The Author
FINAL ASSIMILATION

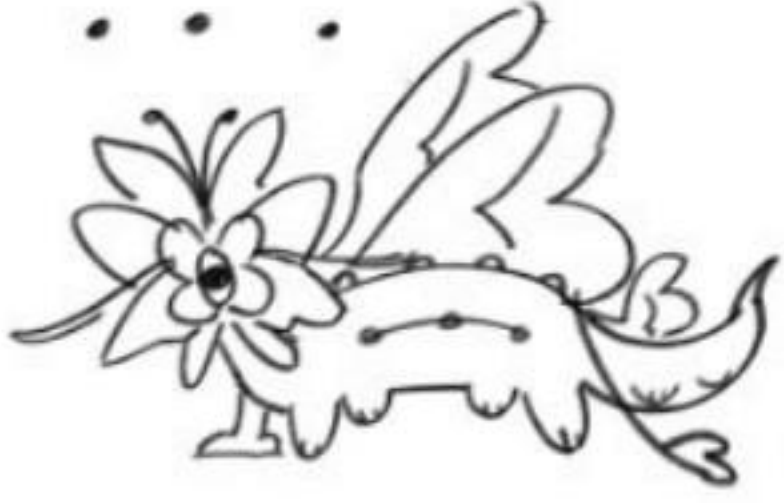

His wings are too heavy to fly long distances, mostly only using them to glide

Top-down view of wings

Side view of wings

Five head wing pairs (ten in total)
He can fold and open them like actual butterfly wings

12'5"
378 cm

(You can add extra limbs, wings, eyes. ect..)
