On being a Caregiver

What is the heart and soul of senior housing? Who is the heart and soul of senior housing?

Caregiving and Caregivers.

Our business is alive and supported by a very large group of wonderful people – our Caregivers. We all know that without our caregivers, we don't have our industry. Currently we are in what some have referred to as a crisis situation. This is in response to the difficulty of finding good quality people to care for our elders.

Think how difficult of a job this may be. You, as a caregiver, are responsible for daily tasks such as bathing, passing medications, helping to dress, and grooming. But as any caregiver can tell you, the larger responsibility of the job is the social interaction between caregiver and elder. That is why, when searching for good caregivers, the "culture fit" is more important than the technical task abilities. You can provide training for skills – but you need to start with their Goodness. You hire Good people – then you train the tasks. Caregivers need that goodness within them, as across all business types (assisted living, nursing homes, childcare, disabled), it is imperative for the job.

Leaders and business owners must see themselves as caregivers. By this, I mean we need to care for the caregiver. Be good to your caregivers and they will be good to our elders.

Take care, Dennis Garboden

I live each day like it is my First!

As I travel around the country, my greatest pleasure is connecting with elders living in our communities. If the community has an available apartment I stay as a guest. I visited Majestic Rim Retirement Community in Payson, Arizona and met an incredible 90+ year old woman named Edith. I recorded her stories for our Tiny Stories[™] program and then Edith invited me to go hot-tubbing with her and Denise. We laughed as Edith showed me how she could still raise her feet above her head.

As we soaked in the hot tub we shared stories and talked about life. Edith said, "You know, I believe in life before death." I said, "Really, tell me more!" She shared more of her personal stories of both hardship and joy. Edith reflected that life is a journey of mountaintops and valleys. She said living in the present is the key. "Today is the day where we have a choice to find our happiness." She said, "I live each day like it is the first day of the rest of my adventure?"

This was a big 'aha' for me! Yes, life affirming words from a wise, down-to-earth elder!

Delivering (Appiness by

An estimated 5.7 million Americans have Alzheimer's or other dementias. At home or in senior housing communities, creating beautiful, vibrant, and active cultures where those who have cognitive loss can live with joy and purpose is important.

We believe that those who have memory loss can participate as fully capable people in an environment where the mind, body, spirit, and soul is stimulated promoting physical and mental wellness.

In our senior housing communities we have designed LivingMemoriesTM spaces to evoke memories of home life, work life, and creative endeavors.

We recognize that elders do not live in our work-space. We work in their living space.

These spaces encourage the elders to self-direct their own lives as they remember and practice routines or life skills that were previously part of their daily lives. The team member role is as trusted friend and family, supporting when needed.

We have seen first-hand men and women in the nursery nurturing dolls as their remembered babies. It is heartwarming as they dress them, feed them, change their diapers, and even sleep with them at night. The parent and/or grandparent role is validated, inspiring a sense of purpose, love, and belonging.

In the LivingMemories[™] Nursery we have noticed that those who haven't talked in a while are now talking; and in one instance, a person who was anxious, agitated, and refusing food is now eating. Dorothy had been known to wander and exit seek. She has now found purpose and love by taking care of her "baby" in the nursery - often sitting for hours rocking the baby.

Dottie, who loves all things that sparkle, enjoys the LivingMemoriesTM Beauty Salon where she models the jewelry collection.

When I visit the LivingMemories[™] Neighborhoods my heart sings as I see care team members engaging with elders, entering their reality, and sharing their memories.

I see a young care team member learning alongside an elder craftsman, Ruben, at a workbench. Another care team member is offering to baby sit as the mothers and the grandmothers take care of the nursery. A caring Administrator purchases flowers for Don, an avid gardener, and listens to him explain to her the proper way to plant and grow beautiful flowers. Gerri, once an FBI agent sits at her desk to review the daily schedule, telling me that she is in charge of making sure the employees wear their name tags. Francesca, a pianist is playing piano at the LivingMemories[™] music center as Adele dances. We are unique. Our team members truly work as a family unit to create and support a sense of purpose, love and belonging, self-esteem, safety, and home.

Our care teams are delivering happiness – and receiving it too!

un Times at Peachtree Village Retirement Community

It's that time of the year again – time to dust off the barbecue and gather the family together to celebrate summer! As happy as you are to kick off the grilling season, that same old barbecue sauce is eventually going to wear out its welcome.

If you're tired of traditional sauces every summer, try looking for new inspiration. Add a twist to your grilling favorites with an unlikely recipe helper: California Raisins. Raisins add a deliciously sweet zip to savory relishes and homemade sauces, and as an added bonus, all the flavor that California Raisins bring to your recipe is even better because the fruit is fat- and cholesterolfree, as well as naturally low in sodium. This grilling sauce recipe is sure to add refreshing flavor to any summer favorite.

> Start to finish: 40 minutes Servings: 24 Serving Size: 2 tablespoons

Ingredients:

1 cup prepared barbecue sauce
 1 1/2 cups California Raisins
 1 cup husked and chopped tomatillos
 1/2 cup lime juice
 1/2 cup water
 1/3 cup chopped onions
 1/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon
 1 to 2 chipotle chiles, canned in adobo, minced, and sauce, to taste.

Directions:

Combine ingredients in small saucepan; cover and simmer for 30 minutes. Let cool. Then, puree in blender or food processor.

The sauce is tops on chicken or ribs or even as a zesty dressing for juicy burgers!

/rapefruit & Quinoa Salad

Ingredients:

1 Texas Rio Star Grapefruit, sectioned and peeled (reserve the peel)
1 Texas Orange, sectioned
8 thin slices fresh ginger
1/4 cup extra-virgin olive oil
3/4 cup quinoa
1/2 teaspoon kosher salt, plus additional for seasoning
1 tablespoon white wine vinegar
2 teaspoons honey
1 small serrano or jalapeno chile, minced
2 scallions, minced
2 carrots, peeled and diced
2 tablespoons chopped fresh cilantro leaves
Freshly ground black pepper

Optional Additions: Baby Spinach or Spring Mix Lettuce Apple or Pear wedges

Directions:

1. Warm the grapefruit peel, ginger and olive oil in a small saucepan over medium heat. As soon as the oil starts to bubble, remove from heat. Set the oil aside to steep for 30 minutes. Strain and reserve the oil.

2. Meanwhile, rinse and drain the quinoa, and follow the package directions to cook. Transfer the quinoa to a bowl and fluff with a fork. Cool.

3. Segment the grapefruit over a bowl, reserving the segments and juice separately. Whisk 3 tablespoons of the grapefruit juice with the vinegar, honey and salt to taste in a medium bowl. Gradually whisk in 3 tablespoons of the reserved grapefruit oil, starting with a few drops and then adding the rest in a stream to make a slightly thick dressing. Season with pepper to taste.

4. Toss the quinoa with the dressing, chiles, scallions, carrots and cilantro. Season with salt and pepper, to taste.

5. Toss the grapefruit segment into the salad, divide among four plates. Serve warm or at room temperature.

6. Serving suggestion: This salad makes a great packed lunch. If you want to serve this salad at dinner, try it with grilled salmon.
