരം അവിടെ നിന്നിട്ട് ഞങ്ങൾ ഭക്ഷണം കഴിച്ചു. അവിടെയുണ്ടായിരുന്ന ഒരു ചേട്ടനും ചേച്ചിയുമായി സംസാരിച്ചു. അപ്പോൾ അവർ പറഞ്ഞു ജമ്മുവിലേക്ക് വണ്ടിയോടിച്ചു പോയിട്ട് അവിടെനിന്ന് ഡൽഹിയിലേക്ക് പോകൂ എന്ന്. പക്ഷേ അത് ഞങ്ങൾക്ക് കഴിയില്ലായിരുന്നു. വിമാനം ക്യാൻസൽ ആയതു കാരണം അടുത്തുള്ള എല്ലാ ഹോട്ടലുകളും തിങ്ങി നിറഞ്ഞിരുന്നു. അതുകൊണ്ട് ഞങ്ങൾ അടുത്തുള്ള ഒരു ഹോം സ്റ്റേയിലാണ് തങ്ങിയത്. ഞങ്ങൾ അവിടെ വിശ്രമിച്ചു. ഞാനും സൂസനും അവരുടെ പാർക്കിംഗ് ഏരിയയിൽ കളിച്ചു. അവിടെ അടുത്ത് താമസിച്ചിരുന്ന രണ്ടുമൂന്നു കുട്ടികൾ കൂടി ഞങ്ങളോടൊപ്പം കളിക്കാൻ വന്നു. ഞങ്ങൾ ടീം ഉണ്ടാക്കി മഞ്ഞ് വാരി കളിച്ചു. പിന്നീട് തിരിച്ച് അകത്തു കയറി കുളിച്ച് ഭക്ഷണം കഴിച്ചു. ക്ഷീണം കാരണം വേഗം ഉറങ്ങി. പിറ്റേദിവസം എയർപോർട്ടിലേക്ക് പോയി. പക്ഷേ അമ്മയ്ക്കും ഞങ്ങൾക്കും വേറെ വേറെ വിമാനമാണ് കിട്ടിയത്. ഞാൻ വിമാനത്തിൽ തനിയെയാണ് എന്നറിഞ്ഞ പ്പോൾ അവർ അപ്പയെ വിളിച്ചു. അങ്ങനെ ഞാൻ ഡൽഹി എയർപോർട്ടിൽ എത്തി. അമ്മ ലഗേജ് കൗണ്ടറിൽ നിൽക്കും എന്ന് പറഞ്ഞിട്ടുള്ളതിനാൽ എനിക്ക് തനിയെ അമ്മയെ കണ്ടു പിടിക്കാൻ അറിയാമായിരുന്നു. പക്ഷേ അവർ എന്നെ തനിയെ വിട്ടില്ല. അങ്ങനെ അമ്മയും ഞാനും കൂടി കേരളത്തിലേക്കുള്ള വിമാനത്തിൽ കയറി. പിന്നീട് മെട്രോ വഴി ഞങ്ങൾ അപ്പയുടെ അടുത്തേക്ക്... വീടിന്റെ താക്കോൽ അപ്പയുടെ കൈയിൽ ആയിരുനു. പിന്നീട് ഞാനും അമ്മയും കൂടി അമ്മയുടെ കോളേജ് യൂണിയനു പോയി. പിന്നീടാണ് അപ്പയും കുഞ്ഞാവയും സൂസനും എത്തിയത്. അങ്ങനെ ഞങ്ങളുടെ കാശ്മീർ ട്രിപ്പ് അവിസ്മരണീയമായി.

LEAVING INDIA FOR OPPORTUNITIES ABROAD: A BOON OR A LOSS?

ELDHO JACOB
HEAD- DEPARTMENT OF WORK EXPERIENCE

As opportunities for higher education and employment in foreign countries continue to grow, a large number of young people are leaving India in pursuit of a better future. However, this trend comes with certain consequences that need to be addressed.

Many individuals who move abroad tend to settle there permanently. This results in a significant loss of skilled human resources and talent that could otherwise contribute to the growth of our nation. Additionally, our universities, research centers, and workforce, which are vital for India's development, are being used to advance the progress of other countries. The shift to life abroad can also weaken family bonds and diminish the importance of social values over time.

In Kerala, while a significant number of people migrate to other countries, there is also a considerable influx of workers from other states. This phenomenon could potentially alter Kerala's social and cultural fabric in the long run.

Providing opportunities to work alongside studies, similar to those in foreign countries, is expected to reduce migration from here. At the same time, if those who pursue higher studies abroad are provided with jobs and salaries they deserve upon returning to India, there is no doubt that our country will achieve greater progress.

As the world evolves, mobility in pursuit of knowledge and opportunity is inevitable. While migration brings personal and professional growth, the true measure of success lies not just in where one goes, but in how one contributes—whether at home or abroad. If India nurtures an environment where talent thrives, the cycle of brain drain can transform into brain gain, enriching both the individual and the nation.

Dear students, your aspirations have the power to shape the future. Whether you build your dreams here or beyond borders, let your journey be one of purpose, passion, and progress.

LOOKING - GLASS SELF

Ranjana G Menon
Department of English

"Just be yourself," we have heard this umpteen times. What in the world does that mean? How much are you sentient of the real you? The notion of self-realisation is a toughie. How do we decipher this into our everyday lives as a human being?

I have always felt that people think in terms of a bunch of factors. For the most part, it's their conscious efforts to think only in accordance with what is in vogue. Very few souls think to generate a purely personal perspective about a thought. The instinctive response, for most, will be to join the bandwagon. We have seen that, to go with the flow is less dodgy and definitely less taxing emotionally and socially. Hence people overlook the victory of inner conscience and seek collective acceptance.

Apart from the right and the wrong of considering any idea, there can be mix of rights and wrongs, more of rights and less of wrongs and even vice-versa. But we never make an effort to look at something with an altered perception. It is because many of us have been conditioned by our society to look at things with a predetermined notion (acquired or imposed). Although your early pursuit for individuality may be a cultural programming and trend, but if you keep on the search, the process will ensue more refinement.

Identifying and pruning the habitual mindsets and heart-sets that aren't satisfying our subsistence must be our first task, followed by the most important task: developing confidence in stating your stance with conviction. To add on we must foresee the impact of our being vocal and thus prepare our mind to accept the eventualities (positive or negative). If we make a perfect blend of these, we can emerge and keep evolving as fine-tuned individuals. People emulate such individuals as they are considered to be TREND SETTERS. Now it's for you to decide what you want to be!

FRACTURED HARMONY

Exhausted by life's turbulent tide,
I'm lost in chaos, drama's relentless stride.
The world's descent into discord leaves me worn,
Wondering, where's the compassion gone?
Have souls forgotten their gentle side?
Have hearts turned ruthless, love denied?
Memories of betrayal cut deep and cold,
Leaving scars, a story untold.
I question my place in this world of pain,
Perhaps I'm misplaced, an empath in vain.
Nature's symphony soothes my weary soul,
Rainfall in sunshine, a melancholy goal.
A break from the turmoil, I yearn to breathe,
To rediscover myself, before I lose my way.
Tired of the why, the how, the what,
I seek solace, a calm, peaceful spot.
For in the stillness, I find my truth,
A refuge from the world's chaotic youth.

THE PEPPY PARASITES

P.S Narayanan Namboodiripad
PRINCIPAL

“Oh, the peppy parasites, they play,
With prancing peds, they pilfer your day,
In every nook, in every niche,
From tiny nibs to cheeky nanche!

They wiggle, wiggle, whirl, and wilt,
Into your thoughts, and never quilt.
Like cheerful caverns in the sun,
They creep and crawl and have their fun.

They hitch a hike on every mind,
With smiles so sweet, they’re hard to find,
But oh! They thrive in tremored thought,
And leave your peace for naught but naught.

"Look here," they giggle, "I’m the best!
I’ll take your time, I’ll pass your test!"
A little doubt, a tiny fear,
A pinch of envy, quick as near!

From friends who flatter, friends who fib,
To corporate climbers on their jib—
They feast and fester, push and pull,
With mouths so full, their hearts are null.

The peppy parasites! So sly!
Like clever culpeos in disguise,
They spin their webs with silky thread,
In every ear, in every head.

They’ll tap your nerves, they’ll tap your pride,
And, oh! They’ll never let you slide.
But in the end, you’ll laugh, you’ll see,
How peppy parasites set you free!

How Peppy parasites are set apart!
How peppy parasites are kept aside!
How peppy parasites are kept silent!
How peppy parasites end themselves!

BLISS IN THE SKY: A SERENE ESCAPE AND MY DREAM IN GREEN - THE JOURNEY OF MY TERRACE GARDEN…

SMITHA J MENON
DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

For a long time, I dreamed of creating a stress free, soothing space filled with greenery and decorative elements—a place where I could unwind in peace. Initially, I considered my ground-floor garden, with its potted plants and bamboo trees along the border. However, with cars parked in the courtyard, it didn't offer the tranquility I longed for. My side yard seemed like another option, but thanks to my ever-energetic dog, who claimed it as his play area, it was far from ideal. That's when the idea struck me—why not transform my terrace into a perfect green retreat?

At first, I contemplated hiring an architect to design the space, worried about the practicality and budget. But then I realized I had underestimated my own creativity. With a little imagination, I sketched a rough plan. Since my terrace had a roof, I envisioned large white pots filled with indoor plants along the borders. One side of the terrace had a water tank on a stand, so I covered it with an iron square grill, where I could tuck in a few creepers to bring elegance to the space. The plan was simple: real indoor plants along the border and artificial creepers for the tank stand area, as maintaining live plants there would be difficult.

I visited a nursery at Puthencruz and purchased the perfect white pots and plants. However, finding high-quality, realistic artificial creepers turned out to be a challenge. After searching through Kolenchery and even Ernakulam city, I finally discovered a shop in Broadway. Tucked away in an overcrowded street, it was a hidden treasure trove of artificial flowers and creepers. The shop was so packed that moving around was difficult, but the effort was worth it. The creepers were primarily used for hall decorations at events, and their quality was beyond my expectations. Though slightly pricier than I had hoped, they looked incredibly real. I also picked up black hanging pots and white pebbles to add balance and weight to the lightweight artificial plants. It took me over three hours to arrange the creepers in a perfect combination of green, yellow, and white flowers, creating a harmonious blend with the natural plants.

With the greenery in place, my next focus was seating. I had always wanted a wooden swing that could comfortably seat three people, along with two chairs and a small tea table. After careful searching, I finally found the right swing at a reasonable price. To enhance comfort, I installed a ceiling fan to circulate fresh air, making the terrace even more inviting. For the final decorative touch, I wanted something unique—Rajasthani woolen lanterns. By sheer luck, I found the perfect ones in Broadway, vibrant and colorful, just as I had imagined. A string of lights was added to complete the ambiance.

Finally, my terrace garden was complete! The moment I had been longing for had arrived—I could finally sit on my swing, sip tea, and admire the beauty of my creation. The lush greenery, the delicate creepers, and the warm glow of the lanterns made it all feel surreal. It was a dream turned into reality.

Wanting to share this joy, I invited my friends over. I hadn't revealed that my terrace garden was finished; they only knew I was considering the idea. When I took them upstairs, their reaction was priceless. As they settled onto the swing, admired the lanterns, and took in the peaceful atmosphere, they assumed the space had been professionally designed. When I revealed that I had planned everything myself, they were stunned! Compliments poured in, with many saying it looked as if an architect had designed it.

The best part of my day now is spending quiet nights in my garden. After a long day of teaching, completing school work, and finishing household chores, I eagerly make my way to my terrace by 9:30 p.m. I water the plants, gently spray the leaves, and soak in the tranquility. There's something incredibly satisfying about watching the plants thrive, knowing that every detail was crafted with love and dedication.

This journey has taught me that when you invest your heart and soul into something, the outcome is always extraordinary. With a touch of imagination, unwavering effort, and genuine passion, even the most distant dreams can blossom into reality.

सब कहते हैं कि अपनी किस्मत खुद बनाओ, लेकिन जब हम बडे होते हैं, तो समझ आता है कि हमारी किस्मत पहले ही लिख दी होती है। हमें बस उसे और बेहतर बनाना होता है। हमारा घर, हमारे माता-पिता, हमारा परिवार—यह सब हमें किस्मत से ही मिलता है, यह हम नही चुनते। लेकिन हमारा भविष्य, हमारे सपने, हमारी उडान— इन्हें तय करने का हक़ केवल हमें है। बस ज़रूरत है हौसले की, तेज़ी की कमी न हो, उडान भरो, सही निर्णय लो और हर मुश्किल का सामना करके आगे बढो—यही तो असली जिंदगी है। अगर मेरी नज़र से देखो, तो समझ आएगा कि हर इंसान को खुशी और ग़म का एक बराबर हिस्सा मिला है। दूर से देखने पर सब कुछ अच्छा लगता है, और दूसरों की खुशियाँ देखकर कभी-कभी मन में अजीब सा एहसास भी होता है। लेकिन ज़रा सोचो, भगवान ने हर किसी को उसका हिस्सा दिया है—ना किसी को ज़्यादा, ना किसी को कम। हमें लगता है कि दुनिया में कुछ लोग ही खुश हैं, लेकिन अगर ग़ौर से देखो, तो हर किसी के जीवन में कोई न कोई संघर्ष जरूर होता है। जो हमें मिला है, उसे बदल नहीं सकते, लेकिन जो नही मिला, उसके लिए प्रार्थना और प्रयास ज़रूर कर सकते हैं। बस मेहनत में विश्वास रखो, डटे रहो, कभी हार मत मानो। जिंदगी में कभी हँसी आएगी, कभी आँसू , कभी च्छे दोस्त मिलेंगे, कभी दुश्मन भी—दोनों का सामना करो। किसी से ईर्ष्या मत करो, न जाने कब किससे सामना हो जाए। दुनिया बडी है, लेकिन जिंदगी छोटी। हर किसी से अच्छा रिश्ता रखो, न ज़्यादा नज़दीकी, न ज़्यादा दूरी। मुस्कुराहट में अजीब ताकत होती है—जब मिलो , मुस्कुराकर मिलो। जो भी बनो, सोच-समझकर बनो, और जो भी काम करो, हृदय से करो। जब काम सच्चे हृदय से किया जाए, तो उसका नतीजा अच्छा ही होता है। छोटी-छोटी बातें ही आगे चलकर हमारी किस्मत बनाती हैं। हर गलती से सीखो, ताकि वो सही में बदले। किसी का हृदय मत दुखाओ, क्योंकि बोले हुए शब्द वापस नहीं आते। जिंदगी एक सफर है, और हम सब मुसाफिर। हर किसी की अपनी कहानी है—किसी की छोटी, किसी की बडी। अगर किसी की मदद कर सको, तो ज़रूर करो, इससे जो सुकून मिलेगा, वो अनमोल होगा। कुछ ही दिनों पहले की बात थी , घर में दो बिल्लियाँ आई —छोटी सी, मासूम। जो भी बचा हुआ खाना होता, मैं उन्हें दे देती। धीरे-धीरे समझ में आया कि यह सिलसिला यहीं नहीं रुके गा। वे आती गईं, और मैं खाना देती गई। धीरे-धीरे अहसास हुआ कि भूख से बढकर कुछ नहीं । जब वे बिल्लियाँ भूखी होकर आती और मैं उन्हें खाना देती, तो वे इतने प्यार से, तृप्त होकर खातीं कि मन में एक अजीब-सा संतोष और गर्व महसूस होता। लगा कि हाँ ,आज मैंने कुछ अच्छा किया। सबका प्यार पाना आसान नहीं , इसलिए उसकी फिक्र मत करो। बस अच्छे कर्म करो, अच्छा सोचो। अगर किस्मत में प्यार लिखा है, तो ज़रूर मिलेगा, और नहीं तो खुद से प्यार करो। खुद पर विश्वास रखो, क्योंकि जितना प्यार तुम खुद से कर सकते हो, उतना कोई और नहीं कर सकता। जैसे-जैसे उम्र बढती है, समझ आता है कि इस दुनिया में सबसे पहले हमें खुद को समझना होगा। दूसरों से उम्मीदें मत रखो, आत्मनिर्भर बनो। ख़ुशी दूसरों पर निर्भर नही होनी चाहिए , बल्कि अपने अंदर होनी चाहिए।हम न अतीत बदल सकते हैं, न भविष्य देख सकते हैं, इसलिए आज में जियो । क्या आज तुम खुश हो? क्या आज अच्छा खाया, अच्छे दोस्तों से मिले? अगर हाँ , तो तुमसे ज़्यादा खुशनसीब कोई नहीं । छोटी-छोटी चीज़ों में खुशियाँ ढूँढो । कोई साथ दे या न दे, खुद का साथ कभी मत छोडो। खुद पर विश्वास मत खोओ। जब आए थे , तब अकेले थे, जब जाओगे, तब भी अकेले। इसलिए खुद को पहचानो, खुद को अपनाओ, क्योंकि अंत में वही तुम्हारा सच्चा सहारा है। अच्छाई के लिए बडी-बडी चीज़ें करने की ज़रूरत नही होती, छोटी-छोटी चीज़ें भी हमें अनमोल खुशियाँ दे सकती हैं। यही एहसास कराता है कि जिंदगी हमें कई विकल्प देती है, लेकिन हमें तय करना होता है कि हम क्या चुनें, किस दिशा में आगे बढें। जो भी निर्णय लो, उसे पूरी तरह अपनाओ, चलते रहो—क्योंकि कहीं न कहीं किसी मोड पर हमारा मुकाम हमारा इंतज़ार कर रहा होगा।

THE IMPORTANCE OF MENTAL HEALTH, COUNSELLING AND PSYCHOTHERAPY IN SCHOOLS

Psy. Jobin Jose
School Counsellor

Mental health has long been a topic of concern in various sectors of society, but its significance in schools is often overlooked. As institutions responsible for nurturing young minds, schools play a pivotal role in shaping not only academic knowledge but also psychological well-being. The importance of mental health, counselling and psychotherapy in schools cannot be overstated. These services are essential for supporting students in navigating the challenges of growing up, reducing the stigma surrounding mental health and fostering an environment conducive to holistic development.

Mental health and its impact on academic performance
The mental health of students directly impacts their ability to learn and perform academically. Anxiety, depression, stress and other psychological conditions can hinder concentration, memory retention and problem-solving skills. When students struggle with mental health issues their school performance often suffers, creating a cycle of academic failure that can worsen their emotional distress. Addressing mental health issues early through counselling and psychotherapy can help students manage these challenges, leading to improved academic outcomes and a more positive school experience overall.

The role of counselling in providing support
Counselling in schools is essential for offering immediate emotional support and guidance to students facing various pressures, from academic stress to social difficulties. School psychologists or counsellors provide a safe and confidential space for students to talk about their concerns, whether they are dealing with family issues, bullying, or personal insecurities. By having a professional to confide in, students are more likely to develop better-coping mechanisms, emotional resilience and interpersonal skills.
Furthermore, counsellors and psychologists play an integral role in identifying students at risk for mental health issues, allowing for early intervention. This proactive approach can help prevent more severe psychological issues from developing, ensuring that students receive the necessary support before issues become unmanageable.

Psychotherapy: A long-term solution for mental health challenges While counselling provides short-term support, psychotherapy offers a more structured and long-term approach to addressing mental health challenges. Psychotherapies such as cognitive behavioural therapy (CBT), dialectical behavioural therapy (DBT) and other therapies help students understand and manage their emotions, thoughts and behaviours. These therapeutic methods can significantly reduce symptoms of anxiety, depression and other mental health disorders, helping students build healthier cognitive patterns. By incorporating psychotherapy into schools, students have access to tools that not only improve their mental health but also prepare them for the challenges they will face in adulthood.

Reducing stigma around mental health
One of the primary reasons mental health services are often underutilized is the stigma associated with seeking help. Many students and their families may feel embarrassed or ashamed about addressing mental health issues, fearing judgment or social stigma. Schools can play a crucial role in normalizing mental health care by fostering an open and supportive environment.

Moreover, students who are emotionally and psychologically healthy are more likely to become emotionally intelligent adults, capable of forming strong relationships, making sound decisions and contributing positively to society. By prioritising mental health support in schools, we are not only fostering individual well-being but also shaping the future of our communities.

Conclusion
In conclusion, the importance of mental health, counselling and psychotherapy in schools cannot be underestimated. These services are integral to ensuring that students are mentally and emotionally prepared to succeed academically and personally. By providing early intervention, professional support and a stigma-free environment, schools can make a significant difference in the lives of students, helping them navigate the complexities of growing up with the tools they need for success.

Mental health is not just a personal issue, but a societal one and addressing it in schools is a crucial step forward in building a healthier, more resilient future for all.
