ON COURSE FOR SUCCESS

HORSLEY LODGE corporate golf days

Trade the business cards and budgets for scorecards and birdies – hosting a golf day is the perfect way to entertain clients, thank your dedicated team or raise funds and network for a charity.

A corporate golf day at Horsley offers you a day to remember on our 18-hole Championship Course, designed by former World Champion and Walker Cup Captain, Peter McEvoy with greens built to USGA standard and constructed by the same people responsible for Loch Lomond and Valderama.

We'll work with you and your team to create the perfect corporate golf day. Whatever your requirements, our dedicated team will talk you through all options for the day and ensure every expectation is met.

I've been playing golf for nearly fifty years all over the world including the Lake Course in San Francisco and the Plantation Course in Hawaii. I have to say that the greens today were amongst the very best I've ever played on...superb.
