Creativity™
for Kids

FABER-CASTELL

As we look ahead to 2026, Creativity for Kids® proudly celebrates 50 years of sparking imagination, building confidence, and bringing creative joy to kids everywhere. From the very beginning, our mission has been simple and powerful: we believe in enriching lives through creativity and self-expression. For 50 years, that belief has been at the heart of everything we do.

From the very beginning, our mission has been simple and powerful: we believe in enriching lives through creativity & self-expression.

Creativity for Kids® was built on the idea that when kids create, amazing things happen. Through hands-on, engaging kits, we invite children to unplug, explore, and experience the pride that comes from making something all their own. Along the way, they build skills, confidence, and a lifelong love of creativity. Creative play isn't just fun—it's how kids discover who they are and what they're capable of.

As part of the Faber-Castell® family, one of the world's most trusted names in creativity, we combine this playful spirit with thoughtful design, quality materials, and innovation that parents and retailers can trust. While our products continue to evolve, our purpose remains the same: to create meaningful creative experiences that inspire kids today and for generations to come.

Most importantly, our success would not be possible without our retail partners. You help bring Creativity for Kids® to life — on shelf, online, and in the moments that spark excitement and discovery for families. We value these partnerships deeply and see them as true collaborations rooted in shared passion, trust, and creativity.

As we celebrate this milestone year, we do so with gratitude for the past and excitement for what's ahead. Thank you for being part of our journey—and for helping us enrich the lives of children through creativity and self-expression, one project at a time.
