OVERVIEW

Embark on an unforgettable 10-day journey through Egypt, highlighted by the once-in-a-lifetime solar eclipse on 2 August 2027. Begin in Cairo exploring the capital's treasures before travelling by overnight train to Sohag to visit the iconic Temple of Abydos, one of ancient Egypt's most sacred sites and the legendary cult center of Osiris.

From Sohag, the journey continues south to Luxor, where the stage is set for the highlight of your adventure: the solar eclipse. Witnessing this rare celestial event over the timeless landscapes of Upper Egypt will be an awe-inspiring moment, uniting the wonders of nature with the grandeur of history.

Following the eclipse, you embark on your Nile cruise, sailing in comfort and style from Luxor to Aswan. Along the way, discover the great temples and monuments that line the riverbanks — the sprawling Karnak Temple Complex, the elegant Luxor Temple, and the royal tombs of the Valley of the Kings on the West Bank.

Continue your cruise with visits to the Temple of Horus at Edfu and the twin temple of Kom Ombo, before reaching Aswan to explore the High Dam, the Unfinished Obelisk, and the enchanting Philae Temple. An optional excursion to Abu Simbel showcases one of Egypt's greatest monuments. Conclude with an overnight train to Cairo and onward transfer to the airport, ending a journey that blends Egypt's timeless wonders with the rare beauty of a solar eclipse.

Return to Cairo by sleeper train and transfer to the airport, concluding a journey that unites Egypt's timeless wonders with the rare beauty of a solar

ITINERARY

July 30: Arrival in Cairo

Upon arrival in Cairo you will be transferred to your hotel for a comfortable overnight stay, preparing for the adventure ahead.

July 31: Pyramids & Grand Egyptian Museum

Today, after breakfast, you will begin your adventure with a visit to the Grand Egyptian Museum — a landmark project that took Egypt over ten years to complete.

It houses the largest collection of Pharaonic treasures in the world, including the magnificent artefacts of Tutankhamun. Later, you will head to the Giza Plateau to enjoy lunch with spectacular views of the iconic Pyramids.

Afterwards, explore the Pyramids themselves and admire the enigmatic Sphinx.

In the evening, you will transfer to the railway station to board the overnight Egyptian sleeper train to Aswan.

Dinner will be served in your cabin, airline-style, as you travel south along the Nile Valley

July 30 – August 8, 2027

August 1: Sohag & Abydos Adventure
Your journey begins as you arrive at Sohag Railway Station and transfer directly to your floating hotel on the Nile. After enjoying breakfast onboard, set out on a full-day excursion into the heart of Upper Egypt's spiritual heritage.

Visit the atmospheric Red Monastery, with its vivid frescoes that still glow with color after more than a thousand years.

Continue onwards to the sacred Temple of Abydos, built by Seti I and revered as the holy center of Osiris worship.

After a day steeped in legend and history, return to your cruise for lunch and dinner, spending the night moored in Sohag.

August 2 - Arrival in Luxor & Eclipse Viewing

This morning, travel by private bus to Luxor, the city of pharaohs and legends. Here, a once-in-a-lifetime moment awaits as you witness the Total Solar Eclipse from the deck of your Nile Cruise, optional on a farm near by the ancient river providing a breathtaking stage for this celestial wonder. In the evening, settle into your cruise and step ashore to explore the illuminated Luxor Temple, glowing with history under the night sky. Return onboard for dinner and spend the night moored in Luxor.

August 3 - West Bank & Karnak, then Sailing South

Rise early to cross the Nile to Luxor's fabled West Bank, where the Valley of the Kings reveals the tombs of Egypt's mighty pharaohs.

Continue to the elegant Temple of Hatshepsut, a masterpiece of terraces rising from the desert cliffs, and pause before the towering Colossi of Memnon, silent guardians of the Theban necropolis. Returning to the East Bank, explore the awe-inspiring Karnak Temple, the largest religious complex of the ancient world.

In the afternoon, your cruise sets sail southward, gliding along the timeless river towards Edfu, where you spend the night onboard.

August 4 - Temples of Edfu & Kom Ombo

This morning, step ashore in Edfu to explore the grand Temple of Horus, one of the best-preserved sanctuaries in all of Egypt, where towering columns and intricate carvings still honor the falcon god.

As your ship continues its graceful journey along the Nile, you arrive at Kom Ombo, home to the remarkable twin temple dedicated to Sobek, the crocodile god, and Haroeris, the falcon god. Later, sail onwards to Aswan, where your cruise moors for the night beneath the southern skies.

August 5 - Highlights of Aswan

Begin the day in Aswan, where modern engineering meets ancient history.

Visit the monumental High Dam, before continuing to the vast quarries to see the Unfinished Obelisk, still lying in the rock as though its carvers had just stepped away.

Then sail to the enchanting island of Philae, where the Temple of Isis rises gracefully from the waters. In the afternoon, relax aboard a traditional felucca, under the golden Aswan sun.]

August 6 - Abu Simbel & Return to Cairo

Rise before dawn for an optional but unforgettable journey to the awe-inspiring temples of Abu Simbel, carved by Ramses II and guarded for eternity by colossal statues gazing over the desert.

This is one of Egypt's most magnificent monuments, and witnessing it is an experience not to be missed. In the evening, bid farewell to Aswan as you transfer to the station and board the sleeper train, settling in for an overnight journey back to Cairo.

August 7 --Historic Cairo & Cultural Farewell

After an early breakfast, you will arrive in Cairo, where you will be met at the railway station by your tour leader. He will escort you to your hotel for check-in.

In the afternoon, enjoy a guided tour of Al-Muizz Street, famous for its stunning mosques and Islamic architecture. The tour will conclude with your final shopping stop at the vibrant Khan El Khalili Bazaar.

In the evening, you will have the option to enjoy an authentic dinner at Naguib Mahfouz Restaurant, named after the Nobel Prize-winning novelist and inspired by his famous work Zuqaq al-Midaq (Midaq Alley)

B.

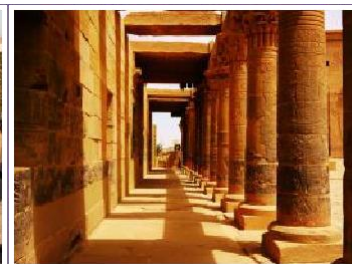

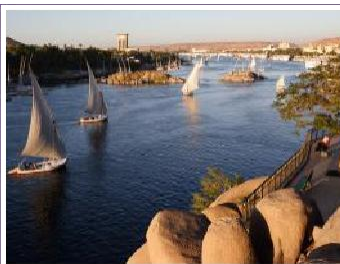

August 8 - Farewell Egypt

After breakfast, check out from your hotel and transfer to Cairo International Airport for your onward flight.

As you leave Egypt behind, carry with you not just souvenirs but a lifetime of memories — from standing in awe beneath the shadow of the total solar eclipse, to wandering among temples that have stood for millennia, to sailing the timeless waters of the Nile.

This remarkable journey has woven together ancient wonders, celestial marvels, and moments of personal discovery — a farewell to Egypt, but an adventure that will remain forever in your heart.

About MS Coral II 4★ Superior (Option 2)

Experience the perfect blend of comfort, elegance, and authentic Egyptian charm on the MS Coral II. Enjoy world-class dining in both the main restaurant and the rooftop à la carte venue, relax by the panoramic swimming pool, and browse the boutique shop for authentic treasures such as organic Egyptian cotton and local herbs. Evenings come alive with entertainment in the lounge bar, ensuring your journey is as memorable on board as it is ashore.

What makes MS Coral II truly special is its unique design: with a rare low draft (shared by less than 2% of Nile boats), it can navigate shallow stretches of the river, making it one of the few vessels able to complete the full Long Nile Cruise between Cairo and Aswan.

Accommodation includes 65 spacious cabins, spread across the main and upper decks, including 12 cabins of 12 m² and 4 luxurious suites of 24 m². Each cabin is equipped with modern comforts, including a private bathroom with shower and bathtub, hairdryer, satellite TV (while docked), mini-bar, in-room safe, and laundry service on request.

Facilities

- Elegant main restaurant with seating for up to 140 guests
- Stylish roof deck à la carte restaurant, overlooking the Nile – perfect for Lunch & special dinners and BBQ nights under the stars
- Panoramic swimming pool at the bow of the boat, offering spectacular views while sailing
- Elegant boutique shop, featuring unique souvenirs including authentic Egyptian organic cotton and local herbs
- Lounge bar with a variety of evening entertainment, making your nights on board as enjoyable as your days

Dining

The Coral II's main restaurant seats up to 140 guests in one sitting, serving international favourites and Egyptian specialities buffet-style for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. Your stay includes Full Board, with an optional All-Inclusive Drinks Package. Drinks are also available in the elegant lounge bar, perfect for unwinding in the evening.

The Rail Experience

Traveling by rail has its own special charm, especially when it carries a touch of classic elegance.

And what could be more enchanting than a journey to Ancient Egypt? It awakens memories of the great expeditions and discoveries of the past century, recalling the travels of writer Agatha Christie, explorer Howard Carter, and other legendary adventurers.

That's why our program includes travel between Cairo and Upper Egypt by Sleeper Train, adding a sense of authenticity and history to your journey. Fortunately, this year the Egyptian National Railways has renewed its trains, transforming them into an experience reminiscent of the classic carriages of old—while offering the highest standards of comfort.

Cabins are thoughtfully designed, and dining cars are crafted from luxurious ebony wood with rich, timeless tones.

A unique experience that completes your journey from the Pyramids to Aswan, echoing the footsteps of early travellers like Agatha Christie. Dinner and breakfast are served in your cabin in refined style, with drinks available in the café car at an extra charge

General Terms & Conditions

Middle East Travel Alliance is responsible for marketing, sales, and booking of all approved travel services. These terms and conditions apply to, but are not limited to: escorted and unescorted tours, train holidays, Nile cruises, car rentals, flight-inclusive packages, villa stays, and tailor-made vacations.

By completing a booking, the client acknowledges and accepts all terms and conditions listed below, unless the company provides written confirmation otherwise.

These terms apply to all bookings made through Amisol Travel Egypt's head office or any official regional office. If the booking is made through a partner or authorized agent, the partner's terms will apply, and the client will be informed at the time of booking.

1. Cancellation by the Client

If the client cancels the booking at any time from confirmation until departure, all payments made up to the date of cancellation are non-refundable, regardless of any special terms from service providers.

The lead traveler is responsible for ensuring they have adequate travel insurance covering cancellation for any reason.

2. No Show

If the traveler fails to join the trip, misses a flight, joins after the start, or leaves before the end of the trip, no refund will be granted. All cancellation requests must be made in writing and are only valid once confirmed in writing by the company.

3. Bookings via Service Providers

Any arrangements made on behalf of the client (such as flight tickets or other services) are subject to the booking and cancellation policies of airlines, tour operators, or service providers. However, the company reserves any deposit or booking fee paid by the client to cover administrative costs.

4. Limitation of Liability

The company accepts no liability for death, injury, loss, or damage to property except as required by law in the client's country of residence. If liability is proven, compensation is limited to the total booking value or the amount paid by the client minus the value of services already rendered.

5. Force Majeure

The company shall not be held responsible for any loss, damage, or expense incurred by the client due to illness, quarantine, weather conditions, war, strikes, civil unrest, or any circumstances beyond the company's control. In such cases, the company acts solely as an agent on behalf of the client.
