SEWA INTERNATIONAL UK

UK Charity, Sewa International is a charity organisation entirely run by dedicated volunteers, heralding from all sections of the community and working together to serve Humanity.

Sewa International helps those less fortunate than us, giving them a new lease of life with your help and support.

Join us by giving aid to the poor, the needy and the underprivileged.

You can make a difference...

Thank you for your support without which none of this would have been possible. We look forward to your continued support in the future

EDUCATION AID

During the year – with your support we have continued to support the 550 children in the 13 states across 259 schools. All the children have made good progress with their studies and moved on to the next stage in their education.

Our offices in Delhi have received all the reports for all the children. They have also had very good feedback from parents, teachers and the children themselves.

We are planning to sponsor 50 more students for the year 2009/10 and to this effect we have identified the following states: Orissa / Bihar and Chhattisgarh

OUR AIM - We continue to work towards our target of 5000 children by 2015. This seems an almost impossible task but now that a system has been established for both selection and monitoring on the program we are confident that we can make great strides over the coming years.

Earlier this year two of our team members visited the Delhi and Mumbai offices (see report inside) to agree on the activities and a timetable for providing reports for the coming year.

Sewa Project Visit Report – Delhi & Mumbai

By: Damji Tank

Sewa International UK

I was fortunate enough to travel to India and see projects managed by Sewa International – India. The purpose of the trip was to agree sponsorship of projects and agendas for the coming year – 2009 / 2010.

The projects that I saw and visited catered to all different aspects of service – ranging from an orphanage to visiting projects in the slums of Delhi.

DELHI SEWA PROJECTS

Ram Mandhir Project

The first project we visited was “RAM MANDIR” at Raghuvir Nagar in Delhi. This project is an Integrated Slum Development Project being run to benefit the inhabitants of the nearby slums.

Ram Mandir

Matrichhaya Project

We then visited “MATRICHHAYA”, a child adoption centre at Miyanwali, Paschim Vihar, New Delhi. There were 19 small babies at the centre of which 17 were girls. This was a very emotional project. We had the privilege of spending some quality time with these small babies. We met with two of the board members, care workers and volunteers of the centre.

Matrichhaya Project

Whilst at the centre a baby named Deepti was being placed for adoption. Deepti was handed over to the new parents by Mr. Bharat Vadukul and me whilst chanting Vedic

Deendayal Upadhyay Marg, Jhandewala

We met with Shyam Parande (general Secretary Sewa International), Navin Prasad and Arjun Lal Sharma (Vice Chair – SEWA International UK) and discussed issues relating to education aid and its functioning both in UK as well as in India. We also deliberated on the possibility of adopting projects for health, rural development and social development to be managed from the Birmingham office of Sewa International UK, in near future.

Keshav Vihar Project

We visited - KESHAV VIHAR in East Delhi. It was our first opportunity to see a slum from such a close proximity and to have one to one interaction with the dwellers. Sewa International has a welfare centre in the slum itself. We witnessed small boys & girls attending tuition at the centre and young students being taught computer education. We also had the chance to visit a slum dwellers house where we were treated to tea and snacks. We were happy to hear from the family that their four children are now earning with the training & education they have received from Sewa International. The people were very affectionate. The lady of the house also sang Bhajans for us in their local dialect.

MUMBAI SEWA PROJECTS

VATSALYA TRUST, MUMBAI MUMBAI

Bharatbhai Vadukul and I visited Vatsalya Trust accompanied by Ramesh Subramaniam Iyer of Sewa International, Mumbai.

Two trustees showed us the work of the Vatsalya Trust. We were surprised and astonished to find that the youngest trustee was 78 years old; this demonstrates the dedication of this group.

Balikhshram

Balikhshram is a home for 49 girls, between 7 and 17 years.

Vatsalya not only provides shelter, nourishment, medical care and education but also development facilities to these girls ensuring that they become more confident and self reliant when they return to their families.

Educational Assistance

Vatsalya Trust has also undertaken the financial responsibility of providing education to 20 students in and around Mumbai in some of the best schools in Mumbai.

Child Care And Rehabilitation Centre

Vatsalya's flagship activity 'Child Care and rehab Centre'. In the last 23 years Vatsalya Trust has reached out to 1092 children and has successfully placed 900 of these children into good families through adoption since January 2008.

At any given time there are approximately 60 children in the child care and rehabilitation unit.

PERSONAL PERSPECTIVE

Having visited the Sewa Offices and seen the Sewa projects in Delhi and Mumbai, Bharat and I had the opportunity to gain an insight into the good work carried out by Sewa International. I strongly believe that everyone visiting India should visit some of the Sewa projects which I am sure will give you an insight as to how even a little donation can effect such a large group of people. There is valuable work being carried out by Sewa international which is improving and progressing the lives of those less fortunate than us, yet mentally and emotionally those receiving the aid of Sewa International are people who do not believe in self-pity. With your help it gives these people hope and courage to better their lives and their future generations.
