Series Synopsis

If cops were ever "friends and helpers", it's the officers we meet in "Cops & Companions". Sure, they can whip out their guns and chase criminals through the mean streets of Hamburg along with the best of them. But more often than not, you'll find them listening to the grandmother who has just been robbed, tracking down the thugs who blackmail shopkeepers, helping young people stay away from crime, stepping in to prevent a potential suicide, or comforting victims...

Their precinct might include the pimps and racketeers of the red-light district and the patrician families of the finer neighbourhoods, but these cops are more at home among the city's ordinary folk, who are just trying to cope with life as best they can.

and unexpected twists!

Department Change

The previous department changes...

...to the new department in season 33.

Season Synopsis

When an explosion leaves their Mendelssohnstrasse headquarters badly damaged, the Hamburg squad is forced to vacate the precinct that has housed them for the past 28 years and relocate. "The New Station", the first of Season 33's 16 episodes, marks a turning point in the history of this TV classic.

With a whole new set to work with, the series gets a major update in terms of both content and visuals. The two-storey precinct is quite something, combining state-of-the-art technology with a warm and welcoming atmosphere.

Main Characters

Dirk Matthies*Police officer

Dirk Matthies is the 14th Precinct's longest-serving police officer. He works hard to uphold the law in his patch – and in recent years has proven to have a knack for infiltrating the criminal underworld and carrying out covert investigations.

Dirk knows who he needs to call to prevent problems from escalating, and he is famous for keeping his cool when interrogating suspects.

Ms Küppers*Chief

The chief of police commands absolute respect from her officers. She is the one in charge, making decisions and facing up to the authorities on behalf of her team when need be.

A sudden cancer diagnosis forces Ms Küppers to reassess her priorities in life – and come to a surprising conclusion.

Harry Möller*Police officer

During her many years on the force, Harry Möller has pretty much seen it all. Yet the cases she deals with never fail to affect her. She is compassionate to the core, and a wholehearted advocate for the greater good, society's most vulnerable, and even those at its outer margins.

Sometimes, however, her powerful sense of justice can be more of a hindrance than a help. The law is the law, after all, and Harry can't save everyone.

Main Characters

Hannes Krabbe*Police officer

Hannes Krabbe is the station's duty officer, acting as the central hub for incoming and outgoing operations. He is also the go-to person when the team needs interpersonal conflicts to be resolved. The 14th Precinct is like family to him.

Meanwhile, his colleagues are well aware that Hannes is the backbone of the team. Without him, the whole operation would fall apart.

Lukas Petersen*Police officer

Hamburg native Lukas Petersen is a born diplomat who can de-escalate a crisis without resorting to handcuffs. He has learned to deploy his innate kindness to defuse hate and hostility, partly because he believes in the fundamental goodness of humankind.

His partner, Nina, sometimes accuses him of being naive, with some justification. However, even she is not immune to his natural charm.

Piet Wellbrook*Police officer

While his fellow-officers generally take an empathetic approach towards the people they deal with, Piet struggles to decode impulsive and irrational behaviour.

He couldn't care less what other people think of him and takes self-sufficiency to a whole new level.

And even though his attitude may ruffle a few feathers, his colleagues are willing respect him for his unfailing loyalty to the squad.

Main Characters

Daniel Schirmer*Police officer

Daniel is a bit of a know-it all who is often to be found railing at humanity's general incompetence

Despite his tendency to explain things at length or watch open-mouthed as Hannes Krabbe immerses himself in a new, seemingly pointless endeavour, everyone – especially Hannes – appreciates his keen intelligence and insight, and his preternatural talent for making complex connections when working on a case.

Nina Sieveking*Police officer

Life has never been easy for Nina. She has always had to fight to get what she wants and needs. It turns out that she can win most of her battles by deploying her natural charisma. Should someone prove immune to her charms, however, she doesn't shy away from asserting herself.

Nina's partner, Lukas, loves her for it, but unlike her, he knows that you can't play with fire without getting burned.

Jessy Jahnke*Police officer

Growing up with two older siblings in the Steilshoop district of Hamburg, Jessy Jahnke learned to be strong, both physically and emotionally.

Although her quick temper is not always an asset as a police officer, she is determined to prove herself. And after a difficult start, Jessy's fiery personality endears her to her colleagues, including Ms Küppers.
