Welcome onboard the Nautilus!

The Nautilus online school leadership platform is designed to help you and your team to efficiently capture and evaluate the great work that you do. Our experienced team of school leaders and software developers understand the challenges of good, sustainable leadership.

All of your views will be presented on your dashboard with instant analysis, feedback and reports. In the communal Gallery, your curriculum is a rich photo database of best practice, raising awareness and raising standards. We know that every school likes to do things their own way, we have a full editing suite where you can edit our learning walks, observations, book studies and surveys, or you can create your own in minutes.

Your school is a hive of activity. With Nautilus, you and your team can now spend less time report writing and managing paper trails, and more time celebrating and developing your teaching and learning.

*We know that school leaders love a good adventure story. The Nautilus was the fictional submarine belonging to Captain Nemo, featured in Jules Verne's novels Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea (1870) and The Mysterious Island (1874).*

LOGGING IN

We're delighted that you're going to be joining over a 1000 innovative Nautilus school leaders onboard the platform. It's important to us that you can get off to a great start, and so here's a few things that will help to make sure that we get a smooth launch...

When you receive your invitation to login for the first time.

IMPORTANT Please record and store the following as you set up.

Note: Our tech team are very busy, we do not prioritise lost passwords or ID numbers

- Your unique school ID number
- Your password

Change of Admin?

If you have a change of administrator at any point, please notify us so that we can switch this for you.

The screenshot shows a 'Log In' form with a dark blue background. At the top right, there are three social media icons: YouTube, Facebook, and Twitter. The form contains three input fields, each with a corresponding icon on the left: a person icon for 'Enter Your Account Id *' with the value '13', a person and mail icon for 'Enter Your User Email *' with the value 'jules.verne@gmail.com', and a password icon for 'Enter Your Password *' with masked characters '.....'. A 'Log In' button is located at the bottom right of the form. Below the button, there are links for 'Forgot your password?', 'FAQ', and 'Technical Support'.

PREPARE YOUR TECH

Here's some quick checks for your tech support to make sure that everything can run smoothly. Sometimes, local devices and security may need to be managed to help you to have the best Nautilus experience. We would advise that you test your devices, before proceeding with any learning walks or book studies.

Clear Communication

Make sure that our @nautilus.education domain name is clear to ensure that you can receive login links, password resets or any other correspondence. Check your spam/trash or filters if the emails are not landing or add us to your email contacts.

Your iPad or Tablet Settings

You may need to make sure that the cookies on your device are enabled, otherwise your pages may look like they are working but will be clunky. This is because they are loading the page from your disk cache, and not live from the online site.

READ MORE

Schools often use Proxy Servers. These can filter or block websites. To make sure that our domain/IP addresses are clear, you will need to add these to your system.

TIP: Login and Create Your Shortcuts

Once you have logged in and set up your password, the original invitation email will automatically expire. You can then access the platform from the bottom of our website, or directly here. We would then recommend putting a desktop or dock short cut on your devices for quick access.

Old devices

Please note that some iPads and tablets that are pre-2012 will not support current browser scripts.
