Phone Cases & Tech Accessories

Small Leather Goods

Adiantes offers an extensive range of phone cases, including wallet and leather types, designed to combine functionality with sophisticated style. As an MFi (Made for iPhone) certified partner, Adiantes has technical access to Apple products and adheres to stringent quality standards required by Apple. This certification ensures that our phone cases are fully compatible with Apple devices, providing a seamless user experience.

Target Audience:

B2B Distributors: Adiantes is an ideal partner for B2B distributors seeking a reliable OEM brand to expand their product offerings. Our technical expertise and MFi certification guarantee that the phone cases will meet the highest industry standards.

E-commerce and Retail Brands: Brands looking to incorporate phone cases into their product lineup or expand their existing portfolio will find Adiantes' products to be the perfect addition. Our ability to customize designs and ensure quality makes us a preferred partner for retailers aiming to offer high-end phone accessories to their customers.

Adiantes excels in producing high-quality leather components that serve as essential elements in finished goods or accessories. These components include charms, hangtags, and other decorative or functional items that enhance the overall appeal and utility of final products.

Our leather components are crafted with precision and an eye for detail, ensuring they seamlessly integrate into various finished products. Whether it's a luxury handbag needing bespoke charms or a high-end garment requiring unique leather hangtags, Adiantes can tailor each component to meet specific design and functionality requirements.

Target Audience:

Manufacturers of Finished Goods: Adiantes caters to companies producing high-end finished goods that require unique leather components to enhance their products. This includes luxury fashion brands, accessory makers, and other industries that use leather elements in their products.

Accessory Producers: Brands and businesses that specialize in creating accessories such as bags, shoes, and apparel can benefit from Adiantes' expertise in crafting custom leather components that add value and differentiation to their offerings.

Retail and E-commerce Brands: Companies looking to incorporate bespoke leather components into their product lines, whether for enhancing existing items or creating new products, will find Adiantes to be a valuable partner.
