LIQUID LIGHT BREWING CO. NOTTINGHAM

Liquid Light Brewing Company was founded in September 2017 in Nottingham, UK. The brewery name is inspired by the artform of Liquid Light projection which started in the 1960s. Beer and music are their two biggest passions in life and it seemed appropriate that the name of the brewery would in some way reference an artform that has historically paired the two. All of the beers that they produce are named around music, either from song names or lyrics.

RAMBLE ON

A single-hopped Mosaic pale giving thick juicy pineapple and thirst-quenching lychee, a serious session beer.

DAY TRIPPER

A huge fruity citrusy aroma and lush notes of orange and mandarin on the palate.

SOLAR SEAS

Thick, juicy, super hazy, heavy pale ale made with a robust malt bill of Extra Pale, Pale Malt, Oats and Munich.

FUZZY DUCK BREWERY LANCASHIRE

The Fuzzy Duck Brewery is an eight barrel (1300 litre) plant located in Poulton-le-Fylde, Lancashire. Demand immediately outstripped supply and after a lengthy search, new premises were found in Poulton-le-Fylde. On 17th October 2006 the first brew, 'Pheasant Plucker' was completed on the new 8 barrel plant.
