COMMISSION UPDATES

There aren't really any updates this month to speak of! I would like to note that VTuber Model ART will probably soon be moved to VGen, which I think has a nice tracking and notification system. I am still weighing the pros and cons of moving the service there. I still plan to prioritize models I've already done for updates, but if a child is getting brand new model art maybe it's fine to have them go through VGen??

This decision will probably be made by the end of May! Worst comes to it, I will have my returning clients notify me if they are on my VGen waitlist and I will manually accept their commission sooner!

In general VGen has a really organized system for commissions made to cater to artists; as some may have noticed I've been way more active on it (especially on Mondays). I want to highly expand my offerings there so that I always have something on VGen to work on. So, if anyone has any suggestions for a service to offer OR a shop item let me know!

Currently my schedule is this:

Monday - VGen Day (VGen comms or new services if I have none)

Tuesday-Thursday - Discord Clients

Friday - Personal Projects (though this is often replaced with discord clients again haha)

I am always trying to find an "ideal schedule" so if anyone feels I could do something to improve please let me know in the discord!

TWITCH UPDATES

I made new buttons for model testing and if you haven't noticed, there's a cam button now! Now, I can easily share my Spongebob merch with you all at a moment's notice :3. Other than that there aren't any major twitch updates, though I do have plans for the future :3

Some of my current stream goals:

- figure out how to get twitch audio output to go into horror games like R.E.P.O including tangia, sub notifis, etc
- have a button to easily switch to beatsaber
- have chat in my vr beatsaber headset
- add text-to-speech for sub messages/ donos

Hopefully I will get time to figure out these things soon

APRIL COMMISSION SNAPSHOTS

SLUM'S FAV CLOSE-UPS FROM THE CURRENT COMMS!

Cuttlet's animation is so COLORFUL, it looks like a super dance rave! There's even spotlights and beat sensitive lights in the video haha.

IT'S IN THE DETAILS...

This one just got started but I just have to show it because I love how the sketch is developing! The sketch phase might just be my favorite part of the commission process!

No thoughts, only squiggle lines. My children will have another sibling to welcome soon!

A SLUMBABY ORIGINAL RECIPE! (KINDA)

MONTHLY RECIPE: TUNA FRIED RICE

INGREDIENTS:

Rice
Tuna
Spicy Mayo
Soy Sauce
Hot Sauce
Sesame Seeds
Nori
Sesame Oil
Avocado Oil
Rice Vinegar

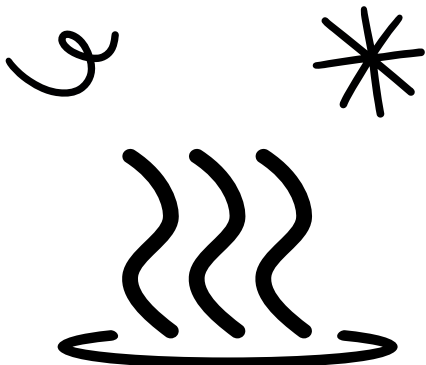

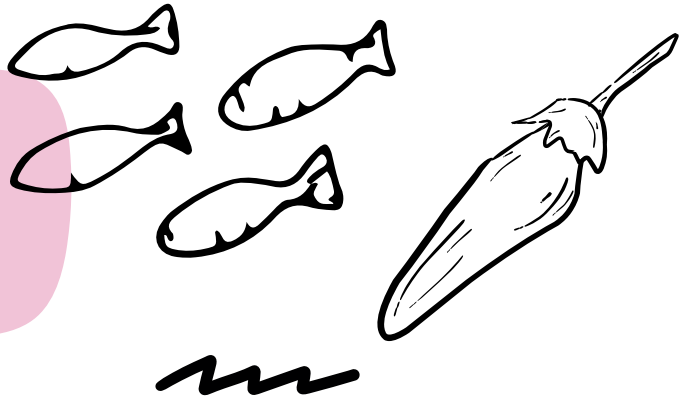

1

Cook yourself some rice and add a dash of rice vinegar and sesame oil as it cools. Spread the cooked rice into a sheet pan and put into the freezer to firm while cooking other elements.

2

Cube some tuna, then throw it into a preheated pan with avocado oil and a dash of sesame oil to quickly fry. Once cooked, mix the tuna with sesame seeds, hot sauce, spicy mayo, and soy sauce to taste.

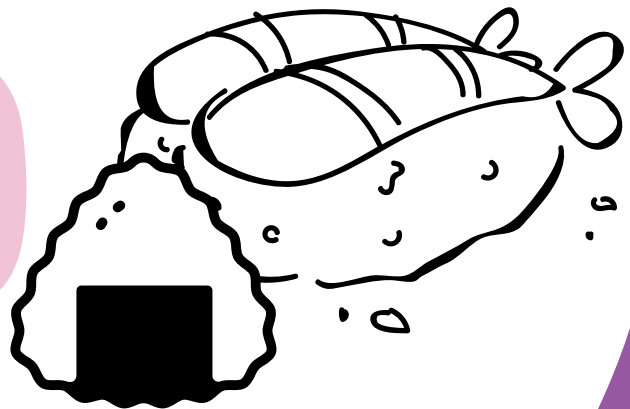

3

Preheat some frying oil. Once the oil is heated take out the cold rice and cut it into "bar" shapes small enough to fit in your hand. The rice should hold its shape well enough.

4

Fry the rice in the oil until golden brown. Top with nori and your cooked tuna and eat! Very cronch, mmmmm

FINAL THOUGHTS

Art by Mars

Another issue done! I'm thinking a big book at the end of the year, full of all the issues would be great! I might even offer it to ya'll too if you help pay the shipping/ production LOL.

The new recipe section was especially fun! I cook from scratch mostly so I have a lot more recipes to share! Maybe I'll even share my bad ones, I made pizza with carrot crust once and destroyed my insides!!!!

Or not...
