Support SU Ireland

Thank you for your support of Scripture Union over the last year. Your prayers, encouragement and financial giving have been vital to our ministry.

These are challenging times for us all, if you are in a position to do so please consider contributing to our ministry by becoming a regular supporter or by supporting us with a one-off gift.

Thank you for being with us on this journey and we hope you are as excited as we are about the future and plans God has for us.

You can give online by visiting scriptureunion.ie/give or email info@scriptureunion.ie for more information,

Welcome

I am so encouraged as I reflect on the last year and recognise the ways God has used Scripture Union Ireland through this challenging season. We can see how God was preparing us for this time and we have held fast to the verse we wrote on our office whiteboard at the beginning of 2020 from Jeremiah 29:11 “For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.” We are so grateful to all of you who have prayed for us, sent words of encouragement and supported us financially, this support has carried us through the last year.

Our ministry is made up of a diverse range of activities, in a normal year SU runs 15+ residential camps and over 60 school retreats (primarily residential) at our retreat centre, Ovoca Manor. Our field ministries team and volunteers connect directly with young people on these camps and deliver in-school retreats in a further 40+ schools. Each year SU also runs CSSM in Greystones & Dun Laoghaire and this year we celebrate the 125th anniversary of CSSM in Greystones, the beginnings of SU’s ministry in Ireland. We also host a further 100+ church, youth and other groups through the course of a year at Ovoca Manor. Due to restrictions and lockdowns this SU Ministry has not been possible, with a handful of exceptions such as RAW camp in August and a couple of excellent school retreats towards the end of 2020.

Be Encouraged

I am so proud of our team who from the start of the pandemic showed an attitude to persevere and keep pushing to find a way to continue to minister to young people and families through the many challenges. We quickly pivoted at the beginning of the pandemic to delivering online content through our SU+ platform in the form of online Easter camps and the 'SURvival Kit' to assist secondary school students with some practical guidance to care for their mental health through the initial lockdown. During the summer and with our utmost gratitude to some of our wonderful volunteers we produced an online CSSM programme and an online family week program.

Our expectation was to be exiting the worst of the pandemic and its impact at the end of the summer 2020 however this was not to be. We felt and recognised the fatigue we and others were feeling towards anything virtual so turned our focus to developing high quality resources for schools and churches that would have longevity and life beyond

Covid-19. In partnership with Scripture Union Scotland we have developed NUA:Christmas and NUA:Easter and we currently have other projects and training material under development as we build a suite of resources to support you, your local church, parish, youth worker or organisation in local ministry.

In the following pages, you will read updates from our team and volunteers and we hope that you are encouraged by what the Lord is doing through Scripture Union Ireland. Please continue to support us in prayer and share our work with your network. Thank you again for being a part of this journey with us.

Yours in Christ,

Gareth Lynch

Jonny Somerville

Resources & Communications Ministry Leader

What a difference a year makes! In our last edition of Inspire we were gearing up to launch in person our new series NUA:Origins and while we're disappointed that didn't happen we are so thankful to God that since then we have produced two further film series NUA:Christmas and NUA:Easter, that has been a great blessing to schools and churches in these unique digital times!

As we look to the future we will be producing some training material to help people use our resources effectively and we also hope to produce NUA:Move, a video series helping 6th class students make the move to secondary school. As summer looms with some uncertainty the resources team will continue to work closely with the field ministry team and assist with potential online camp initiatives. Here you will read an update on all our digital resources.

NEW RESOURCE NUA:EASTER

In early 2021 we produced NUA:Easter. Once again we partnered with SU Scotland and wrote and filmed a 3 part series that provides a fresh perspective on Easter and why it matters for us today. Our field ministry team of Darren, Mark and Sarah have been such engaging hosts for these mini-series and the creativity has hit new levels with the expertise of Greg Fromholz and Sharon Lynch. It has been a privilege to lead these very talented people to create God honouring resources to reach tens of thousands of young people.

It has been a huge motivating factor to serve teachers and youth workers during the last year and we're so excited that over 550 groups are using NUA:Easter, that's nearly 30,000 young people exploring the truth about Jesus' resurrection this Easter.

One of the Mini series we have produced during COVID-19 is NUA:Christmas (when restrictions allowed) which turned out to be an impressive full staff team achievement. Over 550 groups engaged with this digital series from school groups to church groups or simply at home. This had the potential reach of 50,000 young people. SU Scotland who partnered with us on this project also had a similar reach. There were also 10,000 unique users on the RightNow Media platform (USA) and the content was used extensively through the Voke APP (Jesus Film), we are very thankful for these partnerships beyond our shores.

Neil Douglas (Youth Pastor) says:

"It was fantastic guys. Well done producing such biblically faithful and creative resources. It's an inspiring response to the pandemic and really helpful to us in the church youth group."

Rachael Keaveney

(Youth & Childrens Worker) says:

"Our young people loved the series, I really appreciated being able to sit down and watch the video with them, especially with COVID it feels like we are constantly on the go making sure we are following guidelines that being able to sit and watch the video with them was lovely and the group discussions brought up some interesting points. We do the Christmas story every year but this was fresh and different which they appreciated."

James Baker (Youth Worker) says:

"Huge effort to get that off the ground in such a short time but has come out amazing. Well done. We showed NUA:Christmas on Christmas day at our church and it was well-received. Great job."

NUA FILM SERIES

NUA:ORIGINS

NUA:EASTER

SU IRELAND

naufilmseries.ie scriptureunion.ie/resources

As we continue to wait to officially launch NUA:Origins we are still equipping pilot groups and right now there are over 150 groups that have begun using NUA:Origins which is very exciting. That's a reach of 5500 young people. Jim Donnan (Church Relations) has done incredible work locally to assist parishes at the confirmation level. He has been equipping Anne Dooley, a Parish Catechist, Marino Parish to use NUA:Origins over zoom. There have been up to 100 young people with their parents tuning in each Monday.

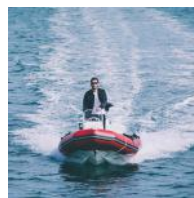

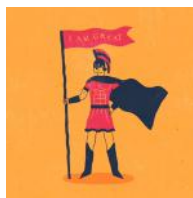

Anne Dooley (Parish Catechist) says:

"A hearty congratulations on Nua Origins... I got a huge number of replies last night from people saying how much their children had enjoyed the session. It's so attractive and so well put together, just fantastic to have such a wonderful resource to use, all the more so in Covid times when so many things are disappointing!"

One of the exciting components of NUA:Origins is the accompanying Journal. Our team has done an incredible job of creating and designing an engaging book and keepsake for the participants. We will be printing them later this year.

Our original 8 part series became invaluable during the pandemic with schools and education organisations making use of NUA as they evolved to online learning both here in Ireland and around the world. NUA was ideally set up for this as we had pivoted to offering it as a free digital pack through online registrations. Since the first lockdown, we have had over 150 registrations reaching a further 7000-10,000 young people and young adults. There are still exciting developments with this series through our partnership with Jesus Film. They are investing to translate and dub NUA into 12 further languages with the vision of reaching the unreached. We look forward to working with our SU colleagues around the globe to see how this tool can aid their work on the ground.

SHINE ONLINE

We are still doing what we can to support young Christians in the school context. Shine is an initiative of all SU's across the UK and Ireland alongside Logos Ministries and Crown Jesus. It exists to equip faith-based groups in Second level schools and to encourage young people to share their faith with their friends. That's why we got together to run a youth conference called 'Shine Online 2021.' This event gathered 150 young people from right across the UK and Ireland to hear 3 fantastic talks about the 'Why?' the 'How?' and the 'What?' of sharing your faith with your friends. This summer the Shine group are producing a film series on the theme of 'Influencers' to equip outreach for faith-based groups in schools during the autumn.

VOKE APP

Our partnership with Jesus Film also continues the development of the VOKE APP. All of our NUA material is presented on this app geared for individual growth and peer to peer evangelism.

This Easter the app is also being used for a family campaign.

The Family Easter Adventure is a 5-part series using our original NUA Easter content to unpack the events of Easter and why faith matters for your family in today's world. It's the perfect series to spread out the story of Easter beyond a single weekend. Download the app today to make use of it with your family, ideal for starting faith conversations with your teenagers.

Field Ministries

Darren Bourke

Field Ministries (Camps & Schools) Team Leader

If you told me in March 2020 that we would only run one physical camp for a whole year I would have called you crazy! A lot has changed and we have been okay with that and leaned into the opportunities it has provided. All Scripture Union's direct work with people including through camps, schools work, residential work and training comes under the Field Ministries banner with the mission of sharing the hope of Jesus with the young people of Ireland. Our delightful team is made up of Sarah, Mark and Darren. Then we have our wonderful administrator Andrew.

So what have we been doing over the past year!? Restrictions meant camps were not able to go ahead so we moved ourselves online! We produced two online Easter camps for those who were missing out due to restrictions and this was an exciting way to still provide a taste of the camp experience. In spring 2020 we developed an online retreat package "SURvival Kit" to assist students with their mental health through that time. During the Summer we produced an online Super CSSM programme as we were not able to run camps, this was a mix of online content, activities and zoom gatherings. It was a great way to creatively share who Jesus is to young people. A huge thank you has to be made to all the volunteers who made the massive undertaking happen. Family week also went online this year, for all those who had registered and a huge thanks to Alison O'Neill for all the work she did to produce this.

We were super fortunate to be able to work in a lot of schools during the last year. As our retreats are 'religious education' we are considered an essential service, so we have had the excitement of working in schools. Here is some wonderful feedback from 2nd year students on just one retreat.

"I learned how important God is and what he does for us."

"I enjoyed the time I spent here today because it made me feel safe and loved"

"That God is always here even when you feel alone"

"this is a day I will remember for the rest of my life"

"it was fun and good craic"

It is so encouraging to hear young people open to exploring faith and seeing how important life with Jesus is.

We learnt a lot from creating all the content we did this year, what kind of online content is wanted and needed, this was a huge learning curve for us. We took all this learning and applied this to the creation of NUA:Christmas and NUA:Easter for schools, churches and youth clubs alike with the intention of the content having life beyond covid. It has been an honour to produce resources that reach young people from across the country and from different backgrounds.

We are also using this time to evaluate our Field Ministries, exploring how we best serve the young people of Ireland, and how we may need to adapt to the new normal. We are looking at the sustainability of our schools' work and how we may connect the church with local schools. We aim to better disciple and train volunteers who have given and continue to give so much to SU.

I am reminded of John 15 where Jesus asks us to "Abide in me". This is a great reminder to stay rooted to Jesus in this time. That while there is change and unknowns that we have our faith in Him as the steadfast hope we trust in.

First leader of Greystones CSSM was Bernard Herkalots who was a Cambridge graduate. That year there were only 5 workers on the team! Later that year Bernard sailed to India to become a children's worker for CSSM.

Leader: Rev GR Harding Wood who was from Cork. Thirty years later he was to write the first Daily Bread SU Bible reading notes. He described Greystones as 'Simple, small and select'. So simple that one day he asked someone at the station 'When does this train go to Dublin?' He answered, 'Oh sir we send them out according as the crowd gathers!' 'So select was it that there were no trippers and the only attraction was ourselves!'

No CSSM that year due to the Easter Rising. Leader: Mr Edwin Arrowsmith 1911-19 & 21.

Edwin had been a member of Josiah Spiers team in Llandudno in 1873, where the CSSM had begun five years earlier. It is recorded that in 1915 after every morning service the children sang the National anthem! He was also used by God to bring Amy Carmichael to faith when he spoke at Harrogate CSSM. She later wrote. 'I don't remember what the speaker Mr Edwin Arrowsmith spoke about but after his address he told us to sing, 'Jesus loves me, this I know,' and then to be quiet. During those quiet minutes, in His great mercy the Good Shepherd drew me into His fold.'

1923-24 The Leader was Frank Millard who became first SU worker in South Africa in 1924.

During The Emergency (WW2) 1940-46 The 3 Strong Brothers, Trevor, Charlie and Stuart led CSSM - they were the first Greystones locals to lead it. Trevor and his wife Patricia worked as doctors in London during the blitz in the 1950's and became some of the first medical missionaries to gain access to Nepal. Seemingly, the Atomic bombs that were dropped in Japan during the time of the mission had a huge effect on Stuart and the team.

50th Year

The Leader was David (Dai) Lewis (led from approx. 1954-74) who was an SU Evangelist and Author. Many of the stories (including 'Gus Brown') that he published were first heard on the beach in Greystones! Copies of these books can still be sourced.

*There have been 32 official leaders of Greystones CSSM.

Robert McMullan
CSSM Leader
1985-2009

Roberts fondest memory of CSSM:

Approx. 1983 when Andrew Batty was leading Greystones CSSM, they got the local Gardai involved in the Birthday Service. The team on the beach were dressed as criminals and were singing the song 'Marching beneath the banner' - doing all the actions. Meanwhile, Robert was sitting in a Garda car just down the road from the beach. When they got the nod, the Garda put the siren and lights on and drove down onto the beach. The Garda then chased the 'criminals' down the beach while everyone watched.

"Sing along with CSSM Theme Songs: scriptureunion.ie/su-camps-songs/"

Alison Gill CSSM Leader 2010-2021

When I took over the leadership of Greystones CSSM, I didn't realise one of the gifts I would need would be an ability to predict the weather! There have been many mornings that my trusty advisors and I have stood looking up to the sky trying to decide if we should head to the beach or have our morning beach meeting inside. One of these weather calls particularly stands out for me. It was a Friday of the second week which meant it was the annual Birthday Service. The Birthday Service often sees more people come along than usual and of course there is a cake to think about so it's not as easy to make a last minute change from one venue to another if you get the call wrong.

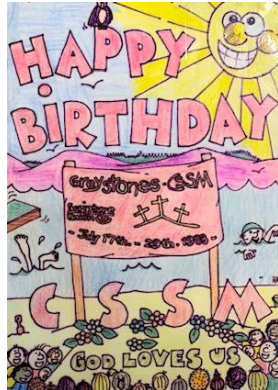

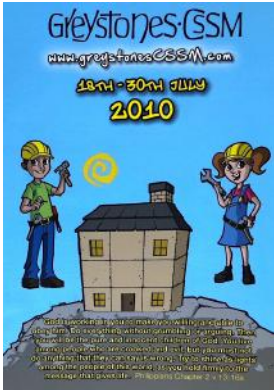

The weather forecast was for rain but the blue skies and sunshine told another story; what to do? Believe the forecast or what my eyes were telling me! My trusty advisors were not much help as they each had a different opinion as to what we should do. We prayed that we would make the right decision. It was getting to the time when we had to make the call on what to do. I went outside and looked up into the bright blue sky and not a few minutes later it began to rain, just a quick short sun shower but it made the decision that we would have our Birthday service inside. At 11:15am just as we started our birthday celebration with cake and cards and all the people there to thank God for being with us during CSSM it started to lash rain!!

The SU Ireland Team would like to give a special thanks to Alison Gill

Alison has overseen the running of Greystones CSSM for the last 11 years. This has been no small feat and we are incredibly grateful for the years of hard work that she has put in to ensure that this camp has been such a success. From opening Beach Services with her famous "Good morning boys and girls", to making sure that the team are awake to join in with the actions of songs.

Alison has continually served with joy – even if she didn't get her morning coffee! But perhaps more importantly, Alison has worked tirelessly behind the scenes to ensure the smooth running of the camp and ultimately ensure that teenagers and children from across Ireland hear about Jesus.

No doubt many of you share our gratefulness for Alison's hard work!

For almost a year now I've been saying, "We're not having a great time are we? But it doesn't have to be a waste of time or lost time." It's been a hard season in ministry during the pandemic but because of what God has done in me and through me in the lives of others, I wouldn't change it. I'm amazed I can say that because I was forced to cease so many ministries I love & that pointed young people to Jesus; youth groups down at Crinken, youth bible studies in my home, camps and meeting up 1 to 1 to disciple young people without a mask or having to check if the guidelines allowed me to do so.

Humbled and brought low to my knees in prayer for young people I could not seem to reach, I've seen God doing new things as he redeems and purifies old things.

I think I've tried everything at this point! But, some of the most fruitful ways I've seen young people connect with God have included:

Sunday afternoon phone calls, where I have prayed before hand and had a few questions ready before I dialled. I've had some amazing pastoral conversations with young people.

When restrictions allowed I've texted guys a bible verse and asked if they'd like to meet up outside safely to catch up and talk about what God is saying to us in this verse. I've told them I'm here for them, praying for them, but more importantly Jesus is doing the same but he's actually with them by his Spirit and speaking by his Word.

It's been amazing to hear of young people grow as christians when all the events are stripped away from them and when Jesus is all they have, they find Jesus is greater, and God willing they decide to pray to him to follow him, not just listen to me or come to the youth group.

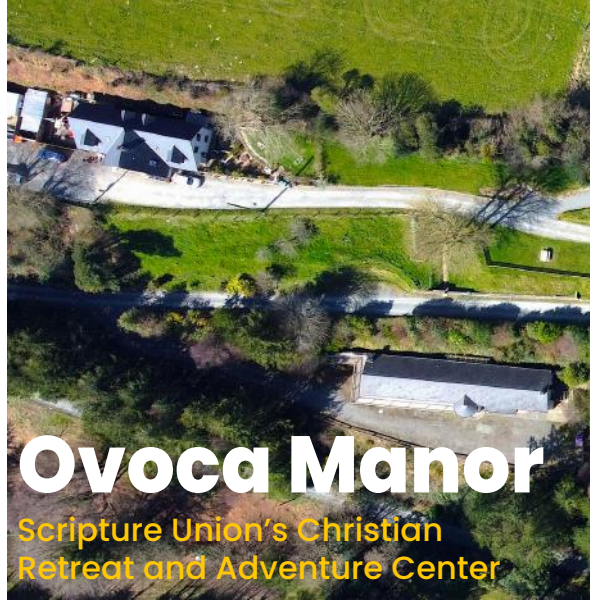

But to encourage them to listen to Jesus is the hard part. We all miss the community and helpful discipline in person ministry is for helping us take time with God. Online ministry is tough! People get sick of it and then summon the patience again. Including me! So I've taken breaks. Then with a prayed for, flexible & fun plan ready, I've posted teens flyers to online youth groups, with some chocolate, a 'Crinken Youth' sticker and a Mark's Gospel that we read a small passages of together each week.

I thank our Father in Heaven for tearing down so many things and I pray this season produces disciples of Jesus who love God and long to be with him in glory, as they are carried by his grace, day by day, in every season.

Ovoca Manor

Scripture Union's Christian
Retreat and Adventure Center

The last year for Ovoca Manor has been challenging yet it has also been a time of stillness. Ovoca Manor continues to be a place of peace and tranquility.

“Be still, and know that I am God”. Psalm 46 v 10

The daily busyness of our guests, young and old is replaced with the busyness of nature that surrounds us, the morning footsteps of the early rising campers running down the path is replaced by an extended version of the dawn chorus. The stillness and peacefulness around the grounds has become more prominent and we find ourselves being reminded of the beauty of this place and how it emanates peace and tranquillity and how important that is to our guests and supporters. We look to the future with hope and excitement, but for now we focus our minds on the stillness.

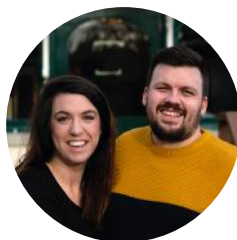

We look forward to the day when our guests can return and once again share in this special place.

In 2020 we were able to host some small groups, when restrictions allowed. This was a good learning time for us as a team and gave us insight into how procedures and standards may need to change for the future. Ovoca Manor also became the new headquarters of Scripture Union Ireland as we sought to conserve finances through this season. We upgraded the food serving area in the dining hall of the Manor itself, which falls in line with food safety & Covid-19 requirements. Our plans to upgrade parts of Densmore lodge have been temporarily on hold until construction restrictions lift, but we have some fresh updates in the pipeline for this. The upkeep of the grounds is ongoing as always and we are never short of something to do. When the opportunity allows we plan to start work on our chapel project we mentioned last year. We have been so encouraged and thankful to have received donations specifically for this project. If you would like to contribute to our development fund, please visit scriptureunion.ie/give

Thank you to all of you who have supported the ministry at Ovoca Manor, whether it has been through prayer or contributions, we can't do it without you. We look forward to opening our doors once again and welcoming you back. God bless.

I have worked in the business world all my life, and currently work with Gymplus, which runs 8 Health & Fitness Clubs. I really enjoy my role as it gives me the opportunity to meet lots of people from different walks of life. My first encounter with Scripture Union was on an Isle of Man cycling holiday camp in the mid 70's. It was a very enjoyable time and I was particularly struck by the witness of two leaders Kingsley Prescott and David McCabe, really nice guys full of fun living in the real world and yet both, took their faith seriously. Although a regular church-goer, the next time I went to a SU camp was in 1988 to visit SU schools worker Olly Strong, now my lovely wife! During that time I was challenged to put God first in my life "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths" (Proverbs 3:5-6).

The experience radically changed me, and set me on a journey to having a personal relationship with Jesus. This relationship has continued in good and harder times and has been a great blessing to me.

I support Scripture Union because it has the wonderful privilege of being in a position to help people like me find faith and encourage them to grow and to be a blessing to others in our world.

Meet the SU Ireland Council Members

Find out what makes them passionate about SU...

I am Nigel Locke and I have been a Christian now for nearly 50 years! I am married to the lovely Helen and we have 3 wonderful adult children, Paula, Gemma and Stephen. I am originally from Portadown but have lived nearly all my adult life in the Republic, most of those and currently in Bray.

Over 35 years of my working life has been with Sunbeam House Services in Bray as a Financial Manager from which I took early retirement just 2 years ago. Since then, I have been working in various mainly Christian charities. My hobbies, before Covid 19, are playing golf, walking, cycling, going out with Helen and watching sport, especially Manchester United winning!

In the north, I was involved with SU in school and went on several SU summer camps. So, from an early age, I could see the effectiveness and the appeal of this Christian organisation in my life and the lives of many of my peers. I got involved with SU in the Republic in Jan 83 when Robbie Burns asked me onto the Council as Honorary Treasurer. I have seen God at work in SU over these years as He has touched so many young people's lives through, camps, SU school's work, attending Ovoca Manor and all the other many and varied activities and communication modes. I am excited that God can still work through SU as SU have adapted how we communicate to young people through young people.

I am Alison Gill and I am a Secondary School Economics. I love to travel and I have also worked with SU in Canada and Russia! I first became involved with SU Ireland through my parents who were part of the very first camp in Ovoca manor. I then became involved in my own right as a camper and then as a leader both in Ovoca manor and at Greystones CSSM. I love being part of SU as it has a broad outreach to so many people and because of its focus on introducing young people and families to the love of Jesus through his word and seeing them grow and develop in their faith.

I am Cáit Ni Choimin, primary teacher and mum of two. An interesting fact about me – my nickname is Sofa (see if you can work that one out!). I started going to SU camps when I was in primary school. It was an important part of my life. I made many lifelong friendships and my camp experiences helped form the foundation of my faith and spirituality. This all led me to pursue further study in pastoral ministry and spirituality. I am excited about the growth of SU and its broader outreach.

It has been great to see the development of SU's resources and their reach across Ireland and the globe. I am encouraged seeing SU work with new parishes and schools in all denominations around Ireland. It is great seeing SU Ireland's staff and resources help young people engage with scripture and their faith. It is exciting to see young people grow a personal relationship with the Lord in a meaningful and vibrant way through the work of SU.

I am Bruce Mullen and I am married to Fern, have three adult children, Sarah Rachel and Andrew, two sons in law and grandsons. I work as a trustee to Pension Schemes. My first involvement with SU was through Greystones CSSM which my mother brought me to every summer and it was an important part of faith formation for me. I have been involved with the SU Bookshops, Venture weekends for national school children and part of the leadership team for Family Weeks.

My name is Grace Deegan, I'm a child and adolescent psychotherapist working between the community and private practice. Scripture Union played a pivotal role in providing exciting opportunities for adventure and friendship for me as a teenager attending camps, it guided me into leading camps and becoming part of the team as the primary schools coordinator for many years. It was through Scripture

Union that my passion for working with children and teens grew and led me into therapeutic work. I am enthused by the commitment and collaborative efforts they engage in as an organisation committed to nurturing spiritual development in children and young people. Interestingly, Ovoca Manor is also where I honed my skills of making homemade pizza dough for 100 people!

I am Greg Fromholz, a Documentary, Music Video and Resource Director, including 3 NUA Films Series; Author of Liberate Eden and Broken; Young Adults Ministry Director for the Church of Ireland, United Dioceses of Dublin and Glendalough; Director and Co-Founder of the Rubicon gathering; and I love LEGO.

I am married to Alexandra, with three lovely kids, Chloe, Joshua and Eden and one wonderfully silly dog called Phoebe.

I believe that Scripture Union is strategically placed to take risks, an organisation that never shies away on how it communicates faith formation; trains leaders; and develops and models faith communities, whether it be in schools or in camps. It is a continual honour, for me, to walk alongside Scripture Union.

SU IRELAND CAMPS

Since the beginning of the COVID-19 pandemic SUI have been guided by the relevant health and government agencies to inform our decisions, due to current restrictions and uncertainty about the coming months we have not made a decision on camp dates for 2021.
