

Henderson Foundation Bursary Terms & Conditions

The Henderson Foundation Bursary will be offered for the first time in 2022 with the intention of funding a bursary for a resident of The Women's College.

The donation to The Women's College is an initiative of the Henderson Foundation in honour of Sir Neville Henderson CBE (1899-1986). Neville's connection to The Women's College was in the 1940s and 1950s as a member of the Building Appeal Committee on which he served as Chairman and also a Vice-President.

The Terms and Conditions of the Bursary are as follows:

1. The name of the Bursary shall be 'Henderson Foundation Bursary' and is awarded by The Women's College on the recommendation of the Head of College.
2. The Bursary shall be awarded to a current or future student of The Women's College during the tenure of the Bursary and who is enrolled or seeking to be enrolled at a university in Brisbane.
3. The Bursary shall be awarded to a resident who is from a low income and disadvantaged family who might not otherwise have access to The Women's College experience.
4. In awarding the Bursary, preference will be given to a student from rural or regional Queensland who is in financial need with respect to meeting accommodation expenses.
5. The recipient of the Bursary will not be eligible for any other Women's College scholarship or bursary in that year.
6. The Bursary shall be awarded for one academic year. The Bursary shall lapse upon the student ceasing to be in residence at the College.
7. The value of the Bursary shall be determined by agreement between the Henderson Foundation and the Head of College. In its first year, the Bursary will equate to $4,000 per annum.
8. The Bursary will be terminated if the recipient:
 - is no longer enrolled full-time at a university in Brisbane;
 - not maintaining satisfactory academic progress; or
 - is no longer a resident of The Women's College.
