Dear JEA Members and Friends,

Welcome to our 72nd Annual Jewish Educators Assembly Conference in Atlanta!

- For 72 years, we have been advocating for Jewish educators.
- For 72 years, we have been promoting excellence in Jewish education.
- For 72 years, we have supported Conservative movement synagogues and their education programs.

And, the work will continue for the next 72 years, because as we read in Pirke Avot: It is not our duty to finish the work, but neither are we at liberty to neglect it.

I am proud to be part of the new generation of JEA members who are taking our organization forward. Much has changed in 72 years, and we have already risen to the challenge. With new technology, new learning modalities, new understandings of neurodivergent learners, new and ever-changing demographics, the need for meaningful and engaging Jewish education remains.

At this conference, appropriately themed, There is Something New Under the Sun, we are discovering more ways to continue our mission with new ideas, new programs, new methods, and new energy. We are already succeeding in many communities and we look to help more schools make their vision a reality.

Last year, we created a Strategic Plan that included our renewed partnership with the United Synagogue for Conservative Judaism (USCJ). With their support we have been able to increase our outreach to meet more educators and lay leaders within our movement. We are making sure that everyone knows our name and we will increase this effort in the coming year.

Kol Hakavod to our dedicated conference chairs, Debbie Deutsch and Aviva Tilles, and to their hard-working committee, Melissa Ser, Cathy Berkowitz, Rebecca Gordon, and Babette Cohn. I am grateful to Executive Board, Larry, Cathy, Jason, Melissa, Debbie, Rebecca, and Aviva, and our General Board for their tremendous support as I navigated my first year as Executive Director.

And finally, Mazal tov to our Lifetime Achievement Honoree, Dr. Larry Katz, who set the bar high with his leadership and continued service to the JEA. We stand on his shoulders. Chazak chazak v'nitchazek. May we all go from strength to strength.

L'shalom,

Rabbi Robin Foonberg
JEA Executive Director

Hello JEA Members and Friends,

It feels like yesterday that I took on the role as President of the JEA. This has been a rewarding year of change and enhancements for our organization, and I am happy to be a part of a great team.

This is a new and exciting time for JEA! Our partnership with USCJ has been wonderful. Having the support and trust from United Synagogue has been a positive and renewed opportunity. Together we are strengthening our movement and engaging with colleagues all over North America and the world.

We have had the opportunity to engage and partner with our colleagues in Israel and open new discussions with other organizations to help us in our new vision. While all of this is going on we continue to focus our efforts and attention on our membership and the needs of our colleagues so that everyone has a place they can go to for help, teamwork, comradery, and so much more.

I want to thank our Executive Director, Rabbi Robin Foonberg for all her hard work and dedication. I want to thank the Executive Board and the General Board for their direction and continued dedication to making JEA all it can be and beyond.

I want to wish our honoree, Larry Katz, a Mazal Tov on receiving the Lifetime Achievement Award. Larry is not only a past president for JEA, but he has also been an active member and has devoted his life to the betterment of Jewish education worldwide. I also want to wish congratulations to all the new CJE honorees on this milestone. This is a well-deserved award and enhances your professionalism and your credentials.

Finally, to all our members who support this organization, your membership, time, and commitment to Jewish education is unsurpassed.

May we call go from strength to ever greater strength, supporting one another, and counting on each other, day after day, week after week, and year after year.

Rabbi/Cantor Larry I. Brandspiegel
JEA President

Dear Colleagues:

On behalf of both USCJ and the Rabbinical Assembly, I wish you every success as you experience the 72nd annual JEA conference. While Kohelet may say, "Ein hadash tahat hashamesh -- there is nothing new under the sun," in fact the siddur also speaks of the idea of God's daily renewal of creation, "Hamehadash b'tuvo b'khol yom tamid." In fact, something is always new in our work as educators, and in our world! I am so pleased that this conference will focus on new needs and new approaches in the field of Jewish education. I hope it inspires a sense of renewed creativity and optimism in a challenging time in the professional life of our educators and the Jewish people.

I am also pleased that this conference is the first during Rabbi Robin Foonberg's tenure as Executive Director of JEA, and in her role as Education Specialist for USCJ. This JEA-USCJ partnership is crucial as we seek to strengthen Jewish education within the Conservative/Masorti Movement, as we seek to engage and strengthen all of our movement's education professionals.

In fact, our movement's approach to Jewish life -- a balance of tradition and modernity -- is needed in the world now more than ever. I know that every day you inspire students and families to become their best selves, belong to a strong Jewish community, and believe and find meaning through our balanced approach to Torah and tradition. Some days it is exhausting, and other days incredibly rewarding, and on other days it's both at the same time. Along with all of my colleagues at the RA and USCJ, I thank you for your tireless efforts.

I wish you continued success in your work, and much inspiration in your time together at the JEA conference.

Warm regards,

Rabbi Jacob Blumenthal

In Proverbs, it is written “through wisdom is a house built, and by understanding it is established. We are so proud to have built this home of Jewish learning and living with you.

We can only strive to fulfill as many mitzvot in service to our community and home as you have. Thank you for instilling so many important values that have helped shape us into the people we are today.

You have set the bar high.
We hope we can reach that level!
