RM of Canaan No. 225 & RM of Coteau No. 255, SK

This offering presents a strong opportunity to acquire up to 562± acres of cultivated farmland across four individual parcels, all selling separately by online real estate auction. Located near Lucky Lake, Saskatchewan, these parcels are situated in an established agricultural region with excellent access and a proven history of crop production.

The land is primarily suited for crop production, featuring a high ratio of cultivated acres and SCIC-classified soils throughout. Parcels 1 (160± acres) and Parcel 2 (160.51± acres) offer efficient quarter-section layouts with access along or near Highway 42, making them well suited for modern grain operations. Parcel 3 (102.70± acres) consists of two titled parcels that have historically been farmed as part of a larger continuous field, allowing for efficient equipment movement and field operations.

Parcel 4 (138.66± acres), located in the RM of Coteau No. 255, includes irrigation infrastructure remaining on the land and may present specialty crop potential, such as berry farming, subject to approvals.

Whether purchased individually or in combination, this land package offers flexibility for producers, investors, or specialty growers looking to expand in a proven Saskatchewan farming area.
