CABO SAN LUCAS

Cabo San Lucas is a city located at the southern tip of the Baja California Peninsula which has not only beautiful desert landscapes & beaches, it is also known worldwide for being one of the most popular vacation destinations, the Marlin Capital and home of The Arch, also called "Land's End", where the Sea of Cortez & the Pacific Ocean meet. It is hard to believe, that at the beginning Cabo San Lucas was nothing more than a fishing village with a few settlers from colonization time.

SAN JOSE DEL CABO

An ancient culture of agile runners and tireless walkers called the Pericues had lived in the Los Cabos region long before tourism started. They were gatherers, fishermen, and hunters who lived under palm trees, surrounded by birds in the San Jose del Cabo estuary. In the early 1530s, the first expeditions to explore this area were carried out by Hernan Cortés. Therefore, this small town holds adventurous stories since it also once was used as a pirate hideout. Years later, San Jose del Cabo turned into a charming colonial town thanks to commercial ships which had to stop for water and supplies while traveling from Asia to trade porcelain, silks, and other products.

TOURIST CORRIDOR

Connecting San Jose del Cabo and Cabo San Lucas is the Tourist Corridor. A 20-mile, four-lane highway surrounded by stunning views of both the desert and coastline of the Sea of Cortez. You will not only find beautiful beaches where it's possible to enjoy many water activities that range from swimming and snorkeling to surfing and scuba diving.
