Key Skills

A CVC Word is a consonant-vowel-consonant word where the vowel makes the short sound.

Teacher Preparation

Phonics Review: CVC Words with /j/
(5 minutes)

1. Review Phonics Skill with Spanish Connection
Say: Today, we will practice reading words with the /j/ sound, like 'mop' and 'word' has a consonant, a vowel, then another consonant. The vowel makes words like 'spell' /j/ with the letter 'e'. In Spanish, the sound /j/ is spelled with 'j'.

2. Reading Practice
Have the students turn to page 13 to read the words in the Skill Words box. You may have students read chorally, take turns, or whisper read to themselves. Also have students practice reading the high-frequency words.

3. Spelling Practice
Say: Now it's your turn to write some words. Have students close their books. Choose 5 words from the list of Skill Words on page 13 for students to spell or use the words below.

Possible words: Dot, got, hot, job, jog, top.
