Hallam Enter New Era Amid Sweeping Change

After the news of changes at the top at the world's oldest football club, Hallam FC, the world's second oldest club, are also entering a defining new chapter as major developments on and off the pitch reshape the future of the Countrymen.

Chairman Richard Pillinger confirmed in a statement to supporters that he will step down at the end of the season as part of committee changes at the club's AGM. He announced that businessman Gino Maccio will become Hallam's new principal investor, bringing what Pillinger described as "a wealth of knowledge of non league football" and a fresh presence in the area. Maccio is already well known in South Yorkshire non league circles, having previously been involved at Parkgate FC. Working alongside him is Ashley Carson, a familiar figure in English football administration. Carson previously served under chairman Dave Allen at both Sheffield Wednesday and Chesterfield, where he was a long standing boardroom figure and public facing representative during turbulent periods for both clubs. Pillinger described both men as bringing "new expertise" into Hallam's leadership structure.

As part of the same transition, Pillinger confirmed: "After several years as Chairman, I will be stepping down from the position that it has been an honour to hold and Vice Chairman Kevin Scott will also step down." He emphasised that the current committee "fully supports the new investment and the fresh ideas it brings," noting that members intend to remain to support the incoming regime of Maccio and Carson.

Pillinger also outlined a programme of improvements at Sandygate. Sky TV has already returned to the clubhouse, and a temporary closure will allow for a major refurbishment. Further upgrades around the ground form part of a broader plan to enhance facilities for supporters, players and the wider community.

The announcement comes of the back the news we reported on just as we were going to publication last week that long serving club figure and South Yorkshire Sport contributor Ian Jones, announced via social media that he will step down from all roles at the end of the season after eight years. Jones said: "After eight unbelievable, unexpected and sometimes crazy years, I'll be stepping down from my roles at Hallam FC at the end of the season... I leave immensely proud and with thousands of memories which will stay with me until I'm old and grey."

On the pitch, Hallam confirmed the departure of influential captain Danny South following a seven day approach from Belper Town. The club waived the approach, allowing him to take up a new challenge. South said to supporters: "I'm sorry for leaving at this time but it's the best for me... Keep behind the lads, they need you more than ever." He later added that he was "absolutely gutted" to leave and expressed his love for the club, staff and fans.

Amid all the change, manager Craig Denton marked a major landmark by reaching 250 games in charge of Hallam. Reflecting on the achievement, Denton shared a message with supporters:

"Reaching 250 games as manager of this incredible football club is something I'm hugely proud of. It hasn't always been easy — there have been challenges along the way — but every moment has been worth it. To the players, staff, and supporters... thank you for being part of this amazing journey."

Silverdale U14 Girls Crowned National Champions

Silverdale School's U14 girls produced a stunning display on the national stage to be crowned National Netball Champions, topping the table after an exceptional finals campaign in Sheffield. The finals were staged on 21 March 2026 at EIS Sheffield, the official host venue for this year's U14 National Schools Finals.

Their triumph came after a superb run through the competition, where they finished unbeaten in eight of their nine matches, showing remarkable consistency, mental strength and high level performance throughout. The achievement builds on their earlier form, having already been crowned U14 Regional Champions, winning the Yorkshire regional round earlier in February.

Silverdale's route to glory included a hard fought national semi final win, defeating Presdales School 11–8, before edging a thrilling final 11–10 against Parkstone Grammar School.

Coaches Miss Harris and Mrs Clayton have been widely praised for their dedication and leadership across the season, guiding the squad through regional qualifiers and into national prominence. Players and staff alike have credited their preparation, organisation and support as vital to the team's composure and resilience under pressure.

The school community has been quick to celebrate the achievement, proud of a team that showcased outstanding teamwork and skill on the biggest stage of schools netball. Silverdale say the side represented the school "brilliantly" and fully deserved their national crown after such a relentless and disciplined campaign.

For a school already recognised as regional champions, becoming national champions marks an extraordinary rise — one built on talent, belief and collective determination. With a national title now secured, Silverdale's young squad has written itself into school sporting history and set a standard future teams will aspire to follow. Everyone at Silverdale School has expressed immense pride in what the girls have accomplished — a championship victory built on hard work, unity and a winning mentality at the highest level of the schools netball pathway.

Carrfield Crowned Kings of the Totty Cup

Carrfield took the honours in a high quality Totty Cup final against their As-trea neighbours Goooseacre.

The Thurnscoe school was quickest out of the blocks when Ruben Tonge smashed high into the net from close range after latching onto an Ellis Newcombe's flick from Tommy Sambrook's cross.

A third of the match passed before Carrfield levelled when Daley Stones fed Harris Vickers who moved the ball onto his right foot and unleashed a shot into the top corner.

Gooseacre's Daniel Addo's shot from distance had Eddie Blessed back pedaling.

Two minutes before the break Carrfield took the lead when Toby Kinsella found Zani Powell who out-muscled two defenders before a sliding to toe the ball past Zac Jones.

After the break, Kinsella again fed Powell whose powerful shot was well parried by Jones but still dropped in.

Gooseacre strove to reduce the deficit, with Sambrook and Addo involved in everything. They should take comfort in that there has been no better Gooseacre team since the turn of the century.

For Carrfield, this is their ninth Totty Cup triumph, which is more than any other school.

Swinton Queen were deserved winners in the Barlow-Salmons Shield although Lacewood kept it tight and could have pegged them back.

The decisive moment came early in the second half when Max Gale's scored after beating the offside trap from a Zach Bradley pass.

Swinton's Bradley was a real threat throughout. Harry Morton's whipped-in corners caused problems for Lacewood. Cody Harris almost scored from a shot not too far from the corner flag.

Lacewood's Jacob Rowlands was pivotal in keeping the score down and Harley Shaw's free-kick was the closest they came to equalising.

Wath C of E were worthy winners of the Gordon Swann Cup against a spirited Brampton Ellis.

Arlo Jones opened the scoring for C of E within a minute. This lead was extended when an Archie Adams corner went in off an Ellis defender.

Edward Hill in the Brampton goal kept the score down before his team were awarded a penalty which was confidently scored by Calum Gate.

Gate then almost forced an equaliser after making a chance out of nothing which was saved by William Braham.

This would be the nearest Brampton would get to parity as C of E started the second half quickly when Adams intercepted a goal kick and fed Sam Jones to make it 3-1.

A potentially historic* goal came next as Corben Hackleton headed in for the fourth, before Adams finished off his own parried shot to make it five.

Arlo Jones completed his hat-trick with a close range brace and Ricco Robertson completed the scoring for Brampton after some good dribbling.

Charlie Scales, Harry Bray and Harry Hardware all went close to a Brampton goal, but Wath C of E were outstanding throughout the team.

Non League Day returns this weekend, the annual event founded in 2010 by James Doe to encourage fans of Premier League and EFL clubs to support their local non league sides during the international break, promoting affordable, volunteer run grassroots football across the country.

Eight South Yorkshire sides are at home on Saturday, giving supporters a full menu of local football to choose from. Stocksbridge Park Steels are chasing their biggest crowd of the season in a crucial relegation fight against Ashton United, offering "Bring a Mate for a Fiver" and a pie meal programme and admission bundle for £16, with standard entry priced at £12, concessions £8 and under 16s £5. Sheffield FC and Hands-worth FC are both offering free admission for under 16s as they push for promotion, with Sheffield aiming for second place and home play off advantage, while Handsworth must win to keep their own play off hopes alive.

All fixtures kick off at 3pm, with the following teams at home:

Northern Premier League Premier:

- Stocksbridge Park Steels v Ashton United

Northern Counties East League Premier:

- Handsworth v Bottesford Town
- Rossington Main v Frickley Athletic
- Sheffield v Tadcaster

Albion

• Wombwell Town v Knaresborough Town
Northern Counties East League Division One:

- Dearne & District v Winterton Rangers
- Doncaster City v Athersley Recreation
- Maltby Main v Wakefield

United Counties League Division One:

- Dronfield Town v Gedling Miners Welfare

Town Vow to Rise Again

Wombwell Town's relegation after a 26 game winless run has left the club hurting but determined to come back stronger next season.

Manager Karl Rose admitted the season “just hasn’t been good enough”, pointing to poor pre season preparation, failed recruitment and lost momentum after last year’s play off triumph. He said Town were “in a lot of games but threw points away”, adding they kept just one clean sheet and squandered too many chances during a punishing NCEL Premier campaign. Fans who have followed the team through the long struggle voiced a mix of frustration and pride this week. Many expressed disappointment at the way results unravelled, but others praised the squad’s effort and the club’s refusal to abandon its long term ambition. Several supporters echoed Rose’s own apology to those who “followed us home and away”, noting the loyalty in the stands never wavered even as the winless run stretched on. Town sit 18 points from safety with five matches left. Their fate was effectively sealed weeks earlier as defeats mounted and the club’s early season momentum faded. Rose — who founded the club in 2018 and delivered four promotions — said the drop is “a kick in the shins” but insisted they must “take it on the chin” and learn from it. Supporters have echoed that message, with many saying the relegation feels like a setback rather than a crisis. Fans highlighted the progress made since the club’s formation and praised the academy and junior pathways that continue to grow. That optimism matches Rose’s belief that the club “has never been in a better place” off the pitch, with upgrades complete and a thriving youth setup. Rose believes Town “probably came up one season too early”, especially after diverting a chunk of the playing budget into mandatory ground improvements — a sacrifice fans acknowledge but hope will now pay off in stability. Despite the disappointment of relegation, the mood among the fanbase remains defiant. Many say they will be back in bigger numbers next season as Town push to “win the league next year” — an ambition Rose has already set publicly. With a loyal following, strong foundations and a manager intent on climbing higher than any Barnsley non league club has before, Town’s supporters believe the story is far from over. And after a season to forget, they’re ready for one to remember.

Bridge Set For Tigers Final Showdown

Worsbrough Bridge Athletic will face holders Worksop Town in the Sheffield & Hallamshire Senior Cup final after the Tigers swept aside Rossington Main 5-1 in their semi final.

Bridge earned their place earlier this month by knocking out Barnsley U21s on penalties in a tight, gritty tie. Rossington went into the Worksop semi as huge underdogs, 69 league places below the Tigers, but they stunned the home crowd early on and should have led after carving out three big chances in the opening 25 minutes. Worksop punished every missed opportunity. Chae Whitman Brown smashed in a superb opener on 14 minutes, then doubled the lead just before half time with a precise finish into the bottom corner. The champions turned the screw after the break. Vaughan Redford coolly added a third, only for George

Noble to pull one back six minutes later to give Rossington brief hope. But Worksop shut the door quickly. Aleks Starcenko blasted in a fourth on 79 minutes after a goalkeeper error, and Luke Hall sealed it in stoppage time with a brilliant solo run to complete a dominant win and secure a third straight final. The Sheffield & Hallamshire CFA has yet to confirm the date, venue or kick off time for the final.

Dearne Seal Title In Style

Dearne & District stormed to the NCEL Division One crown with a ruthless 5 0 demolition of Club Thorne Colliery on Friday night.

Formed as a men’s team only in 2018, the Goldthorpe side completed their rise with four games to spare, sealing a 13th straight league win and their 32nd victory in 38 matches.

The occasion had been billed as a test of nerve. Thorne, eighth in the table and still clinging to outside play off hopes, matched Dearne for long spells in an even first half. But the league leaders carried the greater threat, and their pressure finally told in the 34th minute. A long goal kick from Ryan Muskerville was returned into the Thorne box, where the onrushing Adam Baskerville collided with keeper Ryan Musselwhite. Referee Chris Caskey deemed it a genuine attempt to play the ball and cautioned the keeper and pointed to the spot. Jamie Austin saw his penalty saved, but he reacted quickest to slam in the rebound.

Dearne returned after the break with purpose, and within nine minutes they doubled their lead. A misjudged header from Thorne defender Andy Wright resulted in Curt Wilkinson being blocked off attempting to reach the loose ball, the referee awarded a second penalty. This time Baskerville took on the responsibility and buried it emphatically.

Thorne’s resistance faded, and the game turned into a procession. Just after the hour, a deep corner was headed back across goal by Josh Dacre and dropped into the top corner for 3 0.

Dearne should have added a fourth when Theo Wainman struck the post and Taylor Nicholson repeated the feat seconds later, but Nicholson was not to be denied. Six minutes from time he raced onto a loose ball, benefited from a smart advantage played by the referee after a foul on Wainman, and hammered a rising drive into the roof of the net from the edge of the box.

The best was still to come. Three minutes from the end, Max Eastwood produced the most delicate finish of the night, lifting a superb chip from the corner of the penalty area over Musselwhite and into the far top corner to complete the scoring in style.

The final whistle confirmed Dearne’s title triumph, the club moving onto 98 points and comfortably clear of their nearest challengers. League General Manager Matt Jones was on hand to present the trophy, marking a remarkable moment in the club’s short history and securing promotion to the Premier Division.

For a side still in only their second season at Step 6, and rebuilding after last year’s play off heartbreak, this was the night they showed how far they have come. The goals were shared across five scorers, the performance was controlled and clinical, and the celebrations will last long into spring. Dearne & District are champions – and in this mood, they look ready for the next step.

Manager’s View: Zeph Thomas on a Weekend to Remember

Dearne & District boss Zeph Thomas spoke to South Yorkshire Sport earlier this week, still sounding every bit the proud and delighted manager after securing the Division One title.

“It was weird, really,” he admitted. “My son was playing in a tournament in Alicante, so I flew out on Thursday, came back for the game on Friday, and then flew straight back out on Saturday because his team had a chance of winning it. It turned into a great weekend.”

Thomas revealed that there had been no title talk inside the camp until Friday’s decisive win.

“We hadn’t spoken to the lads about being top or winning the league until before Friday’s game. We’ve gone about our business quietly all season until this game. When I was flying back on Friday, I feared the worst because I thought we might be tempting fate. Club Thorne are a good side, so to win the way we did was a great feeling.”

This is Thomas’s first managerial job, and just two seasons in he has already guided the club from play off heartbreak to champions.

“Last season was a game too many,” he reflected. “We probably came up against the worst side we could’ve faced. They beat us comprehensively twice in the league.”

The difference this year, he explains, came down to smart planning.

“It’s been good this year. We got the recruitment right. We kept the players we wanted and added the ones we felt could take us to the next level.”

And the squad is clearly not satisfied with simply lifting the trophy.

“We want to get past 100 points. We want the most goals, the most clean sheets, the highest points total — we want the records.”

Looking ahead, Thomas says the club will take stock once the season concludes.

“We want to get this season out of the way first. We’ve booked a trip to Benidorm for the end of the season, then we’ll see what happens. We’ve got the structure in place.”

Sheffield FC Are Going Places, On & Off The Pitch

In the latest in our series of going behind clubs and organisations in the area, KYLE KENNEALEY visited Sheffield FC for their game last Thursday evening against Beverley Town (Photos: Jimmy McDonald).

The world's oldest football club have been given a new lease of life. Earlier in March, Jon McClure, known for being the lead singer of Reverend and the Makers, became the new chairman of Sheffield FC. Relegated last season, they are now playing their football at step five of the non-league system. But, after a few testing years, it looks like they are on their way back.

Following a disappointing start to the year, playing just four matches in the first two months of 2026, the Dronfield-based outfit have turned the screw in March. Four straight victories prior to the visit of second-place Beverley Town had them inside the play-off places.

And it's no surprise that Jon was in a buoyant mood before kick-off, even if it has been a demanding period.

"There's that cliché that a week's a long time in football. I feel like I've been doing it for three years already! It's hard work if I'm being really honest, but we're going to try our best.

"We've got big plans, but it's built on ordinary people. The kids over there are hopefully going to be the next generation. Plus, the older generation, it is for everyone."

Just 152 fans were in attendance for their Sheffield & Hallamshire Cup tie against Swallownest at the end of November. That figure was over three times higher for the visit of Beverley last Thursday evening, a sign of a club on the rise once again. Like my visit to Dinnington Town at the start of February, a noisy contingent of young supporters made themselves heard.

That noise didn't go unnoticed, with a helping hand from the new chairman. "I'm absolutely buzzing," he said. "They came last night, but the other night they were quiet. I said, 'Listen lads, I'll bring a drum.' And they've come tonight in greater numbers and are making a racket.

"We're trying to build a community, starting from the ground up. This is day one for me."

Alexis Krachai has also recently joined the board at the world's oldest football club. With a background in communications and public affairs, he wants to keep out of the spotlight. But he echoed the same sentiment as Jon, while adding what it would mean for the club to return to the Steel City.

"It's really important. Sheffield is the home of football. As much as we've got a vibe going on down here in Dronfield, our true home needs to be back in the city. In addition to supporting the team and getting things running here as best we can, there is a real focus on getting us back into Sheffield.

"If we're going to keep the club running for the next 170 years, we need the next generation coming through and enjoying the game."

The hosts made a flying start in Derbyshire. A goalline clearance and the frame of the goal initially denied them the perfect start, but it was only a brief respite for visiting Beverley. From a set-piece, captain Connor Cutts headed home to give Sheffield FC an early breakthrough.

After that goal, the visitors took control for most of the opening period. Their first real opportunity came after a quarter of an hour when McCauley Snelgrove found half a yard of space in the penalty area. But, with Sheffield FC goalkeeper Jordan Greaves diving, Brad Beatson made a fantastic block. Minutes later, Cam Connelly sliced an effort wide of goal from what appeared to be a good position on the left side of the penalty area.

At the end of the first half, Beverley won a free-kick in a promising position. But Snelgrove's attempt to go under the wall 20 yards from goal was blocked by Sheffield FC's wall. And that was duly punished in first half stoppage time. Alex Hardwick raced through on goal, shrugging off a visiting defender before rounding the goalkeeper and passing the ball into an empty net.

It was harsh on the visitors, who had been on top for most of the half. But two lapses in concentration at either end of the half left them with a mountain to climb at the interval. That became insurmountable 10 minutes into the second period. Cutts got his second of the evening with a stunning strike 25 yards from goal, skipping past his marker before firing an unstoppable effort that struck the crossbar on its way in.

Harrison Poutler scored another impressive effort, just after being denied by Leigh Overton. Sheffield FC saw out most of the second period before adding another quick-fire double with ten to play. Two set-pieces saw Alex Hardwick complete his hat-trick and put out a statement victory to the rest of the league.

Manager Vill Powell was understandably ecstatic with their showing.

"We absolutely blew them away. If I'm being greedy, we could have had another couple more goals. But in terms of the calibre of the opposition, where they are in the league, it was a top performance.

"I want to kick every ball, even though I can't run around like I used to. From the lads, you've got that mental, emotional, and physical aspect of the last three games. But we come to tonight, against second in the league who have five wins on the bounce, and the lads just produced from minute one."

Two more successive three-point hauls followed at Bottesford Town last Saturday and Frickley on Tuesday evening making it seven wins on the trot and has seen Sheffield FC rise to second. Stopping this run is going to be a very difficult task for any side in the Northern Counties East Premier Division.

NON LEAGUE FOOTBALL

Steels Hold Firm in Riches Clash

STOCKSBRIDGE

ADAM ALLCROFT

It wasn't rags to riches at Stocksbridge this weekend, it was Rags Vs Riches.

Much has been made about Stocksbridge's low budget so we won't go on about it much more. But Hednesford are at the opposite end of the scales. The non-league rumour mill remains abuzz about how much their players are apparently paid, and if it's to be believed their players are comfortable in life.

Recent recruitment from both sides proved the market both are working in. Stocksbridge brought in Romario Dunne, a striker from Brighouse Town who impressed there but left the West Yorkshire side amid financial problems. Hednesford on the other hand signed George Williams from Mansfield Town, someone who has been a regular in the EFL for the last ten years.

But on a football pitch, anything can happen in 90 minutes.

Despite the well documented differences between the sides, The Steels flew out of the blocks here, looking sharp and full of intent early on. They pressed high, made life awkward for the visitors, and generally set the tone. That said, for all the energy, chances were few and far between in a scrappy, hard-fought opening spell where both defences were doing their jobs.

It was Stocksbridge who landed the first real punch—and they took it brilliantly. Tommy Marshall showed great awareness to nick the ball high up the pitch before slipping it back to Marc Etherington. His cross into the box was spot on, and Luke Rawson did the rest, adjusting superbly get his header past the keeper and into the net. A bit of a surprise lead, maybe—but definitely a deserved one.

With their tails up, the Steels nearly struck again not long after. Connor Smythe wasn't far away from something special, catching a loose ball sweetly on the volley, only to see it whistle just over the bar.

Hednesford, though, weren't about to roll over. They grew into the game and started to make their presence felt, and it was a familiar weapon that got them back on level terms. Joel Taylor's long throw caused chaos, and while the first ball was cleared, it came straight back. Taylor delivered again, this time picking out Montel Gibson at the far post, and he made no mistake with a composed finish.

That goal swung the momentum, and Hednesford began to fancy it. They had a golden chance to go ahead when Jack Tinker was judged to have brought down Gibson in the box. Up stepped Ahkeem Rose—but Ben Townsend had other ideas. The keeper pulled off a brilliant save, his second penalty stop in as many games, to keep things level and get the home crowd right behind him.

The visitors kept coming late in the half, piling on the pressure and slinging balls into the box, but Stocksbridge dug in well. It wasn't always pretty, but they stood firm and got through it, showing plenty of grit at the back.

So despite everything seemingly being against Stocksbridge, they got a well-earned point that on another day could have been more. The only concern were the results elsewhere which leave them four points from safety.

Howarth Strikes Late For Hallam

HALLAM

Hallam earned a vital away win on Saturday after Leon Howarth struck an 81st minute winner to edge a tight contest at Bishop Auckland.

It was the kind of match that demanded patience as both sides settled into a cagey rhythm early on. Bishop Auckland pushed with purpose at times, knowing how badly they needed points, but Hallam held their shape superbly. The back line stayed organised, clearing danger without panic and keeping the big moments to a minimum.

Chances were rare in the opening half. Bishop Auckland whipped in a couple of threatening crosses, but nothing that truly stretched the Hallam defence. At the other end, Hallam tried to spring forward when they could, yet the final ball just eluded them. The first 45 felt like two teams trying hard not to make a mistake rather than one looking likely to seize control.

After the break, Hallam began to impose themselves more. The midfield snapped into duels quicker, passes were cleaner and the visitors started to turn the game in their favour. Their confidence grew as the minutes ticked by, helped by a disciplined shape that forced Bishop Auckland into increasingly hopeful attacks.

Even so, with the game approaching the final ten minutes, a goalless draw looked the likeliest outcome. Then Hallam produced their best move of the match down the right flank. A neat passage of play opened up the space they had been searching for, and when the ball broke to Leon Howarth, he took command. His finish was precise, low and decisive, rolled beyond the keeper and into the far corner to send the travelling support wild.

Protecting a narrow lead away from home is never simple, but Hallam managed the final minutes like a side learning how to see out tight games. They slowed things down, won free kicks in sensible areas and defended their box with real conviction. Bishop Auckland pushed late on, launching balls forward and hoping for a mistake, but Hallam refused to buckle.

The full time whistle confirmed a result that means more than just three points. It showed Hallam's growing maturity and their ability to grind out wins on difficult afternoons. Performances like this are often the difference between drifting in mid table and pushing towards something more meaningful.

As the season moves into its defining stage, this win could be one of those quietly significant moments that becomes more important in hindsight. Hallam were not perfect, but they were committed, organised and ready when the key chance finally came their way. That alone made the journey worthwhile.

Away from the pitch, the club also absorbed the news of captain Danny South's departure, with the long serving defender and forward completing a move back to Belper Town. It ends a strong chapter of leadership and influence at Hallam, but South's return to the Nailers was accompanied by an honest and heartfelt explanation from Belper manager Lee Attenbor-

Attenborough spoke about South's long association with the club, his 170 plus games in yellow and black, and the circumstances that saw him leave a couple of seasons ago for a move that suited his family. He stressed that time had changed things and that South's experience, physical presence and leadership were exactly what Belper needed heading into a tight playoff chase. With injuries affecting their defensive options and recent struggles in front of goal, South's versatility and character were seen as essential additions.

South himself addressed supporters directly, saying it was a pleasure to return to the club he calls home. He spoke warmly about re-joining the dressing room, contributing to a promotion push and giving everything to help Belper into the playoffs. He acknowledged that some might question his return but promised 100% commitment, adding that he was excited for his third stint with the club and ready to get going.

For Hallam, his departure is naturally felt, but he leaves with respect and with the goodwill of those who have watched him give everything for the shirt. Football moves quickly, and Hallam showed on Saturday they can keep progressing even as familiar faces move on.

Five Star Dearne Storm to Division One Glory

NORTHERN

MATT JONES

Dearne & District sealed the Macron NCEL Division One title in emphatic fashion on Friday night with a ruthless 5-0 victory away at Club Thorne Colliery.

Jamie Austin's first half strike set the tone before Adam Baskerville, Joshua Dacre, Taylor Nicholson and Max Eastwood completed a dominant second half display that confirmed Dearne as champions with four matches to spare.

Their triumph headlined a busy three day programme across the league, which began on Thursday with Sheffield producing one of the standout performances of the season as they swept aside Beverley Town 6-0. Connor Cutts struck twice, Alex Hardwick hit a hat trick and Harrison Poulter added another in front of a crowd of 473.

In Division One, Doncaster City and South Leeds shared a 2-2 draw after a frantic first half in which all four goals were scored.

Friday's Premier Division action saw Frickley Athletic overcome already relegated Wombwell Town 2-0 thanks to second half goals from Elliott Andrew and Samuel Cable, while Liversedge and Golcar United drew 1-1, Finn Donovan's opener cancelled out by George Doyle.

Nostell Miners Welfare kept their survival hopes alive as they earned a 2-0 win at Athersley Recreation with two late goals from Kurtis Gollings and Matthew Hughes.

Saturday brought a full schedule and no shortage of drama. Albion Sports came from behind to defeat Parkgate 4-2, with Nathan Cartman delivering a superb second half hat trick.

Beverley Town bounced back from Thursday's heavy defeat by winning 1-0 at Barton Town through Andy Norfolk's strike, while Sheffield continued their strong week with a 1-0 victory at Bottesford Town courtesy of Nathaniel Crofts.

Rossington Main claimed a 2-0 win at Horbury Town, helped by an early own goal and a composed finish from Myron Gibbons. Knaresborough Town edged Eccleshill United 2-1 in a lively second half, and Champion impressed with a 3-1 win at Penistone Church. Tadcaster Albion maintained their momentum with a 3-0 home victory over Pickering Town, while Handsworth delivered the result of the weekend with a stunning 7-0 demolition of Thackley, featuring seven different scorers.

In Division One, Armthorpe Welfare and South Leeds drew 2-2 after the visitors fought back from 2-1 down, while Brigg Town overturned a half time deficit to beat Louth Town 4-1 with a strong second half showing.

Crowle Colts edged Route One Rovers 2-1 thanks to a late winner from Ashton Short, and Goole AFC ran riot in a 7-1 victory over Glasshoughton Welfare, with Nathan Perks scoring four times.

Leeds UFCA held on for a 1-0 win over Doncaster City, Selby Town and Ilkley Town played out a goalless draw, and Wakefield were in commanding form as they swept aside Appleby Frodingham 4-0.

Winterton Rangers and Harrogate Railway Athletic shared a 1-1 draw, while Worsbrough Bridge Athletic rounded off the weekend with a confident 3-0 home win over Maltby Main.

The midweek programme in the Macron Northern Counties East League saw most games go ahead despite the strong winds and driving rain although there were two postponements and an abandonment on Tuesday evening with games cancelled at Golcar United and Knaresborough Town while the fixture between Maltby Main and Route One Rovers was abandoned after just 26 minutes following a torrential downpour that left the pitch looking like a swimming pool! The visitors were leading 1-0 at the time.

In the Premier Division, Sheffield earned an impressive 3-1 win away at Frickley Athletic, taking control through first-half goals from Connor Cutts and Alexander Hardwick. Lucas Robinson's late strike briefly offered Frickley hope, but Luke Mangham responded almost immediately to secure the points for the visitors. Pickering Town were equally convincing, sweeping aside Wombwell Town 4-0 thanks to early goals from George Brown and Charlie Thompson, with Souleymane Coulibaly adding a brace either side of the interval to complete a dominant performance.

Division One produced its own share of emphatic scorelines. Armthorpe Welfare continued their strong form with a 4-1 victory over Ilkley Town, recovering from Dan Coates' equaliser to take command through a second-half double from Mikey Dunn before Will Mendonca added a late fourth. Club Thorne Colliery delivered the night's standout result, overwhelming Appleby Frodingham 7-0. Marc Newsham's first-half hat-trick set the tone, supported by goals from William Gomes, Luke Williams and Andrew Wright, with Gomes adding a late penalty to round off a ruthless display.

Athersley Recreation also enjoyed a productive evening, overturning an early deficit to beat Glasshoughton Welfare 5-1. After Harry McCudden's opener for the hosts, James Woodhouse levelled almost instantly, and Athersley dominated the second half through strikes from Kane Reece, Keenan Davies-Mosley, Jack Woodcock and Nathaneal Dyer. Louth Town edged a tight contest against Nostell Miners Welfare, securing a 2-1 win with quick-fire goals from Theo Kitt-Bushell and Will Pennell before Thomas Street's late reply set up a tense finish. That result means that Nostell could be relegated this weekend. Worsbrough Bridge Athletic claimed a notable scalp with a 2-1 victory at Wakefield, striking twice inside the first eight minutes through Keelan Grist and Connor Glavin. Although Oli Robinson briefly levelled the scores at 1-1, Wakefield were unable to break down a resolute visiting defence after the decisive second goal.

Wednesday's fixtures continued the high-scoring theme. Dearne & District produced a remarkable second-half surge to defeat Doncaster City 6-1 to reach the 100 point mark for the season, overturning Billy Grimshaw's opener with two quick responses from Jamie Austin and Owen Fieldsend before the break. The second half belonged to the visitors who scored through Adam Baskerville (2) and Joshua Dacre with Max Eastwood adding a sixth shortly afterwards. Winterton Rangers completed the midweek action with a solid 3-0 home win over play off chasing Leeds UFCA, secured through goals from Ben Silburn, Tyler Hamilton and Charlie Bibby.

Swallows Soar Then Stumble as Dronfield March On

UNITED COUNTIES S YORKS SPORT

Swallownest’s week swung from impressive control to late disappointment while Dronfield Town continued their superb surge up the UCL Division One table.

Swallownest began their double header with a composed and confident 3–1 win away at Pinchbeck United, a result that underlined how far they have come in recent weeks. The visitors took time to settle, but once they found rhythm the goals arrived at crucial moments. Patrick Muirhead struck first after 37 minutes, guiding Swallownest into a deserved lead. Minutes later, Alex Wilkinson doubled the advantage with a sharp finish that left Pinchbeck reeling.

The second half brought more measured play from Swallownest and another breakthrough when Wilkinson grabbed his second on 77 minutes, effectively sealing the points. Pinchbeck halved the deficit late through an 84th minute strike from Luke Cullen, but it never threatened to alter the outcome. A modest crowd of 53 saw Swallownest deliver one of their most controlled away performances of the season.

Just three days later they travelled to Southwell City seeking to build momentum, but the midweek fixture proved altogether more frustrating. In a tight contest with few clear openings, Swallownest worked hard to stay organised and competitive, only to be undone eight minutes from time. A late strike from Kaeden Bennison settled the match in Southwell’s favour and left the visitors rueing a lack of cutting edge when chances finally appeared.

It was a reminder of the thin margins Swallownest continue to navigate each week. The contrast between Saturday’s composure and Tuesday’s struggle was striking, but there is little doubt the squad has shown greater resilience in recent outings. With their season still delicately balanced, these are the moments that can define whether they drift into a fight at the bottom or push towards the comfortable middle.

Dronfield Town, by contrast, are very much a club on the rise. Their 3–1 home win over Sleaford Town was the latest chapter in a sequence that now reads three victories in a row and five from the last seven. The match could hardly have begun in more dramatic fashion. After just twenty seconds, Chris Simpkins drove forward and found Matty Ord, who finished confidently from the left to stun the visitors.

That early blow set the tone, and Dronfield pushed on with assurance. A handball decision against James Twigg offered the perfect chance to extend their advantage and Sam Bebbington made no mistake, firing his penalty past Phil McCann for 2–0. Sleaford responded with patches of pressure and pulled a goal back on 35 minutes when Dion Tansey Potter cut inside and drilled low through a crowd, but Dronfield’s momentum rarely faltered.

The key moment came early in the second half when Arran Bovill, stretching every inch to reach a loose ball, lifted a deft finish over McCann to restore the two goal cushion. From there Town played with confidence, control and discipline. Lewis Naylor produced the saves required when Sleaford threatened briefly, and with twenty minutes left Twigg’s dismissal for a second booking effectively ended the contest.

Dronfield used the closing stages to rotate the squad and maintain intensity, with substitute Arthur Pashley going close to adding a fourth after a surging run. By the final whistle, Town looked every inch a side climbing the table with purpose. They now sit tenth with six games remaining and approach National Non League Day with real optimism as Gedling Miners Welfare head to the Stone-

LOCAL LEAGUE FOOTBALL

Hemsworth tighten grip as Swinton edge a thriller

COUNTY SENIOR
WARREN BIRD

Hemsworth Miners Welfare strengthened their Premier Division lead with a composed 2-0 win over the only side who can still mathematically catch them, Hepworth United.

Kaden Storey and Luka Budimir struck to move Hemsworth nine points clear, though Hepworth still have five games in hand.

Stocksbridge Park Steels Reserves, unbeaten since November, continued their charge with a fifth straight win, beating Dodworth MWFC 4-2 thanks to a Calum Pearce brace and goals from Diego Noche and Thomas Short. Joe Jackson hit both Dodworth replies.

Steels move two points behind Hepworth in fifth but have played the same number of games.

Kiveton Park boosted their survival chances with a crucial 2-0 win over Denaby Main, whilst Will Heath won it for Penistone Church Reserves at Silkstone United, and Wombwell

Main edged Ought-ibridge WMSC 1-0 through Ryan Wingrove.

The main event in Division One came in the top two clash at Swinton Athletic — and it more than lived up to its billing.

Leaders Ecclesfield Red Rose 1915 twice hauled themselves level in a match full of twists, only to be sunk by a late Swinton winner. Brodie Cooper opened the scoring for Swinton before Nathan Horspool equalised. Jamie Oliver restored the home lead, George Rudd made it 2-2, and then Oliver struck again late on to seal a dramatic 3-2 victory.

Swinton remain 13 points behind but with five games in hand — and the Easter Saturday rematch at Ecclesfield now looks pivotal.

Elsewhere, Sheffield Union produced the day's biggest scoreline with an 8-0 demolition of Wombwell Town Reserves. Will Harrison and Patrick Wearden bagged doubles, joined on the scoresheet by Ethan Hodkin, Ollie Michalski, Daniel Heath and Ben Humphrey.

Bentley Village beat Royston 3-1 through Aiden Davies, Joe Cairns and Keane Freeman, with Ashley Mills replying.

North Gawber won 5-2 at Hepworth United Reserves; an own goal plus strikes from Tom Woodhouse, Carey Wellford, Steve Bennett and George Bedford overturned goals from Noah Crozier and John Heppenstall.

Parkgate Reserves beat Barnsley Town 4-0 with braces from Blake Morley and Connor Sanderson.

Division Two remains a five way scrap. Dearne & District Reserves beat Wombwell Main Reserves 2 0 through Harry Anderson and Robbie Moulton, Elsecar Dynamo edged Middlewood Rovers 2 1, and Elsecar Main defeated Sheffield Medics 4 1.

Leaders Maltby Main Reserves hammered Caribbean Sports 8 1 with Ashley Brook and Ashton McDool both scoring twice, joined by Jake Carter, Andres Hampu Dandaria, Cole Starkey and Oliver Sanders; Linton Lambert replied.

North Gawber Reserves rounded things off with a 2-1 win over Rotherham Town through Fin Thompson and Will Bedford.

Colliery Powerhouses Shake Up the Race

ABACUS CENTRAL MIDS
RICHARD LANE

South Yorkshire's footballing cast delivered another weekend thick with drama, defiance and no shortage of goals, with clubs across the region tightening title races, sparking survival bids and throwing fresh intrigue into promotion chases.

Harworth Colliery produced the standout result, smashing second placed Brodsworth Main 5-0 to crank up the pressure at the top of the Premier North. Jason Kearsley's early double set the tone, the forward striking twice inside 15 minutes to put Harworth firmly in command.

Billy Stafford added a third on 70 minutes before late goals from Marvis Ogbemudia and Declan Sipson Heath added gloss to a statement victory. It was a bruising afternoon for Brodsworth, who then dropped more points in a 2-2 draw with Staveley Reserves, Callum Verhees twice giving them the lead only for Staveley to pinch a point late on through James Miller.

Kinsley Boys seized their moment, beating Harworth 3-1 in the weekend's headline clash to strengthen their own title credentials. All three Kinsley goals came before the break, Kyle Rose striking first before Lucas Stubbs bagged a brace. Daniel Boulton's stoppage time reply came far too late to alter the outcome. Kinsley now sit three points clear of Brodsworth and five ahead of Dinnington, with games in hand on both.

Rossington Main Reserves, who have spent much of the season in the mire, suddenly look reborn. After months of struggle, they've now collected back to back wins, following up a midweek victory with a gritty 2-1 success at SJR Worksop thanks to goals from Joe Parkin and Jack Farrah. It's the kind of form that can flip a season on its head.

Burngreave United also flew the South Yorkshire flag with authority, completing a rapid fire double over RHP Sports with a thumping 5-1 win. Abdulrahman Asad, Joe Wood, Hassan Mohammed, Aemad Gadour and Will Palmer all found the net in a performance bursting with confidence and attacking intent.

Elsewhere, Dinnington Town booked their place in the Abacus Floodlit Cup final after one of the wildest games of the season, eventually beating Stapenhill Reserves 7-5 after extra time. Goals flew in from every angle, momentum swung like a pendulum and the tie only settled when Josh Baxter finally struck the decisive blow. It was the kind of cup chaos that will be talked about for years.

Teversal earned a 1-1 draw with Elite AFC, Ty Macaskill's opener can celled out late on by Robbie Wood, while Worksop Reserves and AFC Bentley played out a rare goalless stalemate.

Across the leagues, the storylines keep stacking up: title races tightening, relegation battles twisting, and South Yorkshire's clubs refusing to go quietly. With form surging in unexpected places and the top end of the table becoming increasingly claustrophobic, the run in promises to be every bit as fierce as the region's footballing reputation demands.

Late Barnsley Bolt Fires Sixers Through

BLADES SUPER

KEITH FIRMINGER

Last gasp Danny Barnsley strike swung the League Cup semi-final Wadsley Bridge Sixers way against local rivals Stannington Village.

It was a game where both defences were on top form and an edgy first half saw just once chance when Luca De-Falco was put through, but Sixers keeper Joel Statham came out to bloke the shot before clearing it upfield.

The second half again saw not many chances, but after Stannington had a period when they had more of the play, with Sixers Luke Allison, Brad Howe and Josh Statham having more influence on the game it began to swing Sixers way. A great strike by Jordan Stocks was brilliantly saved by Village keeper Harley Middleton, but with the game looking certain to go to a penalty shootout, Danny Barnsley went on a mazy run that ended with him slamming home the winning goal.

Sixers will meet either Royal Earl or Nailmakers in the final, with Earl and Nailmakers playing their semi-final next Sunday 29 March at Warminster Road, with an 11am kick-off.

Royal Earl beat Boynton Sports 2-0 to edge closer to the title. Theo Wilson opened the scoring with a simple finish and Brandon Bagley made it 2-0 after a mistake from keeper. If Earl win their final 3 games they will be champions.

The bottom end of the table is getting very tight after a 2-1 defeat for Southey Social at home to Wickersley CC and Woodman's surprise goalless draw at Chapeltown RBL. In an entertaining game both Southey and their visitors Wickersley had chances, but couldn't convert until just before the break when a ball over the top left Wickersley striker clean through, but he couldn't convert and the ball rolled back to the edge of the box where Ben Thornton's shot and went through the defender's legs on the line.

The game continued like the first half with both teams having chances and Southey levelled the score when Jack Hawkes raced onto a ball in the channel from Ryan Whitney and fired high into the roof of the net. Southey then had 2 great chances. The first saw Carlton Carty clean through, but although his shot beat the keeper it landed the wrong side of the post. This was quickly followed by Luke Broadbent having a close range effort well saved by the Wickersley keeper.

Wickersley then had two great chances of their own that saw Southey keeper Harrison Lee make two quality saves, but with just a minute on the clock Wickersley took the points when Lee could only push a shot back into the Nathan Taylor's path and he made no mistake from close range.

At Chapeltown RBL, a game between the bottom two was a tense, hard-fought encounter saw bottom club Woodman come away with a 0-0 draw. The stand-out moment came early on when RBL keeper Lewis Fox pulled off a superb penalty save, diving sharply to his left to deny Woodman and keep his side level. It proved a crucial intervention in a game where chances were at a premium.

RBL grew into the match in the second half and came closest to breaking the deadlock, rattling the crossbar with a powerful effort and Javad Hefferan testing the Woodman keeper with a well-struck shot.

Despite both sides pushing, neither could find the finishing touch, leaving it honours even at full time. Chapeltown's only consolation was that the point lifted them up a place above Southey, but for Woodman it means that it fourth bottom Jubilee Rangers win one more game Woodman will be relegated.

Leaders Hackenthorpe FC stayed top with a 4-1 victory over Cotts. Hackenthorpe got off to a flying start, showing sharpness early on with an opening goal from Kian Holloway. It was a composed finish, set up nicely by Chad Gibson. The duo combined again shortly after, with Holloway grabbing his second of the game—this time lifting a clever lob over the goalkeeper. Cotts FC managed to pull one back before half-time with a simple tap-in by Ty Gunter to keep them in the contest.

The second half proved to be a scrappy affair, with Hackenthorpe creating chances, but struggling to fully capitalise. However, the breakthrough eventually came when a move started from a saved shot by Callum Foster, followed by good work from Lee Thompson and ended when George Bemba rose well to head home their third goal. Hackenthorpe sealed the victory with their fourth goal when Lee Thompson threaded a precise pass through for Callum Foster and he made no mistake in front of goal.

Loca stayed second with an even more convincing 9-1 win at Baby Shark. Loca came out the blocks in the first 2 minutes with a goal from man of the match Mitch Kent assisted by Logan Liggins and minutes later Jamie Hopkins slammed home a second. Jamie Goldenburgh made it three with a stunning free kick for his first of the season, before Cammy Evans set up Logan Liggins to make it four by half-time.

After the break Josh Baxter set Liggins up for his second, before Liggins turned provider for Call Spencer to hit Loca's sixth. Rion Arbourn netted a penalty that turned out to be Sharks only consolation before Hopkins set Callum Spencer up for Loca's seventh. Evans then provided the assist for Liggins to complete his hat-trick and the scoring was completed when Hopkins provided the assist got Goldenburgh to net his second. Mosborough Reds stayed third with a narrow 3-2 win at Brunsmeer. Both sides could only fashion half chances in a goalless first half, but the second half was only minutes old when Gaz Murdoch gave Brunsmeer the lead. Reds hit back immediately to level with an Alix Sorsby free-kick. Soon after Sorsby put another effort just wide, but it didn't take long for their leading scorer Matt Ellis to put Reds ahead with a header at the back post.

Brunsmear hit back to level with a second from Murdoch, but they were then put under intense pressure by Reds and after going close three times, in the third minute of added time Billy Kitching hit the winner when the keeper spilled the ball.

Crookes moved above AFC Wisewood into fourth by beating them

4-3. Hamish Adamson gave Crookes a second minute lead following a throw-in and Oli McQuillin doubled it soon after. A Tom Rickers volley made it 3-0 until Jay Travis pulled one back before half-time. McQuillin netted his second after the break and it was needed as Wisewood pulled two back through Joe Daley and Leo Edgar, but Crookes held on to go above their visitors.

A Kenneth Obazuaye double and one each for Sam Clark and Alex Simons helped Kelham Island ended a run of defeats with a 4-0 victory at Thorncliffe Villa. Dominating from start to finish, Kelham were 3-0 up at half time with some classy finishing. They added another in the second half and perhaps should have scored more.

Haynook Seize Derby Glory as Joker Progress

ROTHERHAM SUNDAY
MARK PILLEY

The cup competitions delivered the weekend's fiercest drama as Maltby Main Haynook overcame AFC Maltby 3-1 in a hotly anticipated local derby, while Joker battled through to eliminate Langold Old Boys.

Haynook struck three times in a ferocious contest that lived up to every ounce of local rivalry, their sharp finishing proving decisive despite AFC Maltby staying in the fight with a single reply in a derby loaded with pride and needle.

Joker progressed in the Brain Beeley Cup with a tight 1-0 victory, secured by Luke Bridgeman in a controlled performance that shut down Langold's attempts to force a breakthrough.

Premier Division leaders The Gate Inn stayed in command with a 2-1 win over AFC Lord Nelson, Reece Dudhill and Jordan Pilling overcoming Jack Charlesworth's opener.

Brinsworth DC stayed on the chase with an 8-0 demolition of Butchers Arms, Harley Battison scoring twice, Harry Day hitting a hat trick, Steven Hopewell adding two and Taylor Nicholson completing the rout.

AFP Pewter Pot produced a huge 10-3 win against Lord Reresby, with hat tricks for both Matthew Blakemore and Chad Lake, plus doubles from Farbod Yousfie and Liam Royles; Reresby responded through Jack Binney, James Johnson and Liam Sykes.

Clubhouse and AFC Trades Rawmarsh shared a gripping 3-3 draw, goals from Ben Gillott, Dan Hamilton and Thomas Croggon matched by Sam Thompson and a Brandon Potts double.

Jack in Box suffered further setbacks with a 1-0 defeat to Thorpe Hesley Village through Jason Markell.

In the Championship, Thurcroft Hub strengthened their title charge with a 2-0 win against AFC Monkwood thanks to two goals from Gianni Makin. Deer Park Tap added momentum with a lively 5-3 victory over FC Mailcoach.

Division One leaders Milldam maintained their grip with a solid 2-0 win against The Rig Dyke, Ryan Ellis and Tyler Jackson on target.

Brinsworth Whitehill JFC stayed competitive with a 3-1 win over The Colin, while Ecclesfield Blues impressed with a 4-1 victory at Manor Hotel through Harrison Stenton, Joshua Smith and an Eloy Lally brace.

Beighton Magpies JFC edged Shakhtar

Sheffield 4-3 in a dramatic seven goal contest, with Jed Collins, Harry Glaves, Ethan Hussain and William Simpson all scoring.

Division Two leaders The Park Hotel continued their impressive form with a 5-1 success against Harthill, Jack Bancroft, Fraser Curran, Tom Nicholson and a Roman McCann double overturning Oliver Kaye's early goal.

Wickersley AFC picked up three points with a 2-0 victory over Bradgate through Jat White and Harry Johnson.

AFC Loca produced the day's largest league scoreline, sweeping aside Brinsworth FC 9-0 as Carter Tyler Harrison, Robin Holmes, Kai Cockayne, Connor Crossland and James Woodhouse all struck alongside a Harry Murphy hat trick.

RUSC85 The Travellers and Hope Valley Tap finished 1-1, Matthew Hemmingway levelled by Samual Grinn.

Kilton United completed a strong 5-1 win against Hogshead with goals from Daniel Fitzackerley, Ben Gray, Michael Newlands, Carl Jacks and David Dexter.

In Division Three, leaders The Woodman Woodlathes prevailed 1-0 over Yorkshire Roses through Andy Wilson.

Sheffield Spartans stayed close with a 2-1 win against Ship Inn, both goals from Joshua Oluwatosin Hassan.

East Dene took a 2-1 victory at Crown Inn Newhill with strikes from Chay Searston and Cameron Widdison after Owen Goddard's early opener.

Ravenfield Arms beat Aston Athletic 3-2 courtesy of Callum Bower and Craig Rigg.

Stag United took the points in a 4-3 thriller at Apollo X Legacy, while Wincobank Rovers and Steel City Whippets shared a frantic 4-4 draw: Bailey Buxton hit two, Troy Lee Cross and Leo Grayson added the others, with Matt Nunn, Edward Woolfe (2) and Matthew Elliott replying.

Division Four leaders Dinnington Dynamos continued their dominance with a 6-1 win over Parkgate through Thomas Wroe.

Earl Grey edged Kiveton Park Reds 3-2 with a Joshua Smith brace.

Middlewood Rovers JFC claimed a powerful 7-2 victory against Inter Rother with Jack Duffy netting twice, Josepj Maxwell once and Max Laycock firing in four.

The Club Pot tightened their position with a 5-0 win over Laughton Common, driven by a Charlie Crapper hat trick supported by Christopher Gallivan and Sam Ferris.

Injury Shock Leaves Division One Wide Open

MEADOWHALL & DB EVANS
MARTIN GILMOUR

Just 3 games in Division One this weekend and sadly the game between Work-sop Boys and Abbey Lane had to be abandoned after around 75 minutes due to a serious injury to Work-sop Boys Tom Bradshaw.

Tom unfortunately sustained a broken tibia to his right leg. The League wishes Tom well in his recovery and we hope to see him back on the pitch in the not too distant future.

Abbey Lane were leading 4-2 at the time of the abandonment.

Alex Phillips with a double for Work-sop Boys and goals from Mapenzi Ebamba, Freddie Thorpe, Connor Banton and Oliver Wilson for Abbey Lane.

In the 2 completed games, a 2nd half equaliser against Work-sop Town from Morgan Sida keeps Athersley Rec 2 points clear at the top of the table from 3 teams, Staveley Miners Welfare Blues, Penistone Church B and Abbey Lane. Tyler Daniels had given Work-sop Town a first half lead.

Penistone Church B had the chance to go level with Athersley at the top but missed out being held to a goalless draw at home by Dinnington Town.

Barnburgh Fight Back to Keep Cup Dream Alive
The only way is up! In the case of Barnburgh WMC, who are currently propping up the Division One table, they will hope that statement is true after moving into the semi-finals of the Dearne Community Charity Cup. Barnburgh booked their place in the last four after coming from behind to defeat their Division One counterparts Cross Keys Wath 4-2. After a positive opening, Barnburgh fell behind on the counter attack, as Cross Keys executed a quick one two and James Hoyland found the net. Barnburgh didn't get disheartened and weren't behind for long. After Taylor Annakin saw an effort saved onto the post, teammate Lincoln Gleadhall teed himself up on the edge of the box to fire in a deserved equaliser. Annakin then turned his marker and buried a low shot beyond the goalkeeper's hand and into the onion bag. Cross Keys posed more of a threat during the second half and struck the woodwork from a hopeful cross turned shot. The rebound fell kindly to Troy Machin, who rolled the ball in from close range. However, right from the kick-off, James Kellock went down the other end and restored Barnburgh's advantage. Annakin then sealed the win with the goal of the game, firing a precise free kick into the top corner. Meanwhile, Swinton Athletic celebrated a 2-0 Supplementary Cup victory at Hickleton Harriers thanks to strikes from Joshua Bennett and Matthew Greaves. In the Premier Division, Westville maintained their 100% league record with a crushing 8-1 victory at Gym Bar. A hat-trick from Owen Sykes, a brace by Josh Moore and strikes from Kieran Hirst, Jake Phillis and Dylan Johnson moved Westville into joint second. Keeping them off top spot are Groves Social, who posted a big scoreline of their own. Liam Squires's treble, plus efforts from Matthew Ager, Joe Setters and Macauley Winder gave the league leaders a 6-1 victory at Ville. Denaby United are the new leaders in Division One, following their 6-0 win at Court-yard. Doubles from Patrick Swift and Max Moseley were added to with goals from Connor Ellis and Ben Haines. Queens Head Hoyland and Mexborough

Athletic couldn't be separated and played out a 3-3 draw. Harry Burton and a Sam Bateman double registered for the hosts, while Liam Winfield bagged all three and the match ball for the visitors. Mexborough Knights and White Hart Wadworth also had to be content with a share of the spoils. Thomas Doherty gave Wadworth a first half lead, but Jake Ford found an equaliser for the Knights midway through the second half. Finally, New Masons Arms edged out Union Jack 2-1.

The Late Late Goals

Football can be unbelievably cruel at times, yet it also creates unforgettable moments of joy. Above: Wombwell Town scored two late goals to shatter the dreams of Hoyland FC—who play two divisions below them—and progress in the Barnsley & District Sunday League Ray Parden Barnsley Trophy Quarter-Final, as captured by The Dribbling Code. Below: A man fittingly named Barnsley—Danny Barnsley—struck a late winner to give WB Sixers a 1-0 victory over Stannington Village in the Blades Super Draw Sunday Sports League Cup. His decisive goal that took his side through to the final and the celebrations that followed were captured by Ian Anderson.

Belles Face Survival Showdown at Blackburn

Doncaster Rovers Belles have a crunch visit to Blackburn Rovers in the FA Women's National League Division One North this Sunday. Belles will be hoping it is third time lucky as the fixture has suffered two postponements in the last several weeks.

Blackburn are bottom of the table and need a miracle to stay up, while Belles are in tenth place in the table, ahead of York City on goal difference with both a point behind Chester-Le-Street Town, who have a vastly superior goal difference, the other team in the relegation equation.

Belles have shown much improved form since new manager Dylan Wimbury took charge of at the start of February, but they were unable to avoid defeat when they faced Wimbury's former club Cheadle Town Stinglers last Sunday.

Erin Caldecott put Cheadle ahead just before the interval, while Belles had a glorious chance for a late equaliser, but Jasmine Saxton hit her spot kick over the bar. Can Belles avoid relegation to the fifth tier? If they can beat Blackburn and also Chester-Le-Street next month, then taking into account all the division's remaining fixtures, their prospects would be much more favourable than before Wimbury arrived when things looked ominous.

Barnsley Women consolidated fourth place in Division One Midlands thanks to a 2-1 home win over Sutton Coldfield Town in which the goals came from recent signings Maddi Green and Ruby Ormiston.

Sheffield FC's unbeaten home record fell at the seventh attempt, losing 1-0 to third place Leafield Athletic who remain in contention for the runners up spot which would see them in with a chance of promotion to the third tier via a play off with the Division One North runners up.

Brunsmeor Athletic conceded their North East League Cup tie away to Leeds Modernians whose lack of a Southern Division fixture allowed Handsworth the chance to regain top spot from them ahead of this weekend's second meeting between the pair this month. Handsworth go into the game a point ahead, but from a game more.

Delia Hurdis (with her first goal since recently signing from Rotherham), Dani Pinder, Abby Watkinson and an own goal helped Handsworth to a 4-2 home win over Ilkley Town.

Sheffield Wednesday recorded a 3-0 victory at Millmoor Juniors thanks to goals by Keely Franklin, Courtney Kaye, Nicole Shaw. The result leaves Millmoor with just a two point safety cushion from relegation.

Lauren Breen 2 and Sarah Black were on the mark for Rossington Main in their 3-3 draw at Farsley FC.

Rotherham United lost 5-1 at home to SJR Worksop in the East Midlands League Premier Division. It was Rotherham's last home game of the season. SJR, who had been beaten 4-0 when the teams met at Worksop last month, need the points in their bid to avoid relegation and they greatly helped their cause as they recorded their highest score of the season. They forged a two goal lead, scoring in a five minute spell spanning the interval. Ella Mortimer pulled one back, but SJR quickly dashed any hopes of a Rotherham recovery.

Dronfield Town lost 4-0 at home to Notts County Development in Division One North.

This season's Sheffield & Hallamshire County League Cup final will be contested by YP Women and Staveley Miners Welfare after both emerged victorious from their semi-final ties after a penalty shoot out.

Heidi O'Reilly put YP ahead early in the second half away to Barnsley Women Reserves who soon levelled through Kaite McCreadie. YP won the shoot out 5-4.

Brooke Emmerson and Abbie Greaves were on target for Staveley who won their shoot out 4-1 after a 2-2 draw at Sheffield United Community whose scorers were Emily Barker and Holly Jenkins.

The Shield semi-finals were both decided inside 90 minutes, Sheffield Wednesday Development won 4-0 at Frickley Athletic 2nd XI thanks to goals by Yasmin Webster 2, Anna Greenham and Summer Ingham.

Division Three also prevailed over Division Four in the other semi where Millie Stephenson 2, Rihanat Badru and Harriet Plows were on target for Charnock Ridgeway in their 4-2 home win over Worksop Town.

Stocksbridge Park Steels took advantage of their title rivals being involved in Cup action to increase their lead at the top of Division One to 8 points, albeit from having played more games than any of the teams who could pip them to the title. Gemma Harte 2, Jenna McGee and Sam Woodham were the Steels scorers in a 4-2 home win over Dinnington Town both of whose goals came from Brooke Tully.

Courtney Clarke scored the game's only goal as Oughtibridge War Memorial won at Kiveton Park. Frickley Athletic's home game with Handsworth Reserves was abandoned because of injury.

corded a 7-1 home victory over second place Brinsworth Whitehill who had won 3-1 when the teams met a week earlier.

Libby Ardron 2, Lily Holt 2, Sarah Mower, Molly Waite and Ruby Whelan were on target for Barnsley who could well reach a century of League goals in their remaining five games. Millie Lee was on target for Brinsworth for whom it was their heaviest defeat of the season.

Staveley MW Reserves, in third place, narrowed the gap on Brinsworth to three points following their 3-0 home win over Socrates.

Holly Findlay netted both for Brodsworth Welfare in their 2-0 win at Sheffield Wednesday Reserves as they maintained their surge up the table with their sixth successive victory.

Katie Clarke and Jasmine MacDonald were on target for Edenthorpe in their 2-0 win at Millmoor Juniors Reserves. Jenna Bramley netted a late winner with the game's only goal for Rossington Main Reserves at home to Penistone Church, a result which lifted them above Dearne & District who lost 4-0 at SJR Workspop Development.

Division Three leaders Dronfield Town Development gained their first points in three games with Aiyanna Flower 2, Emma Grottick and Eva Middleton on target in a 4-0 victory at Barnsley Women Under-21s.

Chesterfield Town equalled the highest score in the division this season as they netted 7 times at Scawthorpe Scorpions for whom Paige Lister bagged a hat trick.

Georgia Taylor netted both for Maltby Juniors in their 2-1 win at Kiverton Park Reserves, while Sara Tyler 2 and Cassie Barrett were the scorers for Swallownest Miners Welfare in their 3-0 win at Wickersley Youth.

Division Four leaders Brampton United stretched their unbeaten start to 15 games with a 7-0 victory at Courage FC thanks to goals by Ellie Martin 4, Charlotte Mitchell, Stephanie Simpson and Bobbie Tonks.

At the other end of the table Rotherham Town lifted themselves off of bottom spot thanks to a 5-1 win at Bramley Sunnyside with whom they swapped places, but Bramley have five games in hand. Analise Cooper bagged a hat trick for Rotherham whose other goals were scored by Olivia Bell and Lois Wakii. Chloe Anderson scored for Bramley.

Jo Marfleet 2, Sharn-delle Glover, Rebecca Hague and Elisha Jones were on target for Wombwell Town in their 5-1 victory at Sheffield Medics for whom Naomi Cooper-Jones was on target.

Sheffield One Win From Title Glory

CALLUM ROBINSON

Sheffield remain unbeaten and now stand just one victory away from securing the league title after a gripping win over Tynedale at Abbeydale.

Their first home match since January carried real edge, with Tynedale arriving second in the table and fresh from hammering Macclesfield. But Sheffield struck the opening blow when a Tynedale knock on gifted an early platform, and George Castledine raced through under the posts with Callum Posa converting.

Tynedale hit back swiftly through Will Miller after a lineout error. The collisions were fierce, the tempo relentless, and both sides looked capable of swinging momentum.

Sheffield's scrum then took control. A string of penalties forced a yellow card for Miller, and with the extra man Sheffield moved the ball left for Will Smith to finish sharply in the corner. Posa restored the seven point lead.

They kept pressing. A clean break opened space for Elliot Fisher to score, although the injury to Chris Hooper meant a major reshuffle across the backline. Even with the disruption, Sheffield's composure held.

Tynedale struck again before the half with a cross field kick that split the defence. At 19-14, Abbeydale braced for a tense second half.

The restart brought an arm wrestle, with both benches emptied early. The breakthrough came when Jack Dawson powered over on the left, Posa adding the two points to give Sheffield breathing space.

They stretched further ahead when crisp passing released Llew Smith to dive over in the corner. Tynedale replied late, but once Alex Fawdry smashed the ball into touch, Sheffield claimed another huge win.

That victory made it

21 wins from 21, and the stakes this weekend could not be clearer. If Sheffield beat Macclesfield on Saturday they will win the league, because Macclesfield are the only team that can still mathematically catch them.

A win would put Sheffield on 22 from 22 with four matches still to play, and it would seal the championship with an unbeaten record still intact. A perfect season remains possible, but the title itself is now just eighty minutes away.

Sheffield's blend of power, control and resilience has carried them through every challenge so far. Their scrum has become a weapon, their defence stands firm under pressure, and their attacking shape remains dangerous even when disrupted by injuries.

Now comes the biggest afternoon of the season. Abbeydale will know exactly what is at stake. Beat Macclesfield, and Sheffield are champions.

Titans Breathtaking Finale, Tigers Heartbreak Weekend

Rotherham Titans and Sheffield Tigers produced two gripping stories at the weekend as one sealed a statement win and the other suffered late agony.

Rotherham's top of the table showdown with Plymouth Albion at Clifton Lane delivered everything expected of first versus second.

Plymouth struck first through two long range penalties from Iwan Jenkins, then pounced on a chargedown to race into a 12-0 lead. Titans needed a spark and found it when Jackson Barling finished well after sustained pressure, cutting the deficit before the break.

The second half became a test of nerve, and Rotherham's forwards imposed themselves, battering away at the line until a penalty try levelled the contest. Plymouth replied through Jenkins' reliable boot, but the league leaders refused to bend. Xavier Valentine powered over, Isaac Shaw converted, and the game was suddenly locked at 19-19.

What followed was a breathtaking finale. Rotherham broke from deep, almost scoring through Shaw before re-setting for one final push. When JB Bruzulier fed Lloyd Hayes, positioned in the pocket, the fly half struck a clean, nerveless drop goal to win it 22-19 and lift Clifton Lane to its feet.

Coach Harvey Biljon praised the character and discipline shown under pressure, saying: "I think that game was worthy of a first versus second; Plymouth came with a specific game plan that put us under a huge amount of pressure in the first half, and they deserved their lead with the two early penalties."

He added: "In the second half what a tremendous effort by our pack on the line, they were outstanding... Those defensive sets from us through the back end of the game were exceptional as we were waiting to get our opportunity to get back up the pitch." Biljon reserved special credit for his squad's composure, saying: "The players said that our training helped at the end because we do train how to get up the pitch under pressure to get a result and fair play to them... If you pause for a moment and reflect how far we have come as a club in the last two years... we've gone about this campaign as Rotherham Titans; we've not got loan players, we've not got dual registered players... we've just gone about our business as a club and I'm so proud of the squad."

While Titans celebrated, Sheffield Tigers endured an agonising defeat in a 39-37 thriller at Preston Grasshoppers. Tigers had led at half time, but the match swung repeatedly in a breathless contest at Lightfoot Green. Preston surrendered a 16 point lead in the second half, only to snatch victory with a stoppage time penalty from Sam Freeman after a chaotic finale. RFU data confirmed the dramatic 39-37 scoreline and a match that flowed end to end, with Tigers matching Hoppers try for try but ultimately falling short in a contest rich in attacking rugby. It was a defeat that keeps Tigers in the middle of the National League 2 North table but demonstrated their attacking threat and refusal to fold even when momentum swung against them.

HOCKEY

Sheffield's Season Hangs by a Thread

SHEFFIELD
HOCKEY CLUB

ANDY PETTIGREW

Sheffield Hockey Club's Women's 1st team face the prospect of finishing their England National League Conference North season unless they can pull off a famous win at second place Alderley Edge.

Three weeks ago, Sheffield enjoyed their first and very much needed win of the season when they beat Wakefield 3-2 at Abbeydale Sports Club.

The win did not move them out of the second bottom relegation spot, but it did put them on seven points and in touch with Didsbury Northern, the team immediately above them.

Didsbury were one point ahead of Sheffield and a Sheffield draw at last week's opponents Kirby Stephen would have lifted Sheffield above Didsbury on goal difference.

Alas, it was not to be. The visit to Kirkby Stephen did not go the way planned and Sheffield lost 4-1.

At the same time bottom place Wakefield achieved their first win of the season, 3-2 against fifth place Newcastle University, to put them level on seven points with Sheffield but still bottom of the table as Sheffield have a much better goal difference.

Didsbury Northern meanwhile, managed a 0-0 draw against fourth place Fylde and the extra point means that Sheffield have to beat this Saturday's opponents Alderley Edge and Didsbury Northern lose to Kirkby Stephen for Sheffield to move up one place and league safety.

Bowdon 2s are current top of the table with Alderley Edge three points behind in second place and should Bowdon win and Alderley Edge win then Alderley Edge would be promoted.

This Saturday Sheffield need to overcome a determined Alderley

Edge team who are themselves desperate to win. Should Bowdon lose and Alderley Edge win, Alderley would become division champions on goal difference and promoted to next season's North Division One.

Last Saturday Sheffield played at home against Newcastle University full of confidence after their recent Wakefield victory but still aware that they needed a result.

In the first quarter they started well, pressing Newcastle back into their own 23-metre area and winning two early penalty corners but failing to find the net.

By the end of the quarter Newcastle began to find their rhythm and when the second quarter started Newcastle took more control of the match. Madeline Hendry made a great goal-line block, but Newcastle's Mia Julian scored a minute later with a close-range push to give the students the lead.

Sheffield adsorbed Newcastle pressure during the rest of the quarter and managed several break away attacks but the goal they needed eluded them.

Newcastle kept up their attacks on the Sheffield goal in the fourth quarter. On 56 minutes with Sheffield defending well full back Katie Murfin made a goal-line save from a hard-hit Newcastle shot.

Sheffield's valiant defence was finally broken again in the 63rd minute when Newcastle converted their only penalty corner of the second half through a Zoe Mohrman strike.

With seven minutes left on the clock Sheffield tried their best but at 2-0 it was a big ask.

Tempers frayed at the end of last quarter as first Sheffield captain Bethany Sanderson received a two-minute green card suspension and Newcastle's Emily Edwards was also given the same in the last minute of the game.

Player of the match for Sheffield was goalkeeper Lauren Wood who was good throughout the game and in last minutes of the game made two superb saves.

Sheffield could not be criticized for effort in this game but unfortunately the students had the edge for most of match but more importantly they also had the goals.

Sheffield now have to regroup and do their best to find a win at Alderley Edge on Saturday.

Sheffield's Men's 1st team were also paying Durham University 2nd team with a start time of 6.30pm and the large crowd that turned up saw what was probably one of the best matches of the season.

This was an end-to-end match with plenty of excitement and with both sides not having to worry about promotion or relegation.

Right from the start both teams played at a high pace and both sides using aerial balls to bypass the midfield.

Durham University scored on 12 minutes when Charlie Harvey's reverse stick flick flew into the goal at head height just inside the post, quite a remarkable goal.

Sheffield began to take control in the second quarter building good probing attacks from their defensive end.

With just seconds to go before half time Sheffield won their second penalty corner of the game.

Short-corner specialist Harry Faulkner produced a super-fast mid-height flick that took a goal-line deflection into the roof of the net.

After half time Sheffield began to increase their control of the match, upping the pace and frequency of their attacks.

Just before end of the quarter, Harry Faulkner once again scored from a penalty corner, this time flicking the ball low into the right hand corner of the net.

Sheffield's dominance continued through the fourth quarter and despite Durham winning a couple of penalty corners midway through the quarter they could not score against. Sheffield steered their way through to the final whistle and the end of the match.

This match maybe memorable for the fact that the discipline of both teams was at its best with no green or yellow cards shown. It's not very often that no disciplinary cards are shown during men's matches.

Leeds are top, three points above Neston, and would have to lose against Durham University 2 and have a goal difference of plus ten overturned by second-place Neston for the Wirral team to gain promotion. Stranger things have happened, but it is unlikely to happen here.

At the other end of the Conference North table both Ben Rhydding and Oxtan are already relegated.

This coming weekend is the last of the league season with two matches on Saturday 28 March. The first is an inter-club league game between the men's fifth and sixth team starting at 10.00 a.m. at Abbeydale SC and the second of the day is the women's 1st team playing away at Alderley Edge, starting at 2.00 p.m. at The Edge in Alderley Edge.

Sunday 29 March 2.00 p.m. Sheffield Men's 1s play against already relegated Oxtan at Abbeydale SC.

The Sheffield crowd will be hoping that this will be a high scoring match and a suitable one to end the season with.

Sheffield Boys Under-16 A team played in the semi-finals of the EH Boys U16 Tier 1 Super League Vase last Sunday where they played Sutton Coldfield Boys U16s. Sheffield won 2-0 and now go forward to the England Hockey Junior Club Championship Finals Weekend on 11-12 April at Nottingham Hockey Centre.

SCHOOLS SPORT

Sheffield Schools Football Shines On Historic Finals Day

Sheffield's long and proud schools football tradition added another memorable chapter as five historic trophies were contested on a bright and lively Saturday at Warminster Road.

What began in 1889 with the city's first inter school cup competition still thrives 137 years later, and the passion was clear from the moment families and friends lined every touchline at Sheffield University Playing Fields. Supporters travelled from far and wide, the sun held firm over the pitches, and anticipation rippled around the ground as the day's finals got underway.

The action started with the Year 7 showdown between Tapton and High Storrs, a meeting already rich with narrative after High Storrs had beaten Tapton earlier in the league campaign.

The pitch was far from ideal, but both sides produced a superb contest full of ambition and effort. Tapton scored first before High Storrs replied with two well taken goals, giving them the momentum and the lead heading into the latter stages.

Tapton's resilience, forged during their lengthy national cup run, shone through again as they forced a last minute equaliser to take the tie into extra time. With nerves jangling and chances tight, Tapton conjured a late winner and held on for a dramatic victory that felt as much about character as quality.

The Year 8 final brought out the historic Sheffield Wednesday Shield, first presented in 1895. Tapton, champions last year, stepped into their second consecutive final full of confidence, though Ecclesfield's strong cup pedigree meant nothing was guaranteed.

The match carried the familiar energy of two schools with proud traditions, but Tapton's sharp finishing made the difference. Their forwards took the key chances and a 4-2 win sealed another trophy, adding further weight to a growing era of success for the school.

The Year 9 final produced perhaps the day's most dramatic finish. Bradfield arrived as defending champions, fully aware that Meadowhead, who had recently knocked them out of the National Cup, posed a real threat.

Sixth form winners - Silverdale
PHOTO: Cameraman64

The game swung on fine margins, with Bradfield leading for long spells as Meadowhead pushed to stay in the contest. Football's ability to flip a narrative in seconds appeared again as Meadowhead scored twice in the final five minutes to snatch the Sheffield United Shield, first played for in 1907. The celebrations that followed reflected both relief and belief in equal measure.

The return of the Handsworth Cup, dating back to 1936, carried its own remarkable story after the trophy resurfaced this year in a school photocopy room, having been missing for nearly two decades.

The Year 10 final between Handsworth and Silverdale was suitably intense, producing a fiery second half where emotions ran high. Credit to the match officials, who handled the flashpoints calmly and ensured the game continued in the right spirit. Silverdale found two goals at crucial moments, securing the win and taking possession of the long misplaced trophy once more.

The day concluded with the sixth form Heinz Trophy, a relatively youthful prize from 1956. Meadowhead and Silverdale contested a tight, cagey opener with neither goalkeeper troubled before the game opened up after the break. Silverdale found two decisive goals to lift their second trophy of the day and close the finals programme with another moment of celebration.

Players, coaches, families and supporters gathered at the pavilion balcony for the trophy presentations, with Sheffield Home of Football chair Denise Fox, secretary John Clarke and South Yorkshire Mayor Oliver Coppard handing out the honours. Praise flowed for the Sheffield and Hallamshire FA officials whose calm, consistent refereeing helped shape a smooth and enjoyable day. Kitlocker and Mitie also earned thanks for their generous contributions of match balls, medals and programmes.

Planning for 2026 is already underway, with next year's finals set for Saturday 20 March at the same venue. More than a century on, Sheffield schools football remains vibrant, competitive and deeply cherished across the city.

Next up, attention turns to the Clegg Shield and the girls finals.
