OHIO TRAVELER'S AWARD

2025-2026

A black and white outline map of the state of Ohio. Twelve large, empty circles are placed across the map, each with a horizontal line underneath it. The circles are positioned roughly as follows: one in the northwest, one in the north-central area, one in the northeast, one in the west-central area, one in the central area, one in the east-central area, one in the southwest area, one in the south-central area, one in the southeast area, one in the south-central area, one in the south-east area, and one in the south-west area. The names of various Ohio locations are printed in a serif font around the map, with horizontal lines below them for identification. The locations are: TOLEDO (top left), CLEVELAND (top center), THE FIRELANDS (middle left), AKRON (middle center), DAYTON (middle left), CANTON (middle center), COLUMBUS (bottom center), STEUBENVILLE (bottom right), GINGINNATI (bottom left), CAMBRIDGE (bottom right), and GALLIPOLIS (bottom center).
