Origins

The Origins Concept comes from our formative days striving to be different. Innovative painting and lacquering techniques allowed the company to grow and develop; these remain core to Callerton's current offering.

“The decision to choose Callerton again was easy”

Susan & Graeme Belch

“From the moment we first experienced a Callerton kitchen, we were captivated by the elegance and versatility of the designs. The option to customise the paint colours ensured our kitchen would be uniquely ours” Susan reflects.

Having previously owned a Callerton kitchen, Susan knew exactly where to turn when it came time to find a kitchen for her new home—a charming late Victorian sandstone villa. “The decision to choose Callerton again was easy. Their kitchens blend timeless elegance with modern functionality, making it the focal point of our home” she adds.

The design process was seamless, facilitated by her local independent design-led kitchen specialist who ensured a stress-free experience. “The attention to detail and the quality of craftsmanship are what make Callerton stand out. They truly delivered our dream kitchen” Susan praises.

Excellence in Every Detail

Founded over 40 years ago in Newcastle by James Herriot and Gordon Stanger-Leathes, Callerton began as a small property development business. The founders quickly realised their passion and potential in kitchen design, leading to a shift in focus. Callerton was born, embodying the ambition and innovative spirit of its founders.

At Callerton, we take pride in our steadfast commitment to British manufacturing, embracing locally sourced materials to ensure each kitchen is built to perfection. Our dedication to sustainable practices and our status as a corporate member of the Kitchen Bathroom Bedroom Specialists Association (KBBSA) underscores our promise of unparalleled quality and service.

Our passion for pushing the boundaries of kitchen design inspires us to embrace new technologies and aesthetic concepts, creating spaces that are functional, tactile, and visually stunning. Our design-led independent retailers are driven by a commitment to excellence and creativity, ensuring that each Callerton kitchen is a testament to our pioneering spirit in the world of kitchen design.

Find Your Designer

Our design-led independent kitchen retail partners are personally selected based on shared values. Positioned across the UK, they provide outstanding design and project management.

Their designers aim to enrich lives by reimagining spaces, and this journey starts by finding a retailer that understands you. A designer that listens and interprets your desires into a beautiful, bespoke concept that leaves a lasting impression. Backed by a professional team that delivers and project manages your new kitchen from dream to reality.
