The Photography
Mill

WELL Hello there!

Two professional photographers make up the two halves of The Photography Mill, commonly known as Kayleigh & Tamsin, that's us! Kayleigh there on the left, and Tamsin on the right. We first met many moons ago working at a popular chain of portrait studios, and after a while we decided to join forces and open a photography studio of our own, we found the perfect spot for us down Mill Yard, Mill Street in Bedford - thus The Photography Mill was born!

If we haven't already had the pleasure of meeting, we'll give you a little flavour of what we're about as people, because we think it's important to be simpatico when working on your big day. First and foremost, it's safe to say we're foodies! Often sharing recipe ideas or trying out new places around town. We also really enjoy working on our home interiors, but honestly Tamsin is much more proactive about it, she must've been a handyman in a previous life. Other shared interests comprise of horror films, dogs (all dogs, any dogs), carbs and we are also rather partial to a lovely crisp Sauv Blanc!

DUAL Perspectives

We always come as a pair, a duo, a duet, bookends... you get the idea.

All of our packages include both of us, that means you'll always have two perspectives of your day!

For example, one of us (usually Tam), will be up the top with you during your ceremony and Kayleigh will be at the bottom of the aisle. Each ensuring that every aspect of your special day is captured, without the pitter patter of little photographer feet running up and down during your vows.

BLACK & white

Some images are just born to be in black and white.

Classic, elegant & timeless.

Black and white stands the tests of time, drawing on the atmosphere of the moment whilst adding a dramatic touch. You'll always have a sprinkling of artistic black and white portraits to complement your wedding photography gallery.

Being comfortable in front of the camera was a big thing for our wedding day, and both Tamsin and Kayleigh were a dream to be around, making us both feel at ease.

Our engagement shoot was a great introduction into seeing how the ladies work behind the camera and the instructions they would be giving us to get the best photos. Both were accommodating to helping make the day ours and getting some more interesting pictures.

The quality of the photos is outstanding, with friends and loved ones in awe of the photos sent through already. Looking forward to receiving the rest of the photos and reliving our special day.

Thank you from the bottom of our hearts for everything.

Story telling through imagery

Our objective is to create a visual narrative of your day as it unfolds. We focus on the real emotions of you and your guests.

Photographing genuine moments, enjoying canapés, belly laughing while sharing a joke, happy tears rolling down cheeks!

Unstaged and utterly authentic, naturally.

All in the Details

You have no doubt spent countless hours and particular care in curating all the beautiful little touches and decorative bits - invitation suites, floral arrangements, tablescapes, not to mention your personal accessories...

These things really set the tone of your wedding and after all that meticulous planning, we think they deserve some special attention, don't you?

GROUP Portraits

We love getting those gorgeous candid snaps, but we also understand the importance of the mantelpiece perfection that is group portraits. With this in mind, we take the time to cover as many or as little group shots as you like.

We'll discuss these in more detail with you before your big day, with some helpful pointers and tips for writing your list.

Not all of your must-have group portraits necessarily need to be a formal affair. These could be more relaxed, perhaps after your meal, with your nearest and dearest.

Your couple photos offer some time alone for just the two of you. That being said we'll only have you away from your guests for a few minutes at a time throughout the day. Leaving you to enjoy yourselves and stay in the moment.

We want our imagery to capture the essence of your day, and that years from now you can look back at these pictures and be transported back to that exact moment

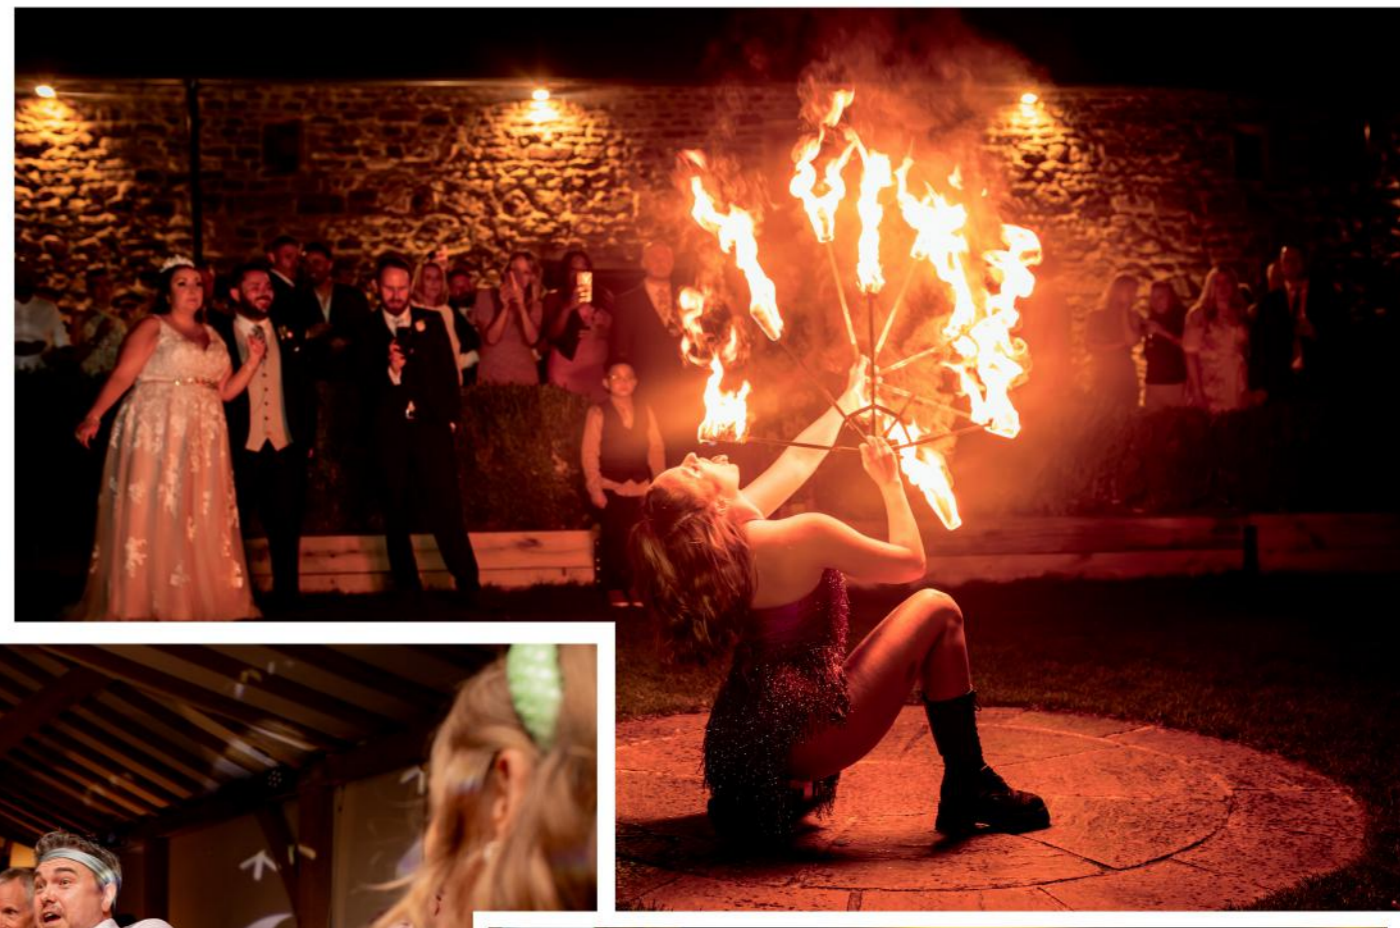

Later in the day, somewhere between the laughter and the dance-floor, we'll steal you both away for a few minutes as the sun begins to dip below the horizon, making the most of the glorious
