Why We Reach Out

When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.

Because students can reach their friends with the Gospel.

Because we are called to reach out.

Because Jesus brings new life.

sion on them, because they were a shepherd. (Matthew 9:36)

Because teenagers need to be rescued from physical, emotional, and sexual abuse.

and to disciple others.

Because parents are called to be their kids'
primary spiritual influencers.

What People Have Said

"I can honestly say even including my ministry, there is no ministry you can invest in that will have a greater impact in young people's lives than investing in Reach Out."

-Josh McDowell, October 2020 at the "Reach Out Texas Celebration."

"Because Jesus-Focused Youth Ministry is 'Jesus specific,' not 'program specific,' it has worked with every age group to accomplish our objectives."

-Keith, Eagle Leader & Youth Pastor, Florida, USA

"Through Jesus-Focused Youth Ministry coaching, over 40 teenagers gave their lives to Christ last year. One church had no youth ministry. Now they have a team of six trained leaders discipling 20 new believers. The other church's youth ministry has doubled in size."

-Vova, Youth Leader, Kyiv, Ukraine

"JFYM is a game-changer in student ministry. We are casting vision to and investing in our leaders, and now they are investing in our students outside regularly-scheduled ministry, and those students are discipling their friends."

-Ryan, Youth Pastor, Texas, USA

"After every training, we are committed to go, share, make disciples and plant churches. Jesus-Focused Youth Ministry is the answer to the unreached community. In times of challenge and difficulty—even in a pandemic, we should not surrender, but move forward."

-Iwell Phiri, Country Leader, Mozambique
