Harbor Arts

Harbor Arts marks 28 years as a cultural cornerstone in Harbor Country, celebrating over a quarter-century of creative programming that draws residents and visitors to Three Oaks. At the heart of this landmark is Music in the Park, a signature series of free outdoor concerts held Saturday evenings at 6:30 p.m. EDT in Dewey Cannon Park, from Flag Day through Labor Day. Featuring a diverse lineup of musical genres, the series blends returning audience favorites with new and unexpected performances, creating a vibrant summer destination experience.

Beyond Music in the Park, Harbor Arts has spent 28 years activating the region through dynamic arts programming, including art exhibits, radio plays, and Shakespeare in the Park. Many initiatives are developed in collaboration with our community partners WRHC Radio and the Acorn Theater.

As Harbor Arts looks ahead, its mission remains focused on enhancing quality of life for Three Oaks as a thriving arts destination.

GHOSTLIGHT THEATRE

Imagine a stage. A blank canvas intended to spark imagination and originality. A space where artistic collaborations result in compelling plays and where artists come together to teach, guide, direct, and produce theatrical works in their own black box theatre. This is the spirit of the Ghostlight Theatre.

Launched in the summer of 2019, the Ghostlight Theatre is a performing arts gem located in the heart of the Benton Harbor Arts District. The theatre was established by the driving force of co-founders Paul Mow and Martha "Marty" Hesse, along with a pool of local talent, and theatrical art supporters. This innovative playhouse provides a community-based theater that is dedicated to hosting national, regional, and local productions.

Ghostlight's 2026 season will offer seven productions featuring talent from Steppenwolf, Notre Dame, and both coasts. The season kicks off in April with OUR TOWN (dir. Ashley Coia), followed by NEXT TO NORMAL (dir. Paul Mow) in June, a Young Apprentice Program play in July, LITTLE SHOP OF HORRORS (dir. Lari Lawrence-Gist) in August, a co-production of WHAT THE CONSTITUTION MEANS TO ME with Notre Dame (dir. Matt Hawkins, starring Stacy Stoltz) in September, the Midwest premiere of ONE PARTY CONSENT (written/starring Omar Abbas Salem, dir. Caroline Neff) in October, and concludes with AVENUE Q (dir. Paige Mulick) in December.

Ghostlight Theatre displays a strong commitment to community involvement and education by upholding the tradition of the black box theatre as an essential hub for creativity. "As we begin our seventh season," Mow expresses, "we're so proud of our artistic community for consistently providing a high-quality experience to each and every audience." Going beyond the season, the Ghostlight Young Apprentice program is designed for students aged 13 to 19 who have an interest in theatrical arts. With this program, young theatre buffs can dip their toes into the full facet of production including acting, lighting, sound, costume design, and a range of other hands-on stagecraft opportunities.

By showcasing both local and nationally recognized, high-caliber talent, the Ghostlight Theatre promises the perfect blend of creativity, innovation, and expertise. Their passion and commitment allow audiences to witness, support, and encourage the fierce creativity that is alive and thriving in Southwest Michigan.

The continued success of the Ghostlight Theatre suggests it will remain in the spotlight for years to come. And rightfully so.

The Story of Harbor Country

By the Late Ron Miller. Re-written by the Late Marisue Hojnacki. Bridgman section by Mandi Jarvi-Buckland.

New Buffalo

Wessel Whittaker was having a miserable day. Bound for Chicago out of Buffalo, NY, Wessel and his crew, aboard the schooner Post Boy, thought the end might be near. A savage November storm in 1834 grabbed control of their vessel and hurtled it onto the Lake Michigan shore. Aground and breaking up, the Post Boy was lost; but Wessel and his crew managed to struggle ashore near the current village of Grand Beach. The New Yorkers, en route to St. Joseph to report the loss of their ship, came upon a harbor which Whittaker was certain could rival the port of Chicago. Captain Whittaker determined that he would return to the scene of his calamity and found his “New” Buffalo.

Our courageous Captain, of course, wasn't the first visitor to New Buffalo. The Miami, Iroquois and Potawatomi Tribes all fought for control of the area. The Native Americans, the game and fish they cherished, also attracted French traders and missionaries; but it was our Captain who first made New Buffalo into a permanent community. Whittaker, along with friends and relatives, returned in 1835 and began to develop and promote their dream. Sawmills were constructed and log buildings for every purpose arose. More settlers arrived from New York and the South with not dreams, but real hope and expectations, of riches to be harvested here. Soon these pioneers learned the value of tourists.

Land travelers between Detroit and Chicago spent their tourist dollars as they meandered through New Buffalo. In the late 1840s, the Michigan Central Railroad Company completed the stretch of tracks between Niles and New Buffalo, making New Buffalo the end of the railroad line for travelers between Detroit and Chicago. An unprecedented scale of tourism quickly reshaped the town's character. Hotels, restaurants and numerous saloons selling whiskey at five cents a pint opened for business.

Although the railroad continued to contribute to the local economy, it was not until the 1900s and the age of the automobile that New Buffalo truly established its link to tourism. In 1934 the State recognized New Buffalo as “The Gateway to Michigan” and built a tourist information center here. The current Welcome Center on I-94 is the busiest in Michigan.

The dredging of New Buffalo's harbor began in the 1960s. By 1975, New Buffalo's safe harbor had become a reality and the new Whittaker Street bridge was dedicated. Not quite a port to equal Chicago's, Wessel's harbor was finally complete.

Michiana-Grand Beach

Unlike nearby Harbor Country communities, Michiana and Grand Beach were founded solely as resorts. The Long Beach Development Company began subdividing and building Michiana in the 1920s. A famous Michiana landmark was a Signal Oak at the corner of Michiana and Powhatan Drives. Early surveyors marked the tree's trunk to signal the Indiana-Michigan state line. The area that is now Michiana (Michigan side) and Michiana Shores (Indiana side) was originally called Michigan Shores.

Stately white gates have welcomed visitors to Grand Beach since the early 1900s. The community's golf course dates from 1911 and was a huge attraction for Chicagoans who arrived three times a day on the Michigan Central Railroad. Frank Lloyd Wright built homes in Grand Beach, but the village's most famous architectural offering was the 175-room Golfmore Hotel. Opened in 1921, the Golfmore offered concerts, movies and a huge, at least for the Midwest, ski jump located on a dune behind the hotel. The Golfmore was destroyed in 1939 by a spectacular fire.

The Grand Beach Inn was once The Pinewood Lodge and served as the training camp for James Braddock as he prepared for his prize fight with Joe Louis. Perhaps the most famous residents of Grand Beach, are author Father Andrew Greeley and the Mayors Daley of Chicago, who have maintained summer homes in the village for decades.

“ In 1934 the State recognized New Buffalo as “The Gateway to Michigan” and built a tourist information center here. ” driven cars brought in lumber from sawmills along the route. Soon there were brick and tool handle factories sending their wares to Chicago and beyond. The Chicago Fire of 1871 only increased the demand for Union Pier’s natural bounty, but while Chicago was rebuilt, Union Pier’s pier washed away and a new economy had to be established.

In the 1900s, tourism replaced timber, bricks and fishing as Union Pier’s major industry. Union Pier became the United Nations of tourism. Eastern Europeans, African Americans and Jewish vacationers all established homes and resorts in the community. Olympian Jesse Owens had a home here. Chicago Mayor Anton Cermak, ultimately the victim of an assassin’s bullet, brought guests to his summer home by yacht. John Dillinger even stopped for gas at the Prusa Resort service station, which is now the Wine Sellers on Red Arrow Highway. Still, it’s the lake and its sunsets that attract us all.

Chikaming Township

Chikaming Township is made up of the unincorporated towns of Union Pier, Lakeside, Harbert and Sawyer. Chikaming Township stretches into the countryside as far as Weesaw Township on the east and Three Oaks on the south. What has been learned is that the name possibly came from “Chigke-Chickamiw”, an Algonquin word of the Plankashaw, or less probably, Potawatami dialect. Professor Andrade of the University of Chicago defines this word in the dialect of the Algonquin’s as meaning “on the shore of the sea” or more literally “at the edge of the great expanse.” It was originally a part of New Buffalo Township until it was set apart in 1856 as its own township.

Union Pier

Union Pier was founded on an ethic of hard work without visions of a port to rival Chicago in contrast to Wessel Whittaker’s notion in New Buffalo. There was nature’s bounty to be harvested here. Tree trunks measured five feet and more in diameter. Trees rose 60 feet to the lowest branches. Squirrels, we are assured, ran through the community without ever touching the ground. There clearly was no Sears Tower to be seen on the horizon across the Lake, but everyone in what is now Union Pier understood that timber was the fuel which would fire the growth of Chicago. Boards could be big business, and so, a group of men built a “Pier in Union” at the foot of Berrien St. It was constructed as a 600-foot edifice jutting into Lake Michigan. A 130-ton schooner was built on the adjacent beach, tracks were laid to Three Oaks and mule-

Lakeside

Soon after Wessel Whittaker founded New Buffalo, newly arriving pioneers must have thought the village was a bit congested. Perhaps they simply wanted less expensive land. Whatever the reason, the area’s expansion moved north across the Galien River to what is now Lakeside.

As with the other towns developing at the time, one of the first orders of business was to establish a sawmill, but it wasn’t until the 1850s and the arrival of the Wilkinson family that real progress began. The Wilkinsons bought 2,500 acres of land along the lake shore. They focused their energies on the area that is now the intersection of Lakeshore Road and Pier Street. A trading post, boarding house and assorted other enterprises also opened, but the jewel of the village, naturally called Wilkinson, was a 600-foot-long pier. The Wilkinson family’s schooner, Enterprise, took lumber and bricks to Chicago and returned with supplies for the now-thriving trading post. Wilkinson was renamed Lakeside in 1874.

In the late 1800s, with a train now servicing the community, Lakeside’s tourist industry began to flourish. The early visitors were often administrators and faculty members from the University of Chicago. In 1913 the Chikaming Country Club was established in Wilkinson's lakefront resort known as Pine Bluff Resort and in 1914 the Golf Club was founded. The two closely knit (but separate) entities were united in 1928. A replica of Shakespeare's birthplace from the International Stock Show was dismantled in Chicago and transported to Lakeside where it became the Country Club's Shakespeare House.

As Lakeside was developing, and the current Red Arrow Highway was constructed, the original Wilkinson Trading Post moved from its lake location to its current home on Red Arrow where it was eventually restored as Wilkinson Village and now houses an interesting museum tracing the history of Lakeside.

The Lakeside Inn is probably the village's most historic romantic site, movie stars were wined and dined there. During Prohibition, as the tale goes, Al Capone along with a variety of Chicago politicians used the Inn as a favorite drinking and gambling spot.

Harbert

The emergence of the railroad secured the founding of Harbert. John Glavin, an engineer on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad, noted the area's barren land on one of his runs between Chicago and Detroit. Glavin investigated and found the land affordable. He now had a new career. While Glavin founded the community in the 1850s, a Chicago industrialist who was instrumental in building the town's train depot, aced out Glavin when it came to naming the village.

Agriculture anchored the Harbert economy, orchards and vineyards were established. All the town's products were gathered at the Harbert depot, bound for transport to Chicago and Detroit.

The community's most famous visitor and resident was Carl Sandburg who wrote much of his Pulitzer Prize-winning account of Abraham Lincoln at his Harbert home. The Sandburgs lived in Harbert for 15 years.

The Prairie Club held their first series of walks in 1908 under the auspices of the Playground Association of Chicago. The walking group and 330 others took their first walk in 1908 to the Indiana Dunes. They established camps on the lakefront and on February 1, 1930, purchased a 60-acre parcel in Harbert, which they named Hazelhurst Camp. This camp is still very active today; dedicated to conservation and walking.

Sawyer

An Ohio judge, Silas Sawyer, grew weary of the courtroom and decided he would join the westward migration in the mid-1800s. Sawyer bought 100 acres and after clearing half of his land planted it with fruit trees. He continued logging the area and hauled his timber on a horse-driven railroad to Fuller Pier, now the site of Warren Dunes State Park. The town grew as an agricultural center and eventually established an open air market from which buyers transported their purchases by train and truck to population centers.

In the 1920s, John Flynn arrived and started his Palm Tea Room and the Flynn Soda Grill. The Flynn Building became Sawyer's most famous and for many years also housed the Flynn Theater and its live productions.

Sawyer is home to the well-known Tower Hill Camp, founded in the 1920s by the Congregational Church. There is also the Bethany Beach community founded in 1905 and Shorewood Hills, established in 1928. Both are private beachfront communities whose membership came mostly from Chicago-area Swedish Baptist and Swedish Covenant churches originally.

Three Oaks

Imagine this: the President of the United States makes his way to a tiny Michigan village to dedicate a war memorial. He's greeted by a fellow who has turned turkey feathers into a worldwide industry and declared "Three Oaks Against the World."

Edward Warren shook the hand of President McKinley in 1899 at the Three Oaks train station and heard him eloquently dedicate the Dewey Cannon Monument to the good people of Three Oaks and their contribution to the Spanish-American War. The campaign Warren waged against every other city and village in the nation to raise the most per capita for the war effort and its veterans was yet another victory for a most incredible businessman and benefactor.

Three Oaks was linked to the rest of our current Harbor Country communities by the timber and bricks shipped to Chicago and other Great Lakes cities, and, of course, there was the railroad. The crews aboard the Central Michigan Railroad passing through the village recognized three oak trees which appeared to be one because of their mass and proximity. Everyone on board recognized the three oaks, as did the local residents and so the village was named.

Let's pick up the course of Mr. Warren. One day he noticed a store clerk fix a broken whale bone corset stay with a turkey feather quill. An industry was born at that moment. Turkey feather quills became garment stays and buggy whips. The Three Oaks economy was booming and the Warren Featherbone Factory still stands proudly in the center of town.

The biggest events in Harbor Country occur in Three Oaks every year. The "Oakers" claim they have the biggest Flag Day Parade in the United States. Certainly no one will dispute that it's one great party. The biggest event is the Apple Cider Century bike ride which draws thousands of riders from across the country. No buggy whips required.

Bridgman

Situated between sweeping sand dunes, wetlands, and woodlands, Bridgman began as a wild landscape. The region first attracted French explorers in the late 1700s, who made the journey from Quebec by way of the Great Lakes. It would take roughly a century and a half before permanent settlers established roots here, among them Bridgman's earliest resident, John Harner, who arrived in the 1830s.

As the area grew, a small settlement called Laketon sprang up around the local sawmill. Owing to the influence of well-known local resident Charles Howe, the up-and-coming village was officially given the name "Charlottesville" in 1856 to honor Howe's wife, Charlotte - a gesture that left a mark on the area's history.

In 1870, changes swept through the region upon the arrival of the Chicago and West Michigan Railroad. Just half a mile east of Charlottesville, George W. Bridgman mapped out a large plot of land and named it after himself. His land intersected the railroad, fueling rapid development in Bridgman and causing Charlottesville to fade from prominence.

Following 1890, Bridgman greeted waves of immigrants from Russia and Germany. This influx sparked a new era of prosperity and within a decade, the population doubled. Many newcomers relied on work in the fruit and nursery industries, which not only offered jobs, but also enabled families to put down roots and contribute to the growth of the community.

By the 1920s, the Lake Michigan shoreline became increasingly popular. Weko Beach, aptly named after Henry Weber and Bruno Kolander, who built a pavilion along the shore, quickly became a hotspot destination for both locals and travelers from Chicago. The pavilion earned fame for its homemade fish and chicken dinners, lively dances, and concerts featuring musicians from the Chicago Symphony. After the partnership between Weber and Kolander dissolved in 1945, the beach house continued to serve the public as a concession stand. Today, Weko Beach remains a popular attraction, offering food, recreation, and lakeshore access for both residents and visitors.

On December 19, 1949, Bridgman residents voted to incorporate as a city. This decision marked the beginning of a historic new chapter, offering the spirit of progress that remains among Bridgman's residents today. As the city grew and evolved, the focus expanded from local industry and residential life to Bridgman's scenic lakeshore, a treasured asset that continues to play a central role in the community.

In January 2024, The Harbor Country Chamber of Commerce officially added Bridgman as its ninth and northernmost community to its federally registered trademark Harbor Country®.

“ Movie stars were wine and dined there. During Prohibition, as the tale goes, Al Capone along with a variety of Chicago politicians used the Inn as a favorite drinking and gambling spot. ”

THE BOARDWALK

Imagine a venue where the boundaries between indoors and outdoors blur, setting the scene for an unforgettable event. Spanning twenty peaceful acres along the St. Joseph River, The Boardwalk in Benton Harbor offers a remote yet easily accessible location that can accommodate up to 250 guests. From the gardens to the trails and on to the river, this place connects visitors to nature at every turn.

Thoughtfully curated for celebration and connection, the space is alive with vibrant gardens, towering trees, trellises adorned with lush greenery, while the river itself creates a picturesque backdrop for ceremonies and celebrations.

Throughout the property, the scent of the gardens linger amongst the trees and twinkle lights cast a magical glow as the sun dips below the Lake Michigan horizon. An enormous fire table stands at the heart of the outdoor gathering space, encouraging guests to share toasts, stories, and laughter while, nearby, a charming beach offers the perfect setting for bonfires or perhaps a ceremonial dip to mark the special occasion. Extending beyond the immediate grounds, private dinners can be held along the tree-lined trails, where farmhouse tables are elegantly arranged and adorned beneath a canopy of branches that gently sway overhead.

Opened in July of 2022, The Boardwalk combines an elegant, peaceful, nature-filled setting with convenient access to town. Matt and Kathryn Riemersma, owners of The Boardwalk and West Michigan natives, chose the location for its natural beauty and proximity—just 1.5 hours from Chicago and Grand Rapids. Matt credits a dedicated team, and strong support from vendors and staff for their success, “Visions change and ideas evolve and the team makes it work. We couldn’t do it without them. We have the best team that we could have ever imagined, and we honestly owe it to them for making each event flawless.”

Corporate events, team building, even bridesmaids and groomsmen can embark on a voyage that begins right at the water’s edge at The Boardwalk. Adventurous spirits can launch kayaks or hop on a charter boat directly from the shore for an afternoon of fun and then cruise their way back for a top-notch barbeque or an elegant meal prepared by local chefs.

Based on the perfect blend of natural beauty and thoughtful design, a question lingers: Do I want to experience a celebration at this venue? The answer is clear... I do. I do. I do.

VERDANT GARDENWORKS

To pursue his love of the landscape, Chris Walsh went out on a limb. In February 2025, he and his partner, Scott Ferguson, sprouted Verdant Gardenworks. Together, they filled a void by offering year-round landscape maintenance, design, and seasonal décor installations.

The business model of Verdant Gardenworks is simple (and quite frankly, brilliant), offering a subscription-based service that provides design and maintenance initiatives every month. Spring and Fall may call for cleanup including mulch, fertilizer and plantings while Summer and Winter months involve the specific horticultural needs and wants of the client. Be it holiday décor, or pool / porch container design, every month is carefully curated based on the desires of the client.

Chris Walsh

Partnering with Michigan-based growers, the duo taps into plants best suited for Midwest climates. “We provide seasonal interest that creates beautiful and sustainable landscapes for fellow garden enthusiasts year-round. Our mission is to enhance outdoor spaces while promoting environmental stewardship. Month after month.”

While they are based in New Buffalo, they draw inspiration from their global travels. In partnership with Carex International Garden Tours, Chris’ expertise allows for him to host journeys around the world to both public and private gardens. Current trips scheduled for 2026 include: The Chelsea Flower Show, Gardens of Normandy, Dutch Wave Garden, Great Italian Villa Gardens by the Lakes of Lombardy, and Gardens of Japan.

The team at Verdant Gardenworks may travel the world for inspiration but have quickly become rooted in Harbor Country.

Why Harbor Country?

Chris admits, “I’m a sucker for a Lake Michigan sunset and a sunrise on the Galien.”

Favorite Garden Book:

For a glimpse into garden artistry, Chris suggests, “Adventures in Eden” by Carolyn Mullet.

What would you suggest to the younger generation or others looking to get into landscape design?

“Find passion outside and learn to love all aspects of the outdoors. Visit botanical gardens. Sit in silence in the woods in the middle of winter. Frequent garden centers and home and garden trade shows,” Chris encourages. “And put down that phone.”

“At Verdant Gardenworks, we believe that landscaping is an art form,” Chris reflects, “We focus on creating beautiful, sustainable gardens while illustrating your unique style and enhancing the beauty of your home or property.”

Dining & Food

FROEHLICH'S

Froehlich's Bakery, the Three Oaks gem that you've come to know and love for over 30 years, has an amped-up sister just across the street. Born in 2019, Froehlich's Kitchen and Pantry is the larger-than-life sibling that is getting just as much attention from locals and vacationers alike. The large brick building that housed a pharmacy for decades received new life and continues to further the Froehlich's name and tradition of hand-made, thought-out food.

At this place, good luck finding a can opener. Everything here is handmade from scratch with fresh ingredients from local farms. Featuring unfussy and fresh fare, Colleen Froehlich, chef and owner, taps into her family history for menu inspiration that tastes like home. "I grew up working in my grandparents' grocery store, which was a cornerstone of their community," Colleen recalls. "Being part of a farming town meant a lot to my family, and I am proud to continue that legacy alongside my son, Clay. Cooking from the heart and sharing my story will always be a part of the menu."

The crew at Froehlich's works closely with farmers and producers, fostering connections that extend beyond mere business deals. This mutual passion for food and deep respect for each other's work is what elevates both the quality of ingredients and the art of culinary creations.

Froehlich's remains a focal point in Harbor Country. Menu favorites include the Pickled Chicken Sandwich, Pan-Fried Spaghetti, and Colleen's notorious Muffalatta with olive relish, (Froehlich's signature ingredient that can easily be devoured straight from the jar.) "There would be a revolt if I took that off the shelf," Colleen laughs. Rumor has it that a Froehlich's cookbook is in the works for 2026. Let's cross our fingers, eyes, and toes that her olive relish is on page one.

Whether you're relishing (pun intended) a dish from the kitchen, a fresh loaf of bread, or ready-to-go goods from the pantry, you're going to discover something exceptional.

From field to fork, Colleen Froehlich is at the helm, and she and her team welcome you to their village of yum.

Froehlich's: 19 & 26 North Elm Street in Three Oaks or online at shopfroehlichs.com

Froehlich's : Beyond the Menu: Sweet on Elm: 15 North Elm, Three Oaks: The newest addition to the Froehlich's family offers ice cream, nostalgic candy, gourmet fudge, decadent chocolates, and a lot of fun for kids of all ages. 19 North Event Space: 19 North Elm Street, Three Oaks: 19 North is located directly above Froehlich's Kitchen & Pantry. This breathtaking time capsule offers customized in-house catering and a capacity of 400 guests.

LAKE MICHIGAN

FUN FACT:

Crinoid Fossil Beads are a fossilized stem of a crinoid, a marine animal. The fossils, generally a centimeter or less in diameter, tend to be a cylinder with a small hole, resemble unstrung beads. These 400 million year old fossils are abundant along the shores of Lake Michigan and perfect for making a handmade necklace.

FUN FACT:

DID YOU KNOW THAT LAKE MICHIGAN AT ITS DEEPEST IS 923 FEET? THAT'S AS DEEP AS 2.5 FOOTBALL FIELDS!

Wine, Beer & Spirits

DABLON VINEYARDS & WINERY

At Dablon Vineyards & Winery, it's evident that the people behind the wine matter just as much as what's in the glass. Let's meet the team Behind the Bottle - Dablon's cast of wine wizards, grape whisperers, and tasting room rock stars who keep things flowing. Literally.

Influence + Inspiration. Brody Sheldon, Co-Owner. We fuse Old World European winemaking with Michigan's unique terroir to create elegant, world-class wines. Our primary inspiration comes from the Burgundy and Bordeaux regions of France, guiding us to high-density planting, low yields, hand harvesting, and French oak aging. We are especially known for our dry reds, which are less common in Michigan wineries.

Toasting the Namesake. April Bredy, General Manager. French explorer, Claude Dablon, arrived in Michigan over 350 years ago and was one of the first to plant French wine grapes in Michigan soil. As a nod to him, we grow 17 different grape varietals on our estate in Baroda, MI, creating over 30 wines.

Vine to Wine. Rudy Shafer, Winemaker. From the moment of picking the grapes, white & rosé wines get bottled within 4 months. Red & white wines that age in barrels take a minimum of 14 months, some even longer depending on how we wish to enhance the wine.

Flavor + Aromatics. Branden Miskiewicz, Wine Club Manager. Wine flavors and aromas evolve through different methods. Steel tank wines tend to be fruitier, while oak barrel aging produces a smoother taste with more complex flavors and spices. Over time, bottled wine develops additional layers of aroma and flavor.

Top Sellers. Allison Snyder, Tasting Room Manager. Our Cabernet Franc is a fall best seller. During the winter months, the Carmenère and Malbec are popular. Summertime front-runners include our Unoaked Chardonnay and Rosé.

Events at Dablon. Karen Hempel, Events Manager. Dablon hosts events year-round, including winter movie nights, snowshoeing and hiking in partnership with Sarrett Nature Center, monthly wine club sessions, live music, and tours and tastings. Annual events feature our Harvest Party, as well as fundraisers for Lake Michigan College and area non-profits.

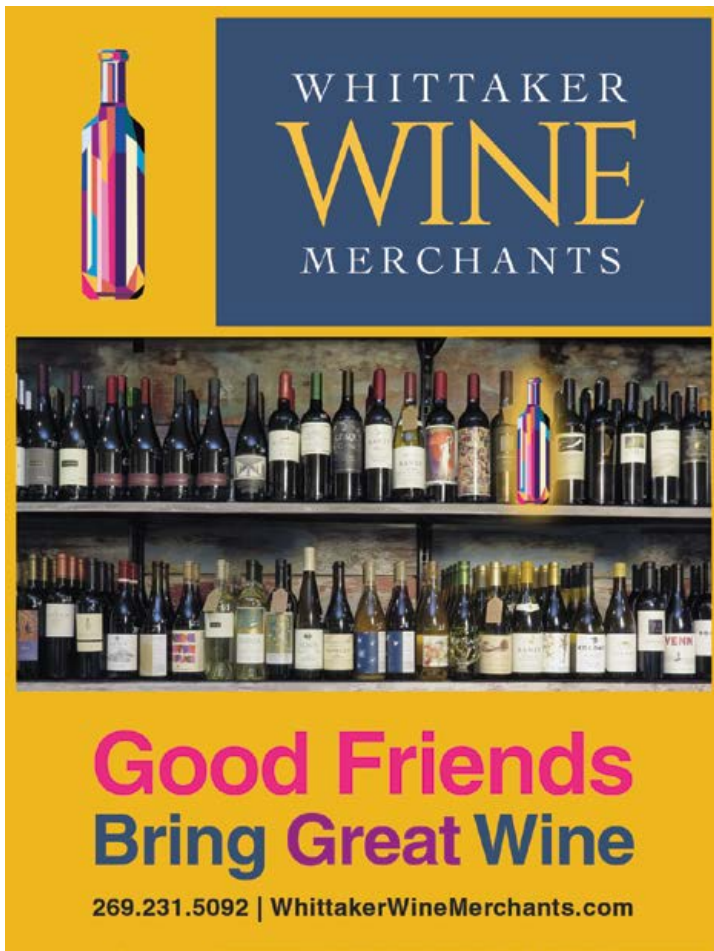

Dablon is steered by a team of wine gurus who could probably turn grapes into gold if they tried—luckily for us, they stick to making award-winning wines instead. From grape to glass, discover Dablon at: www.dablon.com or visit them at 111 W. Shawnee Road in Baroda, MI.

Karen Hempel (Events & Social Media Manager), Brody Sheldon (Co-Owner), Allison Snyder (Tasting Room Manager), Branden Miskiewicz (Wine Club & Sales Manager), April Bredy (General Manager) & Rudy Shafer (Head Winemaker & Vineyard Manager)

SWEETHAVEN RESORT

Tucked away on nine wooded acres in Union Pier, Sweethaven Resort is just that... A sweet haven. Sunrise coffees on the porch. An ice cold beer around the bonfire after a day at The Lake. Board games next to the fireplace. A soak in the hot tub after a day of snowshoeing. And a deep, well rested, sleep. The only question before you: Will you wrangle up the family and go to Skip's or stay put and grill something up for dinner?

Liz and Chuck Garasic, coupled with more than a century of memories made at Sweethaven, have immersed themselves into Harbor Country. Since purchasing the property in 1990 from the Vavra family (the original owners since 1920,) Liz admits, "We wanted to ditch the city and open a bed and breakfast in Harbor Country. We fell in love with the property at first sight, although everyone else thought we were nuts." At the time of the purchase, the original cottages and their contents were quite run down, but after enlisting the help of friends and family, Sweethaven was refreshed and opened for business under the Garasic's on August 1, 1992.

Six unique cottages dot the property, each with its own vibe. The cottages come equipped with all the amenities needed for a comfortable weekend, week-long retreat or an extended summer-long stay.

Light-filled and soul connecting, Sweethaven is an ideal refuge in the heart of Harbor Country, designed for doing it all or doing absolutely nothing.

Reminiscent of the movie Dirty Dancing, moss-covered paths wind around the woods, bicycles are lined up waiting to be borrowed, and the volleyball court invites you to play. The screened porches, sunny decks and private hot tubs offer serene spots to rest and reset while campfires are ready to spark at the drop of a match.

"Throughout the year, Sweethaven is where beach excursions begin, snowball fights breakout, and hayrides happen," Chuck reflects. "There is a feeling of spaciousness and tranquility here that offers even the most tightly wound grown-ups to sleep like babies."

Thanks to their ingenuity, gut instincts and a flutter of the heart, Liz and Chuck continue to create memories for their guests. Year after year. And it's quite clear... They're having the time of their lives.

To book your stay, visit sweethavenresort.com or call Liz and Chuck at 269-469-8112.

A Collector's Guide to Harbor Country's Natural Wonders

by Tim Rogers

Harbor Country doesn't advertise itself as a destination for fossil hunters, rockhounds, and deep-sky photographers — but maybe it should. Between what's under your feet and what's overhead, this little corner of Southwest Michigan offers more than meets the eye.

Start at the water's edge. That jumbled mix of stones along Lake Michigan's shoreline is glacial till — rock and sediment scraped from Canada by massive ice sheets and deposited here during the last Ice Age. Hidden in that gravel are remnants of a shallow tropical sea from the Devonian Period, roughly 359 to 419 million years ago, when Michigan sat just south of the Equator. Horn Corals, Favosites, Trilobites, and Bryozoans turn up occasionally, but Crinoids are among the most common — marine animals that resembled large flowers, left behind segments of their stems and arms as small round beads. And that honeycomb-patterned stone you just stepped on? That could be Hexagonaria percarinata aka, the Petoskey stone, a piece of Devonian coral that once dominated the seafloor. Pick it up and polish it later. You're holding a relic from a vanished tropical sea.

The glaciers brought one more surprise — Syenite rocks containing fluorescent Sodalite. Dull and gray in daylight, this mineral erupts in vivid orange under 365nm ultraviolet light, hiding in plain sight until the right light finds it. Plentiful across the upper Midwest from shorelines to farm fields, it's another reason to never walk this beach without looking down.

And don't overlook beach glass. Lake Michigan tumbles up smooth, colorful pieces daily — best hunted after a storm, when fresh pieces wash ashore.

A few hours after one of Harbor Country's legendary sunsets, the sky takes over. With an unobstructed view north across open water and minimal light pollution, this shoreline is a surprisingly strong spot for night sky photography. The Milky Way arches overhead in breathtaking detail on clear nights, its core rising above the lake like something out of a dream. When solar activity picks up, the northern lights join the show — shimmering curtains of green, purple, and deep red sweeping low across the horizon in a display that feels almost impossible this far south. Keep an eye on space weather forecasts, charge your batteries, and get to the water. Some nights, you won't believe what's out there.

Same beaches. Same night sky. Ancient fossils, glowing stones, and beach glass in your hand — northern lights and the Milky Way overhead.

Not bad for a quiet stretch of shoreline in Harbor Country.

KONO DESIGN AND BUILD INCORPORATED

David Konopacki, President of Kono Design and Build, has established a solid reputation of quality and dependability as a design-build contractor within Harbor Country and beyond. With an eye for design and a mind for mechanics, he delivers designs that are both practical and visually appealing, while reflecting the unique desires of each homeowner.

Whether Kono is building a full-time residence or a serene vacation home, all elements of the home-build process are carefully crafted to offer comfort, convenience, and inspiration. Though David takes pride in being a local boutique company, he taps into his extensive team of suppliers from all over the world. Be it elegant tile imported from Italy or distinctive stonework sourced from Montana, Kono incorporates client preferences into every single project. "Our flexibility in materials and design guarantees a unique and personalized result that reflects individual preferences. With my passion and your dream, David says, "Anything is possible."

From holiday fêtes to casual gatherings, there is one space that consistently inspires David's creativity—the kitchen. "The kitchen fosters a sense of celebration and warmth, he says. "It's the heart of the home that brings friends, family and neighbors together." And speaking of friends, David and his wife, Tracy, have formed many lasting relationships with their clients. "We love the friendships that we've made with the families that we work with. In truth, we've had our fair share of cocktails around kitchen islands that I've constructed, David chuckles. "And on more than one occasion, I may have jumped into a pool installed by us."

Beyond the home, David's skills extend into the yard, offering an impressive range of recreational add-ons. From outdoor kitchens to pickleball courts, pool houses to rock climbing walls, Kono can provide the perfect environment for fun just outside the back door. "We've built homes where families can gather for years to come and provide the space and amenities that create lasting memories," David reflects. Kono Design and Build doesn't just build homes. They build memories. And isn't that what a dream home is all about? Based in Valparaiso, the work of Kono Design and Build extends into Chicago-land, Harbor Country, and the Lake Michigan shoreline. For more information, visit konoincorporated.com or contact the Kono team at: 708-308-1195.

DRIFTWOOD
MICHIGAN

Where Lake Life Feels Like Home

Driftwood Union Pier offers 23 thoughtfully designed cottage and coastal homes in one of Harbor Country's most beloved beach towns.

Local developer Larry Gough, known for New Buffalo's Merchant Street Cottages, envisioned Driftwood as a neighborhood that feels rooted in its surroundings. With decades of experience building in Harbor Country, his focus has always been on scale, character, and lasting quality.

Surrounded by mature trees and natural beauty, this intimate community blends timeless charm with modern comfort. Each home is individually designed with architectural detail and variation so no two feel exactly the same.

Located less than a mile from Lake Michigan, Driftwood connects easily to the shoreline through quiet back roads and nearby bike paths. Residents can ride to the beach by bicycle or hop in the golf cart included with each new home purchase, making sunset swims and morning shoreline walks part of everyday life.

Residents also enjoy a community pool and hot tub, a play area, and access to walking and biking paths. Just minutes from local shops and beloved Harbor Country restaurants, Driftwood is designed for both connection and ease.

Whether you are searching for a second home, a weekend retreat, or a full time residence, you can create a home that reflects your style while embracing the simplicity of lake living.

NEW BUFFALO

Exit 1. New Buffalo. Home to the State of Michigan Welcome Center.

Harboring sights, sounds, and activities aplenty, New Buffalo is a picturesque beach town located just steps from the beach on the Lake Michigan Coast. Here, you'll discover a vibrant downtown district that boasts a variety of dining, lodging, boutique shops and a convenient Amtrak pit stop.

Over a thousand boat slips dot the New Buffalo harbor complete with a public boat launch and a transient marina. Kayaks and paddleboards weave along the Galien River waterway offering aquatic enthusiasts a wonderful way to get up-close and personal with nature as sailboats set sail for a picture-perfect sunset.

Various housing options are available including luxurious coastal homes, in-town homes with walkable sidewalks, and rural residences on the outskirts.

Head west on Harbor Country Drive (aka Whittaker) to catch the first sight of Lake Michigan's very own sunset coast.

Notes of Interest:

Award-Winning School District • Amtrak Train Station • Annual Events from the New Buffalo Business Association • Galien River County Park Observation Platform • Nearby Casino

GRAND BEACH

Enter through the stately white gates and you've arrived inside Grand Beach Village. Welcoming visitors and Chicago politicians to the village since the early 1900s, Grand Beach is home to a public golf course, nearly 50 Sears & Roebuck cottages and three Frank Lloyd Wright homes. Initially developed as a resort area, the residents are part of an association that carefully preserve their way of life in the community. While most of the surroundings have remained the same, the lifelong memories and tight knit community have visitors coming back year after year.

MICHIANA

The southernmost beach town of Harbor Country® is best known as "Michiana." This rustically charming village offers a quiet and residential neighborhood. Log homes built amidst the woodlands and dunes line the shores of Lake Michigan. A familiar question in Michiana is, "What stop are you at?" referring to the old bus route stations that still dot Lake Shore Drive. The bus stop markers remain as landmarks to navigate a variety of Lake Michigan beach access points.

UNION PIER

Four miles north of New Buffalo is Union Pier, a favorite vacation destination with a wide variety of lodging options. Here you will find quaint bed & breakfasts, historic inns, vintage cottages and luxury homes nestled in the woods and along the shoreline. Small, road-end public beaches offer breathtaking views of Lake Michigan as you descend the stairs from the two public beach access points. Outdoor enthusiasts can take advantage of the non-motorized pathway for a morning walk or a bike ride to grab something to eat. Numerous restaurants, shops, breweries, art galleries and bakeries line the main thoroughfare along Red Arrow Highway in this one stoplight town.

LAKE SIDE

A secret hideaway tucked along the serene shores of Lake Michigan, Lakeside is a haven for those seeking off-the-beaten-path solitude. This quaint and lovely town provides a slower pace amidst natural surroundings. Lodging options offer sprawling verandas or lakeside patios, perfect to take in the lake view while sipping on a cup of coffee or a glass of local wine.

Take the afternoon to browse local shops offering fine art, antiques, collectibles, gifts, and more. You'll witness a strong sense of community here, fostered by an active homeowners association, that creates a warm and familiar community.

Step back in time in Harbert. This quaint and peaceful town hasn't changed much since the days poet Carl Sandburg and his goats roamed its wooded lanes. Retaining its natural beach town appeal, this laid-back neck of the woods is home to artists, artisans, writers, and retirees.

Harbert offers a small-town vibe with ties to a Scandinavian history. Several Swedish inspired establishments co-exist with restaurants, a specialty coffee roaster, antique shops and a post office. Visitors are welcome to cycle or stroll along the non-motorized path to Harbert Community Park, a popular attraction for visitors and residents alike with its playgrounds, fishing pond, and the Chikaming Dog Park. The park hosts several free concerts and movies during the summer and the popular ice-skating rink in the winter.

SAWYER

As home to one of Michigan's top travel destinations, Sawyer offers something for everyone. The star of the Sawyer show is Warren Dunes State Park, offering acres of hiking trails that meander through sand dunes and woods, a campground, and a dedicated dog-friendly beach. For the thrill seekers, sledding and sand surfing the 3-story tall dune, Tower Hill, provides a rush of adrenaline while taking in the stunning vistas of Lake Michigan.

Head one mile east on Sawyer Road to the downtown area. Several blocks buzz as locals and tourists alike happily mingle at the local craft brewery, a palatial garden center, a local coffee roaster, restaurants and art galleries. Year-round home enclaves are tucked into the dunes near the lakeshore or extend to the east to bountiful farmlands.

Note of Interest: As the sun dips into Lake Michigan at the end of the day, catch the phenomenon of viewing the Chicago Mirage, which reflects the city skyline located 60 miles west, across the lake. It's quite the spectacle.

THREE OAKS

As the heart of arts and culture in Harbor Country, Three Oaks is a modern community with strong historic roots, particularly in agriculture and arts. Visitors can leisurely stroll the tree-lined village in the downtown district to discover art galleries, eclectic shops, a library, restaurants and antique stores. And there is absolutely no shortage of entertainment. Take in a live performance at the intimate live music venue or catch a flick at the historic arthouse cinema while sipping on a cocktail. Experience one of Michigan's largest organic distilleries offering a putting-green course and distillery tours and tastings.

Residents of the village enjoy what many call the "Pleasantville" of Harbor Country. It's a tight knit community where neighbors gather, and businesses thrive with the support of the Three Oaks Downtown Development Authority.

Located a few miles north of downtown Three Oaks, you'll find Warren Woods, an amazing hiking destination. While there, pop into the Harbor Country Chamber of Commerce office for a pit stop or a water bottle refill.

BRIDGMAN

The northernmost town in Harbor Country and the gateway to our local wine region, Bridgman delivers a friendly community that serves up a downtown district filled with fun lively restaurants, boutique shops, and craft breweries where business owners greet you with a beach town smile.

In the summer, residents and visitors alike gather in the mural-painted square to enjoy beach vibes, live music and the local cuisine. The residents of this area consider themselves caretakers of the natural beauty that surrounds them and are grateful to live and work in such a place. Generations of families established their heritage here, where wholesome and meaningful living is the intent. A place of pristine woods, prairies and never-ending warm sandy beaches, Bridgman is the year-round dream for any outdoor enthusiast.
