LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

DEAR PARENTS, ALUMNAE, AND FRIENDS,

For 128 years, Dominican Academy has been sustained by people who believe deeply in the power of education rooted in faith, truth, and community. The 2024–2025 Annual Giving Report offers a glimpse into how that belief continues to take shape today—through your generosity, your partnership, and your shared commitment to the young women entrusted to our care.

Community lies at the heart of Dominican Academy, brought vividly to life during our first student-run Dominican Day and sustained through the relationships that shape our students, the commitment of our faculty and staff, the bonds among alumnae, and the generosity of our donors. Together, you make D.A. a place where young women are challenged, supported, and inspired to lead lives of purpose.

This year, our sense of community expanded in a historic way. In September, we celebrated the transfer of our canonical sponsorship from the Dominican Sisters of Peace to Dominican Veritas Ministries (DVM). Dominican Academy is now part of a growing national network of Dominican schools—all united by a shared commitment to Veritas, the pursuit of truth. This broader Dominican community strengthens us through collaboration, shared formation, and a renewed commitment to our Catholic and Dominican identity. We remain deeply grateful to the Sisters for their faithful leadership and loving stewardship, and we are equally grateful to DVM for walking alongside us into our next era.

Your generosity as donors continues to make life-changing opportunities possible. This year, we proudly celebrated new endowed scholarships. The Kathleen Krank Mooney '64 Study Abroad Scholarship Endowment ensures that deserving students can participate in transformative global immersion experiences. The Fazzalari Scholarship, created by Emilia Fazzalari, P'24, and Wyc Grousbeck, will provide a full, four-year scholarship to one new student each year in perpetuity, so that there will be a Fazzalari Scholar in every grade. Both gifts are powerful expressions of personal gratitude, reflecting a deep commitment to sharing the values that continue to shape our graduates.

Because of the strength of this community, Dominican Academy is able to keep tuition affordable while offering exceptional academic, spiritual, and co-curricular opportunities. Together, we do what none of us could do alone—and we do it to the very best of our collective ability. Thank you for your steadfast generosity and your enduring commitment to our mission.

Peace and all good,

Alexandra M. Egler, Ph.D., P'10
President

“ TOGETHER, WE DO WHAT NONE OF US COULD DO ALONE—AND WE DO IT TO THE VERY BEST OF OUR COLLECTIVE ABILITY. ”

LETTER FROM

THE CHAIR OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

DEAR DOMINICAN ACADEMY COMMUNITY,

In my first year as Chair of the Board of Trustees and as a proud alumna, I am deeply aware of what makes Dominican Academy truly extraordinary. Our Annual Giving Report is far more than numbers. It is a testament to belief. It is a celebration of legacy. Most importantly, it reflects our shared conviction that what unfolds within these historic walls has the power to change lives forever.

A LEGACY OF WOMEN WHO LEAD

I give every year, not only as Chair but as an alumna whose life was profoundly shaped here. Because of my family's commitment and sacrifices, I experienced firsthand the transformative power of a Dominican Academy education, one rooted in faith and reason, strengthened through service, and distinguished by academic rigor. Dominican Academy offers something rare and powerful: intellectual challenge, rich cultural experiences, and distinctive traditions that mark each of the four years in ways that last a lifetime. All of this takes place in an inspiring, historic setting that reminds our students they are part of something timeless and enduring.

As someone raised as a practicing Hindu, who later married a practicing Catholic and together raised our son, Valentino, as a practicing Catholic, I have lived a life guided by deep respect for all religious traditions. My Hindu upbringing instilled in me reverence for truth, compassion, justice, and the sacredness present in every person and every path. These values resonate profoundly with the Dominican mission I embraced at Dominican Academy and continue to champion today. The Dominican Order's pursuit of Veritas, truth, through study, prayer, community, and service aligns beautifully with the openness, humility, and commitment to human dignity that I hold dear. Here, faith and reason unite, service becomes a way of life, and community fosters sisterhood across differences. These shared principles form the heart of why I remain so devoted to this school.

Through the Four Pillars of Study, Prayer, Community, and Service, Dominican Academy forms young women of unshakable confidence and deep conviction. Our alumnae carry forward a lifelong sisterhood built on camaraderie, shared accomplishment, and the courage to pursue bold dreams. That spirit does not fade at graduation. It ignites leadership in families, professions, communities, and institutions across generations.

Each of us who gives has a story, a defining moment when Dominican Academy helped shape who we are today. Annual giving honors those stories while empowering today's students to write their own extraordinary chapters. Your support sustains academic excellence, attracts and retains exceptional faculty, expands financial accessibility so more deserving young women can belong here, and preserves the cherished traditions that make the Dominican Academy experience unforgettable.

As trustees, we approach our responsibility with seriousness and discipline. Yet Dominican Academy's true strength lies not in plans or reports, but in the remarkable young women who walk these halls and in the devoted community that stands firmly behind them.

I invite you to stand with us in this shared mission. Share your story. Mentor a student. Open a door. If you are able, deepen your support so that excellence, access, and tradition remain vibrant for generations to come. What we sustain here is far greater than a single year. We are nurturing confident leaders, compassionate servants, and lifelong friends who will shape the world with grace, purpose, and openness to truth in all its forms.

Together, we are not simply funding a school. We are building a lasting legacy of extraordinary women whose character, courage, and sisterhood, grounded in the timeless Dominican values we hold in common, will inspire and uplift the future.

CURRENT PARENT GIVING

Dominican Academy is grateful to have a strong tradition of support from parents of current students. Each year our parent community contributes to the annual fund, scholarship fund and the Spring Auction & Benefit. This generosity supports current expenses that are essential for academic excellence and a robust extra-curricular program, including varsity athletics, college counseling, student-led clubs, and numerous other student-related programs.

THIS YEAR, DOMINICAN ACADEMY PROUDLY WELCOMED ITS FIRST FAZZALARI SCHOLAR

The Fazzalari Scholarship at Dominican Academy was created in 2025, born in the belief that when a young woman is given the opportunity to grow in faith, intellect, and confidence, her future expands in ways she may not yet imagine. EMILIA FAZZALARI, P '24, and her husband, WYC GROUSBECK, established the scholarship inspired by Emilia's own journey as the daughter of Italian immigrants—reflecting the conviction that talent and determination, not circumstance, should shape a student's path.

"It's about opening doors, building confidence, and creating a network of support," Emilia explains.

In fall 2025, Dominican Academy welcomed its first Fazzalari Scholar. The fund will provide a full, four-year scholarship to one incoming student each year until sustaining a Scholar in every grade in perpetuity.

Integral to this initiative is Francesca Geyer '24, Emilia's daughter, who will serve as a mentor to each scholar. Having experienced the transformative impact of a D.A. education firsthand, Francesca will walk alongside these students—offering guidance, encouragement, and a living example of the sisterhood that defines our community.

"The Fazzalari Scholarship isn't just an investment in individuals—it's an investment in opportunity, mentorship, and the promise of what a Dominican Academy education makes possible," said D.A. President Alexandria M. Egler, Ph.D., P'10.
